This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1884.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1884, which is a leap year, there will be five eclipses, three of the Sun and two of the Moon.

I. A partial eclipse of the Sun, March 27th, invisible in America. The eclipse, which will be a small one, will be almost exclusively confined to Northern Europe.

II. A total eclipse of the Moon, April 10th, partly visible in various parts of the United States before the Moon sets in the morning. The eclipse will be total on the Pacific Coast, in the Pacific Ocean and in Asia. The times of the various phases are as follows:

	Eastern Time.	Central Time.	Mountain Time.	Pacific Time.
	A. M.	A. M.	A. M.	A. M.
Moon enters shadow	4:52	3:52	2:52	1:52
Total eclipse begins	6:00	5:00	4:00	3:00
Middle of totality	6:47	5:47	4:47	3:47
Total eclipse ends	7:33	6:33	5:33	4:33
Moon leaves shadow	8:41	7:41	6:41	5:41

III. A partial eclipse of the Sun, April 25th, invisible in America. The eclipse will be visible at the extreme points of South Africa and South America, and in the Southern Atlantic Ocean.

IV. A total eclipse of the Moon, October 4th, partly visible in the Atlantic States when the Moon rises. The total phase of the eclipse ends at 5h. 49m. p. m., and the Moon leaves the shadow at 6h. 49m. p. m., standard Eastern time. The eclipse will be seen as a total eclipse in Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Atlantic Ocean.

V. A partial eclipse of the Sun, October 18th, visible only in Alaska and adjoining parts of North America, Northeastern Asia, and the extreme Northern Pacific Ocean.

The Four Seasons.

Spring begins March 20, 12:12 a. m. — Autumn begins Sept. 22, 10:8 a. m.
Summer begins June 20, 7:55 p. m. — Winter begins Dec. 21, 5:4 a. m.

Morning Stars.	Evening Stars.
Venus, after July 11.	Venus, until July 11.
Mars, after Feb. 1.	Mars, until Feb. 1.
Jupiter, after Aug. 7.	Jupiter, until Aug. 7.
Saturn, after June 3.	Saturn, until June 3.

Planets Brightest.

Mercury, February 14, June 12, October 4, rising just before the Sun; also January 4, April 25, August 23, and December 17, setting just after the Sun. Venus, June 3 and August 17. Mars, February 1. Jupiter, January 19. Saturn, December 12.

Planetary Conjunctions.

Venus will be in conjunction with Neptune March 27, with Saturn April 12, with the Sun (inferior) July 11, with Mercury July 12, with Jupiter October 6, with Regulus October 7, with Uranus November 4.

Mars will be in conjunction with the Star Regulus May 31, with Neptune July 19, with Mercury December 4 and December 29.

Jupiter will be in conjunction with Mercury July 23, with the Sun August 7, and with Venus October 6.

Saturn will be in conjunction with Venus April 12, with the Sun June 3, with Mercury June 25.

Uranus will be in conjunction with the Star Beta Virginis July 30.

The Earth is in perihelion January 2, and aphelion June 30.

No important occultations will be visible at Washington during the year.

In the above table the time of the Moon's crossing the 75th meridian is given to the nearest minute for every day of the year in Standard Eastern time. To find the time when the Moon will cross each of the other Standard time meridians, add two minutes for each meridian west of the 75th. Thus, on January 1, the Moon crosses the 75th meridian at 3:39 p. m. It will, therefore, cross the 90th at 2:41 p. m., the 105th at 2:43 p. m., and the 120th at 2:45 p. m.

The time of the Moon's southing is particularly useful on the coast, in enabling sailors and others to foretell approximately the time of high water. Knowing the "establishment of the port," as it is called—that is, the average interval elapsing between the Moon's southing and the next high water, for any given locality—the time of high water is found by adding this establishment to the time of the Moon's southing. Thus, the establishment of the port of New-York being 8h. 00m., add to this the Moon's southing on January 1, 1:39 p. m., and the result, 10h. 39m. p. m., will be the time of high water on the evening of that day. This, it must be remembered, is only a rough approximation to the true time, but it will usually be found near enough for all practical purposes. Where the "establishment of the port" is not known it may be found by noting the time of high water after full Moon and deducting from it the time of the Moon's southing that day. And this establishment may be further corrected by ascertaining the differences in time between the Moon's southing and high water for a month, and taking the mean or average.

The Calendar.

The following calendar having been computed and stereotyped before the recent adoption of Standard time, the hours of the daily and other phenomena are given throughout in the local mean time of the places named. Due allowance must the efore be made for the difference between the Standard time and the local mean time of the locality. This difference must be added to the calendar time for all places west of the Standard time meridian, and subtracted from it for all places east, in order to give the correct time of the phenomena in Standard time. Thus New-York and Washington are on different sides of the 75th meridian, the former being 4 min. East and the latter 8 min. West. On January 1 the sun rises at New-York at 7:24 a. m, local or calendar time. Subtracting the difference, 4 min. and we have 7 h. 20 min. as the hour of sunrise at New-York, Standard Eastern time. At Washington on the same morning the sun rises at 7 h. 19 min. Adding 8 min. gives, 7 h. 7 min. as the hour of sunrise at Washington in Standard Eastern time. Similar corrections can readily be made for each locality.

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION, FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Chap. XCIII.—Mileage of officers of the Army shall be computed over the shortest usually traveled routes between the points named, and the necessity for such travel shall be certified to by the officer issuing the order. Retirements under the Navy Appropriation Act approved June 30, 1882, are in addition to those theretofore authorized by law. Officers shall only be assigned to duty or command according to their brevet rank when actually engaged in hostilities. Vacancies that may hereafter occur in the pay corps, in the grades of lieutenant colonel and major, shall not be filled by original appointment until the pay corps shall be reduced to forty paymasters, and the number of the pay corps shall then be established at forty and no more, and hereafter vacancies occurring in the Quartermaster's and Commissary's Departments may in the discretion of the President be filled from civil life. Hereafter no part of the sums appropriated for the Subsistence and Quartermaster's Departments shall be used or expended in the investigation of claims under the act of July 4, 1864, to provide for the payment of certain demands for quartermaster's stores and subsistence supplies furnished to the Army, and acts supplementary thereto.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. XCVII.—Hereafter only one-half of the vacancies in the various grades in the staff corps of the Navy shall be filled by promotion until such grades shall be reduced to the numbers fixed for the several grades by the act of August 5, 1882. * All officers of the Navy shall be credited with the actual time served as officers or enlisted men in the regular or volunteer Army or Navy, or both, and shall receive all the benefits of such actual service in all respects in the same manner as if all said service had been continuous and in the regular Navy in the lowest grade having graduated pay held by such officer since last entering the service. That the President is authorized and requested to select from the Army and Navy six officers, who shall constitute a board to examine and report which of the navy-yards or arsenals has the best location and is best adapted for the establishment of a government foundry, or what other method, if any, should be adopted for the manufacture of heavy ordnance adapted to modern warfare, the cost of all buildings, tools, and implements necessary in the manufacture thereof, including the cost of a steam-hammer or apparatus of sufficient size for the manufacture of the heaviest guns. For the construction of the steel cruiser of not less than 4,300 tons displacement now specially authorized by law, two steel cruisers of not more than 3,000 or less than 2,500 tons displacement each, and one dispatch boat, as recommended by the Naval Advisory Board in its report of December 20, 1882, $1,300,000 were appropriated. Hereafter no officer of the Navy shall be employed on any shore duty, except in cases specially provided by law, unless the Secretary of the Navy shall determine that the employment of an officer on such duty is required by the public interests, and he shall so state in the order of employment, and also the duration of such service, beyond which time it shall not continue.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. CXLI.—To enable the Secretary of War to remove all claims and pretensions in respect of the property in the State of Virginia known as Arlington, on which a cemetery for the burial of deceased soldiers of the United States has been established, and which property was taken by the United States for public use in the year 1864, $150,000 were appropriated; but this appropriation shall not be paid until the Attorney-General shall be satisfied, and so certify to the Secretary of War, that the deed or deeds to be given to the United States will convey a complete title and contain covenants of general warranty and covenants against every manner of claim against or in respect of said property, whether in rem or in personam, and also against all and every claim for damages in respect of, or the use and occupation of said property, and also a release by every person entitled of all claim for and to the amount bid, or any part thereof, in behalf of the United States, on the tax sale of said property. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to cause to be appraised, in such manner as may seem best, all vessels of the Navy which have been stricken from the Navy Register under the provisions of the act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883. And if the said Secretary shall deem it for the best interest of the United States to sell any such vessel or vessels, he shall, after such appraisal, advertise for sealed proposals for the purchase of the same, etc. —[Approved March 3, 1883.

CIVIL SERVICE ACT.

Chap. XXVII.—The President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, three persons, not more than two of whom shall be adherents of the same party, as Civil Service Commissioners, who shall hold no other official place under the United States. The President may remove any commissioner; and any vacancy in the position of commissioner shall be so filled by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, as to conform to said conditions for the first selection of commissioners. It shall be the duty of said commissioners to aid the President, as he may request, in preparing suitable rules for carrying this act into effect, and when said rules shall have been promulgated it shall be the duty of all officers of the United States in the departments and offices to which any such rules may relate to aid, in all proper ways, in carrying said rules, and any modifications thereof, into effect. And, among other things, said rules shall provide and declare, as nearly as the conditions of good administration will warrant, as follows:

First, For open, competitive examinations for testing the fitness of applicants for the public service now classified or to be classified hereunder. Such examinations shall be practical in their character, and so far as may be shall relate to those matters which will fairly test the relative capacity and fitness of the persons examined to discharge the duties of the service into which they seek to be appointed.

Second, That all the offices, places, and employments so arranged or to be arranged in classes shall be filled by selections according to grade from among those graded highest as the results of such competitive examinations.

Third, Appointments to the public service aforesaid in the departments at Washington shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia upon the basis of population as ascertained at the last preceding census. Every application for an examination shall contain, among other things, a statement, under oath, setting forth his or her actual bona fide residence at the time of making the application, as well as how long he or she has been a resident of such place.

Fourth, That there shall be a period of probation before any absolute appointment or employment aforesaid.

Fifth, That no person in the public service is for that reason under any obligations to contribute to any political fund, or to render any political service, and that he will not be removed or otherwise prejudiced for refusing to do so.

Sixth, That no person in said service has any right to use his official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body.

Seventh, There shall be non-competitive examination in all proper cases before the commission, when competent persons do not compete, after notice has been given of the existence of the vacancy, under such rules as may be prescribed by the commissioners as to the manner of giving notice.

Eighth, That notice shall be given in writing by the appointing power to said commission of the persons selected for appointment or employment from among those who have been examined, of the place of residence of such persons, of the rejection of any such persons after probation, of transfers, resignations and removals, and of the date thereof, and a record of the same shall be kept by said commission. And any necessary exceptions from said eight fundamental provisions of the rules shall be set forth in connection with such rules, and the reasons therefor shall be stated in the annual reports of the commission. Said commission shall, subject to the rules that may be made by the President, make regulations for, and have control of, such examinations, and, through its members or the examiners, it shall supervise and preserve the records of the same; and said commission shall keep minutes of its own proceedings. Said commission may make investigations concerning the facts, and may report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effects of said rules and regulations, and concerning the action of any examiner or board of examiners hereinafter provided for, and its own subordinates, and those in the public service, in respect to the execution of this act.

SECTION 6 limits the operation of the act to offices where the whole number of clerks and persons shall be altogether as many as fifty; and requires the various Executive Heads of Departments to arrange in classes the several clerks and persons employed in the respective offices underthem.

SEC. 7. That after the expiration of six months from the passage of this act no officer or clerk shall be appointed, and no person shall be employed to enter or be promoted in either of the said classes now existing, or that may be arranged hereunder pursuant to said rules, until he has passed an examination, or is shown to be specially exempted from such examination in conformity herewith. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to take from those honorably discharged from the military or naval service any preference conferred by the 1,754th section of the Revised Statutes, nor to take from the President any authority not inconsistent with this act conferred by the 1,753d section of said statutes; nor shall any officer not in the executive branch of the government, or any person merely employed as a laborer or workman, be required to be classified hereunder; nor, unless by direction of the Senate, shall any person who has been nominated for confirmation by the Senate be required to be classified or to pass an examination.

SEC. 8. That no person habitually using intoxicating beverages to excess shall be appointed to, or retained in, any office, appointment, or employment to which the provisions of this act are applicable.

SEC. 9. That whenever there are already two or more members of a family in the public service in the grades covered by this act, no other member of such family shall be eligible to appointment to any of said grades.

SEC. 10. That no recommendation of any person who shall apply for office or place under the provisions of this act which may be given by any Senator or member of the House of Representatives, except as to the character or residence of the applicant, shall be received or considered by any person concerned in making any examination or appointment under this act.

SEC. 11. That no Senator, or Representative, or Territorial Delegate of the Congress, or Senator, Representative, or Delegate elect, or any officer or employee of either of said houses, and no executive, judicial, military, or naval officer of the United States, and no clerk or employee of any department, branch or bureau of the executive, judicial, or military, or naval service of the United States, shall, directly or indirectly, solicit or receive, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting or receiving, any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political purpose whatever, from any officer, clerk, or employee of the United States, or any department, branch, or bureau thereof, or from any person receiving any salary or compensation from moneys derived from the Treasury of the United States.

SEC. 12. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States mentioned in this act, or in any navy-yard, fort, or arsenal, solicit in any manner whatever, or receive any contribution of money or any other thing of value for any political purpose whatever.

SEC. 13. No officer or employee of the United States mentioned in this act shall discharge, or promote, or degrade, or in any manner change the official rank or compensation of any other officer or employee, or promise or threaten so to do, for giving or withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or other valuable thing for any political purpose.

SEC. 14. That no officer, clerk, or other person in the service of the United States shall, directly or indirectly, give or hand over to any other officer, clerk, or person in the service of the United States, or to any Senator or member of the House of Representatives, or Territorial Delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the promotion of any political object whatever.

SEC. 15. That any person who shall be guilty of violating any provision of the four foregoing sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or by such fine and imprisonment both, in the discretion of the court.—[Approved January 16, 1883.

CLAIMS, ACT TO FACILITATE THE SETTLEMENT OF.

Chap. CXVI.—Whenever a claim or matter is pending before any committee of the Senate or House of Representatives, or before either house of Congress, which involves the investigation and determination of facts, the committee or house may cause the same to be transmitted to the Court of Claims of the United States, and the same shall there be proceeded in under such rules as the court may adopt. When the facts shall have been found, the court shall not enter judgment thereon, but shall report the same to the committee or to the house by which the case was transmitted for its consideration. That when a claim or matter is pending in any of the executive departments which may involve controverted questions of fact or law, the head of such department may transmit the same to said court, and the same shall be there proceeded in under such rules as the court may adopt. When the facts and conclusions of law shall have been found, the court shall not enter judgment thereon, but shall report its findings and opinions to the department by which it was transmitted for its guidance and action. The jurisdiction of said court shall not extend to or include any claim against the United States growing out of the destruction or damage to property by the Army or Navy during the war for the suppression of the rebellion, or for the use and occupation of real estate by any part of the military or naval forces of the United States in the operation of said forces during the said war at the seat of war; nor shall the said court have jurisdiction of any claim against the United States which is now barred by virtue of the provisions of any law of the United States. In any case of a claim for supplies or stores taken by or furnished to any part of military or naval forces of the United States for their use during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, the petition shall aver that the person who furnished such supplies or stores, or from whom such supplies or stores were taken, did not give any aid or comfort to said rebellion, but was throughout that war loyal to the government of the United States, and the fact of such loyalty shall be a jurisdictional fact; and unless the said court shall, on a preliminary inquiry, find that the person who furnished such supplies or stores, or from whom the same were taken as aforesaid, was loyal to the Government of the United States throughout said war, the court shall not have jurisdiction of such cause, and the same shall, without further proceedings, be dismissed. That in the trial of such cases no person shall be excluded as a witness because he or she is a party to or interested in the same.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

CUSTOMS, AND INTERNAL REVENUE.

Chap. VI.—Add to the act of May 4, 1882, "to repeal the discriminating duties on goods produced east of the Cape of Good Hope," these words: "And all such goods as may be in public store or warehouse on the first day of January, 1883, or on ship-board in port, shall be subject to no other duty than if imported after that day."—[Approved December 23, 1882.

Chap. XVII.—Grain brought into the United States in wagons or other ordinary road vehicles, by farmers residing in the Dominion of Canada, to be ground by mills owned by citizens of the United States, shall not be deemed to be imported or liable to import duties; Provided, That such grain shall be brought into the United States under such regulations as the Treasury Department may prescribe to prevent fraud and evasion, and shall be returned as in like manner provided by such regulations: And provided further, That entry shall be made of and duties paid upon all such grain as shall be taken or received by mill-owners as tolls for such grinding, under like regulations provided by the Treasury Department.—[Approved January 9, 1883.

Chap. LXIV.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons or corporation to import into the United States any merchandise for sale as tea, adulterated with spurious leaf or with exhausted leaves, or which contains so great an admixture of chemicals or other deleterious substances as to make it unfit for use; and the importation of all such merchandise is hereby prohibited. Other sections supply the details.—[Approved March 2, 1883.

Chap. CXXXIII.—Section 4,214 of the Revised Statutes is amended so as to read as follows: "The Secretary of the Treasury may cause yachts used and employed exclusively as pleasure vessels or designed as models of naval architecture, if built and owned in compliance with the provisions of sections 4,132 to 4,135, to be licensed on terms which will authorize them to proceed from port to port of the United States, and by sea to foreign ports, without entering or clearing at the custom house; such license shall be in such form as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The owner of any such vessel shall give a bond that the vessel shall not engage in any trade, nor in any way violate the revenue laws of the United States, and shall comply with the law in all other respects. All charges for license and inspection fees for any pleasure vessel or yacht shall not exceed five dollars, and for admeasurement shall not exceed ten cents per ton.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. XVI.—Section 3,362, as amended by the act of March 1, 1879, is amended by inserting after the words "or for export," and before the word "under such restrictions" in the second provision of said section, the following words: "And perique tobacco may be sold by the manufacturer or producer thereof, in the form of carrottes, directly to a legally qualified manufacturer, to be cut or granulated and used as material in the manufacture of cigarettes or smoking-tobacco, without the payment of tax."—[Approved Jan. 9, 1883.

Chap. XXIV.—Section 3,385, as amended by the act of June 9, 1880, is amended by adding, after the words "shall be canceled" where they first occur therein the following words: "But when the goods are exported to an adjacent foreign territory, by vessel or otherwise, said bonds shall be canceled upon such proofs of exportation as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury."—[Approved January 13, 1883.

Chap. CXXI.—The taxes herein specified imposed by the laws now in force are hereby repealed, as hereinafter provided, namely: On capital and deposits of banks, bankers, and National banking associations, except such taxes as are now due and payable, and on and after the first day of July, 1883, the stamp tax on bank checks, drafts, orders, and vouchers, and the tax on matches, perfumery, medicinal preparations, and other articles imposed by Schedule A following section 3,437 of the Revised Statutes.

On and after the first day of May, 1883, dealers in leaf tobacco shall annually pay $12; dealers in manufactured tobacco shall pay $2 40; all manufacturers of tobacco shall pay $6; manufacturers of cigars, $6; peddlers of tobacco, snuff, and cigars shall pay special taxes, as follows: Peddlers of the first class, as now defined by law, $30; peddlers of the second class, $15; peddlers of the third class, $7·20; peddlers of the fourth class, $3 60. Retail dealers in leaf tobacco shall pay $250, and thirty cents for each dollar on the amount of their monthly sales in excess of the rate of $500 per annum: Provided, That farmers and producers of tobacco may sell at the place of production tobacco of their own growth and raising at retail directly to consumers, to an amount not exceeding $100 annually. The special tax of a dealer in manufactured tobacco shall not be required from any farmer, planter, or lumberman who furnishes such tobacco only as rations or supplies to his laborers or employees in the same manner as other supplies are furnished by him to them: Provided, That such person shall not be, at the time he is furnishing such supplies, engaged in the general business of selling dry goods, groceries, or other similar supplies in the manner of a merchant or storekeeper to others than his own employees or laborers.

On and after May 1, 1883, the internal taxes on snuff, smoking and manufactured tobacco, shall be 8 cents per pound; and on cigars which shall be manufactured and sold or removed for consumption or sale on and after May 1, 1883, there shall be collected the following taxes: On cigars of all descriptions, made of tobacco or any substitute therefor, $3 per thousand; on cigarettes weighing not more than 3 pounds per thousand, 50 cents per thousand; on cigarettes weighing more than 3 pounds per thousand, $3 per thousand.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

For new rates of "Duties upon Imports," see special tabular statement ante.

INDIANS.

Chap. LXI.—The President may, in his discretion, consolidate two or more agencies into one, and where Indians are located on reservations created by executive order, he may, with the consent of the tribes to be affected thereby, expressed in the usual manner, consolidate one or more tribes, and abolish such agencies as are thereby rendered unnecessary; and preference shall at all times, as far as practicable, be given to Indians in the employment of clerical, mechanical, and other help on reservations and about agencies.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

PENSIONS.

Chap. LVIII.—Any pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment, or transfer of any right, claim, or interest in any pension which has been, or may hereafter be, granted, shall be void and of no effect, and any person who shall pledge, or receive as a pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment or transfer of any right, claim, or interest in any pension, or pension certificate, which has been, or may hereafter be granted or issued, or who shall hold the same as collateral security for any debt, or promise, or upon any pretext of such security, or promise, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $100 and the costs of the prosecution; and any person who shall retain the certificate of a pensioner and refuse to surrender the same upon the demand of the Commissioner of Pensions, or a United States pension agent, or any other person authorized by the Commissioner of Pensions, or the pensioner, to receive the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $100 and the costs of the prosecution.—[Approved February 28, 1883.

Chap. XCI.—From and after the passage of this act all persons on the pension-roll, and all persons hereafter granted a pension, who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall have lost one hand or one foot, or been totally or permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to render their incapacity to perform manual labor equivalent to the loss of a hand or a foot, shall receive a pension of $24 per month; that all persons now on the pension-roll, and all persons hereafter granted a pension, who in like manner shall have lost either an arm at or above the elbow, or a leg at or above the knee, or shall have been otherwise so disabled as to be incapacitated for performing any manual labor, but not so much as to require regular personal aid and attendance, shall receive a pension of $30 per month: Provided, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to repeal section 4,699 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or to change the rate of $18 per month therein mentioned to be proportionately divided for any degree of disability established for which section 4,695 makes no provision.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

POST OFFICE.

Chap. XCII.—Upon all matter of the first class, as defined by chapter 180 of the laws of Congress approved March 3, 1879, entitled "An act making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes," and by that act declared subject to postage at the rate of 3 cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof, postage shall be charged, on and after October 1, 1883, at the rate of 2 cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof; and all acts, so far as they fix a different rate of postage than herein provided upon such first-class matter, are, to that extent, hereby repealed. —[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. CXXIII.—Authorizes the issue at money-order Post Offices of "postal notes" for sums under $5, for a fee of 3 cents, said "notes" to be payable to bearer when duly receipted at any money-order office which the remitter may select, or at the office of issue, but it shall become invalid upon the expiration of three calendar months from the last day of the month during which it was issued. A money-order shall not be issued for more than $100, and fees for money-orders shall be:

For orders not exceeding $10, eight cents.

For orders exceeding $10 and not exceeding $15, ten cents.

For orders exceeding $15 and not exceeding $30, fifteen cents.

For orders exceeding $30 and not exceeding $40, twenty cents.

For orders exceeding $40 and not exceeding $50, twenty-five cents.

For orders exceeding $50 and not exceeding $60, thirty cents.

For orders exceeding $60 and not exceeding $70, thirty-five cents.

For orders exceeding $70 and not exceeding $80, forty cents.

For orders exceeding $80 and not exceeding $100, forty-five cents.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

PUBLIC LANDS.

Chap. CI.—The fees allowed registers and receivers for testimony reduced by them to writing for claimants, in establishing pre-emption and homestead rights and mineral entries, and in contested cases, shall not be considered or taken into account in determining the maximum of compensation of said officers. That registers and receivers shall, upon application, furnish plats or diagrams of townships in their respective districts showing what lands are vacant and what lands are taken, and shall be allowed to receive compensation therefor from the party obtaining said plat or diagram at such rates as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and said officers shall, upon application by the proper State or Territorial authorities, furnish, for the purpose of taxation, a list of all lands sold in their respective districts, together with the names of the purchasers, and shall be allowed to receive compensation for the same not to exceed 10 cents per entry; and the sums thus received for plats and lists shall not be considered or taken into account in determining the maximum of compensation of said officers.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. CII.—The fourth section of the act donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, approved July 2, 1862, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 4. That all moneys derived from the sale of lands aforesaid by the States to which the lands are apportioned, and from the sales of land-scrip hereinbefore provided for, shall be invested in stocks of the United States or of the States, or some other safe stocks; or the same may be invested by the States having no State stocks, in any other manner after the Legislatures of such States shall have assented thereto, and engaged that such funds shall yield not less than 5 per centum upon the amount so invested, and that the principal thereof shall forever remain unimpaired; Provided, That the moneys so invested or loaned shall constitute a perpetual fund, the capital of which shall remain forever undiminished (except so far as may be provided in section five of this act), and the interest of which shall be inviolably appropriated, by each State which may take and claim the benefit of this act, to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college where the leading object shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such manner as the Legislatures of the States may respectively prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life."—[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. CXVIII.—Within the State of Alabama all public lands, whether mineral or otherwise, shall be subject to disposal only as agricultural lands: Provided, however, That all lands which have heretofore been reported to the General Land Office as containing coal and iron shall first be offered at public sale: And provided further, That any bona fide entry under the provisions of the homestead law of lands within said State heretofore made may be patented without reference to an act approved May 10, 1872, entitled "An act to promote the development of the mining resources of the United States," in cases where the persons making application for such patents have in all other respects complied with the homestead law relating thereto.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

Chap. CXXII.—In all cases where lands reduced in price to $1 25 per acre by the act of June 15, 1880, but which have not been offered at public sale at such reduced price, were inadvertently sold at private entry by the officers of the Land Department between the date of the passage of said act and the date of the receipt at the local offices of the instructions of the Commissioner of the General Land Office relative thereto of October 10, 1881, the entries so inadvertently permitted to be made by innocent purchasers, and which are regular in all respects except as to time of entry, shall be confirmed as of the dates of entry, respectively: Provided, however, That no valid adverse claim to any of such lands had attached prior to the date of such entry.—[Approved March 3, 1883.

TERRITORIES.

Chap. CXXXIV.—The fourth clause of section 1960 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Fourth. No person belonging to the Army or Navy shall be elected to or hold any civil office or appointment in any Territory, except officers of the Army on the retired list."—[Approved March 3, 1883.

PARTY PLATFORMS, 1883.

Iowa Republican, June 27.

6. That stability is desirable in such public policies as relate to and affect all productive industries; and we condemn the threat of the Iowa Democracy to disturb and keep at unrest said industries and the capital and labor employed therein by "gradual and persistent efforts" to so change the customs laws as to establish free trade; and we insist upon such revenue laws as will encourage American industries and protect American labor in order that the American working men shall have a fair day's wages for a fair day's work, and tend to assure permanent employment.

7. That the inability of the Democratic party during the six years that it held undisputed control of the House of Representatives of Congress to agree on legislation for the revision of the tariff and the reform of the civil service, notwithstanding both subjects were constantly and prominently present in its platform promises and campaign activities, and the passage of laws affecting both of said objects by the Republican Congress at its late session demonstrates anew the incapacity of the former to deal with questions of great public concern, and that the country must rely on the latter for practical legislation.

Iowa Democratic, June 6.

2. That we denounce the abuse of the civil service of the Government, State or National, inaugurated and perpetuated by the Republican party, and we favor the extension of civil service reform in every department of the Government.

4. That we favor a tariff for revenue only by a gradual but persistent reduction of protective duties; and we denounce the tariff legislation of the last Congress as the result of corrupt and disgraceful intrigues and shameless attempts to perpetuate existing evils under the pretence of tariff reform.

Kentucky Republican.

3. That we favor the adjustment of a tariff that will not only provide a revenue sufficient to defray the expenses of the Government, but afford a just and reasonable protection to the industrial classes of our country without being oppressive to the agricultural and other interests of our people.

Kentucky Democratic, May 17.

3. That our laws in relation to revenue and taxation should be so framed as to secure equality in rate of assessments as nearly as possible, and to insure the collection of revenue in the most convenient and inexpensive manner.

Massachusetts Republican, Sept. 19.

We believe in equal rights and a fairly counted vote, a thoroughly pure and reformed Civil Service beyond the reach of party conflicts, a sound currency based on an honest specie dollar, a liberal, but in no wise extravagant or wasteful, expenditure, a largely reduced taxation, and wise and well-matured laws to protect and develop American industry and enterprise, both at home and on the ocean.

Massachusetts Democratic, Sept. 26.

We believe in a thorough reform in the Civil Service, in which fitness, not favor, shall regulate appointments, and in a tariff limited in amount to the sum necessary and adequate for revenue.

Minnesota Republican, June 28.

We believe in maintaining a system of internal revenue levied upon articles of luxury, such as whiskey and tobacco, together with a system of duties on imports, so applied as to provide revenue for the necessary expenses of the Government, and so adjusted as to encourage the development of the manufacturing and labor interests of the whole country.

Minnesota Democratic, August 3.

We favor such a thorough revision of the present tariff laws as will remedy existing evils and result in the establishment of a tariff for revenue only as the permanent commercial policy of this country.

New-Jersey Republican, Sept. 18.

3. We congratulate the country upon the successful application of the principles of genuine Civil Service Reform in the National Administration, and favor the adoption of the system in all branches of our State government.

4. We believe that the prosperity and happiness of our own people are of paramount importance, and therefore we insist upon a tariff so adjusted as to give full protection to home labor and industry, and sufficient to develop all the resources of the country, and favor such wise and proper State legislation as will protect honest labor from unfair competition.

New-Jersey Democratic, Sept. 13.

They believe in that genuine and deep-reaching Civil Service Reform which consists in the election to office of honest, intelligent, capable and courageous public servants, who will faithfully administer their trust, and who will be held to strict accountability for such discharge of it. They denounce the sham methods of the Civil Service Commission in its pretended examination of candidates for place, together with the disgraceful system of bargain and sale of office, which is now practised by the Federal Government, as shown by the abuse of patronage in Virginia and other States.

2. We favor a tariff for revenue, limited to the necessary expenditures of the Government, and so adjusted as to give protec tion and encouragement to home productive industry and labor, without producing or fostering monopolies.

New-York Republican, Sept. 19.

The Republicans of New-York in State Convention hold that the record of the Republican party in the past affords the best guaranty of the party's purposes and acts in the future. The preservation of the Nation's life, the extension of freedom and equal rights to embrace all, the keeping of the National faith, the promotion of the National credit, the payment of the public debt, the reduction of taxation, the protection of home industries, the elevation of labor, the purification of the Civil Service, and in fine, the administrative policy based upon wise legislation that has given unexampled prosperity to the country and promoted the happiness and progress of the people, are achievements that commend the Republican party to continued popular favor.

We rejoice in the wisdom and success of President Arthur's administration of the affairs of Government, which commands universal respect throughout the country, and has the confidence and support of the Republicans of the State of New-York. Our Senators and Representatives in Congress have our thanks for their part in the reduction of internal taxation to the extent of $40,000,000, while the National credit is kept unsullied, the public debt is being steadily reduced, and the defenders of the National life are justly the recipients of a grateful republic's bounty. We approve honesty and fidelity in Governmental expenditures, the reduction of interest on the public debt, and the payment of the debt as rapidly as may be without unduly burdening the people; the bringing of taxation within the lowest practicable limits; the reduction of the force of public officials to the lowest number consistent with the requirements of the service, and the adoption of every practical means that will diminish the burdens of taxation.

We rejoice in the successful inauguration of Civil Service Reform, a result of Republican agitation and National progress, and insist that the work thus auspiciously begun shall be prosecuted to complete success.

We favor a system of tariff laws under which, while revenue for the Government is provided, American producers are justly protected, American labor elevated, and home markets are secured to home products for the advantage alike of the producer and laborer.

We favor the removal of all unjust burdens upon American shipping and the awarding of ocean mail contracts to the lowest bidders among owners of American vessels after open competition.

We favor the establishment by Congress of a national bureau of labor statistics with the object of promoting the industrial, social and sanitary conditions of the people.

We favor the surrounding of the primary meetings as well as the popular election with the security of honesty and purity, as indispensable requisites to correct political action.

The tendency to create monopolies requires checking by adequate legislation. Unjust discrimination in transportation should be prohibited, and violation of chartered privileges justifies the interference of the State to correct the evils thus engendered.

Taxation should be equalized, and its burdens be borne proportionately by real and personal property; and the policy of the taxation of corporations is approved on the test of its practical operation.

The free canal policy of this State has in practice justified its adoption, by restoring the canals to their usefulness, by bringing to the State increased commerce, by assuring to it the continuance of commercial supremacy.

We approve the plan of party reorganization in the city of New-York, and recommend that it be persisted in to the end that it shall embrace all Republicans in the city on equal terms and footing.

We believe in the wisdom of the people in deciding all questions pertaining to the public welfare, and would accede to the desire of a large body of our citizens to submit to the voters of the State a constitutional amendment in regard to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Democratic incapacity and inability to administer government are demonstrated in the conduct of the late Legislature, where a two-thirds Democratic majority was false to its pledges and to public interests. The reckless partisanship and insatiate greed for office of the Democratic party brought it into public contempt. Its special legislation to make places for partisans and its increase of the salary list to reward favorites brought upon it public execration. Its utter disregard of important public interests and its increase of State taxation are offences not to be condoned. The course pursued in its cowardly attempt to evade the responsibility of affirmative action on the convict labor question, and to shirk the issue directly presented in the platform of the last Democratic State Convention, has earned the distrust of the taxpayer and the contempt of the workingman.

It is the duty of the people to rescue the Legislature from the control of an incompetent and faithless party and from being the sport of place-hunters and spoilsmen, and to secure a continuance of economical, efficient and satisfactory administration of State departments by the election of the ticket of State officers this day placed in nomination.

New-York Democratic, Sept. 27.

The Democracy of New-York reaffirms the platform adopted at its last State Convention, which has received the approval of the people, as shown by a majority of nearly 200,000 at the last election, and they especially denounce the proposition that the people should be taxed to raise a surplus fund for the Federal Government to distribute among the States. We claim with pride and satisfaction that every pledge therein made has been in good faith redeemed; valuable reforms have been wrought; useless offices have been abolished; the Civil Service has been freed from the debasing and injurious influences of partisan manipulation; the freedom and purity of primaries have been secured; political assessments have been abolished; receivership abuses have been corrected; the principle of local self-government has been adhered to; the efficiency of the National Guard has been increased; taxation for the support of Government has been reduced; a State Bureau of Labor Statistics has been established; the rights of the workingman have been further protected, and the injurious competition of convict labor has been curtailed; business methods have been the rule in the management of State affairs.

On the record thus made, and to which it will steadfastly adhere, the Democratic party asks a renewed award of the confidence of the people. We invite with reason all friends of improved State administration, irrespective of party, to join with the Democracy in preserving and perfecting the reforms in progress and in extending them to all branches of the State service.

We heartily indorse Governor Cleveland's administration. It justifies the great vote which elected him. He has deservedly won the affection of the people by his industry, firmness, intelligence and aggressive honesty. The results make his administration one of the best the State ever had.

Ohio Republican, June 6.

2. That the Republican party believe now, as in the past, in the maintenance of a tariff system which will provide a revenue for the Government, and at the same time will protect American producers and American labor; that it is opposed to the Democratic doctrine of "a tariff for revenue only," because such a doctrine, if indorsed, would of necessity compel American workmen to accept the unremunerative wages which are paid their foreign rivals. It looks with alarm upon the purpose already avowed by the Democratic leaders that the next Congress will revise the tariff by further reducing the duties on imports.

3. That the wool tariff of 1876 should be restored at the first possible opportunity.

10. That we reiterate the declarations of previous Republican conventions in favor of Civil Service Reform, and welcome every intelligent effort to make that measure practical; and we especially approve the provisions made by a Republican Congress for giving the patriotic soldiers of the late war, with the proper qualifications, the preference for all places under the Government.

Ohio Democratic, June 21.

2. We favor a tariff for revenue, limited to the necessities of the Government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

3. The act of the Republican Congress, reducing the tariff on wool, while at the same time increasing it on woolen goods, already highly protected, was iniquitous legislation, discriminating in favor of monopoly and against the agricultural interests of the country, and ought to be corrected, and we heartily approve the action of the Democratic members of the Ohio delegation in Congress in voting against that measure.

7. We reaffirm the resolutions of the State Conventions of Ohio in 1880, 1881, and 1882, and of the Democratic National Conventions of 1872, 1876, and 1880, demanding a thorough reform and purification of the Civil Service, and charge that the Republican party has violated every pledge it has heretofore given for the reform thereof, and has failed during its long administration of the Government to correct even the most crying abuses; and we demand, therefore, a change in the executive administration of the Government itself, as the reform first of all necessary (as made still more manifest by the recent Star-Route trials), thereby ousting corrupt rings, confederated to protect crime and prevent the punishment of criminals, and by so doing to make it possible again to punish fraud and theft in the public service.

Pennsylvania Republican, July 11.

1. We unqualifiedly approve and demand the continuance of that system of protection to home industry which has proved itself to be the basis of National independence, the incentive to industrial skill and development, and the guaranty of a just and adequate scale of wages for labor; and we denounce all attempts to reduce the rates of the tariff below the level which will accomplish these objects.

2. That any surplus in the public Treasury arising from a redundant revenue should, after paying the National debt as fast as its conditions permit, be distributed from time to time to the several States upon the basis of population, to relieve them from the burdens of local taxation and provide means for the education of their people.

7. We commend every effort to inaugurate thorough and correct Civil Service reform in all the departments of the National and State administrations.

Pennsylvania Democratic, August 11.

They believe in that genuine and deep-reaching civil service reform which consists in the election to office of honest, intelligent, capable and courageous public servants, who will faithfully administer their trust and who will be held to strict accountability for such a discharge of it, and who will redeem and purge the departments of the General Government from that corruption and fraud with which they have been permeated under Republican rule and which that party has shown itself unable and unwilling to eradicate. They believe in such taxation of the people as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, and that import duties should be so adjusted in their application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

2. They denounce the proposition of the Republican Party that the people should be taxed to raise a surplus fund for the Federal Government to distribute among States. The people should only be taxed so much as is absolutely indispensable for the frugal conduct of their affairs, not one cent for surplus and no unnecessary taxation. The existing surplus in the Treasury should be faithfully applied to the payment of the public debt. The money not needed for the expenses of the Government should remain in the pockets of the people.

3. To this end we favor the entire abolition of the present system of the internal taxation as a measure of relief demanded by the people from an unnecessary and unequal burden.

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS.

* 11.65 per cent. † 88.35 per cent. Of total stock over 80 per cent earned a profit and nearly 20 per cent earned none.

The actual assets for the whole system amount to $5,536,419,787 74, and the actual liabilities to $5,425,722,559 54; which leaves $110,697,228 20 as actual profit and loss to credit for the combined roads.

The permanent investments amount to nearly 94 per cent of the total actual assets, against which the actual liabilities show about 92 per cent of capital stock paid in and funded debt, the first being 48 per cent, and the latter near 44 per cent of such liabilities.

The unfunded debt is near 8 per cent of total liabilities, and is offset by nearly 7 per cent of cash assets and the excess of permanent investments over amount of stock and funded debt, which is over 3 per cent of total.

The following table shows the average (cost, value and amounts) per mile of road completed and operated, of assets and liabilities, earnings, income, expenses, profits, dividends and balance retained:

* This amount includes funds expended upon partly completed miles of road under construction. It was impracticable to obtain from railroad companies the respective amounts paid out for an exact number of miles entirely completed.

There are 1,176 companies in the United States which report an aggregate capital stock (paid in) amounting to $2,613,606,264, of which 623 have earned a net income of profit upon their stock. The remaining 553 companies earned no profit whatever, and 373 of the latter created deficits, or had their income balanced by expenditures, and 180 companies had not yet commenced operations, their roads being under construction etc.

The net income or profit available for dividends upon the stock of these 623 companies ($2,103,038,246, or 80 per cent of the aggregate for the United States), amounting to $132,989,336, is an average profit of 6 32 per cent upon the dollar.

The balance of stock is that which bears no profit, and amounts to $510,538,018, or near 20 per cent of the aggregate. Of this amount $444,905,903 are stock of companies having deficits, or having their income balanced by expenses, and $60,632,115 are stock of companies whose roads were under construction.

POSTAGE TABLES.

Rates of Postage, United States.

FIRST-CLASS—Letters and all other written matter, whether sealed or unsealed, and all other matter, sealed, nailed, sewed, tied, or fastened in any manner so that it cannot be easily examined, 2 cents per half ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards, 1 cent each. Postal cards are unmailable with any writing or printing on the address side, except the direction, or with anything pasted upon or attached to them. Exception: A printed label may be used in lieu of manuscript address.

SECOND-CLASS—Only for publishers and news agents.

THIRD-CLASS—Printed matter, in unsealed wrappers only, (all matter inclosed in notched envelopes must pay letter rates), 1 cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, which must be fully prepaid. This includes books, circulars, chromos, engravings, hand-bills, lithographs, magazines, music, newspapers, pamphlets, proof-sheets and manuscript accompanying the same, reproductions by the electric pen, hektograph, metallograph, papyrograph, and, in short, any reproduction upon paper. Limit of weight four pounds, except for a single book, which may weigh more.

NOTE—Productions by copying press or the type-writer are first-class.

FOURTH CLASS—All mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily withdrawn from the wrapper and examined. Rate, 1 cent per ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight, four pounds. Full prepayment compulsory. Labels, patterns, photographs, playing cards, visiting cards, address tags, paper sacks, wrapping paper with advertisements printed thereon, bill heads, letter heads, envelopes and other matter of the same general character, the printing upon which is not designed to instruct, amuse, cultivate the mind or taste or impart general information, are articles of merchandise, and rate as fourth-class matter.

UNMAILABLE.

Obscene books, letters, papers, pictures and postal cards; lottery circulars and letters; liquids, gunpowder and other explosives; live animals, poisons, and any article liable to injure the mails or the persons of those handling them.

PERMISSIBLE WRITING.

No writing is permitted on third or fourth class matter except as follows: The name and address of sender on the outside or inside of package, preceded by the word "from." On the wrapper may also be written the names and number of articles inclosed. The sender is further allowed to mark a word or passage in a book or paper to which he desires to call special attention. He may also write a simple inscription or dedication upon the cover or blank leaves of a book or pamphlet. There may be attached to articles of merchandise, by tag or label, a mark, number, name, or letter for purpose of identification. Printed circulars may contain the written names of the sender and addressee, with the date. Any other writing on third or fourth class matter will subject the package to letter rates of postage, and render the sender liable to a fine of $10 for each offence.

RATES OF POSTAGE TO CANADA.

[The Dominion of Canada embraces all the British North American Provinces except Newfoundland.]

LETTERS AND POSTAL CARDS—Same rates and conditions of prepayment of postage as for domestic letters and postal cards.

OTHER MATTER—Same rates and conditions of transmission as for matter for delivery within the United States, except that MERCHANDISE IS RIGIDLY EXCLUED. Samples of merchandise are mailable, but they must not exceed eight ounces in weight, and are subject to a postage of 10 cents each. They must also be strictly specimens of goods for sale.

TO OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The limit of dimensions and weight for parcels addressed to foreign countries is not uniform. For example, to Belgium, France, Great Britain and Switzerland the maximum weight for samples of merchandise is 12 ounces, and the limit of size is 12x8x4 inches; while to Austria, Germany, Prussia, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and other countries of the Postal Union the maximum size is 8x4x2 inches, and the weight is limited to $8\frac{3}{4}$ ounces.

Necessary to adopt a Constitutional Amendment				360656

The two propositions were in this form: The "additional section" in Section 18 of the schedule shall be repealed, and a substitution of one or other of these two propositions: "The General Assembly shall regulate the traffic in intoxicating liquors so as to provide against evils resulting therefrom; and its power to levy taxes or assessments thereon is not limited by any provision of this constitution."

"The manufacture of and the traffic in intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage are forever prohibited; and the General Assembly shall provide by law for the enforcement of this provision."

An amendment relating to the judicial system was adopted. Yeas, 400922; nays, 141636.

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

ALABAMA—July 3, 1883, Hon. James T. Jonas was elected to succeed, in XLVIIIth Congress, Hon. Thomas H. Herndon, deceased, by a vote of 6,413 to 1,499 for Philip Joseph.

CONNECTICUT—A Constitutional Amendment to provide for biennial sessions, passed the last Legislature and if approved by two-thirds of the next, will be submitted to vote.

DAKOTA—There was a majority of 5,552 in favor of the new Constitution, proposing to erect into a new State that part of the Territory which lies south of the forty-sixth parallel of latitude.

DELAWARE—Three Constitutional Amendments passed the last Legislature, and, if approved by two-thirds of the next, will become valid. Amendment I. enlarges the powers of the Legislature to create corporations. Amendment II. gives each county four Senators, Wilmington to elect two of New-Castle County's four; and gives Kent and Sussex seven members of the House each, and New-Castle eleven, of whom Wilmington will elect four. Amendment III. modifies the judicial system.

GEORGIA—James S. Boynton qualified as Governor March 5, 1883, succeeding Alexander H. Stephens, died March 4. April 24 Henry D. McDaniel was elected Governor by a vote of 23,680; scattering, 334. The Legislature, at its August session, passed a general local option law.

ILLINOIS—A Constitutional Amendment to give the Governor power to veto items in a general appropriation bill without invalidating the other portions of the bill has passed the Legislature, and is to be submitted to popular vote in 1884.

John M. Hamilton became Governor February 6, 1883, succeeding Shelby M. Cullom, elected U. S. Senator.

INDIANA—January 9, 1883, Charles T. Doxey was chosen to succeed in XLVIIth Congress Godlove S. Orth, deceased, by a vote of 13,651 to 11,948 for Thomas B. Ward.

The Legislature of 1880 having passed a proposed Prohibitory Amendment, in the Legislature of 1882, the Senate voted—yeas 25, nays 23—January 29, 1883, that this amendment, not having been entered on the journal of the previous Senate, as required by the Constitution, was not properly before the body. February 6, the House voted—yeas 52, nays 35—that the amendment was properly before it. There having been no affirmative concurrent action of the two bodies, the amendment fell.

IOWA—November 5, 1883, Hon. John C. Cook was chosen to succeed, in XLVIIIth Congress, Hon. Marsena E. Cutts, deceased, by a vote of 14,894 to 14,653 for W. Stiles; scattering, 9.

The Supreme Court decided that the Prohibitory Amendment to the Constitution, approved by the people June 27, 1882, was not adopted by the Legislature in the manner required by the Constitution; and it was therefore declared null.

LOUISIANA—February 15, 1883, Hon. Edward T. Lewis was chosen to succeed, in XLVIIIth Congress, Hon. Andrew S. Herron, deceased, by a vote of 6,366 to 569 for Louis Trager; scattering 22.

MAINE—A Prohibitory amendment will be voted upon in the September election, 1884. It passed the last House—yeas 104, nays 37, and the Senate—yeas 21, nays 2. A motion in the House to strike the word "cider" from the resolution was rejected—yeas 56, nays 80.

MASSACHUSETTS—A proposed amendment to provide for biennial elections and sessions passed the House—yeas 101, nays 46—and the Senate—yeas 15, nays 12. It approved by a majority of the new Senate and two-thirds of the House, it will be submitted to the people. The Legislature of 1879 passed a like resolve but that of 1880 excised from it the biennial session provision, and that of 1881 then rejected it.

The Senate, 11 to 21, refused to memorialize Congress in favor of a Woman Suffrage Amendment.

The House, 83 to 115, defeated a proposed Prohibitory Amendment.

Hon. George D. Robinson, elected Governor, resigned as Representative in Congress, to take effect December 31, 1883.

MICHIGAN—A Prohibitory Amendment was indefinitely postponed in the House—49 to 38.

NEW-YORK—The proposed amendment relative to the organization of cities, adopted by the Legislature of 1881 was not approved by the Legislature of 1882.

NORTH CAROLINA—November 20, 1883, Hon. Thomas G. Skinner was chosen in the new First District to succeed Hon. Walter F. Pool, elected in the old First District, to the XLVIIIth Congress, by a majority of 777 votes over C. C. Pool. A question has been raised in the House of Representatives as to the legality of this election.

SOUTH CAROLINA—Two Constitutional Amendments were adopted in 1882. One denies the power of the General Assembly to deprive a citizen of the right of suffrage, except for treason, murder, burglary, larceny, perjury, forgery or any other infamous crime, or duelling, whereof the person shall have been duly tried and convicted. Yeas, 57,908; Nays, 3,485. Another struck out Sect. 11 of Art. 2 of the Constitution as amended, and substituted for it a provision that the general elections for Senators and Representatives shall be held in every second year in such manner, at such time, and at such places as the Legislature may provide. Yeas, 52,255; Nays, 3,693. A third proposition that no new county should be formed with a population of less than 1/24th part of the population of the State, and an area less than 400 square miles, nor shall an existing county be reduced to a less area than 400 square miles, was defeated. Yeas, 26,230; Nays, 32,553.

TENNESSEE—A State Debt bill was enacted which scales the principal of the debt to fifty cents on the dollar, and the interest to three per cent—par to be paid to the bonds of educational institutions within the State with the contract rate of interest.

TEXAS—Four amendments to the Constitution were adopted at a special election, August 14, 1883: 1st—Relating to the Public Free School Fund. Yeas, 29,734; Nays, 21,060. 2d—Relating to Taxes. Yeas, 29,482; Nays, 20,188. 3d—Relating to Public Free Schools. Yeas, 30,553; Nays, 20,237. 4th—Relating to County Courts. Yeas, 30,640; Nays, 17,498. No. 1 authorizes investment of funds in U. S. bonds, State bonds, County bonds of Texas, and such other securities as may be prescribed by law. No. 2 limits State tax to 35 cents on $100; City or County tax to 25 cents; road and license tax to 15 cents, and permanent improvement tax to 25 cents. The State tax authorized is additional to that required to pay public debt and maintain public free schools. No. 3 limits the free school tax to 20 cents, which with one-fourth of the State occupation tax and a poll tax of $1 on every male inhabitant may be applied to maintaining schools for not less than six months in a year. Additional tax, not to exceed 20 cents, may be voted in school districts, two-thirds of the taxpayers agreeing. No. 4 fixes the county court terms at not less than four each year, a jury to consist of fourteen men.

Judicial Decisions.

The Supreme Court of the United States has affirmed the decision of the Court of Appeals of Virginia declaring constitutional the act of January 14, 1882, commonly known as the "coupon-killer." It also sustained the refusal of the United States Circuit Judge in New-Orleans to grant a bill filed for the purpose of having the provision of the Constitution of Louisiana scaling indebtedness set aside as impairing the obligation of contracts, on the ground that the judiciary has not power to compel the executive officers of a State to perform acts which they are expressly prohibited from performing by the Constitution and laws of the State. It also held in the New-Hampshire and New-York courts that under the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States a citizen of New-Hampshire cannot sue the State of Louisiana, nor can a State assume to act as a collecting agent for its citizens. It also held, in the Civil Rights cases, as to the first two sections of the act of March 1, 1875 (Stat. XLIIId Cong., p. 336), "that no countenance of authority for the passage of the law in question can be found in either the Thirteenth or Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution; and no other ground of authority for its passage being suggested, it must necessarily be declared void, at least so far as its operation in the several States is concerned."

Election Returns

From every State in the Union, alphabetically arranged, with comparative tables of the Presidential election of 1880 BY COUNTIES, and of the Presidential elections of 1864, 1868, 1872 and 1876, by STATE AGGREGATES. The political complexion of the Legislature of each State is given, and the result in every Congressional District in the Union, compared with the last previous election in it. In CONNECTICUT, NEW JERSEY and NEW YORK the vote on President in 1884 is given by TOWNS, WARDS and COUNTIES, compared with 1880, and in the last two the vote on the election of the Legislature is given by Assembly Districts.

The closing table gives the vote cast in each State for each candidate for President, carefully prepared and compared with the like vote in 1880; and an analysis of the Presidential votes of 1876, 1872, 1868, and 1864, with a statement of the aggregate vote cast at each Presidential election since 1828.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1885.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1885 there will be four eclipses, two of the Sun and two of the Moon:

I. An Annular (or ring) eclipse of the Sun, March 16, visible in the whole of the United States. The path of the annular phase strikes the Pacific Coast in latitude 40° north, and passes through Northern California, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, the Dominion of Canada, Hudson's Bay and Greenland. In other parts of North America the eclipse will only be a partial one.

Place.	Begins.	Middle.	Ends.
Boston	12:37 p. m.	1:59 p. m.	3:12 p. m.

Mercury, January 26, May 25, September 15, rising then just before the Sun; also April 8, August 6, November 30, setting then just after the Sun. Venus, December 9. Jupiter, February 19. Saturn, December 26.

Planetary Conjunctions.

Venus will be in conjunction with Mercury, January 24, February 11, April 28, July 17 and August 8; with Mars, March 27; with Jupiter, August 6; with Uranus August 24; with Beta Virginis, August 19.

Mars is in conjunction with the Sun February 11; with Mercury March 7, May 13, and May 30; with Neptune June 10; and with Saturn August 6.

Jupiter is in opposition February 19; and in conjunction with Regulus May 30; with Mercury August 4, 27, September 27; with the Sun September 8; with Beta Virginis October 21; and with Eta Virginis December 8.

Saturn is in conjunction with Venus June 7, with the Sun June 18, with Mercury June 23, with Eta Geminorum July 20, with Mu Geminorum August 5, and is in opposition December 26.

Occultations.

The following are the principal occultations visible at Washington during the year:

		Mean time.	Angle fr'm Vertex.	Mean time.	Angle fr'm Vertex.
						h. m.
Jupiter	Dec. 28..	2 37 a. m.	341	Star 3'	north of	Moon's limb
Aldebaran	July 9..	4 25 a. m.	161	5 18 a. m.	289	0 53
Aldebaran	Sept. 29..	1 30 a. m.	123	2 50 a. m.	285	1 20
Aldebaran	Dec. 20..	5 18 a. m.	42	6 07 a. m.	217	0 49

Eclipses of Jupiter's Satellites.

In the following table are given the eclipses of Jupiter's satellites visible at Washington in Washington mean time. Each satellite is represented by its Roman numeral: D. denotes the disappearance of the satellite into the planet's shadow at the beginning of the eclipse; R, its reappearance at the end of the eclipse:

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS.

PASSED AT THE FIRST SESSION, FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

[December 3, 1883—July 7, 1884.]

AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE.

Chap. CXXI.—On and after July 1, 1884, no fees named in the tariff of consular fees shall be collected by consular officers for this official services to American vessels and seamen. Consular officers shall furnish the master of every such vessel with an itemized statement of such services necessarily performed, with the fee so prescribed for each service, and make a detailed report thereof to the Secretary of the Treasury, and he shall allow consular officers who are paid in whole or in part by fees such compensation for said services as they would have received prior to the passage of this act. A duty of 3 cents per ton, and not to exceed 15 cents per ton in any one year, is imposed at each entry on all vessels entered in any port of the U. S. from a foreign port in North America, Central America, West India Islands, Bahama Islands, Bermuda Islands, Sandwich Islands or Newfoundland; and 6 cents per ton, not to exceed 30 cents per ton per annum, is imposed at each entry upon all vessels entered in the U. S. from other foreign ports: Provided, That the President shall suspend the collection of so much of this duty on vessels entered from Canada, Newfoundland, Bahama Islands, Bermuda Islands, West India Islands, Mexico and Central America down to and including Aspinwall and Panama, as may be in excess of the tonnage and light house dues or other equivalent tax or taxes, imposed on American vessels by the government of the foreign country in which such por is situated, and shall from time to time indicate by proclamation the ports to which such suspension shall apply. All acts for collecting a hospital tax for seamen are repealed. All articles of foreign production needed, and actually withdrawn from bonded warehouses for supplies, not including equipment of vessels of the U. S. engaged in the foreign trade, including the trade between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the U. S., may be so withdrawn free of duty. On vessels built in the U. S. for foreign account, wholly or partly of foreign material, on which import duties have been paid, there shall be allowed on such vessel, when exported, a drawback equal to the duty paid on such materials. The individual liability of a ship-owner shall be limited to the proportion of any or all debts and liabilities that his individual share of the vessel bears to the whole; and the aggregate liabilities of all the owners of a vessel on account of the same shall not exceed the value of such vessels and freight pending. All laws that oblige American vessels to carry the mails to and from the U. S. arbitrarily, or that prevent the clearance of vessels until they shall have taken mail matter on board, are repealed, to take effect April 1, 1885. Each steam vessel of one hundred tons or under shall pay ten dollars for inspection examinations, in addition to fees for issuing enrolments and licenses, and for each ton in excess of one hundred, five cents in lieu of existing fees. Vesse's arriving at a port of entry in the U. S. laden with coal, salt, railroad-iron and other like articles in bulk, may proceed to places within that collection district to be specially designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, under the superintendence of the customs officers, at the expense of the parties interested, for the purpose of unlading cargoes of the character before mentioned. All inconsistent laws are repealed.—[Approved June 26, 1884.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Chap. CCXVII.—Any paymaster of the rank of major who has served twenty years in the army as a commissioned officer may be placed upon the retired list, until the Pay Department shall be reduced to thirty-five members. And no more paymasters shall be appointed until the number shall be reduced below twenty-nine majors, and thereafter the number of officers in the Pay Department shall not exceed thirty-five. Forty officers may be detached as professors in colleges, instead of thirty.—[Approved July 5, 1884.

Chap. CXXII.—All graduates of the Naval Academy who are assigned to the line of the navy, on the successful completion of the six years' course shall be commissioned ensigns. The grade of junior ensigns is abolished.—[Approved June 26, 1884.

CHINESE LABORERS, SUPPLEMENTARY ACT.

Chap. CCXX.—The principal changes made in the act of 1882 are: The words "from any foreign port or place" are inserted in the first section prohibiting the coming of the Chinese. The second change prohibits masters of vessels from landing, or attempting to land, or permitting to be landed, any Ch nese laborer. In section 3 these words are also added: "Provided, That all Chinese laborers brought on such vessel shall not be permitted to land except in case of absolute necessity." The next change is that the certificate upon which the Chinese laborer should return shall state the "individual, family, and tribal name" of the bearer. Chinese, other than laborers, authorized to come to the United States under the treaty shall obtain permission of, and be identified as so entitled by, the Chinese Government, or of such other foreign government of which he may be a subject, and shall have a certificate setting forth name, age, rank, height, physical peculiarites, etc. This act shall apply to all subjects of China and Chinese, whether subjects of China or any other foreign power.—[Approved July 5, 1884.

CONSULAR FEES.

Chap. CCCXXXIV.—No consular officer shall hereafter appropriate to his own use or expend from the amount received from the fees of his office any sum in excess of the allowance of salary and fees authorized by law, and consular officers paid exclusively by fees, and consuls paid in part by salary and in part by fees, shall only appropriate to their own use or expend such portion o the fees as is authorized by law.—[Approved July 7, 1884.

COUNTERFEITING NOTES OR BONDS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Chap. LII.—Every person who, within the U. S. or any Territory, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits any bond, certificate, obligation, or other security in imitation of any bond, certificate, obligation, or other security of any foreign Government, or any treasury note, bill, or promise to pay issued by such foreign Government, and intended to circulate as money, and any person who causes to be so falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited, or who knowingly aids or assists in making, altering, forging, or counterfeiting, any such bond, certificate, obligation, or other security, or any such treasury note, bill or promise to pay, shall, upon conviction thereof in any court of the U. S., be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 and by imprisonment at hard labor not more than five years. Other sections affix penalties for passing such notes, bonds, etc.—[Approved May 16, 1884.

DISEASES AMONG ANIMALS.

Chap. LX.—In the Agricultural Department is to be appointed a Chief of Animal Industry, whose duty it shall be to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the United States, their protection and use, and also inquire into and report the causes of contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases among them, and the means for the prevention and cure of the same, and to collect such information on these subjects as shall be valuable to the agricultural and commercial interests of the country. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized, after examination by suitable agents, to prepare regulations necessary for the speedy and effectual extirpation of contagious pleuro-pneumonia and other dangerous, contagious, infectious, or communicable diseases, and to certify such regulations to the executive authority of each State and Territory and invite said authorities to co-operate in their execution and enforcement. Other sections give details.—[Approved May 29, 1884.

GUANO ISLANDS.

Chap. XXIV.—Section 5,574, title 72, Revised Statutes, is suspended for five years after the passage of this act.—[Approved April 18, 1884.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

Chap. CCXXV.—No person shall be prosecuted for any offence under the internal revenue laws unless the indictment is found or the information instituted within three years after the commission of the offence, in all cases where the penalty may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, and within two years in all other cases: Provided, That the time during which the person committed the offence is absent from the district wherein the same is committed shall not be taken as any part of the time limited by law for the commencement of such proceedings; Provided further, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to offences committed prior to its passage: And provided further, That where a complaint shall be instituted before a Commissioner of the U. S. within the period above limited, the time shall be extended until the discharge of the grand jury at its next session within the district: And provided further that this act shall not apply to offences committed by officers of the United States.—[Approved July 5, 1884.

Chap. CCCXXXI.—No collector in any district shall recommend, nor shall there be appointed or commissioned, more deputy collectors, storekeepers, storekeepers and gaugers, gaugers, inspectors, or other officers, or allowed to remain in commission more of any of said officers, at any one time, than fifteen per centum in excess of the number actually engaged in performing duty at the time, and indispensably necessary for the performance of said duty. And hereafter there shall not be employed exceeding twenty agents, in lieu of the number now authorized by law.—[Approved July 7, 1884.

LABOR.

Chap. CXXVII.—A Bureau of Labor is created in the Interior Department, the Commissioner of which shall collect information upon the subject of labor, its relations to capital, the hours of labor, and the earnings of laboring men and women, and the means of promoting their material, social, intellectual, and moral prosperity.—[Approved June 27, 1884.

LAND GRANT FORFEITURE.

Chap. CXXXI.—Section 1 of the Act of July 4, 1866, granting lands in aid of the construction of the Iron Mountain Railroad from Pilot Knob, Missouri, to Helena, Arkansas, is repealed; and upon the acceptance of this repeal by the said Iron Mountain Railroad Company within six months, and of satisfactory proof that the lands as granted have not been sold or encumbered by said company, it shall be released from all obligation imposed by said Act of July 4, 1866; and all of the lands granted by said Section 1 are restored to the public domain for disposition under the public land laws: Provided, That all pre-emption and homestead entries heretofore allowed upon any of said lands, not in excess of the legal quantity, are confirmed: And Provided further, That all persons residing on any of said lands at the date of the passage of this act shall have a prior right to acquire the same, not exceeding 160 acres, by the usual methods and under the usual restrictions: Provided, That there shall be excluded from the operation of the release of the obligations as a land grant road herein provided that part of the railroad between Poplar Bluff, Missouri, and the Arkansas State line.—[Approved June 28, 1884.

MILITARY RESERVATIONS.

Chap. CCXIV.—Whenever, in the opinion of the President, the lands, or any portion of them, included within the limits of any military reservation heretofore or hereafter declared, have become or shall become useless for military purposes, he shall cause the same or so much thereof as he may designate, to be placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition as hereinafter provided, and shall cause to be filed with the Secretary of the Interior a notice thereof. Other sections provide for the appraisal and public sale of the lands.—[Approved July 5, 1884.

PENSIONS.

Chap. CLXXXI.—After July 1, 1884, pension agents shall not receive over twelve dollars and fifty cents for each one hundred vouchers paid by any agent in excess of four thousand vouchers per annum. The Act of June 20, 1878, relating to claim agents and attorneys in pension cases, is repealed. That sections 4,768, 4,789 and 4,786 of Revised Statutes are made applicable to cases hereafter filed with the Commissioner of Pensions, and cases so filed since June 20, 1878, and which have not been heretofore allowed, except as hereinafter provided. The fees of attorneys or others for prosecuting pension or bounty land claims are limited to twenty-five dollars, to be paid after the allowance of the claim. Articles of agreement as to fees between claimants and attorneys are to be filed with the Commissioner of Pensions, and where not filed the fee shall not exceed ten dollars. Where undue advantage has been taken of claimants by attorneys, the Commissioner has power to refuse to recognize any contract for fees.—[Approved July 4, 1884.

POST OFFICE.

Chap. IX.—Declares to be post routes all public roads and highways while kept up and maintained as such.—[Approved March 1, 1884.

Chap. LXXIII.—Fixes the rate of postage on newspaper and periodical publications of the second class, when sent by others than the publisher or news agent, at one cent for each four ounces or fractional part thereof, to be prepaid.—[Approved June 9, 1884.

PUBLIC PRINTING.

Chap. CCCXXXII.—Forbids the head of any Executive Department, or of any Bureau, branch, or office of the Government, from causing to be printed, nor shall the Public Printer print, any document or matter of any character whatever except that which is authorized by law and necessary to administer the public business, nor shall any Bureau officer embrace in his annual or other report to be printed any matter not directly pertaining to the duties of his office as prescribed by law.—[Approved July 7, 1884.

TEST OATH.

Chap. XLVI.—Repeals section 1,756, Revised Statutes (known as the "Test Oath") and prescribes the oath in section 1,757 as the oath to be taken by all officials of the U. S. except the President. Sections 820 and 821, relative to the oaths of grand and petit jurors, are also repealed.—[Approved May 13, 1884.

VOLUNTEER ARMY.

Chap. CCXXII.—Provides that the charge of desertion now standing against any soldier who served in the late war in the volunteer service shall be removed where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War that such soldier served faithfully until the expiration of his term of enlistment, or until May 1, 1865, having previously served six months or more, or was prevented from completing his term of service by reason of wounds received or disease contracted in the line of duty, but who, by reason of absence from his command at the time the same was mustered out, failed to be mustered out and to receive an honorable discharge. Provided, That no soldier shall be relieved who, not being sick or wounded, left his command without proper authority whilst the same was in the presence of the enemy. Other sections provide the details.—[Approved July 5, 1884.

Chap. CCXXIII.—Provides for the establishing a branch of the Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in either Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, or Nebraska, on a tract of land not less than three hundred acres.—[Approved July 5, 1884.

Chap. CXLVII.—Construes section 4 of the Army Appropriation Act of March 3, 1865, so as to entitle to the three months' pay proper provided for therein the heirs or legal representatives of volunteers specified therein who were killed or who died in the service between March 3 and April 10, 1865.—[Approved July 3, 1884.

PARTY PLATFORMS, 1884.

The Republican Platform.

[Adopted by the National Convention, Chicago, June 5.]

1. The Republicans of the United States in National Convention assembled renew their allegiance to the principles upon which they have triumphed in six successive Presidential elections, and congratulate the American people on the attainment of so many results in legislation and administration by which the Republican party has, after saving the Union, done so much to render its institutions just, equal, and beneficent, the safeguard of liberty, and the embodiment of the best thought and highest purposes of our citizens. The Republican party has gained its strength by quick and faithful response to the demands of the people for the freedom and the equality of all men; for a united Nation, assuring the rights of all citizens; for the elevation of labor; for an honest currency; for purity in legislation; and for integrity and accountability in all departments of the Government. And it accepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform.

2. We lament the death of President Garfield, whose sound statesmanship, long conspicuous in Congress, gave promise of a strong and successful administration, a promise fully realized during the brief period of his office as President of the United States. His distinguished services in war and peace, have endeared him to the hearts of the American people.

3. In the administration of President Arthur, we recognize a wise, conservative and patriotic policy, under which the country has been blessed with remarkable prosperity; and we believe his eminent services are entitled to and will receive the hearty approval of every citizen.

4. It is the first duty of a good Government to protect the rights and promote the interests of its own people. The largest diversity of industry is the most productive of general prosperity and of the comfort and independence of the people. We therefore demand that the imposition of duties on foreign imports shall be made, not for revenue only, but that in raising the requisite revenues for the Government, such duty shall be so levied as to afford security to our diversified industries and protection to the rights and wages of the laborer, to the end that active and intelligent labor, as well as capital, may have its just reward, and the laboring man his full share in the National prosperity.

5. Against the so-called economic system of the Democratic party, which would degrade our labor to the foreign standard, we enter our most earnest protest. The Democratic party has failed completely to relieve the people of the burden of unnecessary taxation by a wise reduction of the surplus.

6. The Republican party pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the tariff and to reduce the surplus, not by the vicious indiscriminating process of horizontal reduction, but by such methods as will relieve the taxpayer without injuring the laborer or the great productive interests of the country.

7. We recognize the importance of sheep-husbandry in the United States, the serious depression it is now experiencing, and the danger threatening its future prosperity; and we, therefore, respect the demands of the representatives of this important agricultural interest for a readjustment of duties upon foreign wool in order that such industry shall have full and adequate protection.

8. We have always recommended the best money known to the civilized world, and we urge that efforts should be made to unite all commercial nations in the establishment of an international standard which shall fix for all the relative value of gold and silver coinage.

9. The regulation of commerce with foreign nations and between the States is one of the most important prerogatives of the general Government, and the Republican party distinctly announces its purpose to support such legislation as will fully and efficiently carry out the constitutional power of Congress over inter-State commerce.

10. The principle of the public regulation of railroad corporations is a wise and salutary one for the protection of all classes of the people, and we favor legislation that shall prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges for transportation, and that shall secure to the people and the railways alike the fair and equal protection of the laws.

11. We favor the establishment of a National Bureau of Labor; the enforcement of the eight-hour law; a wise and judicious system of general education by adequate appropriation from the National revenues wherever the same is needed.

We believe that everywhere the protection of the citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption, and we favor the settlement of National differences by international arbitration.

12. The Republican party, having its birth in a hatred of slave labor and a desire that all men may be truly free and equal, is unalterably opposed to placing our workingmen in competition with any form of servile labor, whether at home or abroad. In this spirit we denounce the importation of contract labor, whether from Europe or Asia, as an offence against the spirit of American institutions, and we pledge ourselves to sustain the present law restricting Chinese immigration, and to provide such further legislation as is necessary to carry out its purposes.

13. The reform of the civil service, auspiciously begun under Republican administration, should be completed by the further extension of the reform system already established by law to all grades of the service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of the reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the objects of existing reform legislation should be repealed to the end that the danger to free institutions which lurks in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectively avoided.

14. The public lands are a heritage of the people of the United States, and should be reserved, as far as possible, for small holdings of actual settlers. We are opposed to the acquisition of large tracts of these lands by corporations or individuals, especially where such holdings are in the hands of non-resident aliens, and we will endeavor to obtain such legislation as will tend to correct this evil. We demand of Congress the speedy forfeiture of all land grants which have lapsed by reason of non-compliance with acts of incorporation, in all cases where there has been no attempt in good faith to perform the conditions of such grants.

15. The grateful thanks of the American people are due to the Union soldiers and sailors of the late war; and the Republican party stands pledged to suitable pensions for all who were disabled, and for the widows and orphans of those who died in the war. The Republican party also pledges itself to the repeal of the limitation contained in the Arrears Act of 1879, so that all invalid soldiers shall share alike, and their pensions shall begin with the date of disability or discharge, and not with the date of their application.

16. The Republican party favors a policy which shall keep us from entangling alliances with foreign nations, and which gives us the right to expect that foreign nations shall refrain from meddling in American affairs—a policy which seeks peace and trade with all Powers, but especially with those of the Western Hemisphere.

17. We demand the restoration of our navy to its old time strength and efficiency, that it may in any high sea protect the rights of the American citizens and the interests of American commerce. We call upon Congress to remove the burdens under which American shipping has been depressed, so that it may again be true that we have a commerce which leaves no sea unexplored, and a navy which takes no law from superior force.

18. That the appointments by the President to offices in the Territories should be made from the bona fide citizens and residents of the Territories wherein they are to serve.

19. That it is the duty of Congress to enact such laws as shall promptly and effectually suppress the system of polygamy within our Territories, and divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power of the so-called Mormon Church, and that the law so enacted should be rigidly enforced, by the civil authorities if possible, and by the military if need be.

20. The people of the United States, in their organized capacity, constitute a Nation, and not a mere confederation of States. The National Government is supreme within the sphere of its National duties, but the States have reserved rights which should be faithfully maintained, and which should be guarded with jealous care, so that the harmony of our system of government may be preserved, and the Union kept inviolate.

21. The perpetuity of our institutions rests upon the maintenance of a free ballot, an honest count, and correct returns. We denounce the fraud and violence practiced by the Democracy in the Southern States, by which the will of the voter is defeated, as dangerous to the preservation of free institutions; and solemnly arraign the Democratic party as being the guilty recipient of the reward of such fraud and violence.

22. We extend to the Republicans of the South, regardless of their former party affiliations, our cordial sympathy, and pledge to them our most earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation as will secure to every citizen of whatever race and color the full and complete recognition, possession, and exercise of all civil and political rights.

[The platform was adopted unanimously. The candidates—JAMES G. BLAINE, of Maine, for President, and JOHN A. LOGAN, of Illinois, for Vice President—were nominated June 6—Mr. Blaine on the fourth ballot and General Logan on the first.]

The Democratic Platform.

[Adopted by the National Convention, Chicago, July 10.]

The Democratic party of the Union, through its representatives in national convention assembled, recognizes that, as the Nation grows older, new issues are born of time and progress, and old issues perish. But the fundamental principles of the Democracy, approved by the united voice of the people, remain and will ever remain as the best and only security for the continuance of free Government. The preservation of personal rights; the equality of all citizens before the law; the reserved rights of the States, and the supremacy of the Federal Government within the limits of the constitution, will ever form the true basis of our liberties, and can never be surrendered without destroying that balance of rights and powers which enables a continent to be developed in peace, and social order to be maintained by means of local self-government. But it is indispensable for the practical application and enforcement of these fundamental principles that the Government should not always be controlled by one political party. Frequent change of administration is as necessary as constant recurrence to the popular will. Otherwise, abuses grow, and the Government, instead of being carried on for the general welfare, becomes an instrumentality for imposing heavy burdens on the many who are governed, for the benefit of the few who govern. Public servants thus become arbitrary rulers. This is now the condition of the country; hence a change is demanded.

The Republican party, so far as principle is concerned, is a reminiscence. In practice it is an organization for enriching those who control its machinery. The frauds and jobbery which have been brought to light in every department of the Government are sufficient to have called for reform within the Republican party; yet those in authority, made reckless by the long possession of power, have succumbed to its corrupting influence and have placed in nomination a ticket against which the independent portion of the party are in open revolt. Therefore, a change is demanded. Such a change was alike necessary in 1876, but the will of the people was then defeated by a fraud which can never be forgotten or condoned. Again, in 1880, the change demanded by the people was defeated by the lavish use of money contributed by unscrupulous contractors and shameless jobbers, who had bargained for unlawful profits or high office. The Republican party, during its legal, its stolen, and its bought tenures of power, has steadily decayed in moral character and political capacity. Its platform promises are now a list of its past failures. It demands the restoration of our navy.—it has squandered hundred of millions to create a navy that does not exist. It calls upon Congress to remove the burdens under which American shipping has been depressed; it imposed and has continued those burdens. It professes the policy of reserving the public lands for small holdings by actual settlers—it has given away the people's heritage till now a few railroads and non-resident aliens, individual and corporate, possess a larger area than that of all our farms between the two seas. It professes a preference for free institutions—it organized and traced to legalize a control of State elections by Federal troops. It professes a desire to elevate labor—it has subjected American workingmen to the competition of convict and imported contract labor. It professes gratitude to all who were disabled or died in the war, leaving widows and orphans—it left to a Democratic House of Representatives the first effort to equalize both bounties and pensions. It proffers a pledge to correct the irregularities of our tariff—it created and has continued them. Its own tariff commission confessed the need of more than 20 per cent reduction—its Congress gave a reduction of less than 4 per cent. It professes the protection of American manufactures—it has subjected them to an increasing flood of manufactured goods and a hopeless competition with manufacturing nations, not one of which taxes raw materials. It professes to protect all American industries—it has impoverished many to subsidize a few. It professes the protection of American labor—it has depleted the returns of American agriculture, an industry followed by half our people. It professes the equality of all men before the law, attempting to fix the status of colored citizens—the acts of its Congress were overset by the decisions of its courts. It "accepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform"—its caught criminals are permitted to escape through contrived delays or actual connivance in the prosecution. Honeycombed with corruption, outbreaking exposures no longer shock its moral sense. Its honest members, its independent journals, no longer maintain a successful contest for authority in its councils or a veto upon bad nominations. That change is necessary is proved by an existing surplus of more than $100,000,000, which has been yearly collected from a suffering people. Unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation. We denounce the Republican party for having failed to relieve the people from crushing war taxes, which have paralyzed business, crippled industry, and deprived labor of employment and of just reward.

The Democracy pledges itself to purify the Administration from corruption, to restore economy, to revive respect for the law, and to reduce taxation to the lowest limit consistent with due regard to the preservation of the faith of the Nation to its creditors and pensioners. Knowing full well, however, that legislation affecting the operations of the people should be cautious and conservative in method not in advance of public opinion, but responsive to its demands, the Democratic party is pledged to revise the tariff in a spirit of fairness to all interests. But in making reduction in taxes, it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries, but rather to promote their healthy growth. From the foundation of this Government taxes collected at the Custom House have been the chief source of Federal revenue. Such they must continue to be. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that any change of law must be at every step regardful of the labor and capital thus involved. The process of the reform must be subject in the execution to this plain dictate of justice—all taxation shall be limited to the requirements of economical government. The necessary reduction in taxation can and must be effected without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this country. Sufficient revenue to pay all the expenses of the Federal Government economically administered (including pensions, interest, and principal of the public debt, can be got under our present system of taxation from Custom House taxes on fewer imported articles, bearing heaviest on articles of luxury, and bearing lightest on articles of necessity. We, therefore, denounce the abuses of the existing tariff; and subject to the preceding limitations, we demand that Federal taxation shall be exclusively for public purposes, and shall not exceed the needs of the Government economically administered.

The system of direct taxation known as the "internal revenue" is a war tax, and so long as the law continues, the money derived therefrom should be sacredly devoted to the relief of the people from the remaining burdens of the war, and be made a fund to defray the expense of the care and comfort of worthy soldiers disabled in line of duty in the wars of the Republic, and for the payment of such pensions as Congress may from time to time grant to such soldiers, a like fund for the sailors having been already provided, and any surplus should be paid into the Treasury.

We favor an American continental policy based upon more intimate commercial and political relations with the fifteen sister republics of North, Central and South America, but entangling alliances with none.

We believe in honest money, the gold and silver coinage of the Constitution, and a circulating medium convertible into such money without loss.

Asserting the equality of all men before the law, we hold that it is the duty of the Government in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all citizens of whatever nativity, race, color, or persuasion, religious or political.

We believe in a free ballot and a fair count, and we recall to the memory of the people the noble struggle of the Democrats in the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses, by which a reluctant Republican opposition was compelled to assent to legislation making everywhere illegal the presence of troops at the polls, as a conclusive proof that a Democractic Administration will preserve liberty with order.

The selection of Federal officers for the Territories should be restricted to citizens previously resident therein.

We oppose sumptuary laws which vex the citizen and interfere with individual liberty.

We favor honest civil service reform and the compensation of all United States officers by fixed salaries; the separation of Church and State, and the diffusion of free education by common schools, so that every child in the land may be taught the rights and duties of citizenship.

While we favor all legislation which will tend to the equitable distribution of property, to the prevention of monopoly, and to the strict enforcement of individual rights against corporate abuses, we hold that the welfare of society depends upon a scrupulous regard for the rights of property as defined by law. We believe that labor is best rewarded where it is freest and most enlightened. It should, therefore, be fostered and cherished. We favor the repeal of all laws restricting the free action of labor, and the enactment of laws by which labor organizations may be incorporated, and of all such legislation as will tend to enlighten the people as to the true relations of capital and labor.

We believe that the public land ought, as far as possible, to be kept as homesteads for actual settlers; that all unearned lands heretofore improvidently granted to railroad corporations by the action of the Republican party should be restored to the public domain, and that no more grants of land should be made to corporations, or be allowed to fall into the ownership of alien absentees.

We are opposed to all propositions which, upon any pretext, would convert the General Government into a machine for collecting taxes to be distributed among the States or the citizens thereof.

In re-affirming the declaration of the Democratic platform of 1856, that the liberal principles embodied by Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, and sanctioned in the Constitution, which makes ours the land of liberty and the asylum of the oppressed of every nation, have ever been cardinal principles in the Democratic faith, we nevertheless do not sanction the importation of foreign labor or the admission of servile races, unfitted by habits, training, religion, or kindred, for absorption into the great body of our people, or for the citizenship which our laws confer. American civilization demands that against the immigration or importation of Mongolians to these shores our gates be closed.

The Democratic party insists that it is the duty of the Government to protect with equal fidelity and vigilance the rights of its citizens, native and naturalized, at home and abroad; and to the end that this protection may be assured, United States papers of naturalization issued by courts of competent jurisdiction must be respected by the Executive and Legislative Departments of our own Government and all foreign powers. It is an imperative duty of this Government to efficiently protect all the rights of persons and property of every American citizen in foreign lands, and demand and enforce full reparation for any invasion thereof. An American citizen is only responsible to his own Government for any act done in his own country or under her flag, and can only be tried therefor on her own soil and according to her laws; and no power exists in this Government to expatriate an American citizen to be tried in any foreign land for any such act.

This country has never had a well-defined and executed foreign policy save under Democratic administration. That policy has ever been in regard to foreign nations, so long as they do no act detrimental to the interests of the country or hurtful to our citizens, to let them alone; that as a result of this policy we recall the acquisition of Louisiana, Florida, California, and of the adjacent Mexican territory by purchase alone, and contrast these grand acquisitions of Democratic statesmanship with the purchase of Alaska, the sole fruit of a Republican administration of nearly a quarter of a century.

The Federal Government should care for and improve the Mississippi River and other great waterways of the Republic, so as to secure for the interior States easy and cheap transportation to tide water.

Under a long period of Democratic rule and policy our merchant marine was fast overtaking and on the point of outstripping that of Great Britain; under twenty years of Republican rule and policy our commerce has been left to British bottoms, and the American flag has almost been swept off the high seas. Instead of the Republican Party's British policy, we demand for the people of the United States an American policy. Under Democratic rule and policy our merchants and sailors, flying the Stars and Stripes in every port, successfully searched out a market for the variet products of American industry; under a quarter century of Republican rule and policy, despite our manifest advantage over other nations in high-paid labor, favorable climates and teeming soils; despite freedom of trade among all these United States; despite their population by the foremost races of men, and an annual immigration of the young, thrifty, and adventurous of all nations; despite our freedom here from the inherited burdens of life and industry in Old World monarchies, their costly war navies, their vast tax-consuming, non-producing standing armies; despite twenty years of peace, that Republican rule and policy have managed to surrender to Great Britain, along with our commerce, the control of the markets of the world. Instead of the Republican Party's British policy, we demand, in behalf of the American Democracy, an American policy. Instead of the Republican Party's discredited scheme and false pretence of friendship for American labor, expressed by imposing taxes, we demand in behalf of the Democracy, freedom for American labor by reducing taxes, to the end that these United States may compete with unhindered powers for the primacy among nations in all the arts of peace and fruits of liberty.

With profound regret we have been apprised by the venerable statesman through whose person was struck that blow at the vital principle of republics, acquiescence in the will of the majority, that he cannot permit us again to place in his hands the leadership of the Democratic hosts, for the reason that the achievement of reform in the administration of the Federal Government is an undertaking now too heavy for his age and failing strength. Rejoicing that his life has been prolonged until the general judgment of our fellow-countrymen is united in the wish that that wrong were righted in his person, for the Democracy of the United States we offer to him, in his withdrawal from public cares, not only our respectful sympathy and esteem, but also that best homage of freemen, the pledge of our devotion to the principles and the cause now inseparable in the history of this Republic from the labors and the name of Samuel J. Tilden.

With this statement of the hopes, principles and purposes of the Democratic Party, the great issue of reform and change in administration is submitted to the people, in calm confidence that the popular voice will pronounce in favor of new men and new and more favorable conditions for the growth of industry, the extension of trade and employment and due reward of labor and of capital, and the general welfare of the whole country.

[The platform was adopted without a division, after a substitute offered by Benjamin F. Butler, of Massachusetts, was voted down—yeas, 97½; nays, 714½. The candidates—GROVER CLEVELAND, of New-York, for President, and THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana, for Vice-President—were nominated July 12—Governor Cleveland on the second ballot, and ex-Governor Hendricks on the first.

The Greenback Labor Platform.

[Adopted in National Convention, Indianapolis, May 28, 1884.]

Eight years ago our young party met in this city for the first time, and proclaimed to the world its immortal principles, and placed before the American people as a Presidential candidate that great philanthropist and spotless statesman, Peter Cooper. Since that convention our party has organized all over the Union, and through discussion and agitation has been educating the people to a sense of their rights and duties to themselves and their country. These labors have accomplished wonders. We now have a great, harmonious party, and thousands who believe in our principles in the ranks of other parties.

"We point with pride to our history." We forced the remonetization of the silver dollar; prevented the refunding of the public debt into long-time bonds; secured the payment of the bonds, until the "best banking system the world ever saw" for robbing the producer now totters because of its contracting foundation; we have stopped the squandering of our public domain upon corporations; we have stopped the wholesale destruction of our greenback currency, and secured a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States establishing forever the right of the people to issue their own money.

Notwithstanding all this, never in our history have the banks, land-grant railroads, and other monopolies, been more insolent in their demands for further privileges—still more class legislation. In this emergency the dominant parties are arrayed against the people, and are the abject tools of the corporate monopolies.

In the last Congress they repealed over $12,000,000 of annual taxes for the banks, throwing the burden upon the people to pay or pay interest thereon.

Both old parties in the present Congress vie with each other in their efforts to further repeal taxes in order to stop the payment of the public debt, and save the banks whose charters they have renewed for twenty years. Notwithstanding the distress of business, the shrinkage of wages and panic, they persist in locking up, on various pretexts, $400,000,000 of money, every dollar of which the people pay interest upon, and need, and most of which should be promptly applied to pay bonds now payable.

The old parties are united—as they cannot agree what taxes to repeal—in efforts to squander the income of the Government upon every pretext rather than pay the debt.

A bill has already passed the United States Senate making the banks a present of over $50,000,000 more of the people's money in order to enable them to levy a still greater burden of interest taxes.

A joint effort is being made by the old party leaders to overthrow the sovereign constitutional power of the people to control their own financial affairs and issue their own money, in order to forever enslave the masses to bankers and other business. The House of Representatives has passed bills reclaiming nearly 100,000,000 acres of lands granted to and forfeited by railroad companies. These bills have gone to the Senate, a body composed largely of aristocratic millionnaires, who, according to their own party papers, generally purchased their elections in order to protect great monopolies which they represent. This body has thus far defied the people and the House, and refused to act upon these bills in the interest of the people.

Therefore, we, the National party of the United States, in National convention assembled, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1884, declare:

1. That we hold the late decision of the Supreme Court on the legal-tender question to be a full vindication of the theory which our party has always advocated on the right and authority of Congress over the issue of legal-tender notes, and we hereby pledge ourselves to uphold said decision, and to defend the Constitution against alterations or amendments intended to deprive the people of any rights or privileges conferred by that instrument. We demand the issue of such money in sufficient quantities to supply the actual demand of trade and commerce, in accordance with the increase of population and the development of our industries. We demand the substitution of greenbacks for National bank notes and the prompt payment of the public debt. We want that money which saved our country in time of war and which has given it prosperity and happiness in peace. We condemn the retirement of the fractional currency and the small denominations of greenbacks, and demand their restoration. We demand the issue of the hoards of money now locked up in the United States Treasury, by applying them to the payment of the public debt now due.

2. We denounce, as dangerous to our republican institutions, those methods and policies of the Democratic and Republican parties which have sanctioned or permitted the establishment of land, railroad, money, and other gigantic corporate monopolies: and we demand such governmental action as may be necessary to take from such monopolies the powers they have so corruptly and unjustly usurped, and restore them to the people, to whom they belong.

3. The public lands being the natural inheritance of the people, we denounce that policy which has granted to corporations vast tracts of land, and we demand that immediate and vigorous measures be taken to reclaim from such corporations for the people's use and benefit, all such land grants as have been forfeited by reason of nonfulfilment of contract, or that may have been wrongfully acquired by corrupt legislation, and that such reclaimed lands and other public domain be henceforth held as a sacred trust, to be granted only to actual settlers in limited quantities; and we also demand that the alien ownership of land, individual or corporate, shall be prohibited.

4. We demand congressional regulation of inter-state commerce. We denounce "pooling," stock watering and discrimination in rates and charges, and demand that Congress shall correct these abuses, even, if necessary, by the construction of national railroads. We also demand the establishment of a government postal telegraph system.

5. All private property, all forms of money and obligations to pay money, should bear their just proportion of the public taxes. We demand a graduated income tax.

6. We demand the amelioration of the condition of labor by enforcing the sanitary laws in industrial establishments, by the abolition of the convict labor system, by a rigid inspection of mines and factories, by a reduction of the hours of labor in industrial establishments, by fostering educational institutions, and by abolishing child labor.

7. We condemn all importations of contracted labor, made with a view of reducing to starvation wages the workingmen of this country, and demand laws for its prevention.

8. We insist upon a constitutional amendment reducing the terms of United States Senators.

9. We demand such rules for the government of Congress as shall place all representatives of the people upon an equal footing, and take away from committees a veto power greater than that of the President.

10. The question as to the amount of duties to be levied upon various articles of import has been agitated and quarelled over and has divided communities for nearly a hundred years. It is not now and never will be settled unless by the abolition of indirect taxation. It is a convertent issue—always raised when people are excited over abuses in their midst. While we favor a wise revision of the tariff laws, with a view to raising a revenue from luxuries rather than necessaries, we insist that as an economic question its importance is insignificant as compared with financial issues; for whereas we have suffered our worst panics under low and also under high tariffs, we have never suffered from a panic nor seen our factories and workshops closed while the volume of money in circulation was adequate to the needs of commerce. Give our farmers and manufacturers money as cheap as you now give it to our bankers, and they can pay high wages to labor, and compete with all the world.

11. For the purpose of testing the sense of the people upon the subject, we are in favor of submitting to a vote of the people an amendment to the Constitution in favor of suffrage regardless of sex, and also on the subject of the liquor traffic.

12. All disabled soldiers of the late war should be equitably pensioned, and we denounce the policy of keeping a small army of office-holders whose only business is to prevent, on technical grounds, deserving soldiers from obtaining justice from the government they helped to save.

13. As our name indicates, we are a National party, knowing no East, no West, no North, no South. Having no sectional prejudices, we can properly place in nomination for the high offices of State as candidates, men from any section of the Union.

14. We appeal to all people who believe in our principles to aid us by voice, pen and votes.

The platform was adopted without a division after an amendment in favor of free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver was voted down—yeas 184, nays 218. The candidates, BENJAMIN F. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, for President, and A. M. WEST, of Mississippi, for Vice-President, were nominated May 28, both on the first ballot. General BUTLER was also nominated for President at the Anti-Monopoly National Convention, Chicago, May 14, 1884.

The Prohibition Platform.

[Adopted in National Convention, Pittsburgh, July 23.]

The platform portrays the evils of the liquor traffic; demands that hereafter no State shall be admitted to the Union until the Constitution shall openly prohibit polygamy and the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages; that all money, coin and paper, shall be made, issued and regulated by the General Government, and shall be a legal tender for all debts, public and private; and declares for the civil and political equality of the sexes, and that the ballot in the hand of woman is a right for her protection, and would prove a powerful ally for the abolition of the drink saloon, the execution of law, the promotion of reform in civil affairs and the removal of corruption in public life.

JOHN P. ST. JOHN, of Kansas, was nominated for President, and WILLIAM DANIEL, of Maryland, for Vice-President, July 24.

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS.

ALABAMA.

1884, November 25—Hon. James L. Pugh was re-elected for six years from March 3, 1885. He received all the votes in the House and all but one in the Senate.

GEORGIA.

1884, November 18—Hon. Joseph E. Brown was re-elected for six years from March 3, 1885. He received all the votes cast except two.

IOWA.

1884, January 22—Hon. William B. Allison was re-elected for six years from March 3, 1885. The vote was: Senate—Allison 39, Benton J. Hall 11. House—Allison 52, Hall 38. D. M. CLARK (Grbk.) 10.

In the Republican caucus, January 15, Senator Allison was unanimously nominated.

KENTUCKY.

1884, February 6—Hon. Joseph C. S. Blackburn was elected for six years from March 3, 1885, to succeed Hon. John S. Williams. The first vote, January 15, was: Senate—Blackburn, 11; Williams, 12; William N. Sweeney, 10; John Bennett, 4. House—Blackburn, 29; Williams, 32; Sweeney, 26; Bennett, 9.

There being no choice, the subsequent votes were in joint convention, but the members of the Senate and of the House voted as members of their respective bodies. Following are the totals:

In the Democratic caucus, February 5, Mr. Blackburn received 63 votes. John S. Williams 57, and the former was then unanimously nominated. The next day he was elected. The caucus had met at intervals, and voted from the opening of the ballots in joint convention. The ballots until the last generally stood: Blackburn, 44; Williams, 54; Sweeney, 22.

MARYLAND.

1884, January 18—Hon. Ephraim K. Wilson was elected for six years from March 3, 1885, to succeed Hon. James B. Groome. XLIXTH CONGRESS,

AS FAR AS CHOSEN.

THE SENATE.

The only changes in the political complexion of the body, as indicated by the political character of the new Legislatures, are: In California and in Oregon a Democrat will be succeeded by a Republican. In Illinois, the Legislature is a tie. In the remaining States there will be no change. The new body will, therefore, stand: Republicans, 41; Democrats, 34; doubtful, 1.

† NOTE.—The Naval Appropriation bill having failed, an act was passed continuing for six months the appropriations of the last year. The amount so appropriated ($6,709,717 11) should be doubled for purposes of comparison with the previous appropriations, and that sum ($13,419,434 22) increased by $2,150,100 00 appropriated to complete the cruisers, makes up total of $15,569,534 22.

The act appropriating for the payment of Pensions, etc., appropriates and makes available for 1885 an unexpended balance said to be $66,000,000, and the Deficiency Act appropriates an unexpended balance of $279,500.

The $1,000,000 appropriated to the Cotton Exposition at New Orleans are to be refunded to the U. S.; and one-half the $500,000 appropriated to the sewerage of the District of Columbia, and of the general appropriations for the District, is to be charged to the District.

* Includes Basutoland, Caffraria and Griqualand. † Changed since August 13.

JAMES S. CRAWFORD, Superintendent Foreign Mails.

Rates of Postage, United States.

FIRST-CLASS—Letters and all other written matter, whether sealed or unsealed, and all other matter, sealed, nailed, screwed, tied, or fastened in any manner so that it cannot be easily examined, 2 cents per half ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards, 1 cent each. Postal cards are unmailable with any writing or printing on the address side, except the direction, or with anything pasted upon or attached to them. Exception: A printed label may be used in lieu of manuscript address.

SECOND-CLASS—Only for publishers and news agents. When sent by others than the publisher or news agent, one cent for each four ounces or fractional part thereof fully prepaid.

THIRD-CLASS—Printed matter, in unsealed wrappers only (all matter inclosed in notched envelopes must pay letter rates), 1 cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, which must be fully prepaid. This includes books, printed circulars, chromos, engravings, hand-bills, lithographs, magazines, music, newspapers, pamphlets, proof-sheets and manuscript accompanying the same, reproductions by the electric pen, hektograph, metallograph, papyrograph, and, in short, any reproduction upon paper. Limit of weight four pounds, except for a single book, which may weigh more.

NOTE—Productions by copying press or the type-writer are first-class.

FOURTH-CLASS—All mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily withdrawn from the wrapper and examined. Rate, 1 cent per ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight, four pounds. Full prepayment compulsory. Labels, patterns, photographs, playing cards, visiting cards, address tags, paper sacks, wrapping paper with advertisements printed thereon, bill-heads, letter-heads, envelopes and other matter of the same general character, the printing upon which is not designed to instruct, amuse, cultivate the mind or taste, or impart general information, are articles of merchandise, and rate as fourth-class matter.

UNMAILABLE.

Obscene books, letters, papers, pictures and postal cards; lottery circulars and letters; liquids, gunpowder and other explosives; live animals, poisons, and any article liable to injure the mails or the persons of those handling them.

PERMISSIBLE WRITING.

No writing is permitted on third or fourth class matter except as follows: The name and address of sender on the outside or inside of the package, preceded by the word "from." On the wrapper may also be written the names and number of articles inclosed. The sender is further allowed to mark a word or passage in a book or paper to which he desires to call special attention. He may also write a simple inscription or dedication upon the cover or blank leaves of a book or pamphlet. There may be attached to any articles of merchandise, by tag or label, a mark, number, name, or letter for purpose of identification. Printed circulars may contain the written names of the sender and addressee, with the date. Any other writing on third or fourth class matter will subject the package to letter rates of postage, and render the sender liable to a fine of $10 for each offence.

RATES OF POSTAGE TO CANADA.

[The Dominion of Canada embraces all the British North American Provinces except Newfoundland.]

LETTERS AND POSTAL CARDS—Same rates and conditions of prepayment of postage as for domestic letters and postal cards.

OTHER MATTER—Same rates and conditions of transmission as for matter for delivery within the United States except that MERCHANDISE IS RIGIDLY EXCLUDED. Samples of merchandise are mailable, but they must not exceed eight ounces in weight, and are subject to a postage of 10 cents each. They must also be strictly specimens of goods for sale.

TO OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The limit of dimensions and weight for parcels addressed to foreign countries is not uniform. For example, to Belgium, France, Great Britain, Switzerland and the Argentine Republic, the maximum weight for samples of merchandise is 12 ounces, and the limit of size is 12x8x4 inches; while to Austria, Germany, Prussia, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and other countries of the Postal Union the maximum size is 8x4 x2 inches, and the weight is limited to 8¾ ounces.

AGGREGATE ON SECRETARY OF STATE.

Secretary—Frank D. Jackson, R.	198001
James Dooley, F.	179219
Scattering	233

A Constitutional Amendment fixing the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November as the day for the general election for State, District, County and Township officers was adopted—yeas 89342, nays 14940. Also, the office of County Attorney was created, to be elected in 1886, and every two years thereafter—yeas 67621, nays 32902. The Grand Jury may consist of from five to fifteen members, as the General Assembly may direct, and persons may be held to answer for any criminal offense without the intervention of a Grand Jury if the General Assembly so provide—yeas 72591, nays 30343. At any regular meeting of the General Assembly the judicial districts for District Court purposes may be reorganized—yeas 64960, nays 33860.

NOTE—The above are the figures of the official canvass, but they contain these errors: Oneida County gave 179 votes for Butler and 904 for St. John, as appears from the County Clerk's returns in which there were these errors of addition not observed by the State Canvassers. The "blank and scattering" vote is 4270—there having been an error by the State Canvassers in carrying into the totals the detailed "blank and scattering" vote as declared by them,

‡ The Amendment is in the following terms:

No county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit, to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in or bonds of any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city, town or village be allowed to incur any indebtedness except for county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village from making such provision for the aid or support of its poor as may be authorized by law. No county containing a city of over 100,000 inhabitants, or any such city, shall be allowed to become indebted for any purpose or in any manner to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall exceed 10 per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of such county or city subject to taxation, as it appeared by the assessment rolls of said county or city on the last assessment for State or county taxes prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all indebtedness in excess of such limitation except such as may now exist, shall be absolutely void, except as herein otherwise provided. No such county or such city, whose present indebtedness exceeds 10 per centum of the assessed valuation of its real estate subject to taxation shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit. This section shall not be construed to prevent the issuing of certificates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes for amounts actually contained, or to be contained, in the taxes for the year when such certificates or revenue bonds are issued and payable out of such taxes. Nor shall this section be construed to prevent the issue of bonds to provide for the supply of water, but the term of the bonds issued to provide for the supply of water shall not exceed twenty years, and a sinking fund shall be created on the issuing of said bonds for their redemption, by raising annually a sum which will produce an amount equal to the sum of the principal and interest of said bonds at their maturity. The amount hereafter to be raised by tax for county or city purposes, in any county containing a city of over 100,000 inhabitants, or any such city of this State, in addition to providing for the principal and interest of existing debt, shall not in the aggregate exceed in any one year 2 per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal estate of said county or city, to be ascertained as prescribed in this section in respect to county or city debt.

* 1876: Greenback, 81,737; Prohibition, 9,522; American, 539; imperfect and scattering, 14,715. † 1880: Greenback, 308,578; Prohibition, 10,305; American, 707; imperfect and scattering, 989. In Louisiana there were two Garfield tickets, one the "regular," the other the "Beattie" ticket. The former polled 28,2[illegible]7, the latter 10,3[illegible]. In Maine the "Hancock" vote was for a "Fusion" ticket containing 4 Greenbackers and 3 Democrats. There was also a straight Greenback ticket. In Virginia there were two Hancock tickets, the "regular" and the "Readjuster." The former had 96,912 votes; the latter, 31,674. § Plurality. All, over Garfield, 311,115. ‡ 1884: Blank, defective and scattering, 14,904, viz.: Conn., 6; Fla., 92; La., 458; Maine, 3,693; Mich., 5,037; Neb., 47; N. Y., 4,270; Oreg., 50; S. C., 1,237; Texas, 12; W. Va., 2. In preparing this table, the vote received by the highest elector on each ticket was adopted. In the detail tables, the vote sent by the Secretary of the State, which was often that of the first named elector, was from necessity taken. This will explain sundry slight discrepancies between these figures and the other totals. In Iowa, Michigan and Nebraska there was a "fusion" on Electors of Democrats and Greenbackers, and in Missouri and West Virginia a "fusion" on Electors of Republicans and Greenbackers. In each case the "fusion" vote is counted for Cleveland or Blaine, as the case may be, except in Michigan, where alone it has been possible to analyse the vote. In it, Cleveland is given the vote of the distinctive Democratic elector, and Butler that of the distinctive Greenback elector with the addition of 763 "straight" Butler votes. In consequence of the uncertainties in the count resulting from the "fusions" formed, the plurality shown for Cleveland must be considered an approximation to the actual result—not a definite result. All, over Cleveland, 317,638.

IOWA—The joint resolution to submit to popular vote a constitutional amendment to secure woman suffrage, passed the senate March 13, 1884—yeas 26, nays 24, but was defeated in the House. Two years ago the vote in the Senate was: Yeas 31, nays 5, absent 8; the House: Yeas 61, nays 31, absent 8.

A Prohibitory Liquor Law was enacted. It prohibits the manufacture or sale, or keeping for sale, as a beverage, of alcohol, ale, wine, beer, spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and all intoxicating liquors whatever. It took effect July 4, 1884.

All general elections are hereafter to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

MASSACHUSETTS—The movement to substitute biennial for annual sessions of the Legislature was defeated in the House—yeas 139, nays 87, not two-thirds.

The bill to allow women like privileges as voters with men in the conduct of municipal affairs, was defeated—yeas 80, nays 144 (pairs 11). The affirmative vote was: Republicans 25, Democrats 23, Greenbackers 2. The negative vote was: Republicans 86, Democrats 56, Independent-Democrat 1, Independent 1. Last year the vote was: Yeas 60, nays 127 (pairs 9).

A resolve submitting to popular vote a Prohibitory Amendment was defeated in the House April 21, yeas 74, nays 87, with two pairs. The affirmative was made up of 68 Republicans, 4 Democrats, 1 Greenbacker and 1 Independent. The negative of 58 Democrats, 25 Republicans, 2 Independents, 1 Independent Republican and 1 Independent Democrat. On April 29, this vote was reconsidered—yeas 67, nays 55; and the resolve being again on final passage was defeated—yeas 63, nays 60, the necessary number for passage being 65. Eight Democrats voted for the resolve, and eighteen Republicans against it.

A resolve passed third reading in the House May 16—yeas 67, nays 66—for an amendment to the Constitution that the payment of a poll tax shall no longer be a pre-requisite for the right to vote for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Senators and Representatives. On final passage, May 20, the yeas were 75, nays 81, with 14 pairs—two-thirds required to pass. Of Republicans, 21 voted for it and 3 were paired in its favor; 1 Democrat voted against it.

NEBRASKA—Two Constitutional Amendments were adopted—one relating to the Legislative department, and the other creating a Railroad Commission.

NEW-JERSEY—A Woman Suffrage Amendment was defeated in the Assembly—yeas 24, nays 27.

NEW-YORK—The bill to submit a Prohibitory Amendment to popular vote was defeated—yeas 61, nays 63. Of affirmative, 54 were cast by Republicans. Of the negative, 48 were Democratic. The bill applying the Civil Service Act to every incorporated city became a law.

NORTH CAROLINA—Hon. Alfred M. Scales, elected Governor, resigned as a Representative in XLVIIIth Congress to take effect December 30, 1884.

OHIO—The local option feature of the Scott liquor law, which gave to residents of incorporated villages the right by vote to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor, was repealed by the Legislature of 1884. October 28, a majority of the Supreme Court—Judges Okey Follett, and Owens—with Judges Johnson and McIlvaine dissenting—decided that this law so far as it provides for a lien on the real estate occupied by a tenant who is a dealer in liquors, is in effect a license law, within the prohibition of the 26th section of the schedule of the Constitution, and that the whole act so far as it provides for such assessment or tax is unconstitutional and void. The cases of Lorame, and Benner vs. Sandor are overruled.

PENNSYLVANIA—1884, December 23, at a special election for successor to William A. Duncan, 18th District, in XLVIIIth Congress, John A. Swope had a majority of 6,500 votes over C. H. Brewster. A successor in XLIXth Congress has not yet been elected.

SOUTH CAROLINA—1884, December 9, Hon. Wade Hampton was re-elected to the U. S. Senate for six years from March 3, 1885. He received all the votes cast, except two Senators who voted for W. H. Whipper, and three Representatives who voted for Robert Smalls.

VERMONT—The House defeated, November 25, 1884, Local Option Liquor License bill—yeas 72, nays 138, and by a vote of 113 to 69, a bill empowering women to vote at town elections.

VIRGINIA—1881, November 29, the General Assembly to-day passed over the Governor's veto the Electoral Board bill.

Election Returns

From every State which voted in 1885, alphabetically arranged. These returns are generally BY COUNTIES, and are compared with previous State votes and the last preceding Presidential election. There is also a statement of the new Legislature chosen in each, compared in partisan strength with the last preceding Legislature. In CONNECTICUT the vote on the new Senators chosen is given by Counties; in NEW-JERSEY, on Senators and Assemblymen, by Districts; and in NEW-YORK, on Senators by Counties and on Assemblymen by Districts. In addition to the usual full returns of the election in the State and the City of New-York, the KINGS COUNTY and BROOKLYN votes on all local officers are gathered from official sources and presented in greater de-

TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1886.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1886 there will be two eclipses, both of the Sun.

I. An annular eclipse of the Sun, March 5, visible in the greater part of the United States as a partial eclipse only, at or just before Sunset. The path of the annular (or ring) phase begins near the Eastern Coast of New-Guinea, runs across the Pacific Ocean, and ends in the Gulf of Mexico. At San Francisco the partial eclipse will begin 2 hrs. 32 m. 25½ sec. p. m. and end 4 hrs. 45 min. 21 sec. p. m.

II. A total eclipse of the Sun, August 29, visible in the Eastern and Southeastern portions of the United States as a partial eclipse only at or near Sunrise. The path of totality runs from the Isthmus of Panama along the Northern shore of South America, into the Atlantic Ocean, crosses the Equator in longitude 10° W. from Greenwich, passes over South Africa, and ends in the Southern part of the Island of Madagascar.

The Seasons.

Spring begins March 20, 11:10 a. m.
Summer begins June 21, 8:15 a. m.
Autumn begins Sept. 22, 10:12 p. m.
Winter begins Dec. 21, 4:20 p. m.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS.

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION, FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Chap. LXVII.—When an enlisted man has served thirty years in the Army or Marine Corps, as a private or non-commissioned officer, or both, he shall, by making application to the President, be placed on a retired list with the rank held at the date of retirement; and shall receive seventy-five per cent of the pay and allowances of the rank upon which he was retired.—[Approved February 14, 1885.

Chap. CCCXLVI.—The President is hereby authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint on the retired list of the Army from among those who have been Generals commanding the armies of the United States or Generals-in-Chief of said Army, one person with the rank and full pay of such General, or General-in-Chief, as the case may be; and the total number now allowed by law to compose said retired list shall be, on such appointment increased accordingly.—[Approved March 3, 1885.*

Chap. CCCXLV.—The President shall appoint a Board of which the Secretary of War shall be a member and president, to be composed of two officers of the Engineer Corps, two from the Ordnance Corps, two officers of the line of the Navy, and two civilians, which Board shall examine and report at what ports fortifications or other defences are most urgently required, the character and kind of defences best adapted for each, with reference to armament, the utilization of torpedoes, mines, or other defensive appliances, and for the necessary and proper expenses of said Board and for the compensation of the two civilians at ten dollars per day while so employed in the discharge of said duty the sum of forty thousand dollars to be immediately available is hereby appropriated: and the report of said Board shall be transmitted to Congress by the Secretary of War.—[Approved March 3, 1885.

Chap. CCCXLIV.—To enable the President to strengthen the naval establishment of the United States by additional vessels of the best and most modern design, having the highest attainable speed, $1,895,000 is hereby appropriated, to be expended under the following limitations:

For the construction of two cruisers of not less than three thousand nor more than five thousand tons displacement, costing, exclusive of armament, not more than $1,100,000; one heavily armed gunboat of about sixteen hundred tons displacement, costing, exclusive of armament, not more than $520,000; and one light gunboat of about eight hundred tons displacement, costing, exclusive of armament, not more than $275,000; and authority is hereby given for the construction of said four vessels, at not exceeding the total cost for each above specified, in accordance with such final plan as may be determined upon, after a revision and reconsideration of all designs which have been heretofore made, and in the manner and conformity to the conditions and limitations provided for the construction of the new cruisers in the acts of August 5, 1882, and of March 3, 1883, except so far as said acts provide for and define the duties of Naval Advisory Board.†—[Approved March 3, 1885.

CHINESE INDEMNITY FUND.

Chap. CCCXLIX.—The President is directed to cause the residue of the indemnity received from China, known as the Chinese Indemnity Fund, to be converted into coin, and the sum of $583,400 90 be returned to the Chinese Government, and the balance of said fund, if any, be covered into the Treasury: Provided, That before the payment to China the Secretary of State shall pay from said fund to the executors of Charles E. Hill the sum of $130,000, upon receipt of a release in full for all claims upon China for the use and loss of the steamer Keorgeor, in or about the year 1863.—[Approved March 3, 1885.

FRENCH SPOLIATION CLAIMS.

Chap XXV.—Such citizens of the United States, or their legal representatives, as had valid claims to indemnity upon the French Government arising out of illegal captures, detentions, seizures, condemnations and confiscations prior to the ratification of the convention between the United States and the French Republic concluded on Sept. 30, 1800, may apply by petition to the Court of Claims, within two years from the passage of this act: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not extend to such claims as were embraced in the convention between the U. S. and the French Republic concluded on April 30, 1803; nor to such claims growing out of the acts of France as were allowed and paid, in whole or in part, under the provisions of the treaty between the United States and Spain concluded on February 22, 1819, nor to such claims as were allowed, in whole or in part, under the provisions of the treaty between the United States and France concluded on July 4, 1831. The court is authorized to make all needful rules and regulations, not contravening the laws of the land or the provisions of this act, for executing the provisions hereof. The court shall examine and determine the validity and amount of all the claims included within the description above mentioned, together with the present ownership, and, if by assignee, the date of the assignment, with the consideration paid therefor: Provided, That in the course of their proceedings they shall receive all suitable testimony on oath or affirmation, and all other proper evidence, historic and documentary, concerning the same; and they shall decide upon the validity of said claims according to the rules of law, municipal and international, and the treaties of the U. S. applicable to the same, and shall report all such conclusions of facts and law as in their judgment may affect the liability of the U. S. therefor. The court, on the first Monday of December, shall annually report to Congress, for final action, the facts found by it, and its conclusions in all cases which it has disposed of and not previously reported. Such finding and report of the court shall be taken to be merely advisory as to the law and facts found, and shall not conclude either the claimant or Congress; and all claims not finally presented to said court within the period of two years limited by this act shall be forever barred; and nothing in this act shall be construed as committing the United States to the payment of any such claims.—[Approved January 20, 1885.

* Under this act General Ulysses S. Grant was nominated and confirmed March 3, 1885. He died July 23 at 8:08 a. m.—[EDITOR.

FOREIGN CONTRACT LABOR.

Chap. CLXIV.—From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person, company, partnership, or corporation, in any manner whatsoever, to prepay the transportation, or in any way assist or encourage the importation or migration of any alien or aliens, any foreigner or foreigners, into the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, under contract or agreement, parol or special, express or implied, made previous to the importation or migration of such alien or aliens, foreigner or foreigners, to perform labor or service of any kind in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia. That all contracts or agreements, express or implied, parol or special, which may hereafter be made by and between any person, company, partnership or corporation, and any foreigner or foreigners, alien or aliens, to perform labor or service, or having reference to the performance of labor or service by any person in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, previous to the migration or importation of the person or persons whose labor or service is contracted for into the United States, shall be utterly void and of no effect. That for every violation of any of the provisions of section 1 of this act the person, partnership, company, or corporation violating the same, by knowingly assisting, encouraging or soliciting the migration or importation of any alien or aliens, foreigner or foreigners, into the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, to perform labor or service of any kind under contract or agreement, express or implied, parol or special, with such alien or aliens, foreigner or foreigners, previous to becoming residents or citizens of the United States, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of $1,000, which may be sued for and recovered by the U. S. or by any person who shall first bring his action therefor, including any such alien or foreigner who may be a party to any such contract or agreement, as debts of like amount are now recovered in the Circuit Courts of the United States; the proceeds to be paid into the Treasury of the United States; and separate suits may be brought for each alien or foreigner being a party to such contract or agreement aforesaid. And it shall be the duty of the District Attorney of the proper district to prosecute every such suit at the expense of the United States. That the master of any vessel who shall knowingly bring within the United States on any such vessel, and land, or permit to be landed, from any foreign port or place, any alien laborer, mechanic or artisan who, previous to embarkation on such vessel, had entered into contract or agreement, parol or special, express or implied, to perform labor or service in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each and every such alien laborer, mechanic or artisan so brought as aforesaid, and may also be imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months. That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent any citizen or subject of any foreign country temporarily residing in the United States, either in private or official capacity, from engaging, under contract or otherwise, persons not residents or citizens of the United States to act as private secretaries, servants or domestics for such foreigner temporarily residing in the United States as aforesaid; nor shall this act be so construed as to prevent any person or persons, partnership or corporation, from engaging, under contract or agreement, skilled workmen in foreign countries to perform labor in the United States in or upon any new industry not at present established in the United States: Provided, That skilled labor for that purpose cannot be otherwise obtained; nor shall the provisions of this act apply to professional actors, artists, lecturers or singers, nor to persons employed strictly as personal or domestic servants: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed as prohibiting any individual from assisting any member of his family or any relative or personal friend, to migrate from any foreign country to the United States for the purpose of settlement here. That all laws or parts of laws conflicting herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.—[Approved February 26, 1885.

INDIANS.

Chap. CCCXLI.—The President is authorized to open negotiations with the Creeks, Seminoles and Cherokees for the purpose of opening to settlement under the homestead laws the unassigned lands in said Indian Territory ceded by them respectively to the United States by the several treaties of August 11, 1866, March 21, 1866, and July 19, 1866, his action hereunder to be reported to Congress.

That immediately upon and after the date of the passage of this act all Indians committing against the person or property of another Indian or other person any of the following crimes, namely, murder, manslaughter, rape, assault with intent to kill, arson, burglary and larceny, within any Territory of the United States, and either within or without an Indian reservation, shall be subject therefor to the laws of such Territory relating to said crimes, and shall be tried therefor in the same courts and in the same manner and shall be subject to the same penalties as are all other persons charged with the commission of said crimes, respectively; and the said courts are hereby given jurisdiction in all such cases; and all such Indians committing any of the above crimes against the person or property of another Indian or other person within the boundaries of any State of the United States, and within the limits of any Indian reservation, shall be subject to the same laws, tried in the same courts and in the same manner, and subject to the same penalties as are all other persons committing any of the above crimes within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States.—[Approved March 3, 1885.

PENSIONS.

Chap. CCCLII.—All soldiers and sailors of the United States who have had an arm taken off at the shoulder-joint, caused by injuries received in the service of their country while in the line of duty, and who are now receiving pensions, shall have their pensions increased to the same amount that the law now gives to soldiers and sailors who have lost a leg at the hip-joint; and this act shall apply to all who shall be hereafter placed on the pension roll.—[Approved March 3, 1885.

POSTAL.

Chap. CCCXLII.—Upon all matter of the first class, as defined by chapter 180 of the laws of Congress approved March 3, 1879, and by that act declared subject to postage at the rate of three cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof and reduced by the act of March 3, 1883, to two cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof, postage shall be charged, on and after July 1, 1885, at the rate of two cents for each ounce or fraction thereof; and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of two cents per ounce or fraction thereof, including delivery at letter-carrier offices, and one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier is not established. That all publications of the second class, except as provided in section 25 of said act, when sent by the publisher thereof, and from the office of publication, including sample copies, or when sent from a news agency to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news agents, shall, on and after July 1, 1885, be entitled to transmission through the mails at one cent a pound or a fraction thereof, such postage to be prepaid as now provided by law. And any article or item in any newspaper or other publication may be marked for observation, except by written or printed words, without increase of postage.

A special stamp of the face valuation of ten cents may be provided and issued, whenever deemed advisable or expedient, in such form and bearing such device as may meet the approval of the Postmaster-General, which, when attached to a letter, in addition to the lawful postage thereon, the delivery of which is to be at a free delivery office, or at any city, town, or village containing a population of four thousand or over, according to the Federal census, shall be regarded as entitling such letter to immediate delivery within the carrier limit of any free delivery office designated as a special delivery office, or within one mile of the post office at any other office coming within the provisions of this section which may be designated as a special delivery office.

For transportation of foreign mails, including railway transit across the Isthmus of Panama, eight hundred thousand dollars. And the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized to enter into contracts for the transportation of any part of said foreign mails, after legal advertisement with the lowest responsible bidder, at a rate not exceeding fifty cents a nautical mile on the trip each way actually travelled between the terminal points: Provided, That the mails so contracted shall be carried on American steamships, and that the aggregate of such contracts shall not exceed one-half of the sum hereby appropriated.*—[Approved March 3, 1885.

*This section has not been put in force by the Postmaster-General.—[Ed.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Were authorized to be erected at Waco, Tex.; Carson City, Nev.; Augusta, Me.; Troy, N. Y.; Tyler, Tex.; Macon, Ga.; Keokuk, Iowa; Chattanooga, Tenn.; La Crosse, Wis.; Key West, Fla.; Sacramento, Cal.; Detroit, Mich.; Council Bluffs, Iowa; Aberdeen, Miss.; Reading, Penn.; Clarksburg, W. Va.; Wichita, Kan.; Port Townsend, Wash. Ter.; Auburn, N. Y.; Chicago, Ill. Former limits to buildings in Pittsburg, Penn.; Erie, Penn.; and Louisville, Ken., were extended; and the Custom House at Richmond, Va., was directed to be enlarged.

PUBLIC LANDS.

Chap. CXLIX.—All inclosures of any public lands in any State or Territory of the United States, heretofore or to be hereafter made, erected, or constructed by any person, party, association, or corporation, to any of which land included within the inclosure the person, party, association, or corporation making or controlling the inclosure had no claim or color of title made or acquired in good faith, or an asserted right thereto by or under claim, made in good faith with a view to entry thereof at the proper land office under the general laws of the United States at the time any such inclosure was or shall be made, are hereby declared to be unlawful, and the maintenance, erection, construction, or control of any such inclosure is hereby forbidden and prohibited; and the assertion of a right to the exclusive use and occupancy of any part of the public lands of the United States in any State or any of the Territories of United States, without claim, color of title, or asserted right as above specified as to inclosure, is likewise declared unlawful and is hereby prohibited.—[Approved February 25, 1885.

Chap. CCLXV.—All lands granted to the Texas Pacific Railroad Company under the act of Congress entitled "An act to incorporate the Texas Pacific Railroad Company and to aid in the construction of its road, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1871, and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, be, and they are hereby, declared forfeited, and the whole of said lands restored to the public domain and made subject to disposal under the general laws of the United States, as though said grant had never been made: Provided, That the price of the lands so forfeited and restored shall be the same as heretofore fixed for the even sections within said grant. —[Approved February 28, 1885.

Chap. XLVI.—So much of the lands granted by an act of Congress entitled "An act granting land to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from Portland to Astoria and McMinnville, in the State of Oregon," approved May 4, 1870, as are adjacent to and coterminous with the uncompleted portions of said road, and not embraced within the limits of said grant for the completed portions of said road, be, and the same are hereby, declared to be forfeited to the United States and restored to the public domain, and made subject to disposal under the general land laws of the United States as though said grant had never been made.

SEC. 2. That all persons who at the date of the passage of this act are actual settlers in good faith on any of the lands hereby forfeited, and who are otherwise qualified, or making due claim to such lands under the homestead, pre-emption, or other laws, within six months after the same shall have been declared forfeited, shall be entitled to a preference right to enter the same in accordance with the provisions of this act and of the homestead, pre-emption, or other laws, as the case may be, and shall be regarded as having legally settled upon and occupied said lands under said pre-emption, homestead, or other laws, as the case may be, from the date of such actual settlement or occupation; and in case any such settler may not be entitled to thus enter or acquire such land under existing laws, he shall be permitted, within one year after the passage of this act, to purchase not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres of the same, at the price of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre; and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to make such rules and regulations as will secure to said actual settlers the benefit of these rights: Provided, That the price of the even numbered sections within the limits of said grant and adjacent to and co-terminous with the uncompleted portions of said road, and not embraced within the limits of said grant for the completed portions of said road, is hereby reduced to one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre.

SEC. 3. That the act of March 3, 1875, entitled "An act for the relief of settlers within railroad limits," is hereby repealed.—[Approved January 31, 1885.

RAILROAD BRIDGES

Were authorized to be built over the Mississippi River, between Hastings and Red Wing.

Over the St. Croix River, between Stillwater and Taylor's Falls.

Over the Mississippi River at Memphis.

Over the Cumberland River at Carthage, and over Caney Fork River, near its mouth.

Over the Mississippi River at Rock Island.

TERRITORIES.

Chap. CCCXXX.—That Sec. 1889, Chapter 1, Title 23, of the Revised Statutes be amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1889. The legislative assemblies of the several Territories shall not grant private charters or special privileges, but they may, by general incorporation acts, permit persons to associate themselves together as bodies corporate for mining, banking, manufacturing, or other industrial pursuits, or the construction and operation of railroads, wagon-roads, canals, or irrigating-ditches, and the colonization and improvement of lands in connection therewith, or for colleges, seminaries, churches, libraries, or any benevolent, charitable, or scientific association."—[Approved March 3, 1885.

Chap. CCCLV.—That no appeal or writ of error shall hereafter be allowed from any judgment or decree in any suit at law or in equity in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, or in the Supreme Court of any of the Territories of the United States, unless the matter in dispute, exclusive of costs, shall exceed the sum of five thousand dollars. This shall not apply to any case wherein is involved the validity of any patent or copyright, or in which is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of or an authority exercised under the United States; but in all such cases an appeal or writ of error may be brought without regard to the sum or value in dispute.—[Approved March 3, 1885.

Iowa Republican, August 27.

1. The issues growing out of the War for the Union can never be called settled until they are settled right. By usurping and absorbing the rights of the disfranchised colored men, the white men of the Southern States are exerting double the political power of the white men in the Northern States. The Rebel soldier in the South is thus enabled to wield twice the influence in the Nation that the Union soldier in the North can wield. We protest against the Union soldier having one vote and the Rebel soldier having two.

2. The menace of this crime against the ballot in the South is also a menace to free labor in the North. With the black men robbed of the elective franchise, their power to protect themselves is gone and the Southern white men can degrade them at will into a form of cheap labor. Labor in the South cannot be pauperized without the wages in the North being necessarily affected. It is already driving the Southern blacks to the North to find both liberty and employment, and Iowa has received thousands of such men who here have sought and found a chance to live as free men and to work at good wages. The Republican party declares in the interest of honest and safe government that there cannot be a political inequality maintained among the citizens of a free Republic and that there cannot be a minority of white men in the South ruling a majority of white men in the North.

3. The adhesion of the Democratic party to the doctrine of State rights is evidenced by the character of the diplomatic appointments made by President Cleveland, and we censure his selection of persons to represent this Government at the Courts of foreign countries who deny the indissoluble unity of this Nation, and who, during the Rebellion, either fought for its success or justified the principle on which it was based and still continue to do so, and we declare his conduct in this regard is made all the more offensive by his persistent removal of disabled Union soldiers from Government employment by means of the disreputable device of the "offensive partisan" scheme formulated by his Postmaster-General and practised by the other heads of departments and by the President himself.

4. Time does not bar the claims of the soldiers who fought down the Rebellion on the gratitude and justice of the country; and, therefore, we demand such modifications of the pension laws as shall secure equal treatment to all such soldiers entitled to pensions under the said laws by commencing payment from the date of disability, the increase of widows' pensions from eight to twelve dollars per month, and the granting of a pension to all such soldiers as are disabled from securing support by their own labor and to those who served in the war with Mexico. We condemn the removal by President Cleveland of the Medical Pension Examiners appointed by Lincoln, Grant and Garfield, who have been the steady friends of the Union soldiers, and their replacement by men who generally opposed the passage of the Pension laws.

5. The American laborer is the unit in the prosperity and stability of the Republic. The Old World's theory of classes is abhorrent to the American mind. No peasant class can ever be created in America. The Republican party has protected and fostered the labor of this country so that its compensation is larger than is realized in any other nation. It has guarded and saved it from the degraded competition of contract labor from China; it is pledged to protect it from the pauper labor of Europe. We demand that ample provision shall be made by law for the protection of labor and capital and their varied interests, and such laws should provide for a State Board of Arbitration for the adjustment and settlement of disputes between labor and capital, including the question of screening coal and others peculiar to the mining interests of the State, in order that the miners may be assured pay for all work done by them, and labor should have its just proportion of representation on such board; and we further declare that provision should be made by law whereby convict labor shall not be brought into competition with the other labor in the State.

6. We are opposed to the British policy advocated by the Democratic party in this country under the guise of a tariff for revenue only. The English theory of free-trade, which has degraded its labor at home and has been so successfully used as a means to destroy the industries and oppress the people of Ireland, cannot be imposed for English interests upon the people of the United States. We invite all people of Irish blood who know the wrongs of their native country under English rule to join their fate with the Republican party and the great body of American workingmen in resisting the introduction of the free-trade policy in America.

7. We favor closer commercial intercourse with all nations and the enlargement and extension of American commerce in all possible quarters. We especially urge the establishment of better commercial relations and the enlargement of our trade with South America. We favor the increase of American shipping by all practical means.

8. The Republican party inaugurated Civil Service reform and enacted the present Civil Service law. It will faithfully maintain it and cheerfully aid in any needed amendments to give it full force. We look with regret upon the failure of the present Administration to promote the reform of the Civil Service so auspiciously begun under a Republican Administration.

9. We demand that the public domain, including forfeited and unearned lands within the limits of grants made to railroads or other corporations, shall be disposed of only to actual settlers in limited quantities. . . .

10. We oppose any change in the laws of currency and finance that will increase the burdens of the debtor class. We favor a revision of the patent laws for the better defence of the people against the frauds now practised thereunder. We favor such practical improvements of the National waterways as shall secure the element of competition in the transportation of the country. We favor the rigid enforcement of all laws for the suppression of polygamy.

11. The Republican party of Iowa, while a steady upholder of the right and duty of the State to regulate the traffic in liquor by such methods as will suppress the most of its evils, has never made the support of prohibition a test of party fealty. It pledged its honor to enact and afterward did enact a law which the people of Iowa, at a non-partisan election, fairly held, had ordered by an unquestioned majority that came alike from the votes of Republicans and Democrats. We declare now for a fair and thorough trial of that law that it may have time to demonstrate its efficiency or prove its inefficiency before it is repealed to give way to some other honest and earnest method in the line of finding the true and successful system of dealing with the liquor traffic. We arraign and condemn the Democratic party of Iowa for its action in declaring for a $250 license compulsory on every community regardless of local opinion; for legalizing again in Iowa the sale of whiskey and all other alcoholic liquors, and for removing all restrictions from the saloons, giving a freedom in the liquor traffic that has not existed in Iowa for thirty years.

12. We hold steadily to the doctrine of the control and regulation of railways by the people as first established by a Republican law in Iowa which was finally approved by the Supreme Court of the United States. . . . We favor the creation by Congress of a National commission for the supervision and regulation of interstate commerce. We favor the election of railroad commissioners by the people. . . .

Iowa Democratic, August 19.

The Democratic party of Iowa announce the following platform of principles:

1. We approve of and adopt the principles of the late Democratic National Convention.

2. We declare in favor of the repeal of the prohibitory liquor law of the State of Iowa as unjust and hostile to temperance.

3. We pledge ourselves to favor and use our best efforts for the enactment of a license law of $250, with power to increase the same from $250 to $1,000, as may be deemed best for the public interest in the various localities of the State, as expressed by the legally constituted authorities of such location.

4. We pledge ourselves to favor and use our best efforts for the enactment of a law which shall punish as criminal the manufacture and sale of all adulterated liquors, such adulteration being the direct cause of intemperance and destructive to the health of the people.

5. We urge upon Congress the prompt enactment of appropriate legislation to open to settlement the forfeited railroad lands in the State.

6. While we oppose all monopolies, we recognize the right and duty of the Government to give the greatest possible liberty to every citizen consistent with the rights of all citizens, and we believe in and announce it as one of the fundamental principles of the Democratic party that labor is the foundation of wealth, and that the laborer should be the special object of the care of the Government. . . .

7. With these principles we go before the people of Iowa, calling upon all who believe a change is demanded; that the books should be opened and examined; that all who are tired of fanaticism and folly, whether Democrat, Greenbacker or Republican, unite with us in bringing about the results to which we are hereby pledged.

Massachusetts Republican. Sept. 30.

We, the Republicans of Massachusetts in convention assembled, reaffirm once more our adherence to those principles of freedom, equality and National supremacy and liberal constitutional construction upon which our party was founded and by which it has prospered and been enabled to advance the welfare of the country. We renew our pledges to the soldiers and sailors of the war, that all shall be done for them and theirs, both in State and Nation, that justice and gratitude alike demand. We demand the prompt enactment by Congress of a general bankrupt law substantially as passed by the Senate of the United States during the last Congress. We demand the immediate and unconditional suspension of the over-valued silver dollar.

2. We urge the vigorous enforcement of the Edmunds law in Utah with the passage of such amendments as will give it increased efficiency, and the encouragement of the "Kansas plan" of settling the Mormon territory with law-abiding American citizens.

3. We give to the Civil Service act passed by a Republican Congress our hearty and continued approval, and, in accordance with our last National platform, we demand the extension of the principles of that act to all the business offices of the Government and the repeal of the four years' tenure law. We favor any reforms, revisions or reductions in the Customs duties which will benefit our labor or our industries, but we pledge ourselves again to the firm maintenance of the protective principle which prevents the displacement in our home markets of American by foreign products with a consequent diminution of employment, and which also guards us from a competition that would result in the wages of the American workingman being regulated by the standard which foreign manufacturers would dictate.

4. The Republican party has always been an essentially National and Union party. It is opposed to sectionalism and to geographical divisions in any and every form. It has heartily and deeply rejoiced in the manifestations of sympathy and good feeling at the South called forth by the death of our great soldier and patriot, and as Republicans we wish for a complete and perfect reconciliation between the sections. To have such reconciliation the results of the war must be accepted everywhere in good faith. One result has not been accepted. The negro, enfranchised by the war, is largely deprived of his privileges as a voter. In certain States elections are a mockery, returns are fraudulent, and voting is a farce. If we were to be silent as to this crying evil we should be false to all the traditions and principles of our party, as well as to those of American government and American freedom. Against this great wrong, so dangerous and so un-American, yet vindicated and maintained by successive Democratic majorities in the House of Representatives, we propose to agitate and to protest. We appeal against it to public opinion, both North and South. We shall seek redress in aroused public conscience and in proper legislation. We shall not be content until the wrong is crushed out and justice done. As one specific measure tending to remedy this evil we urge upon Congress the policy of making liberal grants in aid of primary education in the recent slave States.

5. As we protest against the suppression of the negro vote, so also in the same spirit do we protest against the election frauds countenanced and fostered by the Democratic party in certain cities of the North; and we denounce the action of President Cleveland in pardoning a criminal like Lieutenant Mullen, because by so doing he directly encourages and condones these dangerous crimes against the ballot.

6. To the able, honest and dignified administration of Governor Robinson we give our hearty approval, and we pledge to him our earnest and unswerving support. We urge upon our State Legislature the wisdom of submitting to the decision of the people the question of biennial elections. We commend the action of the Legislature in behalf of stricter and more direct responsibility in municipal government. We feel keenly the evils of intemperance and are prepared to support the most stringent legislation for their suppression that can be made effective, and we believe that the first step toward checking them is the rigid enforcement of the existing laws. Massachusetts, under Republican rule, has done much for labor. No other State approaches our record in this respect. We urge a close and continued attention to all questions affecting this great interest, and we commend to the Legislature a careful consideration of the plan of a State Board of Arbitration on the principle of employers' liability; of the regulation of convict labor so that it shall not compete with the honest labor of the Commonwealth, and of the more frequent payment of wages by corporations.

7. In presenting our candidates and our principles to the people of Massachusetts we ask only for fair discussion and candid consideration. We welcome again those who last year severed their party connections and united with us for the first time, and we gladly open our doors to all who join us in sustaining our candidates and principles.

Massachusetts Democratic, October 7.

1. We, the Democrats of Massachusetts, in convention assembled, renew our adherence to the principles of Democracy declared by the last National Convention at Chicago. We congratulate the people of the whole country on the election and inauguration of a Democratic President and Vice-President. We have full faith and confidence in the President, in his wise caution, his far-seeing sagacity, his courage and firmness, his determination to administer the Government in the interests of the whole people and his devotion to the fundamental principles of National Democracy. We expect that under his administration every reform required to make the Government pure and honest will be made; that the liberty and rights of every citizen in every section of our own country and on the soil of every foreign country will be jealously guarded and carefully preserved; that sectional prejudice and jealousy will disappear and that that pervading spirit of nationality will be revived which makes every citizen glory in the prosperity and honor of a common country; that the Civil Service will be established on a broad basis of justice and equality, securing to the Administration official sympathy with its policy; not creating an unofficial class which shall be above and beyond the people, but giving to each and every citizen who is capable and honest the right to be selected for public employment; that it will recognize the principle that every officer of the Republic is a public servant strictly responsible to the people and holding his office subject to the will of the people; that the public lands will be rescued from the hands of squatters, speculators and landed monopolies, and preserved for the use of the people to whom they justly belong; that the principal departments of the Government will be so economically and honestly administered as to impose the least possible burden of taxation on the people, and that confidence in the people, in their love of liberty, their fidelity to the Constitution and their devotion to the Union will be restored. We therefore pledge to Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, our unfaltering support. . . .

2. We earnestly request that no candidate be nominated for either branch of the Legislature who is not pledged to the support of the following measures: We are opposed to the payment of a poll tax as a condition on which the right to vote must depend; we believe in a free, honest, unobstructed ballot, that the right to vote should attach to the citizen and not to the dollar; we are opposed to the competition of convicts with the labor of honest people, and demand such legislation as will prevent it; we believe that the frequent payment of wages enables the employed to live more economically and assures to them greater independence; we deem it unjust to retain wages earned, to enlarge capital or swell the profits of the employer; we therefore are in favor of the passage of a law requiring corporations to make weekly payment to their employes; we are in favor of a law which shall entitle a workman to recover damages from his employer for personal injuries received in the discharge of his duties while obeying the directions of a superior vested by the employer with superintending authority; the right of every city and town to select its own officials and to control its internal affairs is co-existent with the Commonwealth, and we denounce as an act of usurpation, a blow at local self-government, a violation of municipal independence and a political crime the law depriving the city of Boston of all control over the appointment of its police force and compelling its citizens and taxpayers to pay salaries to officials in whose selection they have no immediate voice; we are in favor of the immediate enactment of such laws as will provide for the settlement of all differences between the employed and the employer by a system of arbitration.

3. We favor a radical and thorough change in the organization, methods and management of the present incompetent and inconsruous State Board of Health, Lunacy and Charity, to the end that several important departments now under its charge may be more efficiently, honestly and economically conducted, and that the scandals which have marked its career may be uprooted, and we condemn the action of the present Executive, who himself became a party to the scandalous and inefficient conduct of the department.

4. We denounce the Republican members of the last Legislature for their opposition to all the demands of the labor interests of the Commonwealth. We return our cordial thanks to the Democratic members of the Legislature for their earnest efforts during the last session to secure the passage of laws relating to the liability of employers for injuries to employed; the establishment of a Board of Arbitration for the settlement of differences between the employed and employer; the weekly payment of wages and the regulation of convict labor, and sincerely regret that their efforts were defeated by the organized opposition of the Republican members.

5. We believe that the commercial intercourse between the several States is materially impeded and circumscribed by the existing laws relating to debtors and creditors which are detrimental to the prosperity of the entire country, and therefore demand the immediate enactment of a National Bankrupt law. We believe that the importance of the American fisheries as a nursery for our naval power and the protection of our coasts and seaports in time of war ought to receive the serious consideration of the Administration at Washington.

New-York Republican, September 23.

The Republican party of New York, in convention represented, declares:

1. That the provisions of the existing Civil Service laws of the State and Nation should be strengthened and extended to all grades of the public service to which they may be applicable, so that the selection of administrative officers in the Civil Service shall, so far as possible, be governed solely by capacity and fitness. We insist upon the enforcement of these laws by all public officials not only in the letter but also in the spirit. Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who are shown by competitive examination to possess the necessary requirements should be given the preference in certification and in appointment.

2. That the laws affecting the government of cities should be simplified so as to enable the people to fix responsibility with ease and certainty.

3. That we demand of Congress the passage of an act putting an end to the enlargement of the stock of money formed of silver, or based upon silver; the maintenance of the gold standard, of the parity with gold of all kinds of money in use, is essential to the prosperity of our country, and the restoration of silver to the former position as good money through equality with gold before the law in a majority of commercial nations must remain, until accomplished, the chief aim of our monetary policy.

4. That we emphasize the demand of the last National Republican Convention "that the imposition of duties on foreign imports shall be made, not for revenue only, but that in raising the requisite revenues for the Government such duties shall be so levied as to afford security to our diversified industries and protection to the rights and wages of the laborer, to the end that active and intelligent labor, as well as capital, may have its just reward, and the laboring man his full share in the National prosperity." The persistent threats of the Democratic leaders to overthrow this policy add to the present troubles of trade and the paralysis of industry. Until the full effects of the revision of 1883 can be fairly estimated, agitation for the radical change of the tariff law is a gratuitous assault on the wages of labor, on all branches of production, and all the interests of traffic. We are opposed to the introduction of any system of free trade, the inevitable effect of which would be to destroy our mills and factories and to carry down American wages to the standard of the Old World.

5. That while we cordially indorse the dying sentiments of the great soldier and citizen, Ulysses S. Grant, in favor of harmony and good feeling between the North and the South, we insist that an end shall be put to the criminal evasion of the guarantees of equal civil and political rights promised by the Constitution to every freeman. The right of suffrage must be maintained free and untrammelled, and if that right is unlawfully denied to any part of the people of any State, its representation in Congress and the Electoral College should be reduced.

6. That the Legislature having, pursuant to the will of the people expressed at the polls, abolished the system of contract labor in the prisons of the State, we urge the enactment of laws tending to distribute as widely and equitably as possible the burden of competition with free labor.

7. That in the letting of contracts for State work no contract shall be awarded to any person or corporation discriminating against any class or organization of laborers.

8. That we recommend legislation guaranteeing the benefits of the public schools to all the children of the State, and such control of factory employment as will surround the women and children employed therein with the necessary safeguards for their physical, mental and moral well-being.

9. That stringent laws should be passed for the improvement of the sanitary condition of the homes of workingmen in cities.

10. That we demand the strict enforcement by the National Government of the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor.

11. That we recommend legislation to foster the agricultural and dairy interests of the State, and such as will prevent the adulteration of articles of food.

12. That we favor the continuance of the Railroad Commission upon a non-partisan basis.

13. That in the interest of cheap transportation for the country, and of reduced taxation for the people of this State, we declare in favor of asking the National Government to assist in the improvement of the locks and the deepening of the channel of the Erie Canal under State control.

14. That the improvement in the system of taxation, commenced by recent Republican Legislatures, under which large sums have been collected from sources which previously escaped taxation, should be perfected and extended, so that the burden may fall equally upon all classes of property.

15. We condemn the hypocrisy of the Democratic party in pledging itself before election to Civil Service reform and after election denouncing through its press and its leaders the Civil Service act as unconstitutional, while the National Administration removes tried and faithful public servants and replaces them with persons whose only recommendation is active, and in some instances disreputable, political work.

16. We denounce the hypocritical pretences under which faithful Republican officers are removed on the plea of offensive partisanship, while such men as Higgins, Thomas, Troop, Chase, Pillsbury, Aquila Jones and others, some of whose names appear upon the prison records of the country, and whose recommendation is political partisanship, are appointed in their places. While removing elsewhere, on the ground of offensive partisanship, Republicans who edit newspapers, the National Administration continues in a high judicial office in the City of New-York a prominent Democratic appointee who publicly announces himself as having assumed, since his appointment, the control of an avowedly partisan journal.

17. We believe it the duty of the Republican majority of the Senate to oppose the confirmation of any person appointed in violation of the letter or spirit of the Civil Service Act.

18. We denounce the National Administration for its obvious willingness to abandon the opinions they have professed upon currency and to compromise with those leaders of their party who are avowedly in favor of the continued debasement of the currency; for its hostility to the commerce of the country, evinced by its refusal to carry out the system adopted by Congress for the encouragement of American shipping; for its arbitrary action in repudiating a contract, regularly entered into by the duly authorized agents of the Government, and persevering in an attempt to deprive American mechanics of their means of livelihood until an aroused public opinion compelled it to abandon the attempt, and for its hostility further evinced by the arbitrary enforcement of the Customs laws by illegal provisions and tricks intended to deprive merchants of any fair opportunity for asserting their rights.

19. We denounce the Democratic State Executive for his action in reference to the census, resulting in an extra session of the Legislature at a large and useless expense, while he vetoed necessary appropriations for the State Board of Health in the face of a dreaded epidemic. We denounce his conduct in vetoing the Brooklyn reform bills in order to commend himself to the local Democratic leader, while he approved bills legalizing claims dating from the days of Tweed and barred by the statute of limitations and judicial decisions, and thereby imposed additional burdens on an over-burdened city.

New-York Democratic, September 25.

1. The Democrats of the State of New-York, in convention assembled, congratulate the people of the whole Union upon the election and inauguration of Grover Cleveland to be President of the United States. We commend the wise and statesmanlike tone of his inaugural address and the significant public recognition in the selection of his Cabinet advisers of the fact that the Union of these thirty-eight indestructible States is at last thoroughly re-established. His firm, considerate and conscientious conduct as President has already proven the falsity of the predictions of National calamity with which his enemies and the enemies of the Democratic party endeavored to alarm the public mind during the canvass. We hereby tender to him our hearty approbation of the public policy which has governed his official action, and we especially emphasize in our approbation the effort he has made to eradicate corruption and incompetency from the public service by the appointment of honest and capable Democrats, in order that there shall be a thorough and wholesome reform of the methods condemned by the people who confided to him the administration of his high official trust. We heartily approve the administration of the State Government by Governor David B. Hill, its able head, and his efficient Democratic associates in other departments, their fidelity to principle, devotion to official duty, strict regard for the public interests, unceasing efforts to secure economy in expenditures and efficiency in every branch of official service and the beneficent results of prosperity and good government which have attended their efforts have justly commended them to the confidence of the people. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State, as demanded by the Constitution, is all that is required for the purposes of equitable district representation. The elaborate census taken by the Federal Government once in ten years affords detailed and complete information as to the progress and resources of the State; to duplicate this work and the expense would, therefore, be a waste of public money.

2. We reaffirm the declarations of the Democratic National Conventions of 1876, 1880 and 1884, in regard to the necessity of reforming the Civil Service, but we condemn the actual administration of the existing Civil Service law, as the same has been executed by the Republican party. They have abused its provisions for the purpose of retaining Republicans in office; they have through the machinery of the law formulated tests of eligibles composed almost exclusively of Republicans; they have extended the period during which, by the provisions of the law, those eligible for appointment to office should remain on the registers, so as to exclude Democrats from all offices within the rules of the Civil Service. We ask that the commission at Washington be reorganized so that the majority shall be in sympathy with the Administration; that both parties be fairly represented in the Examining Board, that the present lists of persons eligible for appointment be annulled. While, therefore, proclaiming our approbation of the general spirit which inspired the recent legislation of the Federal Government and of the State of New-York to promote a needed reform of the Civil Service, we desire, at the same time, to place on record our wish and purpose that the proper officers of each government charged with the execution of that legislation and empowered to make suitable rules and regulations to carry it into effect shall take care that the Constitutional power of the Executive and heads of departments to make appointments shall not be impaired and that the machinery, whatever it may be, for the testing of eligible candidates shall not be prostituted to unworthy purposes.

3. The convention believes that the experiment of coining standard silver dollars in the hope of maintaining a fixed ratio with gold has gone far enough, and cannot be continued longer without great danger to the business interests of the country. The loss in interest alone on the silver dollars stored up in the Treasury is over $4,000,000 per annum and this accumulation of silver purchased at a cost of $180,000,000 is worth to-day not more than $166,000,000, with every prospect of a further depreciation. We therefore demand the repeal of the act under which the compulsory coinage of silver goes on, but we will welcome any practical measure of agreement with other Nations, by which the ratio of value between gold and silver may be made less fluctuating. But to this end the first step must be the stoppage of any further compulsory coinage of silver dollars.

4. The National Democratic platform pledges the party "to revise the tariff in a spirit of fairness to all interests." While it declares in favor of a reduction in taxation and the enlargement of the free list, in order to lessen the cost of production, it commits the party to a due regard for existing interests as "a plain dictate of justice," and declares that American labor shall not be deprived of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, and that the proposed duties shall be sufficient to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this country. This convention calls for a revision of the tariff upon the principles thus laid down, in order that the market for our products may be enlarged and that industry may be released from unnecessary burdens and the serious obstacles which have paralyzed its operations and narrowed up the field for the remunerative employment of labor and capital offered by the exhaustless natural resources of this country.

5. We also demand that the methods of administration in the custom houses shall be thoroughly reformed and the vexatious annoyances and oppressive regulations which have driven our own merchants out of business shall be swept away and that the conduct of business between the people and the Government shall be made as simple and inexpensive as possible.

6. The people of the State having declared by a large majority their opposition to the contract system in prisons, we are opposed to contract convict labor in any form, and in favor of a proper substitute that will employ convicts according to the State account system.

7. We favor prohibiting the employment of children in the factories, and other industrial establishments in the State, under fourteen years of age. We favor limiting the hours of labor to ten per day for all women employed in mills and other industrial establishments in the State.

8. We are in favor of such legislation as shall insure to honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the late war for the preservation of the Union priority in certification under the Civil Service laws and regulations of this State and the cities thereof, and upon passing such examination successfully, priority in certification and appointment over all other persons. We favor lengthening and improving the locks of canals, thereby doubling their capacity and reducing the cost of transportation between the lakes and the ocean.

9. The efforts of the Republican Legislatures of 1884 and 1885 having proved inadequate to prevent the manufacture and sale of counterfeit compounds in simulation of genuine butter and cheese, the product of the dairy, we demand the enactment of such laws as shall effectually protect the people by prohibiting such fraud and deception. We oppose all sumptuary and other laws that interfere with the constitutional right of personal liberty and favor the enactment of such excise laws as shall be alike just to all, considering the claims of all and protecting their individual rights.

New-York Prohibition, September 9.

1. We affirm that an essentially wrong principle remains eternally wrong whether the business it permits be protected by law or not. That the license system, either low or high, as applied to the traffic in intoxicating liquors to be used as beverages, is utterly wrong and vicious in principle and as a crime against God and man; that low license, after full and fair trial under the most favorable conditions, has proved itself to be ineffective, inexpedient and indefensible; that high license, while creating a monopoly in iniquity, does not permanently or appreciably lessen the traffic or lessen its evils. It is, therefore, a delusion and a snare and an attempt to bribe the conscience by money extorted from an immoral and corrupting business.

2. Experience with local prohibition has shown that State prohibition is the grandest and most effective form of local prohibition, but it has also been demonstrated that prohibitory enactments, to be completely effected, must be National in scope, directed against the manufacture and importation, as well as the sale of intoxicating liquors as beverages; that those entrusted with the enforcement of prohibitory laws must not only be in sympathy with the principles, but sustained by a party unconditionally committed to the doctrine of prohibition and whose dominance depends upon its faithful enforcement. Prohibitory enactments forced upon an unwilling party is prohibition in the hands of its enemies.

3. Both of the old parties having publicly and notoriously failed to commit themselves to Prohibition and having notoriously courted the favor of the liquor interests, men of all parties who seek Prohibition must seek it elsewhere. A separate party, untrammelled by fear and asking no favor of the saloon, is an imperative necessity.

4. We affirm the constitutionality of the principle of Prohibition; that the State has the absolute right to prohibit whatever traffic works ruin to its citizens, destroys its prosperity, or is contrary to public policy; that the principle has been in every instance upheld by the highest courts of both State and Nation, and hence that all attempts to create a counter impression are due either to gross ignorance or to a deliberate purpose to mislead and deceive the people.

5. We insist upon a faithful enforcement in every public school of the State, in letter and in spirit, of the law requiring instruction in regard to the effects of alcohol and other narcotics upon the human system.

6. We declare that the bitter persecutions, the malignant misrepresentations, the burning in effigy and the petty annoyances and injuries to which many Prohibitionists were subjected after the last Presidential campaign were an outrage upon our free institutions, a shame and disgrace to all engaged in, or sympathizing with, them, and a manifestation of a spirit of intolerance and bigotry which calls for the severest condemnation of all good citizens.

7. We gratefully recognize the signal service to the common cause by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State and Nation. We hold that justice and equity alike demand that the ballot should be given to woman, who suffers most from the evils of intemperance. But while affirming this we do not make it any sense a test of party fealty. And we do most cordially invite the co-operation of all, irrespective of the question of woman suffrage, who seek Prohibition as the chief end.

8. We affirm that the placing of our Civil Service, National, State and municipal, on the basis of merit by tests of competent examination rather than of fealty to man or parties; the radical change in our assessment laws; the settlement of the prison labor question; the securing of municipal reform; the establishment of harmony between labor and capital; in short, every great interest, State or National, moral or economical, will be far safer in the hands of a party drawing its support from that sober, industrious, intelligent class which is surely the bone and sinew of a distinctively temperance organization, than in the hands of any party controlled by or allied with the liquor power, which is politically the most unscrupulous, and morally and economically the most destructive in the country.

Ohio Republican, June 11.

1. The right to vote accorded by the Constitution of the United States is the concern of the whole people, and must be secured at all hazards to every citizen in every part of the Republic; existing guarantees must be sacredly maintained and additional ones provided if necessary, that the equal protection of the laws and the equal enjoyment of the suffrage shall not fail or be abridged in any way through the connivance, neglect or fraud of any of the States of the Union.

2. The Democratic party, which owes its National victory last fall to the wilful suppression of the ballot, cannot be looked to for the enforcement of these constitutional guarantees, and the hope of the friends of equal laws and equal suffrage is in the Republican party which pledges itself to wage the contest to a successful end.

3. We want such legislation as will harmonize the relations of capital and labor and promote the welfare of the people, and protect and foster the industries of the State.

4. We favor the establishment of a National Bureau of Industry, the enforcement of the eight hour law, and adequate appropriations from the public revenues for general education wherever it is needed.

5. We denounce the importation of contract labor and favor the most stringent laws to effectively prevent it.

6. We are opposed to the acquisition of the public lands or any part thereof by non-resident aliens.

7. We are in favor of a protective tariff which will encourage American development and furnish remunerative employment to American labor, and we are opposed to the British policy advocated by the Democratic party under the guise of a tariff for revenue only.

8. We demand restoration of the wool duty of 1867, or its full equivalent, and we denounce the Democratic Congress for failing to make good the pledges they made in this behalf.

9. We condemn the action of the present Administration in lowering the National flag upon the public buildings at Washington as a mark of respect to a man who dishonored the one and sought to destroy the other, who planned with cruel determination in his hiding place in Canada to overwhelm the Northern cities with fire, and to sweep to death their inhabitants by scattering everywhere the germs of infectious and fatal diseases.

10. The elevation to important and honorable offices of the Government of unrepentant rebels whose political disabilities have not been removed is a flagrant violation of the Constitution and an insult to the loyal people of the whole country; and we denounce the Administration of President Cleveland for its general discrimination in the appointments so far made against Union soldiers and Union men in behalf of those who fought against the Union.

11. The Republican party, which enacted the present Civil Service law, will faithfully maintain it and cheerfully aid in all needed amendments to give it full force, and it is committed to extend the law to all grades of service to which it is applicable.

12. Ample appropriations should be made to enforce it in letter and spirit, and all laws at variance with the objects of existing reform legislation should be repealed. Having accomplished this much, the party pledges itself to still further and higher reforms; it looks with the deepest regret upon the failure of the present Administration to promote the reform of the Civil Service, so auspiciously begun under Republican Administration.

13. The Republican party of Ohio demands the repeal of the limitation contained in the Pension Arrears act of 1878, so that all invalid soldiers shall share equally and their pensions begin with the date of disability or discharge, and not with the date of application.

14. We denounce the Democratic party for the destruction of the Scott law and the consequent increase of the burdens of taxation upon all property and the abandonment of an annual revenue of $2,000,000, and while recognizing the people's right to amend the organic law, we demand the enactment of such legislation as will give us the most practical and efficient measure for the regulation and taxation of the liquor traffic attainable under the Constitution.

15. We denounce the Democratic Legislature for its treachery to its pledge on the subject of contract labor, and arraign it for incompetency and extravagance in the management of the Penitentiary. We denounce the present Democratic General Assembly for its extravagance, corruption and wanton disregard of the true interests and good name of our State.

Ohio Democratic, August 20.

The Democracy of Ohio, in convention assembled, congratulate the country—

1. Upon the election and inauguration of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States. These fortunate events and the wise administration that has followed have already dispelled the illusions that Democratic success is inconsistent with the business interests of the country or perilous to the rights of the freedmen. The revival of prosperity and the increase in the value of property have already begun to demonstrate the beneficence of the Democratic principles, even before any session of Congress has enabled the country to realize the full fruition of their application by legislation.

2. We congratulate President Cleveland and his Cabinet upon the auspicious beginning they have made in the necessary reforms of the Government, and heartily indorse their administration.

3. We approve the measures taken by a Democratic Congress for preventing the acquisition of unearned lands by railroad companies, and a Democratic President in firmly holding public lands for public uses and in preventing their unlawful occupation.

4. We reaffirm the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention of 1884.

5. We commend the administration of Governor Hoadly and the work of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly as wise, honest and economical.

6. We especially commend the fidelity of the Democratic members of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly to the pledge of the party in favor of licensing the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and we denounce the fraud and hypocrisy of the Republicans in defeating this wise measure of reform for the avowed and only reason that it was proposed by Democrats.

7. The Democratic party is, as it always has been, opposed to sumptuary legislation and unequal taxation in any form, and is in favor of the largest liberty of private conduct consistent with the public welfare and the rights of others, and of regulating the liquor traffic and providing against the evils resulting therefrom by a judicious and properly graded license system. Under the present Constitution of Ohio such a system is forbidden, and taxation is limited to property, and is required to be measured by its money value. We therefore are in favor of a constitutional amendment which shall permit such a system, and we promise its submission for adoption by the people if the necessary three-fifths vote of each branch of the next General Assembly be obtained.

8. The Democratic party is and always has been the party of the people and of the agricultural and wool-growing interests, the enemy of monopoly and the friend of labor, in whose hands the interests of workingmen are and always will be safe, and we favor arbitration as the best means of settling differences between labor and its employers.

The ninth to the twelfth planks relate to local matters with reference to penitentiary and canal affairs and the pending amendment to change the time of holding the State elections.

Pennsylvania Republican, July 8.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, reaffirm their unfaltering faith in the cardinal principles of the Republican party, and will adhere to them so long as the contest between right and wrong continues. Beaten but not cast down in the late Presidential election, and advancing confidently to another struggle, they declare: The Republican party of Pennsylvania proclaims its advocacy of the repeal of the Internal Revenue taxes except upon spirituous and malt liquors; the revenues necessary for a liberal support of the Government and the payment of pensions to our disabled soldiers, their widows and orphans, and of the principal and interest of the public debt, should be raised by an additional levy upon imports; and with a view to lift business from its present, and guard it against future depression, we insist not only upon full protection to all home industries, but upon a prompt revival of our commercial marine and promotion of foreign commerce by proper discount of duties imposed on goods imported in American bottoms and proper bounties to goods exported in American bottoms.

The live issues of the present campaign are protection to American industry, not only through adequate tariff laws, but such as will effectually stop the importation of foreign contract labor; the establishment of a true system of Civil Service, one which will give competent officers, and yet not bind either the political thoughts or actions of American citizens, one which will give a fixed tenure of office and no removal during the term of office except for adequate public cause; the necessity for the enforcement of the right of every voter within our National boundaries to freely cast his ballot and have the same fairly counted at elections and to give to each and every man, in whatever section of the land he may dwell, that equal and adequate protection before the law to which he is justly entitled; the preservation of a sound financial system, the maintenance of a currency worth one hundred cents on the dollar, at all times redeemable in coin; the protection of the National Treasury from unwarranted and especially from disloyal claims; the maintenance of the credit of our Government as established by Republican Administrations; a just regard for our commercial relations with foreign nations and a closer intercourse with those on the American continent; to provide resolutely for the protection of American National and industrial independence; to maintain the standard of social condition, which, in contrast to the circumstances of other countries, American labor has thus far enjoyed; to continue the contest with undiminished courage in behalf of our own development against the enormous influences of foreign capital seeking possession of our market; to establish the truth in the government of the country that the highest duty of the Republic, not only to its own people, but to all, is to preserve its prosperous existence, thus to compel by its example the modification of harsh systems and the political emancipation of other peoples.

To all of these general issues the Republican party of Pennsylvania, and we believe the Nation in general, accords its most aggressive support.

The Republican party, recognizing labor as the basis on which the principle of our Government is founded, believes the labor masses should receive the fullest consideration in measure for their education, advancement and protection. It has already, through its legislative majority, enacted laws furthering the industries of the State, the interests of its mining population, protecting honest labor against the unwarranted competition of convict contract labor, removing taxes from manufacturing corporations, thereby giving promise of remunerative employment to many suffering from the prevailing depression; legalizing co-operation, productive and distributive; providing for free education in industrial art, as well as other arts tending to the general good of those who toil. We condemn all contracts for the importation of foreign labor, as tending to reduce to starvation the wages of the laboring men of Pennsylvania, and demand that the existing laws against this shall be strictly enforced.

We, at the same time, invite public attention to the acts of the present Democratic National and State Administrations—to the unjust war of the former upon "offensive partisans"—to its hypocritical avoidance of pledges touching the Civil Service; to its star chamber proceedings against Republicans, for whose removal no public reason can be given; and to its constantly disloyal preference for the rebel elements of the Democratic party at the South, and the semi-rebel elements of the same party at the North. Some attention to the facts of Democratic State administration cannot be withheld in view of its unjust, inexcusable and painfully frequent abuse of the veto power; its studied proscription of the Union soldier and denial of claims universally sanctioned at the time of his enlistment; its want of charity, breadth and liberty, together with a partisan bias carried to extremes not dreamed of by any of the better elements which called it into power. With the Administration the Republican party takes direct issue, and carries its appeal to a people disappointed in every reasonable expectation and promise.

The Republican members of the Legislature having twice passed apportionment bills more liberal to their political opponents than the existing law, and the Democratic members thereof having defeated the first measure and a Democratic Governor having employed his veto power against the second, the Republican members have properly discharged their constitutional duty in the premises. Their action is unequivocally indorsed, and the responsibility for the failure of this legislation rests with the Democratic party. We especially commend the action of the Republican Legislature for the high regard which it manifested toward our manufacturing, mining, farming, and general laboring interests, and its patriotic and successful efforts to represent the interests of the grand army of soldiers which Pennsylvania contributed to the support of the General Government. . . .

Another resolution was adopted to the effect that the party favors the repeal of the unjust limit claim respecting pensions.

Pennsylvania Democratic, August 26.

1. The Democracy of Pennsylvania, in convention, declare their hearty approval and support of the principles adopted by the Chicago Democratic Convention, July 9th, 1884. They favor an honest and efficient Civil Service, a fair and just revision of the tariff, and a thorough reform of the methods of administration which obtained under Republican rule, in strict accordance with the terms of the Chicago platform upon which Grover Cleveland was elected President and Thomas A. Hendricks Vice-President of the United States.

2. We cordially approve the Democratic reform administration of President Cleveland and his Cabinet. We recognize in their official acts a resolute determination to vindicate the pledges upon which the President was elected. To this end we affirm his clear and indisputable right to promptly remove officials who have prostituted the public service for partisan and personal ends. The thorough reform of abuses and searching investigations already made in the several departments of the Federal Government give assurance that the present Administration will secure for the country that thorough reorganization of the Civil Service which will effect an honest, practical and efficient administration of the Government. . . .

4. Every legitimate effort of labor to better its condition, enhance its rewards and protect its rights, commands the sympathy and support of the Democratic party. The importation under contract of foreign pauper labor is an evil which should be remedied by judicious legislation.

5. We favor the enforcement of the Constitution of Pennsylvania in its every article and section, and especially demand the regulation by law, in accordance therewith, of the carrying corporations of the State, the equalization of the tax laws, the appropriation of public moneys to public uses only, an honest management of the State Treasury and rigid enforcement of the laws governing it.

6. We denounce, as in flagrant violation of the Constitution, the attempt to consolidate the South Pennsylvania and Beech Creek railroads with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and we heartily approve the proceeding of the Commonwealth, through the Governor and Attorney General, to protect and preserve the rights of the people under the Constitution. . . .

8. The Democratic party is, as it always has been, opposed to sumptuary legislation and unequal taxation in any form, and it is in favor of the largest liberty of private conduct consistent with the public welfare and the rights of others, and of regulating the liquor traffic and providing against the evils resulting therefrom by a judicious and properly graded license system.

Pennsylvania Prohibition, August 25.

The Prohibition party of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, declare:

1. That the experience of two hundred years, under the system of license of the manufacture and common sale of intoxicating drinks in Pennsylvania, has proven it to be a failure to protect its citizens in the full and free enjoyment of the fruits of their labor, property and common rights by conferring special trade privileges upon a body of men now numbering in this State about 18,000 persons, whose business and interests is to make and sell such poisoning drinks, thereby creating and fostering drinking habits, the chief cause of prevailing intemperance, public disturbance, requiring more than one-half of our public taxation and large demands upon private charity. That the result of this system of license is to make worthless citizens, destroy homes and separate families, lessen industry and thrift, is the chief cause of insolvency and losses in trade, retarding and nullifying education, moral training and influence, multiplying gambling houses and brothels, corrupting the ballot, legislation and administration of the laws, and obstructs and subverts the objects for which government is instituted.

2. That this system of license neither confers nor confirms any natural right, but is solely a privilege granted for special reasons and for a special time. That its abrogation and the prohibition of the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of use as a beverage, is a just and wise State policy and would in no proper sense contravene personal liberty, destroy no natural right, nor be unjust to any one now enjoying such special privilege. The public welfare is the supreme law.

3. That failing to secure redress of wrongs inflicted and protection from the evils of the liquor traffic, by petition to the Legislature elected through the Republican and Democratic parties, repeated year after year, we arraign these parties that by their platform declarations and actions they have become the adherents and protectors of the liquor traffickers. The Prohibition party has been organized to secure such redress and protection through the ballot box, by the election to public office of worthy citizens, pledged by public nomination and declaration to constitutional and statutory prohibition of this baneful traffic in intoxicating drinks, and we cordially invite all citizens, without distinction of party or sex, to unite and aid in securing the enactment and administration of laws by persons so distinctively pledged as the only efficient remedy for present evils.

4. That pressed by the great and manifold evils of the liquor trade and the responsibility of citizenship, Christian and patriotic citizens cannot do otherwise than persistently use their ballots for its removal; to be free from participation in the liquor crime demands that no vote shall be cast for any man unless he accepts the principles and the nomination of the Prohibition party.

5. That moral efforts for the reclamation of the drinkers and education of the people in the nature and effects of alcoholic beverages, and that total abstinence from their use is alike the rule of duty and safety, must not be relapsed. That we heartily approve all organizations and methods of temperance work, having these objects in view, and congratulate the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Pennsylvania on the success attained by them in securing the law for instruction on narcotics and hygiene in the common schools. The marked devotion and zeal and self-denial of the Christian women of these unions for the formation of the cause of temperance and prohibition demands our gratitude and emulation. And we shall with joy hail the day when our mothers, wives and sisters shall be clothed with the civil power to fight the demon in temperance with their ballots as well as their prayers and songs.

6. That the Democratic and Republican parties in their failures to carry the mandate of the constitution against discrimination of freight rates upon our public lines of carriage and apportionment of the State into Congressional and Assembly Districts merit the condemnation of the citizens of the Commonwealth.

7. That in all offices whose functions are administrative, and not political, appointment, retention and promotion should be based on proved capacity and faithfulness and not on party consideration. We favor Civil Service reform, and its extension and application to all purely administrative or clerical positions. The "spoils system" must be eliminated from our political contests. Full protection to every voter in the free exercise of the franchise and fair count and return of votes cast, must be secured. Disfranchisement should be a penalty to all who in any way corrupt or interrupt the ballot. . . .

10. That the devout preservation of the Sabbath from profanation by secular pursuits and pleasures is fundamental to the promotion of peace and prosperity, and are alone to secure the Divine blessing to the people and the perpetuity of the State. Our fathers revered the Sabbath of the Bible and their sons enjoy the fruits of the obedience, and the power of the State should be exercised for its quiet enforcement.

11. That labor and capital are mutually dependent, and public law should be such as to secure equal protection to both; we invite the attention of both employers and employed to the disturbing and destructive influence of the drink places upon both capital and labor and invite co-operation in the abolishing of the trade as the short and sure way of securing harmony in the mutual relations of labor and capital.

12. That the declaration of rights of our State constitution declares it to be the irrevocable and inalienable right of the people to alter, amend, or abolish their government, and the refusal of the Republican or Democratic parties to heed the petitions of thousands of citizens, with resolves of State and county conventions, conferences, synods and representative bodies of Christians in favor of constitutional prohibition amendment, was an exercise of power not contemplated by the constitution and was a distrust of the people and should be condemned as proving them unworthy of the confidence of the people.

Virginia Republican, July 15.

We, the Republican party of Virginia, faithfully adhere to the National Republican party, its principles and platform, as the best political sanctions and sureties of an equality of States, people and votes, in all rights, privileges and interests, under the sacred and inviolable supremacy of the Union, the constitution, the law and the ballot box; and expressly do we reaffirm our fidelity to the policy of protection for American labor, capital, materials and productions, and our opposition to any tampering with the present tariff that shall tend to defeat or lessen its protective purposes. . . .

Holding these attitudes toward the National parties and their politics, and sure that these are both right and expedient for the civil, political and material welfare of this State and her citizens, we reaffirm our past declarations and promise a persistent continuance of our past efforts, in behalf of a government of the people, by the people, for the people, in this Commonwealth. To this end we proclaim:

1. For the free ballot, against the Bourbon ballot-killer.

2. For free schools and increased appropriations for the enlargement and extension of the system, against the Bourbon hostility to free education, as manifested in the diversion of the State school funds (there now being a fresh diversion of $300,000 due teachers for the year 1884-'85), and in the denial of Federal school aid by the defeat of the Blair Education bill.

3. For the enforcement of the Readjuster settlement of the State debt as covering every dollar of Virginia's equitable share of the debt of the undivided State, and the highest rate of interest that can be borne, against the open opposition of Bourbon-Funderism, and the more treacherous and insidious tampering of Bourbon "acquiescence" which has betrayed us again to our broker enemies.

4. For a liberal support and extension of all our asylums, against the Bourbon system of incarcerating our insane of both sexes in the common jails.

6. For free labor and its just share in its contributions to the power and wealth of the Nation, against the Bourbon policy which subjects honest labor not only to capital, but to unjust and humiliating competition with convict labor.

7. For free books for free schools, as a proper and necessary completion of our system of public education, against the present Bourbon policy which forces many children to plead pauperism or stay from the schools, and robs the parents of others by frequent changes of books.

8. For due compensation for all labor impressed for public service, whether on public roads or otherwise (as in the case of private property taken for public uses), against this Bourbon robbery of labor to relieve capital of its just burdens.

9. For good public county roads, under some efficient system, to be supported by an equal and uniform rate of taxation on property and by an employment of convict labor under proper regulations, against the present unjust conscription by which Bourbonism forces the poor, uncompensated, to do this work.

10. For biennial elections, so that our State, county, city and other elections may all occur together, with great economy and to the great repose and relief of the people, against the present system of frequent and costly elections that keep the people in continual agitation, excitement and trouble, only to subserve the fraudulent and infamatory devices by which Bourbonism maintains its factious and hateful domination.

12. For the execution of all public work by the direct employment and payment of labor, against the system by contracts, under which both Government and workmen are fleeced by speculative and unnecessary middle-men.

13. For every possible encouragement and aid to promote the construction of railroads and other facilities to open up the immense mineral and other resources of the western, southwestern and other portions of the State, and place these in easy connection with our east and west lines of transportation, in accordance with the Virginia policy of home growth and development, against the suicidal Bourbon policy which sacrifices all our internal advantages and materials for self-advancement to outside interests and makes our ports and cities mere way stations and our territory a mere tributary and road-bed of convenient transit to the traffic of other States and their cities.

14. For an enforcement of the paramount obligation of the various works of internal improvement to the people of the State, by whose authority they were created, by whose money they were constructed, and by whose grace they live; and it is enjoined upon our representative and executive officers to enforce the discharge of that duty, to insure to the people of Virginia such rates, facilities and connections as will protect every industry and interest against discrimination, tend to the development of their agricultural and mineral resources, encourage the investment of active capital in manufactures, and the profitable employment of labor in industrial enterprises; grasp for our cities those advantages to which, by reason of their geographical position, they are entitled, and fulfil all the great public ends for which they were designed.

15. For money-wages for labor, against the Bourbon store-and-order system, whereby corporate and other employers control the expenditures of their employés, and under which great extortions and oppressions are imposed.

16. For eight hours as a day for all labor employed on public works and in mines and manufactories, and by corporations, with weekly payments. . . .

18. For a legal provision securing to all mechanics, laborers and other workmen employed by corporations, firms and individuals the first lien on the assets of those where they are forced into liquidation, to be first satisfied as that of preferred creditors by reason of their share in creating such assets.

19. For that Civil Service in which character and capability shall be regarded as paramount tests for public employment.

20. For such annual appropriations as may be adequate to provide for the proper care and support of disabled Virginia soldiers who need such provision.

21. For a general law providing that any county, city, town and district in this Commonwealth may determine for itself, by a majority of its votes cast at a special election held for the purpose under due regulations, whether or not the sale of spirituous liquors shall be allowed within its limits.

Virginia Democratic, July 30.

1. The Democratic party of Virginia, in convention assembled, congratulate the people that they have at last triumphed over all the agencies of corrupt power, and upon the peace, security and goodwill that have speedily followed in the train of their victories. Again invoking the popular verdict on its behalf, we point with pride and confidence to a record of pledges faithfully performed, and to the guarantees of good government which it offers. . . .

3. The Democratic party heretofore pledged its final acceptance of the settlement of the public debt known as the "Riddleberger bill," which had then been declared constitutional by the courts—State and Federal—and its opposition to all further agitation of the question or any disturbance of that settlement, by repeal or otherwise. This pledge was observed with scrupulous fidelity on the part of our representatives by the enactment of all needful and proper measures of legislation; and the State of Virginia would have been forever freed from the harassing demands of the public creditors but for the sudden and inequitable reversal of its own decision by a Republican court, rendering still further legislation necessary for the protection of the State. To such further legislation, and as a part thereof, to the protection and indemnification of the revenue officers of the State for all official acts done in obedience to its laws, the Democratic party pledges itself. We appeal to the people to refuse wholly to pay any tax in coupons, and thus at once, by their own united patriotism and sovereign will, to rid the Commonwealth of this long and baneful controversy.

4. The question of the State debt has ceased to be one of dollars and cents. It has become one of State sovereignty. The question is whether the State of Virginia shall be arraigned before the Federal courts controlled by Republican judges, adjudicating upon the sovereign rights of the State in the interests of the bondholders, in defiance of one of the plainest provisions of the Federal Constitution. We appeal upon this question to all men, irrespective of party, and invite them to unite with us in defending the imperilled rights of the Commonwealth.

5. We pledge the Democratic party as the founder and organizer of every legislative act which secured its efficiency in our State to its continued support until every child in the Commonwealth, of whatever race or color, may secure the benefits of a free education.

6. We renew the pledge and avouch the fact that within the last two years, under Democratic legislation, $275,000 of arrearages to the school fund have been paid, besides all regular appropriations; a female normal school established at Farmville, and liberal annuities granted to our institutions of learning.

7. It is the cherished purpose of the Democratic party to labor in this sacred work of public enlightenment until country and town alike enjoy the full advantages of free education.

8. To this end we favor the furnishing of free books to the pupils of the free schools, and an appropriation for the benefit of the common school system from the surplus revenues of the Federal Government, by what is known as the Blair bill, or a better measure. . . .

10. The railroads of the State are in the nature of public highways, and should be operated not alone for purposes of private gain, but for the interest and convenience of the people as well, and it is the duty of the Legislature to supervise the operations of such railroads and to prevent any unjust or discriminating charges on the one hand and allow a fair and reasonable profit on the other.

11. All reasonable facilities should be granted for the construction of new railroads, but no privilege should be granted to such new roads or to existing corporations which may interfere with the growth of Virginia cities or deprive them of trade to which their position entitles them. . . .

13. In providing wisely for the instruction of its citizens and generously for the afflicted in mind and body, the Commonwealth should respect the sacred duty which it owes to its needy Confederate soldiers, disabled by wounds or disease. This duty hitherto initiated and observed by successive Democratic Legislatures, should be followed up by some more adequate provisions than have yet been made. All proper aid should be given those disabled veterans who are without the Government support which they freely vote to accord their former foes, and who in the course of nature must, ere many years have passed, cease to tread the soil of Virginia, which is forever consecrated by their dauntless valor and devotion.

14. Reaffirming the traditional opposition of the Democratic party to all sumptuary laws or laws unduly interfering with individual liberty, we recommend to the General Assembly to pass such laws as will permit each county or district, at a special election held for the purpose, under proper regulations for ascertaining the popular will, to determine for itself whether the sale of spirituous liquors shall be legally permitted within its limits.

15. The internal revenue system, brought into existence by the Republican party, and perpetuated by it when there was no necessity for or reasonable apology for its continuance as a relic of the war, is foreign to the spirit of our institutions and is obnoxious to the interests and convictions of our people. We favor its complete and unconditional abolition.

16. Public policy requires that convict labor should not be brought in competition with free labor. It is due to the honest mechanics and workingmen of the country that convict labor be employed on county roads and internal improvements, or otherwise in ways not conflicting with the full wages of honest laboring men, and we advocate legislation that will carefully guard against such conflict. Government contracts should be performed only by free labor, and we favor the passage of laws that shall require it to be deemed a condition in all contracts with the Government that convict labor be not employed in their execution.

17. Eight hours per day for labor upon public works; opposition to all discriminations unjustly bearing upon labor or capital; the enforced payment of money wages by corporations and the first lien to employes upon their assets; the establishment of labor bureaus for the collection of statistics and the investigation of questions connected with the elevation of the laboring classes; the preservation of the public lands as the heritage of the people; the revision of the laws to secure the simple and speedy administration of justice, and the incorporation of labor societies are matters which have had in the past and shall have in the future the favor of the Democratic party. . . .

19. We favor such changes in existing laws as may be necessary to relieve the people of the Commonwealth, as far as possible, of the burden of too frequent elections, but are unalterably opposed to mixing State with Federal elections, whereby such interference as has been experienced in the past under an ill-advised or corrupt Administration might be possible. . . .

21. We reaffirm the declarations of the National Democratic party at its last convention on the subject of the tariff, and especially do we maintain that the necessary reduction in taxation can and must be effected without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages existing in this country. And we favor, as in 1883 and in 1884, a tariff for revenue, limited to the necessities of Government economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies. In the necessary reforms to remedy the abuses of the existing tariff the schedule rates should bear heaviest on articles of luxury and lightest on articles of necessity.

22. We reiterate our advocacy of such Civil Service reform as will make character and fitness the tests of official preference and exclude the loathsome systems of the Republican party which became the scandal of the country; but we hold at the same time that an Administration charged with the solemn responsibilities of government, and needing relations of confidence and harmony between it and its subordinates to secure efficiency, should not be unduly hampered by having obnoxious officials forced into or continued in its service. No efficacious system can be established that does not work in accord with the will and aspirations of the people under an executive head untrammelled in the exercise of official positions, and the fundamental principles of free government exact that the powers of the Executive shall not be shackled by the usurpation of a commission or other official power unknown to the Constitution. . . .

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

March 4, 1885.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: In the presence of this vast assemblage of my countrymen, I am about to supplement and seal by the oath which I shall take the manifestation of the will of a great and free people. In the exercise of their power and right of self-government they have committed to one of their fellow-citizens a supreme and sacred trust; and he here consecrates himself to their service. This impressive ceremony adds little to the solemn sense of responsibility with which I contemplate the duty I owe to all the people of the land; nothing can relieve me from anxiety lest by any act of mine their interests may suffer, and nothing is needed to strengthen my resolution to engage every faculty and effort in the promotion of their welfare. Amid the din of party strife the people's choice was made; but its attendant circumstances have demonstrated anew the strength and safety of a government by the people. In each succeeding year it more clearly appears that our Democratic principle needs no apology, and that in its fearless and faithful application is to be found the surest guarantee of good government. But the best results in the operation of a government wherein every citizen has a share largely depend upon a proper limitation of purely partisan zeal and effort, and a correct appreciation of the time when the heat of the partisan should be merged in the patriotism of the citizen.

To-day the Executive branch of the Government is transferred to new keeping. But this is still the government of all the people, and it should be none the less an object of affectionate solicitude. At this hour, the animosities of political strife, the bitterness of partisan defeat and the exultation of partisan triumph should be supplanted by an ungrudging acquiescence in the popular will, and a sober, conscientious concern for the general weal. Moreover, if from this hour we cheerfully and honestly abandon all sectional prejudice and distrust, and determine, with manly confidence in one another, to work out harmoniously the achievements of our National destiny, we shall deserve to realize all the benefits which our happy form of government can bestow.

On this auspicious occasion we may well renew the pledge of our devotion to the Constitution, which, launched by the founders of the Republic, and consecrated by their prayers and patriotic devotion, has for almost a century borne the hopes and the aspirations of a great people through prosperity and peace and through the shock of foreign conflicts and the perils of domestic strife and vicissitudes.

By the Father of his Country our Constitution was commended for adoption as "the result of a spirit of amity and mutual concession." In that same spirit it should be administered, in order to promote the lasting welfare of the country and to secure the full measure of its priceless benefits to us and to those who will succeed to the blessings of our National life. The large variety of diverse and competing interests subject to Federal control, persistently seeking the recognition of their claims, need give us no fear that "the greatest good to the greatest number" will fail to be accomplished if in the halls of National legislation that spirit of amity and mutual concession shall prevail in which the Constitution had its birth. If this involves the surrender or postponement of private interests and the abandonment of local advantages, compensation will be found in the assurance that thus the common interest is subserved and the general welfare advanced. In the discharge of my official duty I shall endeavor to be guided by a just and unstrained construction of the Constitution, a careful observance of the distinction between the powers granted to the Federal Government and those reserved to the States or to the people, and by a cautious appreciation of those functions which by the Constitution and laws have been especially assigned to the Executive branch of the Government.

But he who takes the oath to-day to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States only assumes the solemn obligation which every patriotic citizen, on the farm, in the workshop, in the busy marts of trade and everywhere, should share with him. The Constitution which prescribes his oath, my countrymen, is yours; the Government you have chosen him to administer for a time is yours; the suffrage which executes the will of freedmen is yours; the laws and the entire scheme of our civil rule from the town meetings to the State Capitals and the National Capital, are yours. Your every voter, as surely as your Chief Magistrate, under the same high sanction, though in a different sphere, exercises a public trust. Nor is this all. Every citizen owes to the country a vigilant watch and close scrutiny of its public servants and a fair and reasonable estimate of their fidelity and usefulness. Thus is the people's will impressed upon the whole framework of our civil polity—Municipal, State and Federal—and this is the price of our liberty and the inspiration of our faith in the Republic.

It is the duty of those serving the people in public place closely to limit public expenditures to the actual needs of the Government economically administered; because this bounds the right of the Government to exact tribute from the earnings of labor or the property of the citizen, and because public extravagance begets extravagance among the people. We should never be ashamed of the simplicity and prudential economies which are best suited to the operation of a republican form of government and most compatible with the mission of the American people. Those who are selected for a limited time to manage public affairs are still of the people, and may do much by their example to encourage, consistently with the dignity of their official functions, that plain way of life which among their fellow-citizens aids integrity and promotes thrift and prosperity.

The genius of our institutions, the needs of our people in their home life and the attention which is demanded for the settlement and development of the resources of our vast territory, dictate the scrupulous avoidance of any departure from that foreign policy commended by the history, the traditions and the prosperity of our Republic. It is the policy of independence, favored by our position and defended by our known love of justice and by our power. It is the policy of peace suitable to our interests. It is the policy of neutrality, rejecting any share in foreign broils and ambitions upon other continents, and repelling their intrusion here. It is the policy of Monroe and of Washington and Jefferson—"Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none."

A due regard for the interests and prosperity of all the people demands that our finances shall be established upon such a sound and sensible basis as shall secure the safety and confidence of business interests and make the wages of labor sure and steady; and that our system of revenue shall be so adjusted as to relieve the people from unnecessary taxation, having a due regard to the interests of capital invested and workingmen employed in American industries, and preventing the accumulation of a surplus in the Treasury to tempt extravagance and waste.

Care for the property of the Nation, and for the needs of future settlers, requires that the public domain should be protected from purloining schemes and unlawful occupation.

The conscience of the people demands that the Indians within our boundaries shall be fairly and honestly treated as wards of the Government, and their education and civilization promoted with a view to their ultimate citizenship, and that polygamy in the Territories, destructive of the family relation and offensive to the moral sense of the civilized world, shall be repressed. The laws should be rigidly enforced which prohibit the immigration of a servile class to compete with American labor with no intention of acquiring citizenship and bringing with them and retaining habits and customs repugnant to our civilization.

The people demand reform in the administration of the government, and the application of business principles to public affairs. As a means to this end, Civil Service reform should be in good faith indorsed. Our citizens have the right to protection from the incompetency of public employes who hold their places solely as the reward of partisan service, and from the corrupting influence of those who promise and the vicious methods of those who expect such rewards; and those who worthily seek public employment have the right to insist that merit and competency shall be recognized instead of party subserviency, or the surrender of honest political belief.

In the administration of a government pledged to do equal and exact justice to all men, there should be no pretext for anxiety touching the protection of the freedmen in their rights, or their security in the enjoyment of their privileges under the Constitution and its amendments. All discussion as to their fitness for the place accorded to them as American citizens is idle and unprofitable, except as it suggests the necessity for their improvement. The fact that they are citizens entitles them to all the rights due to that relation and charges them with all its duties, obligations and responsibilities.

These topics and the constant and ever-varying wants of an active and enterprising population may well receive the attention and the patriotic endeavor of all who make and execute the Federal law. Our duties are practical and call for industrious application, an intelligent perception of the claims of public office, and, above all, a firm determination by united action to secure to all the people of the land the full benefits of the best form of government ever vouchsafed to man. And let us not trust to human effort alone, but humbly acknowledging the power and goodness of Almighty God, who presides over the destiny of nations and who has at all times been revealed in our country's history. Let us invoke His aid and His blessing upon our labors.

* Less outstanding certificates. † Includes Treasury and clearing-house certificates. ‡ Includes Treasury certificates. Silver coin is not divided between full legal-tender and subsidiary. The above division is estimated. § Reported to Controller of the Currency, November 1, 1884.

In the above table the amount of gold and silver certificates held outside the Treasury has been deducted from the amount of coin in the Treasury and added to the stock of coin in active circulation. As these certificates represent coin in the Treasury, which coin can only be used in their redemption, they really form a part of the active coin circulation of the country.

In addition to the coin in the country, there was in the mints and assay offices of the United States on July 1, 1885, gold and silver bullion available for coinage of the value of $66,847,095 25 gold, and $4,654,586 93 silver; total, $71,501,682 18.

† NOTE—Of the $14,979,972 59 appropriated for the Naval service for the fiscal year 1885, $8,859,817 11 were in the first session of XLVIIIth Congress, and $6,120,155 48 in the second session; but the two are consolidated in the table for purposes of comparison. The regular Navy bill failed at the first session of that Congress, and the appropriations of the preceding year were by it continued for six months. At the second session the other six months were provided for, as well as the fiscal year 1886.

The act appropriating for the payment of pensions, etc., appropriates and makes available for 1885 an unexpended balance said to be $66,000,000, and the Deficiency Act appropriates an unexpended balance of $279,500.

The $1,000,000 appropriated to the Cotton Exposition at New-Orleans are refundible to the United States; and one-half the $500,000 appropriated to the sewerage of the District of Columbia, and of the general appropriations for the District, is to be charged to the District.

NICHOLAS M. BELL, Superintendent Foreign Mails.

Rates of Postage, United States.

FIRST-CLASS—Letters and all other written matter, whether sealed or unsealed, and all other matter, sealed, nailed, sewed, tied, or fastened in any manner so that it cannot be easily examined, 2 cents per ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards, 1 cent each. Postal cards are unmailable with any writing or printing on the address side, except the direction, or with anything pasted upon or attached to them. Exception: A printed label may be used in lieu of manuscript address.

SECOND-CLASS—Only for publishers and news agents. When sent by others than the publisher or news agent, one cent for each four ounces or fractional part thereof fully prepaid.

THIRD-CLASS—Printed matter, in unsealed wrappers only (all matter inclosed in notched envelopes must pay letter rates), 1 cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, which must be fully prepaid. This includes books, printed circulars, chromos, engravings, hand-bills, lithographs, magazines, music, newspapers, pamphlets, proof-sheets and manuscript accompanying the same, reproductions by the electric pen, hektograph, metallograph, papyrograph, and, in short, any reproduction upon paper. Limit of weight four pounds, except for a single book, which may weigh more.

NOTE—Productions by copying press or the type-writer are first-class.

FOURTH-CLASS—All mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily withdrawn from the wrapper and examined. Rate, 1 cent per ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight, four pounds. Full prepayment compulsory. Labels, patterns, photographs, playing cards, visiting cards, address tags, paper sacks, wrapping paper with advertisements printed thereon, bill-heads, letter-heads, envelopes and other matter of the same general character, the printing upon which is not designed to instruct, amuse, cultivate the mind or taste, or impart general information, are articles of merchandise, and rate as fourth-class matter.

UNMAILABLE.

Obscene books, letters, papers, pictures and postal cards; lottery circulars and letters; liquids, gunpowder and other explosives; live animals, poisons, and any article liable to injure the mails or the persons of those handling them.

PERMISSIBLE WRITING.

No writing is permitted on third or fourth class matter except as follows: The name and address of sender on the outside or inside of the package, preceded by the word "from." On the wrapper may also be written the names and number of articles inclosed. The sender is further allowed to mark a word or passage in a book or paper to which he desires to call special attention. He may also write a simple inscription or dedication upon the cover or blank leaves of a book or pamphlet. There may be attached to any articles of merchandise, by tag or label, a mark, number, name, or letter for purpose of identification. Printed circulars may contain the written names of the sender and addressee, with the date. Any other writing on third or fourth class matter will subject the package to letter rates of postage, and render the sender liable to a fine of $10 for each offence.

RATES OF POSTAGE TO CANADA.

[The Dominion of Canada embraces all the British North American Provinces except Newfoundland.]

LETTERS AND POSTAL CARDS—Same rates and conditions of prepayment of postage as for domestic letters and postal cards.

OTHER MATTER—Same rates and conditions of transmission as for matter for delivery within the United States except that MERCHANDISE IS RIGIDLY EXCLUDED. Samples of merchandise are mailable, but they must not exceed eight ounces in weight, and are subject to a postage of 10 cents each. They must also be strictly specimens of goods for sale.

TO OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The limit of dimensions and weight for parcels addressed to foreign countries is not uniform. For example, to Belgium, France, Great Britain, Switzerland and the Argentine Republic, the maximum weight for samples of merchandise is 12 ounces, and the limit of size is 12x8x4 inches; while to Austria, Germany, Prussia, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and other countries of the Postal Union the maximum size is 8x4 x2 inches, and the weight is limited to 8¾ ounces.

Rates of Letter Postage to Foreign Countries. For one-half ounce.

†Senators holding over: Rep., 6; Dem., 6.

At the election, November 2, 1886, the people will choose not only the Governor and other State officers, four members of Congress, a Sheriff in each county, and the lower House of the General Assembly, but also twenty-four Senators—the entire Senate. The Senators and the members of the House will hold office for two years. The Legislature will meet in January, 1887, and not again after adjournment unless called in special session, and will elect a United States Senator.

The town elections for choice of local officers occur on Monday, October 4.

The following Article of Amendment to the Constitution was passed by the last two General Courts and ratified by the people—yeas 43,598, nays 8,673:

The General Court shall have full power and authority to provide for the inhabitants of the towns in this Commonwealth more than one place of public meeting within the limits of each town for the election of officers under the Constitution, and to prescribe the manner of calling, holding and conducting such meetings. All the provisions of the existing Constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby annulled

* Gains. † Member of former Senate. ‡ Former members of Assembly. Holding over: 9 Republicans, 5 Democrats.

NOTE.—New-Jersey voted in 1885 for seven members of the State Senate and a full House of Assembly, consisting of sixty members. Of the Senators six were chosen for full terms of three years each, and one (Bergen) for one year to fill a vacancy caused by death. Of these seven, the Republicans carried four and the Democrats three, being a Republican gain of three and a Democratic gain of one, or a net Republican gain of two.

Of the Assembly, the Republicans elected 31 members and the Democrats 29. The Republicans gained three and lost eight districts, making a net Democratic gain of five.

In November, 1886, the State will vote for a Governor for three years to succeed Leon Abbett, Democrat; seven members of Congress to succeed four Republicans and three Democrats; seven State Senators to succeed four Republicans and three Democrats; and 60 members of the Assembly. Nine Republican and five Democratic Senators will hold over. The Legislature, to meet in January, 1887, will elect a successor to Hon. William J. Sewell, Republican, in the U. S. Senate, for six years from March 3, 1887. Forty-one votes are necessary to control the result.

NOTE—The State Board of Canvassers declared the Davenport vote to be 23,906, and it is so printed in the table on page 75; but these Town and Ward returns show that the Davenport vote was 24,006. The Supervisors of the County in adding the 17,932 Davenport votes returned for the City of Buffalo to the 6,074 votes returned for the other districts, made the error of finding, as the product, 23,906. This error was adopted by the State Board of Canvassers.—EDITOR.

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

ALABAMA—All schools and colleges receiving State aid are required to give instruction in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to showing the injurious influence of spiritous liquors and narcotics. A like bill was passed in Maine, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Nevada and Oregon, and last year in Michigan, New-Hampshire, New-York, Rhode Island and Vermont.

ARKANSAS—At the September election Hon. Thomas C. McCrae was elected for the IIIrd District to succeed in XLIXth Congress Hon. James K. Jones, elected U. S. Senator. The vote was: McCrae, 13,775; C. V. Mitchell, Rep., 8,738. At the November election of 1884, for an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, only 17,552 votes were cast.

CALIFORNIA—The Legislature of 1885 passed a Constitutional Amendment changing the limit of the legislative session from 60 days to 100 days, and defeated a Prohibitory amendment. A Woman Suffrage amendment was lost in the House—25 to 32. The Chinese are to have, by law, separate schools. A Constitutional Amendment to tax railroads on their gross receipts, and to exempt young graperies from taxation—known as the Heath Amendment—passed both houses but was not approved by the Governor, and it fell.

CONNECTICUT—The Senate rejected—yeas 5, nays 15—the House bill giving women the suffrage in school district meetings. The House defeated a Constitutional Amendment that State officers be elected by a plurality, instead of a majority as at present. A Constitutional Amendment to make the term of office of Sheriffs four years, instead of three, was continued by the last Legislature to the next.

DAKOTA—Governor Pierce vetoed the Woman Suffrage bill passed by the Legislature. A census taken in 1885 shows population to be 415,664. Territorial Convention adopted a State Constitution to be submitted to Congress. The popular vote was: Number of votes cast, 31,754; for the Constitution, 25,132; against the Constitution, 6,522. For temporary Capital—Pierre, 10,574; Huron, 12,695. For Prohibition, 15,552; against Prohibition, 15,218. For Minority Representation, 16,640; against Minority Representation, 11,256. On December 15 the new Legislature of the "State of Dakota" met at Huron, 90 of the 99 members present, and organized by electing officers. The newly-elected State officers were qualified; and Judges Moody and Alonzo J. Edgerton were chosen U. S. Senators in case the State be admitted by Congress into the Union.

DELAWARE—The House voted—yeas 15, nays 6—on the Constitutional Amendment increasing the representation of New-Castle County. As three-fourths were required, the amendment was negatived. The vote was reconsidered February 26—yeas 15, nays 5—but no subsequent action was taken. The other pending amendments were not acted on.

FLORIDA—On May 5, 1885, a Constitutional Convention was elected, and their new Constitution was ratified November 3 by the people.

GEORGIA—A "local option" law was passed providing that one-tenth of the voters in any county can secure the holding of an election at which the people may vote for or against the sale of liquors. If the vote is for the sale of liquor, no further action can be had for two years; if for prohibition, liquor can neither be sold nor given away except by licensed druggists for medicinal or scientific purposes. Nothing is to prevent the manufacture, sale and use of domestic wines or cider, or the sale of wine for sacramental purposes, provided they are not sold in bar-rooms at retail.

IDAHO—The constitutionality of a Territorial law prescribing an anti-polygamous test-oath for voters has been maintained by the courts.

ILLINOIS—At the November election, Hon. Albert J. Hopkins was elected to XLIXth Congress for the Vth District to succeed Hon. Reuben Ellwood, deceased. The vote was: Hopkins, 8,977; Richard Bishop, 3,211; scattering, 51. A civil rights bill was passed, which gives colored people equal rights with the whites in hotels, restaurants, theatres and other public places. It provides that for any violation the person offending shall pay not less than $25 nor more than $500 to the person aggrieved, and shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall pay a fine not to exceed $500, or shall be imprisoned not more than one year, or both. A judgment in favor of the party aggrieved, or punishment upon an indictment, is to be a bar to either prosecution respectively.

INDIANA—A High License bill was defeated in the Legislature.

IOWA—The Supreme Court, March 17, 1885, unanimously affirmed the constitutionality of the Prohibition law. It sustained the right to enjoin "saloons" as nuisances, giving any citizen the power to proceed against the keeper of one by filing an affidavit and securing a writ of injunction to abate a nuisance.

MAINE—A proposition to change the State elections from September to November passed the House, but failed in the Senate.

MASSACHUSETTS—An act passed prohibiting the sale of liquors, except by inn-keepers to registered guests, between 11 p. m. and 6 a. m. It took effect May 1. The House, by a vote of 61 to 130, refused third reading, May 5, to a bill extending to women the right of municipal suffrage. Population in 1885: 1,941,465, a gain of 158,380 since 1880. Out of 350 towns 150 have lost inhabitants. The cities have made the gain. Ten years ago Lowell was the second city in numbers; now Worcester is next to Boston, Lynn has gone ahead of Lawrence, and Somerville of Salem. New-Bedford, which was the ninth city, is now the eighth in size. The chief falling off has been in the textile manufacturing towns.

MICHIGAN—A Prohibitory Constitutional Amendment passed the House by a two-thirds vote, but failed in the Senate—yeas 18, nays 10. A bill to re-establish the death penalty passed the House—yeas 59, nays 29—but failed in the Senate. A bill making, in civil cases, a jury to consist of six persons, failed.

MINNESOTA—A High License bill passed the House—yeas 52, nays 39—but was defeated in the Senate. State census in 1885: 1,118,486, a gain since 1880 of 337,713, or 42¼ per cent.

MISSOURI—The House defeated—52 to 54—a bill to submit Prohibition to a popular vote.

NEBRASKA—A law abolishes the regular grand jury and adopts the "information" system. The change affects only the beginning of a prosecution.

NEVADA—The "Anti-Treating" bill became a law by lapse of time, the Governor having neither signed nor vetoed it.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE—In March, 1886, there will be a popular vote on calling a Constitutional Convention.

NEW-JERSEY—A Prohibitory Amendment passed the House, but was defeated in the Senate.

NEW-MEXICO—A census taken in 1885 shows the population to be 131,935, a gain from 1880 of 12,420.

NEW-YORK—The bill to change the time for holding municipal elections in New-York City from fall to spring, was defeated in the Senate—13 to 16. The Assembly defeated a bill for biennial sessions of the Legislature. The Woman Suffrage bill was defeated, April 7, by a vote of 56 to 57.

OHIO—A proposition to submit a "Liquor License" amendment was defeated in the House.

OREGON—A "local option" law was passed, and license fee is fixed at $300 a year.

PENNSYLVANIA—At November election Hon. John A. Swope was chosen for XIXth District to succeed Hon. William A. Duncan, deceased, by a vote of 16,061; John Bair, Rep., 12,400, and R. C. Hays, Pro., 636. A Constitutional Amendment to abolish the poll-tax was defeated in the Senate, May 5—yeas 9, nays 45—and a bill to punish wife-beaters by whipping passed the House but failed in the Senate. A Constitutional Amendment to change Section V, Art. V, relative to judicial districts, passed the Senate but failed in the House.

RHODE ISLAND—An amendment to grant foreign-born citizens who served in the Union Army during the Rebellion the suffrage on the same terms as native-born citizens, a Woman's Suffrage Amendment and a Prohibitory Amendment passed the Legislature, March 20, March 24 and March 17 respectively, and require approval of the next Legislature before submission to the people. Hon. Nathan F. Dixon was elected, February 5, 1885, to succeed Hon. Jonathan Chace as Representative in XLVIIIth Congress, by a vote of 2,258 to 998 for Philip W. Hawkins, and scattering, 4.

TENNESSEE—A Prohibitory amendment passed the last Legislature and will be submitted to the next.

TEXAS—June 19 the Court of Appeals held that where local option has been adopted in a county the inhabitants of any justice's precinct, town, or city, in the county, after a lapse of twelve months, may hold a second election for their particular locality, and if the second election results in a defeat of local option, the same is, as to that particular locality, as completely repealed as though it had been repealed by a county election. This, it is thought, will result in the destruction of "local option" in Texas. A Prohibitory Amendment passed the House—72 to 16—but failed in the Senate.

UTAH—The U. S. Supreme Court, March 23, 1885, sustained the constitutionality of the Edmunds Act, and, December 14, 1885, affirmed the judgment of the Territorial Supreme Court enforcing the third section of the "Edmunds Act," which makes it a misdemeanor for any male person to cohabit with more than one woman.

WEST VIRGINIA—A Prohibitory Amendment passed the Senate and failed in the House by 2 votes.

WISCONSIN—A bill for high graded license was passed. The census taken in 1885 shows the population to be 1,563,421, a gain over 1880 of 247,948.

Election Returns

From every State and Territory which voted in 1886 in alphabetical order, with a statement of the result of Representatives to Congress on each State officer chosen, and on the political complexion of each branch of the Legislature. All these results are compared with the like results ascertained two or four years ago. In CONNECTICUT the vote on the new Senators chosen is given by aggregates in each district and the vote on Governor by towns and counties. In NEW-JERSEY, the vote on Senators and Congressmen is given by aggregates in each district, and the vote on Governor is given by towns and counties. In NEW-YORK, the vote on Assemblymen is given by districts, and on the Associate Justice by towns and counties; and in New-York City and in Brooklyn and Kings County there are detailed votes by Assembly Districts on all important local offices filled.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC

FOR 1887.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1887 there will be four eclipses, two of the Sun and two of the Moon.

I.—A partial eclipse of the Moon, February 8, visible in the United States and also in the Pacific Ocean and part of Asia. Beginning of eclipse, 4:14 a. m.; middle, 5:22 a. m.; end, 6:30 a.m., Eastern standard time. Magnitude of eclipse=0·436 (Moon's diameter=1).

II.—An annular eclipse of the Sun, February 22, invisible in the United States. The eclipse will be visible in the South Pacific Ocean. The path of the annular phase begins south of Australia and ends on the west coast of South America in latitude 20° south.

III.—A partial eclipse of the Moon, August 3, invisible in the United States; visible in the Eastern Hemisphere. Magnitude of eclipse = 0·474. (Moon's diameter = 1.)

IV.—A total eclipse of the Sun, August 18, invisible in the United States; visible in Europe and Asia. The path of totality begins west of Berlin, passes over that city and Konigsberg, crosses Russia a little to the north of Moscow, passes over Asia in a southeasterly direction, and crossing Japan near Yeddo, ends in the North Pacific Ocean. The totality will last 3.25 min.

THE SEASONS.

Spring begins March 20, 5:10 p. m.	Autumn begins Sept. 23, 4:09 a. m.

ECLIPSES OF JUPITER'S SATELLITES.

In the following table are given the phases of the eclipses of Jupiter's satellites visible at Washington, in Washington mean time. The satellites are represented by the Roman numerals, I., II., III., according to their distance from Jupiter. "Dis." means the disappearance or immersion of the satellite in the shadow of the planet; "Re.," its reappearance. The fourth satellite will not be eclipsed during 1887.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS,

PASSED AT THE FIRST SESSION, FORTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

[December 7, 1885—August 5, 1886.]

ALCOHOLIC DRINKS.

Chap. CCCLXII.—The nature of alcoholic drinks and narcotics, and special instruction as to their effects upon the human system, shall be included in the branches of study taught in the common schools, and in the Military and Naval Schools, and shall be studied and taught as thoroughly and in the same manner as other like required branches are in said schools, by the use of text-books in the hands of pupils where other branches are thus studied in said schools, and by all pupils in all said schools throughout the Territories, in the Military and Naval Academies, and in the District of Columbia, and in all Indian and colored schools in the Territories. No certificate shall be granted to any person to teach in the public schools of the District of Columbia or Territories, after the 1st day of January, 1888, who has not passed a satisfactory examination in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the nature and the effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics upon the human system.—[Approved May 20, 1886.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Chap. CCCXXXVIII.—When any cadet of the United States Military Academy has gone through all its classes and received a regular diploma from the academic staff, he may be promoted and commissioned as a second lieutenant in any arm or corps of the Army in which there may be a vacancy and the duties of which he may have been judged competent to perform; and in case there shall not at the time be a vacancy in such arm or corps, he may, at the discretion of the President, be promoted and commissioned in it as an additional second lieutenant, with the usual pay and allowances of a second lieutenant, until a vacancy shall happen.—[Approved May 17, 1886.

Chap. CCCXLI.—The charge of desertion now standing on the rolls and records in the office of the Adjutant-General of the Army against any soldier who served in the late war of the rebellion, by reason of his having enlisted in any regiment, troop, or company without having first received a discharge from the regiment, troop, or company in which he had previously served, shall be removed in all cases wherein it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, from such rolls and records or from other satisfactory testimony, that such reenlistment was not made for the purpose of securing bounty or other gratuity that he would not have been entitled to had he remained under his original term of enlistment: Provided, That no soldier shall be relieved under this act who, not being sick or wounded, left his command, without proper authority, while the same was in the presence of the enemy, or who, at the time of leaving his command, was in arrest or under charges, or in whose case the period of absence from the service exceeded three months. Applications under this act must be made within five years.—[Approved May 17, 1886.

Chap. DCCCXLIX.—The President is authorized to have built of steel of domestic manufacture having a tensile strength of not less than sixty thousand pounds per square inch and an elongation in eight inches of not less than twenty-five per centum—

First. Two sea-going double-bottomed armored vessels of about six thousand tons displacement, designed for a speed of at least sixteen knots an hour, with engines having all necessary appliances for working under forced draught, and costing, including engines and machinery and excluding armament, not more than $2,500,000 each. Said vessels shall have each a complete torpedo outfit and be armed in the most effective manner.

Second. One protected double-bottomed cruiser of not less than three thousand five hundred nor more than five thousand tons displacement, designed to have the highest practicable speed and furnished with the best type of modern engines, furnished with necessary appliances for working under forced draught. Said vessel shall cost, including engines and machinery and excluding armament, not exceeding $1,500,000.

Third. One first-class torpedo-boat, costing in the aggregate not more than $100,000.

The double-turreted monitors Puritan, Amphitrite, Monadnock and Terror are to be completed at a total cost, exclusive of armament, not to exceed $3,178,046. The armor to be of domestic manufacture. One or more of the new vessels to be built and one or more of the monitors to be completed in one or more of the navy-yards of the United States. The Secretary of the Navy may purchase abroad only such shafting as it may be impossible to obtain in the United States in time for use in the construction of the vessels herein provided for.

The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to contract with the Pneumatic Dynamite-Gun Company of New-York for one dynamite-gun cruiser, to be not less than two hundred and thirty feet long, twenty-six feet breadth of beam, seven and one-half feet draught, three thousand two hundred horse-power, and guaranteed to attain a speed of twenty knots an hour, and to be equipped with three pneumatic dynamite-guns of ten and one-half inch calibre, and guaranteed to throw shells containing two hundred pounds of dynamite or other high explosives at least one mile, each gun to be capable of being discharged once in two minutes, at a price not to exceed $350,000.

The sum of $2,500,000 is appropriated toward the completion of the vessels.—[Approved August 3, 1886.

BANKS.

Chap. LXXXIII.—Any national banking association may, with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock increase its capital stock, in accordance with existing laws, to any sum approved by the said Comptroller, and may change its name or the place where its operations of discount and deposit are to be carried on, to any other place within the same State, not more than thirty miles distant with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock. [Approved May 1, 1886.

INDIANS.

Chap. CCCXCV.—The Kansas and Arkansas Valley Railway was authorized to construct a railroad through the Indian Territory, beginning near Fort Smith and running northwesterly to such point on the northern boundary line of the Indian Territory between the Arkansas River in Cowley County and the Caney River in Chautauqua County, Kan., as the company may select; with the right to contract a branch to Coffeyville.—[Approved June 1, 1886.

Chap. DCCXLIV.—The Kansas City, Fort Scott and Gulf Railway Company was authorized to construct a railroad, beginning near and south of Baxter Springs, Kan., thence through the Indian Territory to the northwest corner of Arkansas, thence from Evansville through the Cherokee Nation to Fort Smith.—[Became a law by lapse of time. Presented June 24, 1886.

Chap. DCI.—The Denison and Wachita Valley Railway Company was authorized to build a railroad through the Indian Territory, beginning on Red River near Denison, Tex., thence in the direction of Fort Smith, Ark., to a point of intersection with the projected line of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway in the Indian Territory from Fort Smith to Paris, Tex.—[Approved July 1, 1886.

Chap. CCCXCVII.—The time for filing with the Secretary of the Interior a map showing the definite location of the road of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Company, which was granted by the act of August 2, 1882, the right of way through the lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of Indians, has been extended two years from June 1, 1886.—[Approved June 1, 1886.

LANDS.

Chap. LXXXVIII.—All homestead settlers on public lands within the railway limits restricted to less than 160 acres of land, who have heretofore made or may hereafter make the additional entry allowed either by the act approved March 3, 1879, or the act approved July 1, 1879, after having made final proof of settlement and cultivation under the original entry, shall be entitled to have the lands covered by the additional entry patented without any further cost or proof of settlement and cultivation.—[Approved May 6, 1886.

Chap. DCCLX.—Forfeits grant made August 11, 1856, to aid in building the following railroads: Tuscaloosa and Mobile, Mobile and New-Orleans, Elyton and Beard's Bluff, Memphis and Charleston, Savannah and Albany, New-Orleans and State Line, and Iron Mountain of Arkansas.—[Approved July 10, 1886.

Chap. DCCLXIV.—No lands granted to any railroad corporation by any act of Congress shall be exempt from taxation by States, Territories and municipal corporations on account of the lien of the United States upon the same for the costs of surveying, selecting and conveying the same or because no patent has been issued therefor; but this provision shall not apply to lands unsurveyed: Provided, That any such land sold for taxes shall be taken by the purchaser subject to the lien for costs of surveying, selecting and conveying, to be paid in such manner by the purchaser as the Secretary of the Interior may by rule provide, and to all liens of the United States, all mortgages of the United States and all rights of the United States in respect of such lands: Provided further, That this act shall apply only to lands situated opposite to and coterminous with completed portions of said roads and in organized counties: Provided further, That at any sale of lands under the provisions of this act the United States may become a preferred purchaser, and in such case the lands sold shall be restored to the public domain and disposed of as provided by the laws relating thereto.—[Approved July 10, 1886.

Chap. DCXXVII.—The Atlantic and Pacific Railway grant made July 27, 1866, and in subsequent acts is restored to the public domain, except the right of way, land for stations, &c.—[Approved July 6, 1886.

OLEOMARGARINE.

Chap. DCCCXL.—The substances known as oleomargarine, butterine, &c., calculated or intended to be sold as butter or for butter are taxed two cents. Imported oleomargarine shall pay an internal revenue tax of fifteen cents per pound. Manufacturers of oleomargarine shall pay $600; wholesale dealers in it, $480; retail dealers, $48. Oleomargarine is to be packed by the manufacturer in firkins, tubs, or other wooden packages of not less than ten pounds and stamped; and retail dealers must sell only from original stamped packages of not less than ten pounds, and shall properly pack the oleomargarine sold by them in suitable wooden or paper packages, marked and branded as required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Penalties are prescribed for violation of these provisions.—[Approved August 2, 1886.

PENSIONS.

Chap. XXII.—The rate of pensions for widows, minor children, and dependent relatives now on the pension roll, or hereafter to be placed on the pension roll, and entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided, shall be twelve dollars per month; and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the existing allowance of two dollars per month for each child under the age of sixteen years: Provided, That this act shall apply only to widows who were married to the deceased soldier or sailor prior to its passage and to those who may hereafter marry prior to or during the service of a soldier or sailor. [Approved March 19, 1886.

Chap. DCCCXCIX.—The rate of pension to pensioners who in the military or naval service and in line of duty shall have lost one hand or one foot, or been totally disabled in the same, shall be thirty dollars a month; for loss of an arm at or above the elbow or a leg at or above the knee, or been totally disabled in the same, thirty-six dollars a month; for the loss of an arm at the shoulder-joint or a leg at the hip-joint, or so near the joint as to prevent the use of an artificial limb, forty-five dollars a month: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to repeal Sec. 4,699 of Revised Statutes, or to change the rate of eighteen dollars a month therein mentioned, to be proportionately divided for any degree of disability established for which Sec. 4,695 makes no provision.—[Approved August 4, 1886.

POST OFFICE.

Chap. DLXVIII.—The fee for each domestic money-order not exceeding five dollars shall be five cents—to take effect July 29, 1886.—[Approved June 29, 1886.

PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION.

Chap. IV—In case of removal, death, resignation, or inability of both the President and Vice-President, a member of the Cabinet shall, in the following order, act as President until the disability is removed or a President elected: The Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of War, Attorney-General, Postmaster-General, Secretary of the Navy, Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That whenever the powers and duties of the office of President of the United States shall devolve upon any of the persons named herein, if Congress be not then in session, or if it would not meet in accordance with law within twenty days thereafter, it shall be the duty of the person upon whom said powers and duties shall devolve to issue a proclamation convening Congress in extraordinary session, giving twenty days' notice of the time of meeting.—[Approved January 19, 1886.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

were authorized at Fort Smith, Arkansas; San Antonio, Texas; Rochester, N. Y.; Belfast, Maine; Savannah, Georgia; El Paso, Texas; Oshkosh, Wisconsin; Jacksonville, Fla. Additional legislation was passed for the buildings formerly authorized at Jackson, Tenn., Dallas, Tex.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Wichita, Kan.; Hannibal, Mo.; Peoria, Ill.; Frankfort, Ky.; Des Moines, Iowa; Williamsport, Pa.; Keokuk, Iowa; Greensborough, N. C.; Galveston, Tex.; Clarksburg, West Va.; Oxford, Mich. A new building for the accommodation of the Congressional Library at Washington, D. C.; and the purchase of the old Produce Exchange building, New-York City, for Army purposes, were authorized.

TERRITORIES.

Chap. DCCCXVIII.—No Territory of the United States or any political or municipal corporation or sub-division of any such Territory, shall hereafter make any subscription to the capital stock of any incorporated company, or company or association having corporate powers, or in any manner loan its credit to or use it for the benefit of any such company or association, or borrow any money for the use of any such company or association.

No law of any Territorial Legislature shall authorize any debt to be contracted by or on behalf of such Territory except in the following cases: To meet a casual deficit in the revenues, to pay the interest upon the Territorial debt, to suppress insurrections, or to provide for the public defence, except that in addition to any indebtedness created for such purposes, the Legislature may authorize a loan for the erection of penal, charitable or educational institutions for such Territory, if the total indebtedness of the Territory is not thereby made to exceed 1 per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property in such Territory as shown by the last general assessment for taxation.

No political or municipal corporation, county, or other sub-division in any of the Territories shall ever become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to any amount in the aggregate, including existing indebtedness, exceeding 4 per centum on the value of the taxable property within such corporation, county or sub-division, to be ascertained by the last assessment for Territorial and county taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all bonds or obligations in excess of such amount given by such corporation shall be void: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to affect the validity of any act of any Territorial Legislature heretofore enacted, or of any obligations existing or contracted thereunder, nor to preclude the issuing of bonds already contracted for in pursuance of express provisions of law; nor to prevent any Territorial legislature from legalizing the acts of any county, municipal corporation or sub-division of any Territory as to any bonds heretofore issued or contracted to be issued.—[Approved July 30, 1886.

TRADES UNIONS.

Chap. DLXVII.—The term "National Trade Union," in the meaning of this act, shall signify any association of working people having two or more branches in the States or Territories of the United States for the purpose of aiding its members to become more skilful and efficient workers, the promotion of their general intelligence, the elevation of their character, the regulation of their wages and their hours and conditions of labor, the protection of their individual rights in the prosecution of their trade or trades, the raising of funds for the benefit of sick, disabled or unemployed members or the families of deceased members, or for such other object or objects for which working people may lawfully combine, having in view their mutual protection or benefit. National trade unions shall, upon filing their articles of incorporation in the office of the Recorder of the District of Columbia, become a corporation under the technical name by which said National trade union desires to be known to the trade; and shall have the right to sue and be sued, to implead and be impleaded, to grant and receive, in its corporate or technical name property, real, personal and mixed, and to use said property and the proceeds and income thereof for the objects of said corporation as in its charter defined: Provided, That each union may hold only so much real estate as may be required for the immediate purposes of its incorporation. An incorporated National trade union may establish branches and sub-unions in any Territory of the United States. The headquarters of an incorporated National trade union shall be located in the District of Columbia.—[Approved June 29, 1886.

PARTY PLATFORMS, 1886,

TOUCHING TARIFF, TEMPERANCE, CIVIL SERVICE AND EDUCATION.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORMS.

ARKANSAS, July 22.

We demand that the system of protection to American industries, which has been built up and sustained by the Republican party, be maintained in all its integrity.

We favor a submission to the people of the State of an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture or sale of alcoholic liquors in the State.

We denounce the National House of Representatives for refusing to pass the Blair (Common School) bill.

CALIFORNIA, August 26.

We demand in behalf of the great wool-growing interest of our State a restoration of the wool tariff of 1867; denounce the recent attempt of the Democratic majority in the National House of Representatives to pass the Morrison bill reducing tariff duties and placing wool on the free list.

CONNECTICUT, September 9.

We favor a tariff upon the imported products of low-priced foreign labor, fairly and justly distributed so as to protect the interests of American wageworkers without adding to their burdens, and we point to the history of Republican legislation as exhibiting such wise revisions of the tariff laws from time to time as have secured these valuable results for the country and people. The party whose quick sense of its duty to the people is responsible for those achievements can be depended upon to make such revisions of those laws as shall be found to be wise and advantageous to the real interests of American industry. We condemn the Democratic party for its persistent efforts to overthrow the protective system, efforts which have paralyzed the industries of the country, and which would have succeeded except for the solid vote of the Republican Congressmen.

We denounce the attempt of the Democratic party at the last session of Congress to change the tariff laws, as an attack upon American labor, and calculated to reduce the wages of the laboring man and degrade his condition.

The traffic in intoxicating liquors is justly chargeable with being a great cause for poverty, ignorance and crime. Our existing local option laws are in accord with the State's ancient theories of local government, and the Republican party is ready, as it always has been, for the enactment of such laws, tending to eradicate the evils of intemperance, as may be demanded by public sentiment.

We demand an honest and thorough enforcement of the Civil Service law, and as far as practicable we favor the extension of its principles to municipal and State administrations.

ILLINOIS, August 1.

We believe in the protection of American labor and denounce as unwise and unpatriotic the attempt to embody in our National legislation the principles of free trade.

We approve of Civil Service reform.

Intelligent and prosperous free labor is the corner-stone on which our free Government is founded, and we protest against its being impoverished by competition with the productions of the underpaid labor of the Old World or degraded by the importation of heathen or pauper labor from China or any other portion of the world.

INDIANA, September 2.

We favor the maintenance of the principle of protection under which the resources of the State and the Nation have been and are being developed, and whereby the wages of workingmen are from 15 to 30 per cent higher than under the revenue tariff in force before the Republican party came into power.

Favoring the reduction and readjustment of the tariff from time to time as circumstances may require, in our opinion the duties should be reduced as low as will be allowed by a close observance of the necessity to protect that portion of our manufactories and labor whose prosperity is essential to our National safety and independence. Upon the basis of affording protection to the products and results of American skill and industry, we at the same time condemn the declaration of the Democratic party of Indiana in favor of practical free trade as a serious menace to the prosperity of the State and to the welfare and advancement of workingmen.

We favor a thorough and honest enforcement of the Civil Service law and the extension of its principle to the State Administration wherever it can be made practicable.

The attempted domination by the Liquor League of political parties and legislation is a menace to free institutions which must be met and defeated. The traffic in intoxicating liquors has always been under legislative restraint, and we favor such laws as will permit the people in their several localities to invoke such measures of restriction as they may deem wise to compel the traffic to compensate for the burdens it imposes on society and relieve the oppressions of local taxation.

IOWA, August 25.

We denounce the abuses of the elective privilege which, in the Southern section of our country and in many cities of the North, continue to make elections a mockery and delusion, and the fraud and suppression which continually defeat the popular will and prevent fair and proper representation; and we insist upon the right of every American citizen to freely cast his ballot and to have the same honestly counted and truly declared.

The Republican party, standing for that principle of equal citizenship to which is due the superiority of this over all other nations, and recognizing the necessity of protecting against the aggression of capital, heartily indorses every legitimate effort of organized labor to secure and exact justice between labor and capital.

We demand protection for American labor against competition with pauper labor abroad, and against the product of convict and imported contract labor at home.

That the laws for the suppression of intemperance were enacted as part of the general legislation of our State in obedience to the will of the majority; that we behold with alarm the continued efforts of the Democratic party of Iowa to encourage resistance to these laws and to inflame the passions of the lawless classes in regard to them, thereby menacing social order and leading to the perpetration of murder and other outrages. While fully recognizing the right of the people to agitate for the repeal of these or any other laws which time may prove ineffectual for the beneficent purposes of their enactment, we insist that these laws and all other laws of this State shall be faithfully and fearlessly enforced.

KANSAS, July 7.

We demand that system of protection known as the American system, which has been built up and fostered by the Republican party for twenty-five years, be maintained in all its integrity, so that our industries may be systematically developed, our commerce extended, labor receive its just compensation and reward and capital find remunerative employment.

The people of Kansas have adopted prohibition as the settled policy of this State and have deliberately decided that the saloon with its corrupt and demoranzing influences and associations, wherein every form of vice, immorality and crime is fostered, must go, and we are in favor of carrying into effect this verdict of the people by such amendments of the present law as practical experience has shown to be necessary, and by the election of law officers who will so firmly and faithfully enforce it as to render it impossible to sell intoxicating liquors in the State, except for purposes specified in the prohibition amendment to the constitution.

MAINE, June 9.

That the abstractions of the free trade theorists are not adapted to the industrial wants of this country and that the protection of American labor is the true political economy of the American people as long as they are obliged to compete with the manufacturers and ill paid labor of the Old World. We call the special attention of all workingmen to the fact that wages in the United States under a protective tariff are from 15 to 30 per cent higher than under the revenue tariff in force before the Republicans came in power in 1861—wages at both periods being counted on the gold basis in money, or reckoned in comparison with the commodities necessary for living.

10. Resolved, That the Republicans of Maine, now, as heretofore, indorse and approve the law for the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors. The law and its several amendments were enacted by Republican legislators, and this convention now declare in answer to misrepresentations in many quarters that the general effect of the prohibitory law has been beneficent and has proved in a marked degree helpful to the cause of temperance in Maine. It has largely reduced the consumption of alcoholic liquors and has in many ways contributed to the moral and material welfare of the State.

11. Resolved, That the Republicans of Maine having cordially and in good faith contributed through their Senators and Representatives to the enactment of the Civil Service law, sincerely regret that under a Democratic administration of the Government its efficiency has been greatly impaired, and that its destruction is now menaced by a bill pending in the Democratic House reported from a Democratic committee.

MASSACHUSETTS, September 29.

We firmly maintain the principle of protection to American labor and American industries. While anxious that the inequalities in the tariff shall be corrected and the duties on imports so adjusted as to conform to the changes in the needs of the business of the country and to provide a revenue equal to the just demads of the Government, we oppose all horizontal reductions and such mischievous attempts at intermeddling with the tariff as the so-called "Morrison bill."

We give to the Civil Service acts passed by a Republican Congress and the Republican Legislature of this Commonwealth our hearty approval and support. We will oppose all open or covert attacks upon them, and encourage no action which tends to impair their efficiency. Fitness, not political influence, should determine appointments to office, removals should be made for cause alone, and incumbents should be free from enforced partisan duty and assessment. We favor the extension of these principles to all business offices in State and Nation.

Recognizing in intemperance the destroyer of manhood, a means of corruption in politics, and the most fruitful source of pauperism and crime, we imperatively affirm that both protection and philanthropy demand the most strict enforcement of the laws enacted to suppress the enormous evil. We favor such further legislation as may be necessary to render the existing laws more effective. Believing, also, that whenever a great public question demands settlement an opportunity should be given the people to express their opinion thereon, we favor the submission to the people of an amendment to our constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors to be used as a beverage.

NEW-JERSEY, October 5.

We are in favor of the submission of the question of the regulation, control or prohibition of the liquor traffic to the votes of the people at elections specially provided for that purpose.

MICHIGAN, August 26.

We favor a tariff upon the imported products of low-priced foreign labor, fairly and justly distributed, so as to protect the interests of American wageworkers without adding to their burdens, and we point to the history of Republican legislation as exhibiting such wise revisions of the tariff laws from time to time as have secured these valuable results for the country and the people. The party whose quick sense of its duty to the people is responsible for those achievements can be depended upon to make such future revisions of these laws as shall be found to be the most advantageous to the real interests of American industry, and conspicuous among the changes we now deem wise and salutary is the restoration of the tariff of 1867 on wool. The record of the Democratic party shows its utter incapacity to deal with this subject.

We believe that when any considerable portion of the State desires to express itself by vote upon a change in the organic law, it ought to be allowed to do so in a constitutional manner, and recognizing the evils of intemperance and desiring to overcome those evils, we believe the temperance question is one upon which that expression should be so permitted. We further demand the thorough enforcement of the present tax and police laws as they stand on the statute books.

We invite attention to the achievements of the Republican party, such as the preservation of the Union, the emancipation of the slaves, the reconstruction of the States, the enfranchisement of the freedman, the protection of American labor, the passing of the Homestead law, the restoration and preservation of the public credit, the resumption of specie payment and the firm establishment in the National statutes of the principle of genuine Civil Service reform.

MISSOURI, September 2.

The Republican party of Missouri pledges itself anew to those cardinal principles which have controlled it for a quarter of a century—protection to American labor, protection to the American voter, protection to the American taxpayer, and protection to American citizens at home and abroad.

That whenever a respectable number of the citizens of the State shall petition the Legislature for the submission of any proposition to amend, change or modify the constitution, in any matter which is a proper subject of organic law, their request should be granted.

MINNESOTA, September 22.

We favor an early and judicious revision of the tariff, with a simplification and reduction of customs duties, to which work the Republican party, by its last National platform, stands pledged as soon as the people restore to it control of Congress.

This convention approves of the action of the majority of the Minnesota delegation in the House of Representatives in voting to consider the bill for the revision of the tariff.

We are in favor of a genuine system of reform of the Civil Service, based on the appointment to office, after proper examination, of men of capacity, honesty and fidelity, and we commend the Civil Service law, passed by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican Executive, as a step in the right direction; and we arraign the Democratic party for an utter disregard of every principle of Civil Service reform and for its broken pledges.

The Republican party of Minnesota is in favor of high license, local option, and a rigid enforcement of existing laws relating to the liquor traffic.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE, September 14.

That the development of American industries, and the protection of American labor against the cheap manufactures and poorly paid labor of Europe, by means of a tariff, levied for revenue and protection also, upon manufactured products brought into competition, with our own, is the best policy and the true political economy of this Nation. And that the free trade heresies which permeate the Democratic party, as evinced by its public declaration and by the Morrison tariff bill, reported from a Democratic Committee of Ways and Means, and supported by nearly every Democratic member of Congress, are convincing proof of the continued hostility of the Democratic party to American industry, of its purpose to degrade labor and reduce wages, and of its indifference to the best interests of the country.

We believe that the principle of prohibition, which has prevailed as the policy of this State for thirty years, has done much to render the liquor traffic odious, build up the temperance sentiment of the State and reduced to the minimum the unmitigated evil of the sale and use of intoxicating liquors. To supplant this principle by license would overthrow for a paltry revenue all that has been gained in moral advance and substantial progress in this reform, and we call on all well-wishers of their State and and of their fellow-men to join us in preventing the restoration of a license policy as proclaimed by the Democratic party of New-Hampshire, and in the faithful enforcement of the law.

It is the right of the people to have submitted such constitutional amendments as they may desire, and we favor the submission of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

The law for the reform of the Civil Service was passed under a Republican Administration in obedience to a strong and popular demand for the lessening of the evils of political proscription, and consequent demoralization and corruption in politics. The law should be faithfully and honestly enforced; but President Cleveland's Administration, by numerous and frequent violations of its letter and spirit, and the Democratic party in Congress by their constant efforts to nullify and destroy it, are guilty of flagrant hypocrisy and unfaithfulness to their definite pledges, by platform and otherwise, to give the law a fair trial and observe it in good faith, while no advance has been made or suggested in extending the merit principle. We demand its further extension, to the end that merit, not favoritism, should control the appointments and promotions in the subordinate Civil Service of the Republic.

OHIO, August 25.

We believe in the Republican doctrine of tariff, not only for revenue, but also for the protection and development of American labor. We demand in behalf of the great wool-growing interests of our State a restoration of the wool tariff of 1867, and we denounce the recent attempt of the Democratic majority in the National House of Representatives to pass the Morrison bill, reducing tariff duties and placing wool on the free list.

Favoring as we do every legitimate and constitutional means for diminishing or eradicating the evils resulting from the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and recommending such legislation as will keep abreast with enlightened public sentiment on this question, we commend the Dow law as a wise and practical measure tending to that end.

PENNSYLVANIA, June 30.

The products of the farm and dairy should not be lost sight of in the list of American industries to be protected under the American system, and both National and State Legislatures should protect them from dangerous and unjust competition and from any or all adulterations and all counterfeits. Our hostility is likewise proclaimed to the Morrison bill, not only because it is an advanced step in the direction of free trade, but because it designs to permit raw materials to be imported duty free and strikes at the prosperity of the farm, the mine and the workshop.

To the end that our industries may be systematically developed, our commerce extended, labor receive its just rewards and capital find remunerative employment, we demand that the system of protection, known as the American system, which has been re-established, built up and fostered by the Republican party for twenty-five years, be maintained in its integrity. And we demand further that this system, under which the wealth of this country has been more than trebled in a single generation, and which affords a fair and liberal protection to our agricultural and manufacturing interests and the individual classes employed in connection therewith, be also extended to our commerce, so that by the establishment and maintenance of a commercial marine we may diversify industry, find new channels for the overcrowded ranks of labor, make use of the products of the forest, mine and mill in building our own ships and provide for the Nation's defence as well as the preservation of its honor by training a body of men for service upon the seas, furnishing ships which can be transferred to the service of the Nation in case of need, and securing the establishment of shipyards and machinery, which will enable us as a nation to construct entirely within ourselves when necessity requires, a navy which can meet the demands of modern naval warfare.

Whereas, There is an evident desire on the part of a large number of intelligent and respectable citizens of Pennsylvania to amend the constitution by inserting a clause prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage within the limits of this Commonwealth, therefore:

Resolved, That it is the opinion and judgment of this convention that the Legislature of the State should at once adopt measures providing for the submission of this great question to a vote of the people in accordance with the true spirit of our free institutions.

TENNESSEE, June 16.

5. That, whereas the protection of one's own household is not only the impulse of human nature, but the rule of Christian religion, therefore, we declare it to be a high moral and political duty for our Government to protect the educated laboring men of free America from all manner of hurtful competition with the half-paid, half-fed, half-clothed and half-educated laborer of despotic Europe, and that in levying tariff duties on European goods brought here for sale Congress should so apportion imports as to give the greatest possible protection to the American laboring man, and should tax highest those articles intended to gratify pride and luxury, to the end that tariff duties may be light est on the poor and heaviest on the rich, and we, therefore, demand the earliest possible repeal of the internal revenue system.

8. That we, recognizing the sovereignty of the people do, in response to the demand made through their Representatives in the last Legislature, pronounce in favor of submission to them for their adoption or rejection, the proposed constitutional amendment.

That, whereas a free government, based on universal suffrage, makes universal education necessary to its successful existence, we favor liberal State and county aid to our free schools; and we especially hail with delight the bill now long pending in Congress, known as the Blair bill, and we earnestly pray Congress to speedily pass the same; to all the friends of said bill we extend our hearty thanks, and we denounce the Democratic opposition to said bill as a high crime against the poor children of the Nation.

TEXAS, August 26.

The people in a republic being the source of power, we believe it to be the duty of the Legislature to submit to the people, for their ratification or rejection, such amendments to our organic laws as they may ask, such submission, when petitioned by a sufficient number, being in accordance with the Bill of Rights.

That the Republican party having ever been in favor of the education of the masses to the fullest extent within the means of the Government and the ability of the people, favors the largest appropriations practicable by the State for that purpose. And we do further indorse and approve of that educational measure known as the Blair bill, passed by the United States Senate. We are also in favor of the country superintendents of public schools.

VERMONT.

That whatever may be the case elsewhere, the course of the National Administration in reference to the disposal of Federal offices in this State, in committing the appointment to party bosses, in supplanting faithful officers not justly chargeable with offensive partisanship by active and offensive partisans, and removing honest, experienced and respected officers to make room for saloon-keepers, pothouse politicians and Democratic strikers, has been the most absolute burlesque of Civil Service reform and deserves the condemnation of all who desire a clean, efficient and trustworthy public service.

That we deplore the evils of intemperance. We reaffirm the position of the Republican party in this State upon that question, and declare that in our opinion the prohibition of the liquor traffic, as expressed in our statutes, be and should remain the settled policy of the State; that the influence of the liquor saloon is as debasing in politics as it is baleful in social life. The Republican party should everywhere reject all overtures for open or secret alliance with it.

WISCONSIN, September 8.

Recognizing the evils of intemperance, the Republican party desires to adopt the most effective means for its suppression. But we recognize the fact that statute regulations which are not supported by public opinion are inoperative and tend to bring all law into disrepute, and we believe that in the present condition of public sentiment the existing laws of this State, which permit communities, according to the sentiment prevailing in them, to prohibit the traffic in intoxicating liquors or to control it by police regulations and to limit it by high license, offer the best and most practical means of dealing with the evils resulting from the liquor traffic.

Resolutions of the Anti-Saloon Conference at Chicago, September 16.

The Anti-Saloon Republicans, by their representatives in national conference assembled, declare as follows:

I. That the liquor traffic as it exists to-day in the United States is the enemy of society, a fruitful source of corruption in politics, the ally of Anarchy, a school of crime, and, with its avowed purpose of seeking to corruptly control elections and legislation, is a menace to the public welfare, and deserves the condemnation of all good men.

II. That we declare war against the saloon, and hold it to be the supreme duty of the Government to adopt such measures as shall restrict it and control its influence, and at the earliest possible moment extinguish it altogether.

III. We believe the National Government should absolutely prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the District of Columbia and in all the Territories of the United States.

IV. We believe the best practical method of dealing with the liquor traffic in the several States is to let the people decide whether it shall be prohibited by the submission of constitutional amendments, and, until such amendments are adopted, by the passage of local option laws.

V. That inasmuch as the saloon business creates a special burden of taxation upon the people to support courts, jails and alms houses, therefore a large annual tax should be levied upon the saloons so long as they continue to exist, and that they should be made responsible for all public and private injury resulting from the traffic.

VI. That the Republican party, wherever and whenever in power, will faithfully enforce whatsoever ordinances, statutes or constitutional amendments may be enacted for the restriction or suppression of the liquor traffic.

VII. That we approve the action of Congress and of those States that have done so in providing for teaching the physiological effects of intoxicants in our public schools, and that we earnestly recommend to every State Legislature the enactment of such laws as shall provide for the thorough teaching of such effects to our children.

VIII. We demand that the Republican party, to which we belong, and whose welfare we cherish, shall take a firm and decided stand as the friend of the home and the enemy of the saloon, in favor of this policy and these measures. We pledge ourselves to do our utmost to cause the party to take such a stand. And we call upon all temperance men and all friends of humanity, of whatever party or name, to join with us in securing these objects and in support of the Republican party so far as it shall adopt them.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS.

ALABAMA, June 11.

ARKANSAS, July 1.

We regret the degraded condition of the agricultural interests of the State, and the strained relations of capital and labor, and trace these conditions directly to the operation of a high protective tariff. We reaffirm our adherence to the time-honored Democratic doctrine of "a tariff for revenue only."

We reaffirm our devotion to the cause of popular education, and pledge the fostering care of the State to a work so necessary to the liberty and happiness of the people.

CALIFORNIA, September 3.

That the present tariff on wool prepared by a Republican Commission appointed by a Republican President is an unjust discrimination against a great industry, and we denounce the same and demand the restoration of the tariff of 1867. That in view of the brilliant future that awaits California in the development of its wine interests, we most heartily favor the bills now pending in Congress for the release from taxation of spirits used in the fortification of sweet wines, and the protection of our wine industries from the injurious effects of fraud and the unrestricted sale of spurious wines.

And we also favor legislation providing for the protection of the raisin industry.

That we reaffirm the principles contained in the National Democratic platform declaring that the Democratic party is unalterably opposed to all sumptuary legislation.

That the Democratic party of the State of California demands the removal of every Republican now in office by appointment, except those holding under Civil Service reform, and that Democrats be appointed in their places.

CONNECTICUT, September 28.

We approve of the platform adopted by the Democratic National Convention in 1884, including those sections which require a just revision of the revenue laws, in the adjustment of which the industrial interests of the country shall be guarded and labor protected against the cheaper prices of labor in Europe.

In legislative enactments the Democratic party pays due regard to the fullest liberty of the individual consistent with law and order. We recognize the fact that no law to prevent the abuse in the use of alcoholic liquors can be enforced against public sentiment; and we adhere to the views heretofore expressed by the Democratic party that a well-regulated license law, thoroughly executed, will best promote the cause of temperance and good order in society. But a license law under the control of an exclusively partisan board of county commissioners, who act for their party rather than the welfare of society, will fail of its primary object.

DELAWARE, August 17.

Federal taxation can only be rightfully imposed to provide for the necessary expenditures of the General Government, including the payment of pensions to persons entitled thereto, the maintenance of the public credit, and the gradual reduction of the public debt. We therefore favor such revision and modification of our tariff laws as will relieve the people of the country from unnecessary burdens, while providing the necessary revenue to meet legitimate demands upon the Federal Treasury.

GEORGIA, July 28.

ILLINOIS, August 25.

That taxation of the people for other purposes than raising revenue for the expenses of the Government economically administered, is robbery under the forms of law; that we are in favor of a reduction of the present unjust tariff to a revenue basis, and heartily indorse the action of those Democratic Representatives in Congress who were faithful to the cause of tariff reform.

That while we have no purpose to interfere with just laws for the regulation of the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and for the prevention or correction of the evils to society growing out of abuses in their sale, we declare that it is out of the legitimate province of government to control the habits, tastes, appetites, and liberties of the people, so long as they are orderly and peaceable and do not encroach upon the rights of others or of society. We therefore declare that the prohibition by constitution or by general laws of the manufacture or sale of vinous, malt, or spirituous liquors would be in violation of individual and personal rights and contrary to the fundamental principles of free government.

INDIANA, August 11.

That taxation of the people for other purposes than raising revenue for the expenses of the Government economically administered is robbery under the forms of law. We are, therefore, in favor of a reduction of the present unjust tariff to a revenue basis, and we hereby reaffirm the principles laid down in the Chicago platform on that subject, and heartily indorse the action of the Democratic Representatives in Congress from this State for their fidelity to the cause of tariff reform.

That the Democratic party of Indiana is now, as it has always been, opposed in principle to all sumptuary laws and prohibitory legislation, but it is in favor of just and proper measures for regulating the traffic in spirituous and intoxicating liquors, under a license system designed to repress the evils of intemperance, and it favors a reasonable increase of the license tax, discriminating between malt liquors and wines and distilled spirits, so as to place the highest license on distilled spirits, the proceeds of such tax to be applied to the support of common schools.

IOWA, July 1.

That to impose taxes for any other purpose than the raising of necessary revenue for the support of the Government is unconstitutional and wholly inconsistent with our boasted freedom, we therefore call upon Congress for the immediate revision of our tariff laws to a revenue basis, to the end that every industry and every section may enjoy perfect equality under the law.

That we favor the repeal of the present prohibitory liquor law of this State, and the enactment in lieu thereof of a law securing to each county or municipal corporation the right to determine for itself the prohibition or licensing of the sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage; providing by proper legislation for the enforcement of prohibition where prohibition is adopted, and where license is adopted for a license fee of not less than $500 with such legislative restrictions as will promote sobriety and suppress free whiskey.

[A minority report "that we favor the repeal of the present prohibitory liquor law of this State and the enactment in lieu thereof of a law securing to each municipal corporation the right to determine for itself the prohibition or licensing of the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage" was lost and the report of the majority was then adopted—yeas, 387; nays, 213.]

KANSAS, August 4.

That we are in accord with the National Democracy in opposition to all sumptuary legislation, either State or National; that we are opposed to the principle of constitutional prohibition, and demand the resubmission of the prohibitory amendment in this State to a vote of the electors, so that the question may be finally and intelligently settled, and where by the interests of true temperance may be promoted and the individual liberty and manhood of citizens respected and restored. Instead of constitutional or statutory prohibi tion, we favor a well-regulated and just license system.

That we believe in a tariff for revenue so adjusted as to meet all the demands of the Government, and that any surplus derived therefrom be at once applied to a reduction of the National debt; and we demand a revision of the present complicated tariff laws, so that the wealth of the country and the luxuries of life may bear more evenly the burdens of taxation, and the necessaries of life go free.

MAINE.

That unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation; that the present oppressive war tariff, which produces nearly $100,000,000 of surplus revenue, is unnecessary and therefore unjust, and that inasmuch as the two great political parties in the country, in their National platforms, have pledged themselves so to modify it that it will produce no more revenue than may be needed for the necessary expenditures of the Government economically administered, we demand that this Congress, which has devoted six months of its labors and all of its ingenuity in devising ways and means to deplete the Treasury of its surplus millions, to the neglect of important legislation which the country needs and expects, shall, at its present session, keep faith with the people and make the promised reductions.

MASSACHUSETTS, September 30.

We demand a judicious reform of the tariff. All needed protection to the capital and labor engaged in our various industries can be assured under a revised scale of duties, which will afford all the revenues required by the Government and relieve the great body of the people of a heavy weight of taxation.

We recognize and applaud the steadfast adherence of the President to his ante-election promises and the pledges made to the people in 1884 in regard to Civil Service reform.

MICHIGAN, August 18.

The taxation of the people for other purposes than raising revenue for the expense of the Government economically administered is robbery under the forms of law, and that we are therefore in favor of a revision of the present unjust tariff and its adjustment to a revenue basis.

MINNESOTA, September 14.

That in National matters there should be a thorough and complete tariff reform. The longer continuance of taxes imposed in time of war for war purposes is unnecessary and oppressive. The oppressed condition of our agricultural and manufacturing industries imperatively demands that they should no longer pay tribute to the monopolists of the East. Justice and sound policy alike dictate that the tools of the laborer and the mechanic, the raw materials of the manufacturer, the implements of the farmer, and all things necessary for the life, comfort and employment of the people, should not be excluded from our markets or enhanced in price by taxes imposed upon them for the profit of protected millions. We are therefore in favor of a revision of the present unequal and unjust tariff and its adjustment to a revenue basis, believing that any tariff system for purposes other than raising revenue for the expenses of the Government economically administered is unjust and without constitutional authority.

The party is opposed to all class and sumptuary legislation.

MISSOURI, August 19.

Authority to levy and collect taxes and duties on imports was intended to vest in the General Government the power of raising the money necessary to meet its expenses and is by the express terms of the Constitution limited to the purposes of paying expenses or obligations of the Government. We therefore deprecate the prostitution of the taxing power under any pretext or guise whatever to objects and purposes other than the raising of revenue or to the purpose of affecting indirectly legislation as to subjects over which Congress has no control; and that the building up of one industry by a taxation or at the expense of another is foreign to the true aims of a free government in which all the people, as to their legal rights, stand on an absolutely equal footing.

The Democratic party, which originated the public school system in Missouri, stands pledged to maintain popular education in the State.

NEW-JERSEY, September 28.

OHIO, August 18.

Taxes should not be collected beyond the needs of government economically administered, and we hereby reaffirm the principles laid down in our last State and National platforms upon the tariff question, and demand a thorough and just revision of existing tariff laws in accordance with these principles.

Believing that the evils growing out of the traffic in intoxicating liquors can best be provided against by a well-regulated license system, we renew our declaration in favor of an amendment to the Constitution that will permit a judicious regulation of the traffic and repress the abuses growing out of it without destroying the principles of personal liberty or the right of private judgment.

PENNSYLVANIA, August 18.

That we favor a just and fair revision of the revenue laws in accordance with the letter and spirit of that declaration of Democratic principles, and in such revision care should be taken that such changes shall be made in a spirit of fairness to all interests and without depriving American labor of the ability to successfully compete with foreign labor and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this community.

SOUTH CAROLINA, August 4.

The present protective tariff taxes the many for the benefit of the favored few. The duties on imports should be decreased. An early repeal of the duty on cotton ties, on the machinery used in the manufacture of cotton and wool, and on tools and agricultural implements, will stimulate manufactures and be a relief to the farmers of the country.

Civil Service reform appointments to minor offices under tests that will indicate the qualifications of the applicant, promotion by merit, a fixed tenure of office and no removals except for cause.

[The last was inserted in the convention as an amendment to the report of the committee. A motion to lay it on the table was rejected--yeas, 149; nays, 153.]

Popular education is the bulwark of free institutions, liberal support for the public schools for the whole people

TENNESSEE, August 11.

It indorses the action of our Representatives in Congress in their efforts to redeem the pledges of the party made at Chicago, by attempting to secure a reformation of the tariff laws and a reduction of taxes.

Recognizing the sovereignty of the people and in response to their demand through their Representatives in the last General Assembly, we favor submitting to them for their adoption or rejection the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage in Tennessee.

It denounces any effort of Congress to appropriate the revenues of the Government for any purpose not authorized by the Constitution as subversive of the rights of the States and the people thereof.

It favors the maintenance and improvement of our system of public schools and the education of all classes of our citizens.

TEXAS, August 12.

We do not believe that the views of any citizen upon the question of local option should interfere with his standing in the Democratic party; and we declare the question to be one on which every Democrat may indulge his own views without affecting his Democracy.

We favor the best system of education for white and colored children, in separate common schools, which may be provided by liberal without excessive taxation. We believe that the education of the children is a matter of State right and duty, and that the Congress of the United States has no right to appropriate money to its aid.

WISCONSIN, September 15.

That the reduction of the tariff to a revenue basis is a cardinal principle of the Democratic party, and that the members of the present House of Representatives selected as Democrats and who voted against considering a bill for the reduction of the tariff deserve no recognition in the Democratic councils.

That the intemperate and excessive use of intoxicating liquors is earnestly to be deplored, and we believe that liquor traffic should be regulated by reasonable and liberal laws. Laws, whether general or local, designed exclusively for arbitrary regulation of the personal habits of citizens, as an exercise of legislative power are unwarranted by the Constitution, contrary to the fundamental principles of all free governments, and are justified by no practical results yet attained in the experience of mankind.

THE LTH CONGRESS,
AS FAR AS CHOSEN.

THE SENATE.

The changes in the political complexion of the body, indicated by the late election of Legislatures, are these: The Republicans gain a Senator in Nevada and lose one in California, with Indiana and New-Jersey in doubt. Last year the Democrats made a gain in Virginia. The remaining Legislatures are of the same politics as the retiring Senators. The Lth Senate will be: Republicans 39, Democrats 37, if Indiana and New-Jersey elect Democratic Senators and the remaining Legislatures elect Senators in sympathy with their apparent majority; otherwise, the figures will vary according to results reached.

Rates of Postage, United States.

FIRST-CLASS—Letters and all other written matter, whether sealed or unsealed, and all other matter, sealed, nailed, sewed, tied or fastened in any manner so that it cannot be easily examined, 2 cents per ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards, 1 cent each. Postal cards are unmailable with any writing or printing on the address side, except the superscription, or with anything pasted upon or attached to them. Exception: A printed label may be used in lieu of manuscript address.

SECOND-CLASS—Only for publishers and news agents—1 cent per pound. When sent by others than the publisher or news agent,

1 cent for each four ounces or fractional part thereof fully prepaid.

THIRD-CLASS—Printed matter in unsealed wrappers only (all matter inclosed in notched envelopes must pay letter rates), 1 cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, which must be fully prepaid. This includes books, printed circulars, chromos, engravings, hand-bills, lithographs, music, pamphlets, proof-sheets and manuscript accompanying the same, reproductions by the electric pen, hektograph, metallograph, papyrograph, and, in short, any reproduction upon paper. Limit of weight, four pounds, except for a single book, which may weigh more.

NOTE—Productions by copying press or type-writer are first-class.

FOURTH-CLASS—All mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily withdrawn from the wrapper and examined. Rate, 1 cent per ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight four pounds. Full prepayment compulsory. Labels, patterns, photographs, playing cards, visiting cards, address tags, paper sacks, wrapping paper with advertisement printed thereon, bill-heads, letter-heads, envelopes and other matter of the same general character, the printing upon which is not designed to instruct, amuse, cultivate the mind or taste, or impart general information, are articles of merchandise, and rate as fourth-class matter.

UNMAILABLE.

Obscene books, letters, papers, pictures and postal cards; lottery circulars and letters; liquids, gunpowder and other explosives; live animals, poisons and any article liable to injure the mails or the persons of those handling them.

PERMISSIBLE WRITING.

No writing is permitted on third or fourth class matter except as follows: The name and adress of the sender on the outside or inside of the package, preceded by the word "from." On the wrapper may also be written the names and number of articles inclosed. The sender is further allowed to mark a word or passage in a book or paper to which he desires to call special attention. He may also write a simple inscription or dedication upon the cover or blank leaves of a book or pamphlet. There may be attached to any articles of merchandise, by tag or label, a mark number, name or letter, for purpose of identification. Printed circulars may contain the written names of the sender and addressee, with the date. Any other writing on third or fourth class matter will subject the package to letter rates of postage, and render the sender liable to a fine of $10 for each offence.

RATES OF POSTAGE TO CANADA.

LETTERS AND POSTAL CARDS—Same rates and conditions of prepayment of postage as for domestic letters and postal cards.

OTHER MATTER—Same rates and conditions of transmission as for matter for delivery within the United States except that MERCHANDISE is RIGIDLY EXCLUDED. Samples of merchandise are mailable, but they must not exceed eight ounces in weight, and are must also be strictly specimens of goods for sale.

TO OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The limit of dimensions and weight for parcels addressed to foreign countries is not uniform. For example, to Belgium, France, Great Britain, Switzerland and the Argentine Republic, the maximum weight for samples of merchandise is 12 ounces, and the limit of size is 12x8x4 inches; while in Austria, Germany, Prussia, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and other countries of the Postal Union the maximum size is 8x4x2 inches, and the weight is limited to $8\frac{3}{4}$ ounces.

Rates of Letter Postage to Foreign Countries. For one-half ounce.

* NOTE—The permanent annual appropriations for 1887, as reported by the Treasury Department—being for interest on Public Debt, for Sinking Fund, Customs Collections, Drawbacks, Repayment to Importers, etc.—are $118,910 955. Adding this sum to the appropriations stated above, the total of charges upon the Treasury for the current fiscal year is $382,828,294 25; and, deducting $47,000,000 as the estimated receipts of the Post-Office Department, the net charges are $335,828,294 25.

The revenues for 1886 were $336,144,290.

In the list of Appropriations above, all of the District of Columbia appropriations are included, instead of one-half of them as formerly. This is to make the statement conform to the practice of the Treasury Department.

The list of Appropriations for 1885 includes all the Navy appropriations for that year, though one-half of them were made in the next year, the regular bill having fallen between the two houses, in the first session of the XLVIIIth Congress. It also includes the amount of unexpended balances then appropriated for current use. The $39,000,000 reappropriated in 1884 were overlooked at the time of preparing the previous statement—[EDITOR.

Two Constitutional Amendments were rejected. One to provide for levying a special road tax now prohibited by the Constitution was defeated—yeas, 17,114; nays, 49,794. One to allow the City of Birmingham to levy and collect a special tax received 55,700 votes, and there were 33,390 against it; but it required a majority of all the votes cast at the said election.

At the election, September 6, 1886, sixty-seven of the seventy-five counties voted on License. The yeas were 73,905; nays, 56,989. Twenty-three of the sixty-seven counties voted against License. In 1882 the vote on License was—yeas, 79,246; nays, 45,187. In twelve of the seventy-four counties voting, the majority was against License.

CALIFORNIA.

The vote on the State ticket was close. The Democrats elected their candidate for Governor—Washington Bartlett—over John F. Swift, Rep., and most of the State officers, and a majority of the Legislature. The Republicans elected a portion of the State ticket and four of the six Representatives in Congress. [See List.]

The official canvass could not be secured in time for insertion in this page. If received before the publication of the ALMANAC, it will be inserted in the "Political Miscellany."

COLORADO.

The vote for Governor and other State officers has not been canvassed at the date of closing this page, and the detailed results cannot therefore be given.

Alva Adams, Dem., has been elected Governor by about 1,700 over William H. Meyer, Rep. In 1884 Mr. Adams was defeated for Governor by B. H. Eaton, Rep., 27,426 to 30,471.

Two Constitutional Amendments were adopted. One removes the restriction that local or special bills must originate in the House of Representatives. The other prescribes as the duty of the General Assembly the making of suitable provision for such Confederate soldiers as were "permanently injured in such service." The former received 59,169 yeas, 1,936 nays. The latter received 63,063 yeas, 1,955 nays.

Three Constitutional Amendments were adopted. One relating to amendments of the Constitution so as to require a two-third vote of the members elected to each House (instead of a majority), was adopted—yeas, 9,135; nays, 1,127. One amending the clause defining the right of suffrage so as to strike out the word "white," to require actual residence in the State one year, and in the district or county ninety days before an election, and in the case of a naturalized citizen that he shall have been a citizen at least six months before an election, and that no person convicted of the offence of selling his vote at a general or special election should have the right to vote, was adopted—yeas, 7,471; nays, 1,724. A third amendment, authorizing the investment of educational funds, besides in bonds of the United States or of this State, "in bonds of such other State or States as may be selected by the Boards authorized by law to make such investments," was adopted—yeas, 9,624; nays, 638.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A Chief Justice, and two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court were elected. William H. N. Smith, Thomas S. Ashe and Augustus S. Merriman, present Democratic officials, were re-elected by an average majority of about 23,000, over Ralph P. Buxton, John W. Albertson and Virgil S. Lusk, Republicans. The detailed vote has not been received before putting this page to press.

A majority being required, there was no election in the Second District. Vote polled, 11,258; to make a majority, 5,630 were required. The General Assembly, which will count the vote in session, to begin Jan. 18, 1887, will order a new election.

At the State election, April 7, 1886, a Prohibitory Amendment was adopted—yeas, 15,113; nays, 9,230.

An amendment that all soldiers and sailors of foreign birth, citizens of the United States, who served in the army or navy of the United States from this State in the late civil war, and who were honorably discharged from such service, shall have the right to vote on all questions in all legally organized town, district, or mass meetings, upon the same conditions and under and subject to the same restrictions as native born citizens, was adopted—yeas, 18,903; nays, 1,477.

TENNESSEE.

At the election, August 5, 1886, for five Judges of the Supreme Court, Peter Turney, W. C. Caldwell, W. H. Lurton, B. L. Snodgrass and W. C. Falkes, Dem., were elected by a majority of about 35,000 over the Republican candidates.

At the November election for Governor, Robert L. Taylor, Dem., was chosen over Alfred A. Taylor, Rep., by a majority of about 22,000. The candidates were brothers. Thomas Snodgrass was the Greenback candidate. The detailed figures have not been received before putting this page to press.

For Congress, the Republicans elected two and the Democrats eight, being a Republican loss of one. [See II-t of 1th Congress.]

The Legislature is Democratic in both branches.

TEXAS.

The candidates for Governor were: A. M. Cochran, Rep., L. C. Ross, Dem., E. L. Dahoney, Pro. General Ross was chosen by about the same vote as was cast for other State officers below. The detailed vote has not been received up to the date of closing this page.

The Legislature is largely Democratic.

The Election Returns

Are given for every State which voted during the year 1887, with comparative tables showing previous [illegible] votes in said States, and the vote in them on President in 1884. The relation of parties in each branch of these Legislatures is also given, and the result of all votes in the Legislatures and at the polls on Constitutional Amendments. In NEW-JERSEY and NEW-YORK the vote for Senators and Assemblymen is given by districts. And in NEW-YORK, the County, Town and Ward votes on Secretary of State and other officers chosen are given in detail, as to present all phases of the results. To the votes of BROOKLYN and NEW-YORK CITY for local officers a large space is appropriated. The "Political Miscellany for 1887" states in concise form all the important political facts developed in each State and Territory of the Union during the last year.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FORTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

AGRICULTURE.

Chap. CCCXIV.—Establishes at each State Agricultural College created under the act of July 2, 1862, an "Agricultural Experiment Station," the object being to conduct original researches or verify experiments on the physiology of plants and animals; the diseases to which they are severally subject, with the remedies for the same; the chemical composition of useful plants at their different stages of growth; the comparative advantages of rotative cropping as pursued under a varying series of crops; the capacity of new plants or trees for acclimation; the analysis of soils and water; the chemical composition of manures, natural or artificial, with experiments designed to test their comparative effects on crops of different kinds; the adaptation and value of grasses and forage plants; the composition and digestibility of the different kinds of food for domestic animals; the scientific and economic questions involved in the production of butter and cheese, and such other researches or experiments bearing directly on the agricultural industry of the United States as may in each case be deemed advisable, having due regard to the varying conditions and needs of the respective States or Territories.—[Approved March 2, 1887.

BRIDGES

were authorized by various acts—across the St. Louis River, between Minnesota and Wisconsin; across the Mississippi at St. Louis; across the Tradewater, by the Ohio Valley Railway Company; across the Mississippi, between East Dubuque and Dubuque; across Bayou Barnard, Mississippi; across the Eastern Branch of the Potomac, Washington City; across the Tennessee, at or near Chattanooga; across the East River, between New-York City and Long Island; across the Red River of the North, between Polk or Marshall County, Minn., and Grand Forks County, Dak.; across the Cumberland, near Nashville, Tenn.; across the Great Kanawha, below the falls, W. Va.; across the Red River of the North, between Polk County, Minn., and Dakota; across the Missouri, between the City of Kansas and Sibley, Mo.; across the Missouri, between Omaha and Council Bluffs; across the Coosa, Ala., by the East and West Railroad Company of Alabama; across the Coosa, by the Talladega and Coosa Valley Railroad Company; across the Red, at Alexandria, La.; across the Mississippi, at Grand Tower, Ill.; across the Tennessee, at or near Sheffield, Ala.; across the Missouri, at Pierre, Dak.; across the Missouri, within five miles of Yankton, Dak.; across the Mississippi, at Fort Madison or Keokuk, or between them; across the Mississippi, at Winona, Minn.; across the Tennessee, at Guntersville, Ala.; across the Sunflower, Yazoo and Tombigbee, by the Georgia Pacific Railroad Company as they may select—the Yazoo to be bridged between the mouth of the Tallahsha on the north and the upper mouth of the Roebuck Lake, at Glen Mary plantation, on the south; across the Tombigbee, at or near Columbus, Miss.; across the Tennessee, at or near the foot of the Mussel Shoals Canal.

DOMESTIC CONVICT LABOR.

Chap. CCXIII.—Provides that it shall not be lawful for any officer, agent or servant of the Government of the U. S. to contract with any person or corporation, or permit any warden, agent or official of any State prison, penitentiary, jail or house of correction where criminals of the U. S. may be incarcerated, to hire or contract out the labor of said criminals, or any part of them, who may hereafter be confined in any prison, jail or other place of incarceration for violation of any laws of the U. S. Penalties are prescribed.—[Approved February 23, 1887.

FISHERIES.

Chap. CCLVIII.—Provides that for five years from March 1, 1888, no mackerel, other than Spanish mackerel, caught between March 1 and June 1, inclusive of each year, shall be imported into the U. S. or landed upon its shores—this not to apply to mackerel caught with hook or line from boats, and landed in said boats, or in traps or seines connected with the shore.—[Approved February 28, 1887.

Chap. CCCXXXIX.—Provides that whenever the President shall be satisfied that American fishing vessels or American fishermen, visiting or being in the waters or at any ports or places of the British dominions of North America, are or then lately have been denied or abridged in the enjoyment of any rights secured to them by treaty or law, or are or then lately have [been] unjustly vexed or harassed in the enjoyment of such rights, or subjected to unreasonable restrictions, regulations or requirements in respect of such rights; or otherwise unjustly vexed or harassed in said waters, ports or places; or whenever the President shall be satisfied that any such fishing vessels or fishermen, having a permit under the laws of the U. S. to touch and trade at any port or ports, place or places, in the British dominions of North America, are or then lately have been denied the privilege of entering such port or ports, place or places in the same manner and under the same regulations as may exist therein applicable to trading vessels of the most favored nation, or shall be unjustly vexed or harassed in respect thereof, or otherwise be unjustly vexed or harassed therein, or shall be prevented from purchasing such supplies as may there be lawfully sold to trading vessels of the most favored nation; or whenever the President shall be satisfied that any other vessels of the U. S., their masters or crews, so arriving at or being in such British waters or ports or places of the British dominions of North America, are or then lately have been denied any of the privileges therein accorded to the vessels, their masters or crews, of the most favored nation, or unjustly vexed or harassed in respect of the same, or unjustly vexed or harassed therein by the authorities thereof, then, and in either or all of such cases, it shall be lawful, and it shall be the duty of the President, in his discretion, by proclamation to that effect, to deny vessels, their masters and crews, of the British dominions of North America, any entrance into the waters, ports or places of, or within the U. S. (with such exceptions in regard to vessels in distress, stress of weather, or needing supplies as to the President shall seem proper), whether such vessels shall have come directly from said dominions on such destined voyage or by way of some port or place in such destined voyage elsewhere; and also to deny entry into any port or place of the U. S. of fresh fish or salt fish or any other product of said dominions, or other goods coming from said dominions to the U. S. The President may, in his discretion, apply such proclamation to any part or to all of the foregoing-named subjects, and may revoke, qualify, limit and renew such proclamation from time to time as he may deem necessary to the full and just execution of the purposes of this act. Penalties are provided.—[Approved March 3, 1887.

FOREIGN CONTRACT LABOR.

Chap. CCXX.—Adds to the Act of Feb. 26, 1885, to prohibit the importation and immigration of foreigners and aliens under contract to perform labor in the United States, sections charging the Secretary of the Treasury with additional duties, and directs that passengers included in the prohibition in this act shall not be permitted to land and shall be sent back to the nation to which they belong and from whence they came, at the expense of owners of vessels in which they came, which expense shall be a lien on said vessel. [Approved February 23, 1887.

INDIANS.

Chap. CXIX.—Enacts that in all cases where any tribe or band of Indians has been, or shall hereafter be, located upon any reservation created for their use, either by treaty stipulation or by an act of Congress or executive order setting apart the same for their use, the President be, and he hereby is, authorized, whenever in his opinion any reservation or any part thereof of such Indians is advantageous for agricultural and grazing purposes, to cause said reservation, or any part thereof, to be surveyed, or resurveyed if necessary, and to allot the lands in said reservation in severalty to any Indian located thereon in quantities as follows:

To each head of a family, one-quarter of a section;

To each single person over eighteen years of age, one-eighth of a section;

To each orphan child under eighteen years of age, one-eighth of a section; and

To each other single person under eighteen years now living, or who may be born prior to the date of the order of the President directing an allotment of the lands embraced in any reservation, one-sixteenth of a section: Provided, That in case there is not sufficient land in any of said reservations to allot lands to each individual of the classes above named in quantities as above provided, the lands embraced in such reservation or reservations shall be allotted to each individual of each of said classes pro rata in accordance with the provisions of this act: And provided further, That where the treaty or act of Congress setting apart such reservation provides for the allotment of lands in severalty in quantities in excess of those herein provided, the President, in making allotments upon such reservation, shall allot the lands to each individual Indian belonging thereon in quantity as specified in such treaty or act: And provided further, That when the lands allotted are only valuable for grazing purposes, an additional allotment of such grazing lands, in quantities as above provided, shall be made to each individual.

This act shall not extend to the territory occupied by the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Seminoles, and Osage, Miamies and Peorias, and Sacs and Foxes, in the Indian Territory, nor to any of the reservations of the Seneca Nation of New-York Indians in the State of New-York, nor to that strip of territory in the State of Nebraska adjoining the Sioux Nation on the south added by executive order. [Approved February 8, 1887.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACT.

Chap. CIV.—Provides that all charges made for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of passengers or property from one State or Territory to another, or in connection therewith, or for the receiving, delivering, storage or handling of such property, shall be reasonable and just; and every unjust and unreasonable charge for such service is prohibited and declared to be unlawful.

That if any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act shall, directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person or persons a greater or less compensation for any services rendered, or to be rendered, in the transportation of passengers or property, subject to the provisions of this act, than it charges, demands, collects, or receives from any other person or persons for doing for him or them a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, such common carrier shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful.

That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act to make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, corporation, or locality, or any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, or to subject any particular person, company, firm, corporation, or locality, or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

Every common carrier subject to the provisions of this act shall, according to their respective powers, afford all reasonable, proper, and equal facilities for the interchange of traffic between their respective lines, and for the receiving, forwarding, and delivering of passengers and property to and from their several lines and those connecting therewith, and shall not discriminate in their rates and charges between such connecting lines; but this shall not be construed as requiring any such common carrier to give the use of its tracks or terminal facilities to another carrier engaged in like business.

That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or of like kind of property, under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line, in the same rection, the shorter being included within the longer distance; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any common carrier within the terms of this act to charge and receive as great compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance: Provided, however, That upon application to the Commission appointed under the provisions of this act, such common carrier may, in special cases, after investigation by the Commission, be authorized to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for the transportation of passengers or property; and the Commission may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated common carrier may be relieved from the operation of this section of this act.

That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act to enter into any contract, agreement, or combination with any other common carrier or carriers for the pooling of freights of different and competing railroads, or to divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such railroads, or any portion thereof; and in any case of an agreement for the pooling of freights as aforesaid, each day of its continuance shall be deemed a separate offence.

That every common carrier subject to the provisions of this act shall print and keep for public inspection schedules showing the rates and fares and charges for the transportation of passengers and property which any such common carrier has established and which are in force at the time upon its railroad, as defined by the first section of this act.

No advance shall be made in the rates, fares and charges which have been established and published as aforesaid by any common carrier in compliance with the requirements of this section, except after ten days' public notice, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force, and the time when the increased rates, fares or charges will go into effect; and the proposed changes shall be shown by printing new schedules, or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept for public inspection. Reductions in such published rates, fares or charges may be made without previous public notice; but whenever any such reduction is made, notice of the same shall immediately be publicly posted and the changes made shall immediately be made public by printing new schedules, or shall immediately be plainly indicated upon the schedules at the time in force and kept for public inspection.

And when any such common carrier shall have established and published its rates, fares and charges in compliance with the provisions of this section, it shall be unlawful for such common carrier to charge, demand, collect or receive from any person or persons a greater or less compensation for the transportation of passengers or property, or for any services in connection therewith, than is specified in such published schedule of rates, fares and charges as may at the time be in force.

That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act, to enter into any combination, contract or agreement, expressed or implied, to prevent, by change of time schedule, carriage in different cars, or by other means or devices, the carriage of freights from being continuous from the place of shipment to the place of destination; and no break of bulk, stoppage or interruption made by such common carrier shall prevent the carriage of freights from being and being treated as one continuous carriage from the place of shipment to the place of destination, unless such break, stoppage or interruption was made in good faith for some necessary purpose, and without any intent to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt such continuous carriage, or to evade any of the provisions of this act.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby created, composed of five Commissioners, appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Commissioners first appointed shall continue in office for two, three, four, five and six years, respectively, from the first day of January, 1887, the term of each to be designated by the President; but their successors shall be appointed for six years, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired time of the Commissioner whom he shall succeed. Any Commissioner may be removed by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office. Not more than three shall be appointed from the same political party. No person in the employ of or holding any official relation to any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act, or owning stocks or bonds thereof, or who is in any manner pecuniarily interested therein, shall enter upon the duties of or hold such office. Said Commissioners shall not engage in any other business, vocation, or employment. No vacancy in the Commission shall impair the right of the remaining Commissioners to exercise all the powers of the Commission. The annual salary of each is $7,500; of the secretary, $3,500.

That the Commission hereby created shall have authority to inquire into the management of the business of all common carriers subject to the provisions of this act, and shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same is conducted, and shall have the right to obtain from such common carriers full and complete information necessary to enable the Commission to perform the duties and carry out the objects for which it was created; and for the purposes of this act the Commission shall have power to require the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all books, papers, tariffs, contracts, agreements and documents relating to any matter under investigation, and to that end may invoke the aid of any court of the United States in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents under the provisions of this section.

That any person, firm, corporation, or association, or any mercantile, agricultural, or manufacturing society, or any body politic or municipal organization complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act in contravention of the provisions thereof, may apply to said Commission by petition, which shall briefly state the facts; whereupon a statement of the charges thus made shall be forwarded by the Commission to such common carrier, who shall be called upon to satisfy the complaint or to answer the same in writing within a reasonable time, to be specified by the Commission. If such common carrier, within the time specified, shall make reparation for the injury alleged to have been done, said carrier shall be relieved of liability to the complainant only for the particular violation of law thus complained of. If such carrier shall not satisfy the complaint within the time specified, or there shall appear to be any reasonable ground for investigating said complaint, it shall be the duty of the Commission to investigate the matters complained of in such manner and by such means as it shall deem proper.

Said Commission shall in like manner investigate any complaint forwarded by the railroad commissioner or railroad commission of any State or Territory, at the request of such commissioner or commission, and may institute any inquiry on its own motion in the same manner and to the same effect as though complaint had been made.

No complaint shall at any time be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant.

That whenever an investigation shall be made by said Commission, it shall be its duty to make a report in writing in respect thereto, which shall include the findings of fact upon which the conclusions of the Commission are based, together with its recommendation as to what reparation, if any, should be made by the common carrier to any party or parties who may be found to have been injured; and such findings so made shall thereafter, in all judicial proceedings, be deemed prima facie evidence as to each and every fact found.

All reports of investigations made by the Commission shall be entered of record, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the party who may have complained, and to any common carrier that may have been complained of.

Penalties are provided for any violations of the various provisions of this act.

That nothing in this act shall apply to the carriage, storage, or handling of property free or at reduced rates for the United States, State, or municipal governments, or for charitable purposes, or to or from fairs and expositions for exhibition thereat, or the issuance of mileage, excursion, or commutation passenger tickets; nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit any common carrier from giving reduced rates to ministers of religion; nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent railroads from giving free carriage to their own officers and employes, or to prevent the principal officers of any railroad company or companies from exchanging passes or tickets with other railroad companies for their officers and employes; and nothing in this act contained shall in any way abridge or alter the remedies now existing at common law or by statute, but the provisions of this act are in addition to such remedies. Provided, That no pending litigation shall in any way be affected by this act.—[Approved February 4, 1887.

MILITIA.

Chap. CXXIX.—Amends and re-enacts Section 1,661 of the Revised Statutes to appropriate $400,000 annually to provide arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage for issue to the militia.

Said appropriation shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories under the direction of the Secretary of War, according to the number of their Senators and Representatives, and to the Territories and District of Columbia such proportion and under such regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, however, That no State shall be entitled to the benefits of the appropriation apportioned to it unless the number of its regularly enlisted, organized and uniformed active militia shall be at least 100 men for each Senator and Representative to which such State is entitled in the Congress of the U. S.—[Presented to the President February 1, 1887, and not having been by him returned within ten days, it became a law without his approval.

NAVY, INCREASE OF.

Chap. CCCXCI. provides that for the purpose of increasing the naval establishment the President is hereby authorized to have constructed by contract two steel gunboats, each of about 1,700 tons displacement, of the type of gunboat number one, at a cost, exclusive of armament, of not more than $550,000 each, two steel cruisers to be provided with such armament for each as the Navy Department may deem suitable. The cost of both of said cruisers in the aggregate, complete, exclusive of armament, and excluding any premiums that may be paid for speed for the same shall not be more than $3,000,000.

That in the construction of the aforesaid vessels all of the provisions of the act of August 3, 1886, as to material, engines, boilers, and machinery, shall be followed, so far as the same relate to vessels constructed under contract, save that in all their parts they shall be of domestic manufacture. The contracts shall contain provisions that the contractor guarantees that when completed and tested for speed, under conditions to be prescribed by the Navy Department, the vessel shall exhibit a maximum speed of at least nineteen knots per hour; and for every quarter knot of speed so exhibited above said guaranty the contractor shall receive a premium over and above his contract price of $50,000, and for every quarter knot that said vessel fails of reaching said guaranteed speed there shall be deducted from the contract price the sum of $50,000.

One of such vessels shall be built on the coast of the Pacific Ocean, one on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, and two on the coast of the Atlantic Ocean, and at such places as the Secretary of the Navy shall approve.

If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the President from the biddings that said vessels cannot be constructed at a fair cost on the coast of the Pacific or the Gulf, he shall authorize the construction of said vessels or either of them elsewhere in the United States. And the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to readvertise for the construction of cruiser number one, known as the Newark, and the limit of cost of said vessel is hereby extended to $1,300,000, exclusive of armament.

The sums of money hereinafter named are hereby appropriated to be expended by the President, in the exercise of his discretion, upon plans and specifications to be furnished by the Navy Department:

For floating batteries or rams or other naval structures to be used for coast and harbor defence, $1,000,000. The final cost of said floating batteries, rams or other naval structures, exclusive of armament, shall not exceed $2,000,000.

For the purchase of and the trial and testing of torpedoes and appliances using explosives to be operated from naval vessels, floating batteries or rams, $50,000, which sum shall be immediately available.

That the material used in all naval structures provided for in this act and the ma-ment for the same shall be, so far as practicable, of American production and furnished and manufactured in the United States, and all contracts made for their construction shall be under the provisions of the act of August 3, 1886.

For expenditure toward the construction and completion (exclusive of armament) of the five double-turreted monitors, the four vessels authorized by the act of March 3, 1885, and the vessels authorized by the act of August 3, 1886, $2,420,000.

Toward the armament of domestic manufacture for the vessels authorized by the act of March 3, 1885, of the vessels authorized by Sections 1 and 2 of the act of August 3, 1886, of the unfinished monitors mentioned in Section 3 of the same act, and of the Miantenomoh, and of the vessels authorized by this act, $2,128,362.

Toward procuring, testing and delivering the armor and gun steel for the vessels authorized by Section 1 of the act of August 3, 1886, and the unfinished monitors mentioned in Section 3 of the same act, and the vessels authorized by this act, $4,000,000. Provided, said armor and gun steel shall be of domestic manufacture.—[Approved March 3, 1887.

OPIUM TRADE.

Chap. CCX.—Prohibits the importation of opium into any of the ports of the U. S. by any subject of the Emperor of China, under a prescribed penalty. Every package containing opium in whole or in part, so imported, shall be deemed forfeited to the U. S. No citizen of the U. S. shall import opium into any of the open ports of China, nor transport the same from one open port to any other open port, or buy or sell opium in any of such open ports of China, nor shall any vessel owned by citizens of the U. S., or any vessel, whether foreign or otherwise, employed by any citizen of the U. S., or owned by any citizen of the U. S., either in whole or in part, and employed by persons not citizens of the U. S., take or carry opium into any of such open ports of China, or transport the same from one open port to any other open port, or be engaged in any traffic therein between or in such open ports or any of them. Penalties are prescribed.—[Approved Feb. 23, 1887.

PATENTS, TRADE MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS.

Chap. CV.—Provides that hereafter, during the term of letters patent for a design, it shall be unlawful for any person other than the owner of said letters patent, without the license of such owner, to apply the design secured by such letters patent, or any colorable imitation thereof, to any article of manufacture for the purpose of sale, or to sell or expose for sale any article of manufacture to which such design or colorable imitation shall, without the license of the owner, have been applied, knowing that the same has been so applied.—[Approved February 4, 1887.

PENSIONS.

Chap. LXX.—Pensions at the rate of $8 a month to the surviving officers and enlisted men (including marines, militia and volunteers) of the military and naval services of the U. S. who, being duly enlisted, actually served sixty days with the Army or Navy of the U. S. in Mexico, or on the coast or frontier thereof, in the war with that nation, or were actually engaged in a battle in said war, and were honorably discharged; also such other officers and soldiers and sailors as may have been personally named in any resolution of Congress for any specific service in said war, and the surviving widows of such officers or enlisted men if such widows have not remarried: Provided, That every such officer, enlisted man or widow who is or may become sixty-two years of age, or who is or may become subject to any disability or dependency equivalent to some cause prescribed or recognized by the pension laws of the United States as a sufficient reason for the allowance of a pension, shall be entitled to the benefits of this act; but it shall not be held to include any person not within the rule of age or disability or dependence herein defined, or who incurred such disability while in any manner voluntarily engaged in or aiding or abetting the late rebellion against the authority of the United States.

That section of 4,716* of the Revised Statutes is hereby repealed so far as the same relates to this act or to pensioners under this act.

That the provisions of this act shall not apply to any person while under the political disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States.—[Approved January 29, 1887.

POST OFFICE.

Chap. XIII.—Provides for the issue of a "postal note" for sums under $5, at money order and such other offices as the Postmaster-General may designate—for a fee of three cents. The note must be collected within three calendar months from the last day of the month of issue. Invalid postal notes must be forwarded for duplication to the Superintendent of the Money Order System, Washington, D. C., and an additional fee of three cents shall be charged for the duplicate.—[Approved January 3, 1887.

Chap. XIV.—Provides that in cities of 50,000 population letter-carriers shall be employed for free delivery as frequently as the public business may require, and may be employed in cities of 10,000, or at any post-office with a gross revenue of $10,000.—[Approved January 3, 1887.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Chap. XC.—Requires the electors of each State to meet and give their votes on the second Monday in January next following their appointment, at such place in each State as the Legislature shall direct.

SEC. 2. That if any State shall have provided, by laws enacted prior to the day fixed for the appointment of the electors, for its final determination of any controversy or contest concerning the appointment of all or any of the electors of such State, by judicial or other methods or procedures, and such determination shall have been made at least six days before the time fixed for the meeting of the electors, such determination made pursuant to such law so existing on said day, and made at least six days prior to the said time of meeting of the electors, shall be conclusive, and shall govern in the counting of the electoral votes as provided in the Constitution, as hereinafter regulated, so far as

* This section is as follows: "No money on account of pensions shall be paid to any person, or to the widow, children or heirs of any deceased person, who in any manner voluntarily engaged in, or aided or abetted, the late rebellion against the authority of the United States."

the ascertainment of the electors appointed by such State is concerned.

SEC. 3. That it shall be the duty of the Executive of each State, as soon as practicable after the conclusion of the appointment of electors in such State, by the final ascertainment under and in pursuance of the laws of such State providing for such ascertainment, to communicate, under the seal of the State, to the Secretary of State of the U. S., a certificate of such ascertainment of the electors appointed, setting forth the names of such electors and the canvass or other ascertainment under the laws of such State of the number of votes given or cast for each person for whose appointment any and all vot s have been given or cast; and it shall also thereupon be the duty of the Executive of each State to deliver to the electors of such State, on or before the day on which they are required by the preceding section to meet, the same certificate, in triplicate, under the seal of the State; and such certificate shall be inclosed and transmitted by the electors at the same time and in the same manner as is provided by law for transmitting by such electors to the seat of Government the lists of all persons voted for as President and of all persons voted for as Vice-President; and section 136* of the Revised Statutes is hereby repealed; and if there shall have been any final determination in a State of a controversy or contest as provided for in section two of this act, it shall be the duty of the Executive of such State, as soon as practicable after such determination, to communicate, under the seal of the State, to the Secretary of State of the U. S., a certificate of such determination, in form and manner as the same shall have been made; and the Secretary of State of the U. S., as soon as practicable after the receipt at the State Department of each of the certificates hereinbefore directed to be transmitted to the Secretary of State, shall publish, in such public newspaper as he shall designate, such certificates in full; and at the first meeting of Congress thereafter he shall transmit to the two Houses of Congress copies in full of each and every such certificate so received theretofore at the State Department.

SEC. 4. That Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in February succeeding every meeting of the electors. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the hour of 1 o'clock in the afternoon on that day, and the President of the Senate shall be their presiding officer. Two tellers shall be previously appointed on the part of the Senate and two on the part of the House of Representatives, to whom shall be handed, as they are opened by the President of the Senate, all the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes, which certificates and papers shall be opened, presented and acted upon in the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the letter A; and said tellers, having then read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses, shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates, and the votes having been ascertained and counted in the manner and according to the rules in this act provided, the result of the same shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons, if any, elected President and Vice-President of the United States, and, together with a list of votes, be entered on the Journals of the two Houses. Upon such reading of any such certificate or paper, the President of the Senate shall call for objections, if any. Every objection shall be made in writing, and shall state clearly and concisely, and without argument, the ground thereof, and shall be signed by at least one Senator and one Member of the House of Representatives before the same shall be received. When all objections so made to any vote or paper from a State shall have been received and read, the Senate shall thereupon withdraw, and such objections shall be submitted to the Senate for its decision; and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, submit such objections to the House of Representatives for its decision; and no electoral vote or vote from any State which shall have been regularly given by electors whose appointment has been lawfully certified to according to section three of this act from which but one return has been received shall be rejected, but the two Houses concurrently may reject the vote or votes when they agree that such vote or votes have not been so regularly given by electors whose appointment has been so certified. If more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State shall have been received by the President of the Senate, those votes, and those only, shall be counted which shall have been regularly given by the electors who are shown by the determination mentioned in section two of this act to have been appointed, if the determination in said section provided for shall have been made, or by such successors or substitutes, in case of a vacancy in the Board of Electors so ascertained, as have been appointed to fill such vacancy in the mode provided by the laws of the State; but in case there shall arise the question which of two or more of such State authorities determining what electors have been appointed, as mentioned in section two of this act, is the lawful tribunal of such State, the votes regularly given of those electors, and those only, of such State shall be counted whose title as electors the two Houses, acting separately, shall concurrently decide is supported by the decision of such State so authorized by its laws; and in such case of more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State, if there shall have been no such determination of the question in the State aforesaid, then those votes, and those only, shall be counted which the two Houses shall concurrently decide were cast by lawful electors appointed in accordance with the laws of the State, unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concurrently decide such votes not to be the lawful votes of the legally appointed electors of such State. But if the two Houses shall disagree in respect of the counting of such votes, then, and in that case, the votes of the electors whose appointment shall have been certified by the Executive of the State, under the seal thereof, shall be counted. When the two Houses have voted, they shall immediately again meet, and the presiding officer shall then announce the decision of the questions submitted. No votes or papers from any other State shall be acted upon until the objections previously made to the votes or papers from any State shall have been finally disposed of.

*Section 136 is: "It shall be the duty of the Executive of each State to cause three lists of the names of the electors of such State to be made and certified, and to be delivered to the electors on or before the day on which they are required, by the preceding section, to meet.

SEC. 5. That while the two Houses shall be in meeting as provided in this act the President of the Senate shall have power to preserve order; and no debate shall be allowed and no question shall be put by the presiding officer except to either House on a motion to withdraw.

SEC. 6. That when the two Houses separate to decide upon an objection that may have been made to the counting of any electoral vote or votes from any State, or other question arising in the matter, each Senator and Representative may speak to such objection or question five minutes, and not more than once; but after such debate shall have lasted two hours it shall be the duty of the presiding officer of each House to put the main question without further debate.

SEC. 7. Such joint meeting shall not be dissolved until the count of electoral votes shall be completed and the result declared; and no recess shall be taken unless a question shall have arisen in regard to counting any such votes, or otherwise under this act, in which case it shall be competent for either House, acting separately, in the manner hereinbefore provided, to direct a recess of such House not beyond the next calendar day, Sunday excepted, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon. But if the counting of the electoral votes and the declaration of the result shall not have been completed before the fifth calendar day next after such first meeting of the two Houses, no further or other recess shall be taken by either House.—[Approved February 3, 1887.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

C.; Owensborough, Ky.; Houston, Tex.; Huntsville, Ala.; Augusta, Ga.; Detroit, Mich.; Binghamton, N. Y.; San Francisco, Cal.; Dayton, O. Existing buildings at Eastport, Me., are to be sold and new buildings erected. Additional appropriations are made for public buildings at Fort Scott, Kan.; Santa Fe, N. M.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Denver, Col.; Troy, N. Y.; Brooklyn, N. Y.; Abingdon, Va.

PUBLIC LANDS.

Chap. CCCLXXVI.—Provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall immediately adjust, in accordance with the decisions of the Supreme Court, each of the railroad land grants made by Congress to aid in the construction of railroads, and heretofore unadjusted.—[Approved March 3, 1887.

RAILROADS.

The Maricopa and Phœnix Railway Company of Arizona is granted the right of way through the Gila River Indian Reservation. Also the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railroad Company the right of way through the Indian reservations in Northern Montana and Northwestern Dakota; the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway Company the right of way through the Indian Territory; the Chicago, Kansas and Nebraska Railway Company the right of way through the Indian Territory; the Salt Lake and Fort Douglas Railway Company the right of way across the Fort Douglas Military Reservation; the Rocky Fork and Cooke City Railway Company the right of way through a part of the Crow Indian Reservation; the Utah Midland Railway Company the right of way through the Uncompahgre and Uintah Reservations, Utah.

Chap. CXX.—Forfeits that part of the lands granted March 3, 1871, to the New-Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Railroad Company which is on the east side of the Mississippi River and that part on the west side of the Mississippi which is opposite to and coterminous with the part of the New-Orleans Pacific Railroad Company which was completed on the 5th of January, 1881. Said lands are restored to the public domain. The title of the United States and of the original grantee to the lands granted by act of March 3, 1871, to said grantee, the New-Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Railroad Company, not herein declared forfeited, is relinquished, granted, conveyed and confirmed to the New-Orleans Pacific Railroad Company, as the assignee of the New-Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Railroad Company.—[Approved February 8, 1887.

Chap. CCCXLV.—Authorizes the appointment of three commissioners at $750 a month and necessary travelling expenses and board bills, to examine into the working and financial management of all of the railroads that have received aid from the Government in bonds—to report to the President by December 1, 1887. $100,000 were appropriated to meet the expenses of the act. Sections 4 and 5 are:

SEC. 4. That whenever, in the opinion of the President, it shall be deemed necessary to the protection of the interests and the preservation of the security of the United States in respect of its lien, mortgage or other interest in any of the property of any or all of the several companies upon which a lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance paramount to the right, title, or interest of the United States for the same property, or any part of the same, may exist and be then lawfully liable to be enforced, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, under the direction of the President, redeem or otherwise clear off such paramount lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance by paying the sums lawfully due in respect thereof out of the Treasury; and the United States shall thereupon become and be subrogated to all rights and securities therefore pertaining to the debt, mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance in respect of which such payment shall have been made. It shall be the duty of the Attorney-General, under the direction of the President, to take all such steps and proceedings, in the courts and otherwise, as shall be needful to redeem such lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance, and to protect and defend the rights and interests of the United States in respect of the matters in this section mentioned, and to take steps to foreclose any mortgages or liens of the United States on any such railroad property.

SEC. 5. That the sinking-funds which are or may be held in the Treasury for the security of the indebtedness of either or all of said railroad companies may, in addition to the investments now authorized by law, be invested in any bonds of the United States heretofore issued for the benefit of either or all of said companies, or in any of the first-mortgage bonds of either of said companies which have been issued under the authority of any law of the United States and secured by mortgages of their roads and franchises, which by any law of the United States have been made prior and paramount to the mortgage, lien, or other security of the United State in respect of its advances to either of said companies as provided by law.—[Approved March 3, 1887.

TENURE OF OFFICE ACT.

Chap. CCCLII.—Provides that sections 1767, 1768, 1769, 1770, 1771 and 1772 of the Revised Statutes of the United States are hereby repealed.

This repeal shall not affect any officer heretofore suspended under the provisions of said sections, or any designation, nomination or appointment heretofore made by virtue of the provisions thereof. Approved March 3, 1887.

TERRITORIES.

Chap. CCCXL.—Provides that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons not citizens of the U. S., or who have not lawfully declared their intention to become such citizens, or for any corporation not created by or under the laws of the U. S. or of some State or Territory of the U. S., to hereafter acquire, hold or own real estate so hereafter acquired, or any interest therein, in any of the Territories of the U. S. or in the District of Columbia, except such as may be acquired by inheritance or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts heretofore created. Provided, That the prohibition of this section shall not apply to cases in which the right to hold or dispose of lands in the U. S. is secured by existing treaties to the citizens or subjects of foreign countries, which rights, so far as they may exist by force of any such treaty, shall continue to exist so long as such treaties are in force and no longer.

Sec. 2. That no corporation or association more than twenty per centum of the stock of which is or may be owned by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, association or associations, not citizens of the U. S., shall hereafter acquire or hold or own any real estate hereafter acquired in any of the Territories of the U. S. or of the District of Columbia.

Sec. 3. That no corporation other than those organized for the construction or operation of railways, canals or turnpikes shall acquire, hold or own more than five thousand acres of land in any of the Territories of the U. S.; and no railroad, canal or turnpike corporation shall hereafter acquire, hold or own lands in any Territory other than as may be necessary for the proper operation of its railroad, canal or turnpike, except such lands as may have been granted to it by act of Congress. But the prohibition of this section shall not affect the title to any lands now lawfully held by any such corporation.

Sec. 4. That all property acquired, held, or owned in violation of the provisions of this act shall be forfeited to the U. S., and it shall be the duty of the Attorney-General to enforce every such forfeiture by bill in equity or other proper process. And in any suit or proceeding that may be commenced to enforce the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the court to determine the very right of the matter without regard to matters of form, joinder of parties, multifariousness, or other matters not affecting the substantial rights either of the U. S. or of the parties concerned in any such proceeding arising out of the matters in this act mentioned.—[Approved March 3, 1887.

TRADE DOLLAR.

Chap. CCCXCVI.—Provides that for six months after the passage of this act, U. S. trade-dollars, if not defaced, mutilated or stamped, shall be received at the office of the Treasurer, or any assistant treasurer of the U. S. in exchange for a like amount, coin for dollar, of standard silver dollars, or of subsidiary coins of the U. S.

That the trade-dollars received by, paid or deposited with the Treasurer or any assistant treasurer or National depositary of the U. S. shall not be paid out or in any other manner issued, but, at the expense of the U. S., shall be transmitted to the mints and recoined into standard silver dollars or subsidiary coin, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That the trade-dollars recoined under the act shall not be counted as part of the silver bullion required to be purchased and coined into standard dollars as required by the act of February 28, 1878.

Sec. 3. That all laws and parts of laws authorizing the coinage and issuance of U. S. trade-dollars are hereby repealed.—[Received by the President February 18, 1887, and not having been returned by him within ten days it became a law without his approval.

UTAH QUESTION.

Chap. CCCXCVII.—Annuls the laws of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah which provide that prosecutions for adultery can only be commenced on the complaint of the husband or wife, and provides that they may be instituted in the same way that prosecutions for other crimes are. Every ceremony of marriage in Utah must be certified, stating the fact and nature of the ceremony, the full names of the parties, the full name of every officer, priest and person in any way taking part in the performance of such ceremony, and be filed by the person solemnizing such marriage in the office of the Probate Court. It annuls the laws recognizing the capacity of illegitimate children to inherit any distributive share in the estate of the father. It annuls the laws creating the associations called the Perpetual Emigrating Fund Company, and called the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, and makes it the duty of the Attorney-General to institute proceedings to wind up the affairs of such corporations conformably to law. The President shall hereafter appoint the Judges of Probate in each county in the Territory of Utah. Females shall not vote in said Territory. All laws for numbering or identifying votes of electors at any election in said Territory are annulled. The Governor, Territorial Secretary and the Board of Commissioners shall redistrict the Territory and apportion representatives to the Council and House of Representatives respectively, to continue till Congress shall otherwise provide; and only male persons who will swear to obey the Act of Congress of March 22, 1882, and this act in respect of the crimes in said act denied and forbidden, can register or vote, or hold office, or be a juror in said Territory. The laws authorizing the Nauvoo Legion are annulled, and the militia shall be organized as in other Territories.—[Received by the President, February 19, 1887, and not having been returned by him within ten days, became a law without his approval.

PARTY PLATFORMS, 1887,

TOUCHING TARIFF, TEMPERANCE, CIVIL SERVICE AND EDUCATION.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORMS.

IOWA.

We continue to favor a Protective tariff for the upbuilding of American industries and the development of all our resources as a nation. We also favor it for the protection of American labor and in such degree as will maintain to such labor the advantage of the difference between the wages of the workingmen of Europe and America. We believe the tariff should be revised and reduced wherever this policy will allow and the public interest approve. The strictest honesty, economy and retrenchment should be required and followed in the expenditure of public money, and we declare for all possible and practicable reduction of taxation, both National and State.

KENTUCKY, May 11.

That we are heartily in favor of asking and receiving Federal aid to common school system.

That we approve of and will support a tariff so adjusted as to protect and develop American industries.

MARYLAND, August 24.

The Republican party of Maryland demands the passage of such laws, State and National, as will effectually protect American labor, American society and American institutions from the influence of the pauper and criminal classes of other countries and from the competition of convict labor at home.

That the Republican party of Maryland declares that the reform in the Civil Service should be thorough, radical and complete. To that end it demands . . that Congress shall so legislate that fitness ascertained by proper, practical competitive tests, shall admit to the public service; that the tenure of administrative offices (except those through which the distinctive policy of the party in power shall be carried out) shall be made secure during good behavior; and that the power of removal for cause, with responsibility for the good conduct of subordinates, shall accompany the power of appointment.

Resolved, That the principles thus declared with reference to the National Government should be applied in their full force to the Government of the State of Maryland and of the city of Baltimore.

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of Congress to pass the measure known as the Blair Educational bill, or some equivalent provision for aiding the States in removing the illiteracy which now exists in so many of them, and which is so dangerous to the welfare of the whole country.

MASSACHUSETTS, September 28.

We believe in a protective tariff, recognizing the benefits it brings to our country by giving our people more varied industries, more constant employment and better remuneration; furnishing an incentive for the full development of our resources and security for our liberal appropriations for the reconstruction of our Navy, for internal improvements and for proper National aid to education, also pensions for disabled soldiers and sailors. To meet further the question of a Treasury surplus we recommend such a reduction of internal revenue taxation as the exigencies of the case may require. The time has come for Congress carefully to consider the question of the internal revenue system and of the tariff on sugar, and the improvement of the administration of our customs laws, especially in regard to fraudulent undervaluations.

We believe in an honest ballot, both North and South, and that every citizen should be allowed to vote and have his vote counted. We condemn the systematic suppression of the Republican vote in the Southern States and the recent unblushing election frauds in certain Northern cities. The maintenance of the purity and the safety of the ballot-box is and always shall be a cardinal Republican principle.

We pledge ourselves to maintain the existing Civil Service law of this Commonwealth. We approve of the National Civil Service law passed by a Republican Congress, and demand that it be extended to other departments not now under its provisions. . . We point to the array of shameful dismissals and disgraceful appointments by the present Administration, and also to the President's indorsements of the spoils machine in Maryland and other States. If further proof were needed it has been furnished by the recent Democratic convention in this State, which shows that the Democratic party in Massachusetts stands with that party throughout the country in support of the doctrine, "To the victors belong the spoils."

Recognizing intemperance as the most fruitful source of pauperism, crime, etc., in politics and social degradation, we affirm our belief in the most thorough restriction of the liquor traffic and the enforcement of the laws for its suppression. We approve the action of the last Legislature in enacting so many temperance statutes, and demand the continued enactment of progressive temperance measures as the policy of our party. We repeat the recommendation of last year's convention as follows: "Believing that this great public question now demands settlement, we favor the submission to the people of an amendment to our Constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquor for a beverage." In order to have the matter placed before the people we call upon all those who are opposed to the political control of the grogshops to unite with the Republican party in electing Senators and Representatives who will vote for the submission of this amendment.

The elevation of American labor, the increase of its wages, the promotion and security of all its interests, material and moral, are not only a cardinal object of the Republican party, but are the principal purposes for which it was formed and for which it exists; and the well-known liberal legislation of Republican Massachusetts in behalf of the wage workers. We believe this end will be defeated by the success of any attempt to array labor against capital, which is the legitimate fruit of industry and enterprise for all alike, and upon the accumulation of which the employment and prosperity of labor itself largely depends.

The Republican party ever has maintained and ever will maintain and defend the common schools of Massachusetts as the very citadel of her liberties and the source of her glory, greatness and happiness. They shall be kept open to all her children and free from all partisan and sectarian control.

NEBRASKA, October 6.

The platform condemns a system of revenue that compels the farmers of the West to pay tribute to the manufacturers of the East, pledges the party to submit a prohibitory amendment to the State Constitution, condemns the President for his attempt to return the rebel flags, favors the admission of Dakota, views with alarm the abuse of the veto power by the President, and sustains the State Board of Transportation in its effort to secure reasonable freight and passenger rates.

A "Revenue Reform" Tariff resolution was tabled—319 to 178, and a tariff revision on a Protection basis was demanded.

NEW-YORK, September 14.

The Republican party, by all honorable means, seeks restoration to power in the State and in the Nation, because of the unchallenged record of history attesting its administrative successes in war time, in the period of restoration and pacification, in executive, legislative and financial achievements, in the purity and efficiency of its methods and in the lasting benefits conferred upon the people, and because, since Democratic ascendency in the State and Nation, the incapacity and inefficiency of that party in administration and in legislation, the egregious blunders of the Executive and the Democratic branch of Congress, many of whose acts are to the detriment of the public interests, have constantly emphasized the wisdom and necessity of such restoration.

Two and a half years of a Democratic President, who has had the co-operation of an overwhelming majority in the House of Representatives, where, under the Constitution, all revenue measures must originate, have exposed the incapacity of the Democratic party and the weakness of the Democratic policy under which so much was promised the people, but from which there have come only broken pledges, failure to promote the people's interests; no plan to reduce the revenues or to retrench expenditures; no purpose to promote a practical civil service reform, or otherwise to improve the public service; while conspicuous among the many shortcomings of this Administration are numberless appointees who have proved faithless and incompetent, the postal service disorganized and its efficiency impaired, and the public business in other departments delayed and obstructed.

We adhere firmly to the American policy, under whose operation unexampled prosperity and thrift have blessed the land, and hold that any changes to be made in the tariff laws should be made by the friends of those laws, and in the interest of protection of labor on our own soil, and of home markets, not by or in the interest of free trade propagandists, nor for the benefit of foreign producers and foreign labor. National taxation should be so adjusted as to raise revenue sufficient for an economic and wise administration of the Government, for the payment of the public debt, for the development of National resources and for National defense; but any reduction should be so made as not to impair the prosperity of home industries. American markets must be preserved to the products of American labor and capital and protected from foreign encroachments.

The principle of the National and State Civil Service Reform laws has our hearty approval. These laws should be executed in the spirit in which they were enacted and accepted by the people, and be advanced and made permanent. The hypocritical pretences under which both President Cleveland's and Governor Hill's administrations have continually and shamefully violated the law by systematic perversion to partisan purposes deserve the popular condemnation.

The political rights of all persons throughout the land must be established firmly and beyond controversy. The persecution of the workingman in the South and the denial of his civil rights cause degradation, low wages and inferior products, which bring into unfair competition the labor of the North and obstruct that full measure of prosperity and thrift that equal conditions throughout the country would establish and maintain. A fair hearing on all public questions, a free ballot in every citizen's hand and an honest count of the vote are just prerogatives of citizenship to which full respect must be paid to insure the enjoyment of the freeman's birthright and the maintenance of republican government on a stable foundation.

The veterans of the Union armies and navies are entitled to the liberal consideration of this people for all public preferment, and should receive generous care and adequate pensions. The flippant, sneering language of President Cleveland's vetoes of pension bills was insulting to the veterans and degrading to the Executive. The subservient spirit displayed in Mr. Cleveland's illegal order to return Rebel battle-flags—the precious trophies of the Union troops—deserves only reprobation, and justly excites the resentment of all loyal people.

Congress should pass laws and establish regulations that will prevent the coming to our shores of disreputable and undesirable persons, whose presence here would threaten good government, disturb the peace and order, and depreciate the dignity and rewards of honest labor. Anarchists, communists, polygamists, paupers, fugitives from justice and insane, vicious and criminal persons, as also contract labor, should be rigorously excluded. But honest, industrious, well-intentioned persons escaping the oppression and degradation of Old World despotisms and the crushing force of free trade policies are welcome as a desirable element in our population.

The record of the Republican Legislature for wisdom in general action, for giving to the legislation it sought and for efficiency and economy in State expenditure commands approval. The low rate of State taxation is the best evidence of fidelity and prudence. Had the Democratic Governor given attention to wise legislative action, the tax list would have been reduced to a minimum and the people would have cause to rejoice in an era of genuine reform.

We heartily indorse the purpose of the Republican majority of the Legislature in passing the bills to limit and restrict the liquor traffic, and we condemn the vetoes of the Governor as hostile to that purpose. We recommend compreh naive and efficient legislation for giving local option by counties, towns and cities, and restriction by taxation in such localities as do not by their option exclude absolutely the traffic.

The State census, under constitutional direction, having been voted by the Republican Legislature and defeated by the Democratic Governor's veto, the failure to secure an enumeration and reapportionment and other benefits of the census is chargeable solely to the Executive's nullification of the Constitution's mandate and his defiance of the co-ordinate branch of the State Government, with which all legislation must originate and which is accountable therefor, and the Democratic party, in sustaining the Governor's veto, shares with him the responsibility and discredit for the wanton over-riding of the Constitution.

The veto and defeat by Governor Hill of an improved Registry bill, of which the purpose was to promote pure elections, was an outrage upon the rights of lawful electors. The most efficient safeguard should be placed about the primary, the source of all political action, as well as about the ballot-box, so as to secure their purity and inviolability.

The people of the State, having voted in favor of a Constitutional Convention, the Legislature made provision therefor and the Governor became responsible by his veto for the annulment of the popular will.

Whatever propositions of legislation will mitigate and equalize taxation should be enacted; and to Republican legislation is due the progress that has been made in this direction in this State. The Corporation Tax laws and Collateral Inheritance bill and Homestead Tax Exemption are in the right spirit and tend to simplify the tax system. We are in favor of such further changes in the tax laws as shall equalize the burden and compel personal property to bear its proper share.

We approve the laws, State and National, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of articles of food made in simulation of butter and cheese and earnestly favor such further legislation as may be necessary for the protection of genuine dairy products.

We recommend to the Legislature a just care of the interests of the people of this State in the maintenance of cheap transportation through a wholesome competition by the State's waterways and the doing of this without placing unnecessary burdens upon localities beyond the benefits received. National support of the Erie Canal, the great highway for the products of the West to the seaboard, is favored and invited.

The cause of Ireland and the efforts in its behalf by Gladstone, Parnell and their associates have the earnest sympathy of Republicans and command their co-operation by all peaceful methods to promote an early and complete triumph.

The majority of the Committee on Resolutions reported the ninth resolution as printed above. The minority reported this as a substitute:

That while the Republican party of the State of New-York unalterably opposes any legislation which attempts to prohibit individual freedom of choice of beverages, as well as of food or raiment, it recognizes the right of the people of this State to repress and punish intemperance in any form prejudicial to the welfare of society. It also recognizes the right of the people to compel all traffic in any articles which may tend to produce or increase pauperism or crime, to bear the burdens of taxation which through them are imposed upon the people. It also recognizes the fact that nearly 80 per cent of the entire State tax is now paid by the nine counties which contain the principal cities of the State—and that such counties bear in addition thereto the burdens of the maintenance of expensive local, charitable and penal institutions and it therefore holds that the questions as to what proportion of taxation such traffic should be required to contribute and how that proportion should be collected, should by proper legislation be immediately submitted to a popular vote in those counties affected by the existence of such traffic. It also reaffirms the principle of local option now provided by law and holds that the provisions of such law should be extended to the cities of this State.

Mr. Crosby, of New-York, submitted the following:

That the Republican party believes the cause of temperance can best be served by a system of high license or tax, and it pledges itself to do all in its power to secure such a system for this State.

This was disagreed to almost unanimously.

The minority report was lost—yeas 136, nays 515.

The platform was then adopted without division.

OHIO, July 28.

We are in favor of a protective tariff, to secure to American citizens the privilege of supplying every article which can be produced as well in the United States as in other countries, and sufficiently to supply American wants. Such a tariff makes a demand for and gives employment to the labor of American citizens, and thereby aids in securing just compensation for labor. We denounce the Ohio Democratic platform of a tariff for revenue only, and which demands an indiscriminate reduction in all duties on imported articles, the effect of which would be to encourage importations, thus giving American patronage to foreign producers and foreign labor rather than to our own.

We demand such duties on wool and manufactures thereof as will secure the American market to American producers. We denounce the demand made under President Cleveland's Administration by the Secretary of the Treasury in his annual report of December 6, 1886, for the "immediate passage of an act placing raw wool under the free list," and we denounce the Democratic State platform which "proclaims its hearty and unqualified indorsement" of said Administration, and demands a "reduction of the present" duties on wool and on woollen and worsted goods. Such reduction would destroy the wool-growing and woollen manufacturing industries, would invite large imports, break down American competition and give the control of our market to foreign producers, who would ultimately demand exorbitant prices. We earnestly protest against the decisions of the Secretary of the Treasury in customs cases in the interest the foreign producer and foreign labor, as in opposition to the letter and spirit of the tariff laws.

We favor liberal pensions to the soldiers and sailors of the Union, adequate appropriations for the improvement of our National waterways and National aid to education. If too much revenue be collected to meet these and other public needs, we demand that the first step in the reduction thereof shall be the abolition of the internal tax upon American-grown tobacco.

While we condemn the false pretence of President Cleveland's administration of the Civil Service law, we advocate the maintenance and proper enforcement of said law, and demand such additional legislation as will remove appointments from partisan influence.

We deprecate National strife and divisions. We have placed the war, with its hates and revenges, behind us; but the settlements of the war must stand irrevocable—respected, honored and observed in every part of the Republic. More we have never demanded. less we will not have. Congress should exercise its constitutional authority and take control and supervision of elections of Representatives to Congress.

PENNSYLVANIA, August 17.

That they reaffirm their declaration of 1886 in favor of submitting to a vote of the people the prohibitory constitutional amendment. We also indorse the action of the last Legislature in the submission of the amendment making suffrage free by abolishing the tax qualification for a vote.

We favor a tariff for the sake of nurturing American manufactures until the industries and resources of this country furnish its people with every item of consumption they can naturally produce, and for the purpose of protecting home labor against foreign labor, as well as its products. It is likewise the part of that protective policy of which Pennsylvania has been the parent to protect American workmen from the unequal and unjust competition of imported contraband pauper labor, and we demand the passage of more vigorous national laws for the control of immigration and the return of the vile and the unworthy. In this connection we declare our abhorrence of Anarchistic ideas and propositions destructive of the rights of property and our system of society and government. Their resultant violations of the law should be visited with prompt and extreme penalties.

We favor the creation of an American marine by the provision of bounties upon exports and discriminating duties upon imports in American bottoms.

The soldiers of the Union are worthy of the lasting gratitude and continued favor of a restored Government, and the surplus in the Treasury cannot better be distributed than in the enlargement of the general pension list so as to include all honorably discharged soldiers of the Union Army who may be in absolute need of public aid.

RHODE ISLAND, March 16.

While we realize that there are inequalities in our present tariff which should be corrected, and that duties on imports should, as occasion demands, be readjusted to meet the needs of business and the requirements of revenue from the Government, we denounce all horizontal reduction or attempts to embody in our National legislation the principles of free trade.

The platform approves civil service reform, and condemns the violation of this principle by the present National Administration as displayed in the most important Federal offices in this State.

It favors the enforcement of the Prohibitory Liquor Law. It favors submitting to the people propositions for constitutional amendments providing for the abolition of the registry tax, and the real estate qualification as prerequisites for voting.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS.

IOWA, September 1.

We call upon Congress for the immediate revision of our tariff laws to a revenue basis, to the end that every industry and every section may enjoy perfect equality under the law, and we favor the retention of the internal revenue tax on intoxicating liquors and tobacco and protest against its proposed reduction for the purpose of continuing the present high tariff on the necessaries of life.

KENTUCKY, May 4.

We favor honest civil service reform, by which we mean the enforcement of the faithful performance by persons appointed to office of all public duties entrusted to them, and to this end, as well as to the maintenance of the spirit of our representative form of government, we demand the strictest measure of personal and party responsibility, and are opposed to the substitution, in room of this, of life tenure, a civil pension list and all other appendages of a bureaucratic system foreign to the genius of our institutions and people.

We declare the honest money of the Constitution good enough for the people as expressed in gold and silver and paper convertible into coin on demand, and are opposed to all sumptuary laws.

We view with alarm the growing tendency among certain classes of citizens to seek the aid and bounty of the General Government, and as an incident of this tendency to enlarge the powers granted and to multiply powers never contemplated by the Constitution, and we reassert the time-honored Democratic doctrine that "all powers not delegated to the United States are reserved to the States respectively or to the people."

We denounce the present war tariff, as unjust, unequal and oppressive, as well as to harass the people as a masterpiece of injustice, inequality and false pretence. It has been maintained by a selfish and false theory of protection, which robs the many to enrich a few. It has piled up in the National Treasury a surplus which menaces the prosperity of all classes and every industry. We demand the immediate reduction of this war tariff not merely as an act of redress to the people, promised by all parties, but as the only safe and just method of reducing the surplus; and in making such reduction we demand further that the taxes shall first be abolished or lowered upon the necessaries of life; and, finally, we reassert the Constitutional and Democratic doctrine that taxes should be levied exclusively for public purposes and limited to the requirements of the Government economically administered.

MARYLAND, July 27.

That whilst the Democratic party in Maryland believes in an upright and efficient civil service in the administration of government, it is nevertheless opposed to a system of life tenure and to a civil pension list; and whilst it upholds the President of the United States in efforts to effect an honest and competent civil service, still it believes that that civil service should be composed of officers and employes who are not antagonistic to the success of the Administration under which they serve, but are in sympathy with it, whose hearts are in their work, and who believe that upon the continued and just success of the Democratic party rest the safety and security of republican institutions and the liberties of the people.

That we cordially commend our Democratic representatives in Congress from this State for their earnest effort to reduce taxation; and we reaffirm the Democratic platform of 1884 in demanding a revision of the tariff in a spirit of fairness to all interests of the labor and capital involved therein.

MASSACHUSETTS, September 20.

It being an unquestioned principle that the business of the Government should be conducted with the same care as personal business matters, therefore we believe that no business can be successfully carried on unless those engaged in its prosecution act in harmony. We believe that no business man would employ or retain in his employ any person who was known to be in the interest of a rival, who depreciated his business capacity, undermined his credit or disclosed his secrets. We believe no administration of the Government can be successful unless those who are intrusted with the execution of its affairs are interested in its success, approve of its policy, and believe in its principles. We believe all the important offices in the civil service should be filled by competent persons in political sympathy with the Administration; that all other offices not representative in character should be filled by persons selected for their fitness, capacity and integrity; that the dispensing of patronage should neither be a tax upon the time of our public men nor the instrument of their ambition. We believe that no officer should be retained in the public service who has shown himself an offensive partisan, and we think a sense of propriety to the Administration of which they are a part requires the Federal officeholders representing the Administration in this State to discharge from the public service any of their subordinates against whom charges of offensive partisanship can be substantiated.

We believe that the power of Congress to tax the people is limited by the Constitution to the requirements of the Government; that any system of taxation which produces a revenue beyond this is unwise and dangerous. It furnishes unnecessary burdens on the people and enhances the cost of living; it encourages needless and extravagant appropriations by Congress, and, by withdrawing from general circulation money that should be actively employed, embarrasses trade and may be the cause of a disastrous financial crisis. We do not advocate free trade, but favor and desire a revision of the present unjust and burdensome tariff laws. We heartily approve of the following recommendation of the President: "The increasing and unnecessary surplus should be released to the people by an amendment to our revenue laws which shall cheapen the price of the necessaries of life and give freer entrance to such imported materials as may be manufactured into marketable commodities." We believe the income derived by the Government from the internal revenue tax should be applied to discharge the burdens imposed on the people by the late war.

NEW-YORK, September 28.

The unnecessary Federal taxation of the last fiscal year exceeded $100,000,000. Unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation. Therefore the Democracy of New-York demand that Federal taxation be straightway reduced by a sum not less than $100,000,000 a year, and also respectfully urge upon Congress that a measure shall be adopted which will, in the language of the President's inaugural address, "relieve the people from unnecessary taxation, having a due regard to the interests of capital invested and workingmen employed in American industries." The taxes to be first reduced or altogether removed are those on imported raw materials which now assist and promote foreign competition with ourselves in our own markets and prevent or hinder the sale of surplus products in foreign markets. Along with those taxes should be forthwith remitted or reduced the taxation which increases the cost to our wage earners of the common necessaries of life and the price of the common daily clothing of all our people. Besides these there are several hundred articles among the 4,182 articles now taxed which should be swept off the tax list into the free list, thereby diminishing the cost of collecting all our seaport taxes and casting away those which are petty, needless and vexatious. We also urge an immediate enactment of the measures prepared by Mr. Manning and Mr. Hewitt and reported to the last House by the Committee of Ways and Means to systematize, simplify and economize the machinery for the collection of the customs revenue and especially for making correct appraisements of foreign values wherever ad valorem rates of duty shall be retained.

To all citizens born in foreign lands and to the multitude of our native citizens who desire to obtain and securely hold their own homes the Democratic party has rendered inestimable service in reclaiming from speculative railroad corporations the public lands which such corporations, by the corrupt aid of Republican Administrations, had seized to be disposed of for their private gain. Many millions of acres of these lands have been so recovered by the Democratic Administration and returned to the people for the use of actual settlers.

The Democratic party is the proved friend of all who have come to our country seeking to become partners in its welfare and citizens obedient to its laws. There is in our America bread enough and work enough for all, and the Federal laws now on the statute book for the promotion and protection of foreign emigration do not in our opinion, if they shall be faithfully executed by the proper Federal and State authorities, require present enlargement or amendment.

The Democracy of New-York reiterate their support of the Civil Service laws of the United States and of the State of New-York and their purpose to uphold them both. In view of the radical change in administrative methods, which grow out of the Civil Service laws, and the differences of opinion which exist in relation thereto, we deem the subject one which might appropriately be submitted to the popular vote. Notwithstanding the decided decrease in the ordinary expenditures of Government, the faithful soldiers, sailors and their families have been generously remembered, and the annual pension lists under Democratic control show payments in number and amount largely in excess of those during the years of Republican administration.

The Democracy of the State of New-York deplore the wrongs inflicted on Ireland by the coercive and despotic power of the English Government, and express to that suffering people the earnest hope that they may speedily enjoy the blessings of home rule and of civil liberty.

In order to secure the necessities of life to our people and raw materials for the employment of our industries and the building up of our towns and cities at the lowest practicable cost, we favor the continuance of the work of lengthening the locks and of cleaning out the channels of the canals upon the plan recommended by the late Governor Seymour and in progress by the State. The State of New-York needs and will accept no Federal aid for the improvement or maintenance of its canal system.

We favor a revised excise law applicable without unjust discrimination throughout the State. We oppose all sumptuary laws needlessly interfering with the personal liberties and reasonable habits and customs of any portion of our citizens. We believe that excise revenues, like other proper local revenues, should be applied in lessening local burdens and to the reduction of local taxation.

We assert the right of local self-government for cities and demand that the Legislature shall provide general laws for the exercise of that right. We heartily approve of such legislation as shall give the fullest protection against simulated products to the farm and dairy interests.

The oppressive hours of labor demanded of their employes by many corporations deriving large profits from the use of public streets or land acquired for public use, should be so regulated by law that no more than ten hours shall be required for a day's work, and all corporations, other than municipal, should be required to pay their employes, whose wages are by the day, once a week, and in money.

The Democratic party, the party of the people, which in the past has inaugurated and carried through all legislation of genuine and lasting benefit to those who work for wages, is always ready to favor such legislation as may be justly required to protect and promote their interests and welfare.

New-York State now enjoys the benefit of a Democratic Administration, which has well fulfilled the trust committed to it by the electors in 1885. In every branch of the State Government under Democratic control the laws have been carried into effect with rigor and justice, and every right of the people has been zealously maintained. Wherefore we heartily indorse the Administration of David B. Hill, Governor of New-York and pledge him our full confidence and support.

The Democracy of New-York approve the Administration of Grover Cleveland, President of the United States. It has won the respect and confidence of all citizens, without regard to party. It has removed that apprehension of the dangers which would attend change of party in the Federal Administration, which had become a serious obstacle to the maintenance of our system of a free government, depending upon the popular will. It has brought back honesty and simplicity to the conduct of affairs. It has checked the waste of the public moneys and insisted upon their devotion to constitutional purposes. It has effected a practical reform of the Civil Service. It has maintained the national character for justice and forbearance in dealing with foreign countries. Its management of the Treasury has been signally wise and prudent, and it has begun the reconstruction of our naval establishment with a thoroughness that promises the restoration of our ancient prestige upon the sea. Wherefore, we, representing the Democracy of New-York, in convention assembled, again pledge to the President our strong and unwavering confidence and support.

OHIO, July 21.

We demand such judicious reduction of the present burdensome tariff as shall result in producing a revenue sufficient only to meet the expenses of an economical administration of Government, the payment of liberal pensions to Union soldiers and sailors, and the payment of the interest and principal of the public debt; and, if necessary, we favor such reduction of internal revenue, except on liquors, as will prevent the accumulation of a surplus in the National Treasury, and we denounce any attempt to abolish the tax on liquors for the purpose of keeping up the present unjust, unequal and onerous tariff system.

We call attention to and affirm as sound doctrine and policy the following emphatic and patriotic language of President Cleveland: "Our public domain is our National wealth, the earnest of our growth and heritage of our people. It should promise limitless development and riches, relief to a crowding population, and homes to thrift and industry. These inestimable advantages should be jealously guarded, and a careful and enlightened policy on the part of the Government should secure them to the people." We demand that all lands of the Government be held for actual settlers who are citizens of the United States and for those who declare their intention to become such.

We declare in favor of a proper regulation of the liquor traffic, and believe it to be the duty of all good citizens to aid in reducing to a minimum the evils resulting therefrom, and to this end favor the submission of an amendment to the Constitution providing for the license of such traffic.

PENNSYLVANIA, August 31.

That we renew our allegiance to the principles and declarations of the platform adopted at Chicago in 1884, which [illegible] Cleveland, the nominee of the party, heartily indorsed, declaring in his letter of acceptance: "I have carefully considered the platform adopted by the Convention, and cordially approve the same; so plain a statement of Democratic faith and the principles upon which that party appeals to the suffrages of the people needs no supplement or explanation." To these principles he has faithfully adhered in all his public utterances. We further affirm the platform adopted by our State Convention of 1886, and in view of the existing condition of the public Treasury, we demand with emphasis that the large surplus already in the Treasury shall be used to pay the public debt, and that the current and unnecessary increase going on beyond the needs of Government shall be immediately prevented by a wise and prudent reduction of internal taxation and of duties on imports in accordance with the foregoing declarations.

RHODE ISLAND, March 9.

The platform adopted indorses Cleveland's Administration and "views with alarm" the present political condition of Rhode Island.

VIRGINIA, August 4.

We demand the immediate repeal of the Internal Revenue system, a relic of the war and no longer necessary to meet the demands of the Government, because it is oppressive, fosters monopolies and is obnoxious to the interests of our people.

We favor raising the revenue requisite for the support of the Federal Government by a tariff upon imports, limited to the necessities of government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encouraging productive interests at home, the development of our material resources, and affording just compensation to labor, but not to foster monopolies.

The Democratic party pledges itself to urge upon Congress the justice of its practical recognition of Virginia's equitable demands for compensation for her past munificent concessions to the territory of the Federal Government, and also for loss to Virginia for dismemberment of her territory and consequent reduction of her taxable values, in order that the fund justly due Virginia from this source may be available to aid in relieving the taxpayers from the burdens of their present financial difficulties.

We earnestly advocate liberal appropriation by the Federal Government out of the revenues in aid of the education of the children of the several States in proportion to illiteracy, in accordance with the provisions of the Blair bill or some better measure.

PROHIBITION PLATFORMS.

MASSACHUSETTS, September 7.

The liquor oligarchy is denounced as a common enemy. The system of attempted restriction of the liquor traffic by means of licenses is characterized as a failure and local option as an insufficient safeguard. Entire prohibition of the liquor traffic is declared to be a principle good in law and feasible in practice. The prospect of obtaining it either in Massachusetts or in the Nation through the agency of either of the existing parties is declared to be delusive, as the Democratic party makes no pretensions to that direction and the Republican party for the most part makes nothing else. Therefore, the maintenance of a separate party whose membership shall be specifically pledged to the furtherance of constitutional prohibition in State and Nation is absolutely essential. Municipal suffrage to women is demanded as an act of simple justice.

NEW-JERSEY, September 8.

We affirm our allegiance to the National Prohibition party and its principles, and reassert the declaration of the State Convention of 1886. We call the attention of the voters of this State to the fact that in the last Legislature no representative of either the Republican or Democratic party was sufficiently friendly to the cause of suppression of the liquor traffic even to introduce a prohibitory amendment to the Constitution, and to the fact that notwithstanding the pretence of the last Republican platform to local prohibition, no member of that party brought a local option bill to a vote in the Legislature, and we charge this action to have been subserviency to the liquor element, which controls the politics of the Republican as well as the Democratic party, and forbids them looking toward the destruction of the liquor traffic anywhere. We submit to the Christian and temperance people of this State whether they can longer support political parties which have no control over their representatives to obtain temperance legislation or to prevent the legalizing of gambling, as was done by the Monmouth Park Pool bill passed last winter. While in every political party various matters of policy are set forth, yet in every party there must be one supreme and dominant issue. We declare the extermination of the liquor traffic to be the supreme political issue, and to be the only test of party fealty, and that no person be nominated or indorsed by the Prohibition party as a candidate for any office in any town, county or district in this State unless such person be an openly avowed and consistent member of said Prohibition party, and unless he has wholly separated from all other political parties.

NEW-YORK, August 26.

We, Prohibitionists of New-York, through our representatives in convention assembled, grateful to Almighty God, Sovereign of nations and Guardian of homes, and looking to Him for guidance, hereby set forth the following declaration of principles:

First—The government of and by and for the people can be permanent and fit to endure only as the people guard sacredly public morals and private life.

Second—That the liquor traffic being a foe to the individual citizen, a curse to the home, a burden to society, and a crime against God and the State, its entire prohibition is demanded by every interest of social and political economy.

Third—That the extermination of this traffic can never be secured through any system which confers license or levies a tax upon it.

Fourth—That to vote for license or tax of the liquor traffic is to accept, in the name of the State, a bribe from the State's worst enemy, and that he who votes for a corrupt and corrupting system for the revenue it yields is as guilty of a crime against the State as he who sells his vote to a corrupt candidate.

Fifth—That the purity and value of the ballot demand disfranchisement for him who sells a vote and also for him who buys it.

Sixth—That justice and equity alike demand that the ballot should be given to woman, and that we demand the submission by Congress to the several States of a National Constitutional Amendment guaranteeing her right thereto.

Seventh—That the extermination of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating beverages is the dominant issue before the citizens of both State and Nation. It is, therefore, the only test of party fealty.

Eighth—For wage-earners we demand prohibition of the liquor traffic as the most important reform; that the health and safety of workers in the performance of their labor should be secured by law; that the laws relating to child labor and compulsory education should be strictly enforced and their provisions extended; that postal savings banks and telegraphs should be established; that a just system of profit-sharing between employers and employes should be encouraged; that the establishment of co-operative business enterprises by laboring men be promoted by wise legislation; that differences relating to the rewards of labor should be settled by arbitration; that equal wages for equal work be paid alike to men and women; that we are opposed to the holding of large tracts of land for speculative purposes by any individual or corporation and demand that the public lands be reserved for actual settlers; that such franchises as street railroads, stage routes, ferries and gas companies should be disposed of to individuals or companies that would agree to serve the public at the lowest rates, and not to the highest bidder; that all men should pay tax upon what they own, and not upon what they owe.

Ninth—And finally, that as proofs of the subserviency of the Republican and Democratic parties to the rum power, we cite the failure of the Republican party for four consecutive years to fulfil its pledge to submit to the people a Constitutional Amendment and the passage by recent Legislatures of the Mandamus bill, Mooney Excise bill and the Crosby High-License bill, avowedly to popularize beer and wine; and the Vedder Tax bill, a shameless attempt to bribe citizens; and the Ives Pool bill, by an application of the license principle, thus legalizing gambling and sharing with the gambler his profits; and the Cantor Beer bill, thus increasing the enticements of the saloon by music and song, and by similar acts of party leaders and representatives.

The convention rejected by a vote of 171 to 206 a plank declaring that the United States should establish postal savings banks and telegraphs. The convention also cancelled a plank declaring that the legal rate of interest in this State should be reduced to five per cent.

OHIO, June 30.

It reiterates denunciation of the liquor traffic, condemns the Dow Liquor Tax law, recommends woman suffrage, condemns Anarchy, approves Civil Service Reform, opposes sudden or violent changes in the tariff, and deprecates the fostering of sectional animosities between North and South. Further safeguards are demanded for Sunday and temperance instruction in public schools.

PENNSYLVANIA, August 24.

We declare that no political and preventable evil or combination of evil so clogs the progress of good, so burdens industry and trade, so corrupts politics and legislation, so endangers life, liberty and property, so threatens the perpetuity of free institutions, as the liquor traffic. No political issue is so important as is the suppression of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages, and we demand the prohibition of the same by statutory and constitutional enactment, faithfully enforced, as the only corrective agency for the evils arising therefrom.

We declare that during the past year the current of party declarations and actions gives no promise that either the Republican or Democratic party will make the legal prohibition of the drink traffic the object of party support, and that therefore the citizen who desires prohibition and relief from responsibility for and complicity with the drink trade, can find it only by casting his vote with the Prohibition party, the only party that dares meet the saloon power at the ballot-box.

We declare the action of the late Legislature in refusing to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors on Memorial Day, and in the enactment of the present "high license law," as satisfactory evidence of the complicity of the Republican and Democratic parties with their subjection to the saloon power.

We favor protection to American labor and capital; the restriction of immigration as against pauper and criminal classes; the reservation of our public lands for actual settlers, popular education with the retention of the Bible in our public schools; just pensions to our dependent soldiers or their families; civil service based on personal character and official fitness, and a wise and economical administration of public affairs.

The earnest, energetic labors of the women of the State for the promotion of temperance merits our gratitude; viewing with alarm the shiploads of ignorant and vicious men who are annually brought to our country, and who, soon becoming voters, control our large cities, endangering life, property and our civil and religious institutions, we shall hail with satisfaction the day when the intelligence and virtue of American women, our only political counterpoise to this ignorance, shall be clothed with legal power, their rightful due, to practically and efficiently defend "home and native land" with their ballots.

UNITED LABOR PLATFORM.

NEW-YORK August 19.

We, the delegates of the United Labor party of New-York, in state convention assembled, hereby reassert, as the fundamental platform of the party and the basis on which we ask the co-operation of citizens of other States, the following declaration of principles, adopted on September 23, 1886, by the convention of trade and labor associations of the city of New-York, that resulted in the formation of the United Labor party:

"Holding that the corruptions of government and the impoverishment of labor result from neglect of the self-evident truth proclaimed by the founders of this Republic that all men are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights, we aim at the abolition of a system which compels men to pay their fellow-creatures for the use of God's gifts to all, and permits monopolizers to deprive labor of natural opportunities for employment, thus filling the land with tramps and paupers and bringing about an unnatural competition which tends to reduce wages to starvation rates and to make the wealth producer the industrial slave of those who grow rich by his toil.

"Holding, moreover, that the advantages arising from social growth and improvement belong to society at large, we aim at the abolition of the system which makes such beneficent inventions as the railroad and telegraph a means for the oppression of the people and the aggrandizement of an aristocracy of wealth and power. We declare the true purpose of government to be the maintenance of that sacred right of property which gives to every one opportunity to employ his labor and security that he shall enjoy its fruits; to prevent the strong from oppressing the weak and the unscrupulous from robbing the honest; and to do for the equal benefit of all such things as can be better done by organized society than by individuals; and we aim at the abolition of all laws which give to any class of citizens advantages, either judicial, financial, industrial or political that are not equally shared by all others."

We call upon all who seek the emancipation of labor, and who would make the American Union and its component States democratic commonwealths of really free and independent citizens, to ignore all minor differences and join with us in organizing a great national party on this broad platform of natural rights and equal justice. We do not aim at securing any forced equality in the distribution of wealth. We do not propose that the State shall attempt to control production, conduct distribution, or in any wise interfere with the freedom of the individual to use his labor or capital in any way that may seem proper to him and that will not interfere with the equal rights of others. Nor do we propose that the State shall take possession of land and either work it or rent it out. What we propose is not the disturbing of any man in his holding or title, but by abolishing all taxes on industry or its products, to leave to the producer the full fruits of his exertion and by the taxation of land values, exclusive of improvements, to devote to the common use and benefit those values which, arising not from the exertion of the individual, but from the growth of society, belong justly to the community as a whole. This increased taxation of land, not according to its area, but according to its value, must, while relieving the working farmer and small homestead owner of the undue burdens now imposed upon them, make it unprofitable to hold land for speculation, and thus throw open abundant opportunities for the employment of labor and the building up of homes.

While thus simplifying government by doing away with the horde of officials required by the present system of taxation and with its incentives to fraud and corruption, we would further promote the common weal and further secure the equal rights of all by placing under public control such agencies as are in their nature monopolies. We would have our municipalities supply their inhabitants with water, light and heat; we would have the general government issue all money without the intervention of banks; we would add a postal telegraph system and postal savings banks to the postal service, and would assume public control and ownership of those iron roads which have become the highways of modern commerce.

While declaring the foregoing to be the fundamental principles and aims of the United Labor party, and while conscious that no reform can give effectual and permanent relief to labor that does not involve the legal recognition of equal rights to natural opportunities, we nevertheless, as measures of relief from some of the evil effects of ignoring those rights, favor such legislation as may tend to reduce the hours of labor, to prevent the employment of children of tender years, to avoid the competition of convict labor with honest industry, to secure the sanitary inspection of tenements, factories and mines, and to put an end to the abuse of conspiracy laws.

We desire also to so simplify the procedure of our courts and diminish the expense of legal proceedings, that the poor may be placed on an equality with the rich and the long delays which now result in scandalous miscarriages of justice may be prevented.

And since the ballot is the one means by which in our republic the redress of political and social grievances is to be sought, we especially and emphatically declare for the adoption of what is known as the "Australian system of voting," in order that the effectual secrecy of the ballot and the relief of candidates for public office from the heavy expenses now imposed upon them may prevent bribery and intimidation, do away with practical discrimination in favor of the rich and unscrupulous, and lessen the pernicious influence of money in politics.

In support of these aims we solicit the co-operation of all patriotic citizens who, sick of the degradation of politics, desire by constitutional methods to establish justice, to preserve liberty, to extend the spirit of fraternity, and to elevate humanity.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PLATFORM.

NEW-YORK, September 28.

1. "That the soil of every country is the social and common inheritance of the people."

2. "That labor produces all wealth," which includes the instruments through which alone the forces of nature become accessible.

3. "That all should," therefore, "have free access to land," and to the instruments of production, "without tribute to landlords and monopolists."

4. "That there can be no harmony between capital and labor under the present industrial system," which either dwarfs or suppresses individual development by denying to the masses of the American people their inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

5. "That the emancipation of the working classes must be achieved by the working classes themselves" through "the establishment," as demanded by the Knights of Labor, "of co-operative institutions, such as will tend to supersede the wage system by the introduction of a co-operative industrial system"; and

Resolved, That with a view to the immediate relief of the people by the correction of glaring abuses and the suppression of odious wrongs, we first demand:

That eight hours constitute a day's work.

Prohibition of child labor in all occupations.

Prohibition of female labor in occupations detrimental to health or morality.

The extension and perfection of our common school system.

Equal pay to both sexes for equal work.

Payment of wages weekly, in lawful money, and no more "truck" pay.

First lien for workmen's wages.

The enactment of juster laws for the liability of employers to employes.

Abolition of the contract system in prisons and on public works.

Sweeping reform of the tenement-house system.

Abolition of tenement-house cigarmaking and all other tenement-house manufacturing.

Sanitary inspection of mines, factories, dwellings, and all conditions of labor, and legislation to secure the life and health of all laborers.

Rigid enforcement of the law prohibiting the importation of foreign labor under contract.

Rigid enforcement of all existing beneficial labor laws.

Equal adult citizenship and suffrage, without regard to sex.

Repeal of all blue laws interfering with the interests of labor and personal liberty.

Repeal of all conspiracy laws, tramp laws and all class legislation and privileges.

No Pinkertons, no armed bandits in the pay of capital.

Resolved, That with a view to progressive advance in the direction marked out by the declaration of principles, we furthermore demand:

The public ownership and management of railroads, telegraphs, express and steamship lines, telephones, gas and water works and all industries involving the use of public franchises, or the performance of public functions.

The direct issue of currency and money by the National Treasury, without the intervention of banks.

And as a first step to the recovery of the natural inheritance of the people, we favor a special tax on unimproved land, sufficiently high to compel its improvement or its surrender to the community by the speculators who withhold it from use.

We favor also a tax on all incomes above $2,000 per annum, so graduated as to bear most heavily upon the great incomes of the monopolistic classes and corporations, and thus materially lighten the burdens now borne by the workers, producers and masses of the people.

With the same end in view, we also favor the exemption from taxation of the average homesteads, farms, manufactories, working tools and properties under $5,000 in value occupied or productively used by the owners, and not rented out.

Resolved, That we demand home rule, i. e., that the people of each city and town, respectively, shall have full control of their own local affairs.

Resolved, That we demand the direct election by the people of all responsible officials, judicial, executive, administrative and legislative.

Resolved, That we favor the adoption of the Referendum principle, as applied in the Republic of Switzerland and in part in the several States of this Union, so that all laws of importance shall be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection.

Resolved, That we demand such revision of our electoral laws as will secure the absolute secrecy of the ballot, a complete registration and identification of voters, the effective prevention of bribery and intimidation, and the payment of all proper election expenses by the community.

Resolved, That we favor the enlargement of the Erie Canal to the full extent required for the preservation of the interests of the State, threatened by railroad monopolies and the competition of Canadian waterways.

Resolved, That that we denounce the willful misconstruction and violation of the eight-hour law by the Federal authorities, especially in the case of the overworked letter-carriers. We therefore demand that this law be so amended by Congress at its next session that all employes of the National Government, working for daily wages or a modest annual salary, shall be clearly entitled to its benefits, without possibility of evasion. We also demand the enactment of a similar law by the State Legislatures, with an additional provision making it a punishable offence for all corporations or individuals who enjoy public franchises, such as horse and steam railways, telegraphs, etc., to exact more than eight hours labor per day from their employes.

UNION LABOR PLATFORM.

OHIO, July 5.

The platform declares, among other things, that the natural agencies of production and distribution are seized by syndicates of speculators and gamblers. It demands that the laws against bribery and force or intimidation to secure nominations or elections be rigidly enforced, and that "free drinks" or "lunch" at saloons be declared bribery by statute; that all banks be required to give security to the State for the average amount of their deposits; that speculation in the necessaries of life, "cornering" the market and dealing in "margins" and "futures," be declared criminal offences, and that all discriminations by employers against lawful associations of employes to secure their rights be declared felony.

MISCELLANEOUS PLATFORMS.

"PERSONAL LIBERTY PARTY," New-York, October 6.

Whereas, In many parts of this State, under the pretence of serving religion and morality, of aiding in the prevention of crime and of diminishing the causes of pauperism, attempts are multiplying to encroach upon the rights of person and of property guaranteed by those principles of rational liberty upon which the whole structure of our republican system and of the Federal and State Governments is based; and

Whereas, Such attempts do generally culminate in efforts of the law-making power, from the Legislature down to municipal councils, to pass enactments detrimentally affecting time-honored customs and individual rights and privileges, . . .

Whereas, In the exercise of this assumed power, the admitted right to prescribe proper police regulations for the the preservation of public order and decency is unjustly invoked to curtail the personal, civil and religious freedom of the individual citizen; . . .

Whereas, Sumptuary laws have nowhere proved effectual in extirpating intemperance nor in reducing immorality and vice; . . . almost invariably stirred up ill-feeling, and even hatred among the people of the community; . . .

Whereas, Our foreign-born citizens, especially those of German descent, are, according to authentic statistical reports, considered to be assiduous, temperate and law-abiding people, . . .

Therefore, In defence of the principles of well-defined liberty, for the protection of the civil and religious rights of the person, . . .

Resolved, That we, as independent citizens of this State, are firmly determined to use all honorable means to promote the cause of civil and religious liberty by insisting upon the repeal of the obnoxious portions of the excise laws until that result shall have been attained.

Resolved, That in order to carry out the views and objects expressed in the foregoing preamble and resolutions, we, in convention assembled, do hereby call upon all societies, clubs, social and benevolent associations and their friends in the various cities, villages, towns and districts of this State who have thus far not identified themselves with this movement to create and maintain effective local organizations to act in concert with our Central Executive Committee.

Resolved, That we will support only such candidates for the Legislature of this State, irrespective of their political affiliations, who will accept the views expressed in these resolutions and pledge themselves to adopt them for their rule of official action whenever and wherever applicable; and all legitimate means in our power will be used to secure their election.

OHIO WOOL-GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Ohio Wool Growers' Association adopted resolutions declaring in favor of better protection for the wool-growing interest. Resolutions were also adopted expressing the opinion that, by ceasing to collect revenue from spirits and tobacco, "and thus remitting to the people of the several States the power and authority to deal by law with the business of manufacturing and selling spirituous and malt liquors, the moral, social, and civil condition of society will be better cared for than it has been under the enormous and dangerous monopoly that has been fostered by the regulation of the manufacture by the Federal Government."

* Three Republicans voted for Camden on these ballots. No further ballots were taken, the joint assembly having voted, after the 35th ballot, to dissolve—yeas 35, nays 28 (2 not voting).

There was thus no election. The ballots were continued from January 26 to February 23, inclusive. The Legislature thereupon adjourned. After adjournment, on March 5, the Governor appointed Daniel B. Lucas to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of Mr. Camden's term and the failure of the Legislature at its regular session to fill it, to serve until the next meeting of the Legislature having authority to fill said vacancy.

Several important bills having failed, the Governor called the Legislature in special session on April 20, under the 7th section of Art. VII. of the Constitution: "The Governor may, on extraordinary occasions, convene, at his own instance, the Legislature; but when so convened it shall enter on no business except that stated in the proclamation by which it was called together."

The Governor, in his proclamation, indicated the business on which it should enter, and did not name the election of a U. S. Senator. The Legislature, however, proceeded to vote for a Senator—the House having voted so to do—yeas 42, nays 22; the Senate—yeas 17, nays 6 (3 not voting).

The votes at the May session of the Legislature were:

1887, May 3—SENATE—W. H. H. Flick 9, BARBEE 1, Camden 10, Haymond 1. J. J. Davis 1, Brannon 1 (3 absentees, 2 Republicans). HOUSE—Flick 23, BARBEE 5, Camden 29, Haymond 3, John W. Harris 2, Daniel B. Lucas 2, Brannon 1.

* The Appropriations for 1888 include $11,048,362 for the Increase of the Navy. Of the Pension appropriation, $6,900,000 are for Mexican War pensions. Of the total appropriations, $9,943,998 11 are for new buildings and works or improvement of old ones. No appropriations were made for Rivers and Harbors or for Fortifications for 1888, nor were there any for Fortifications for 1887.

* NOTE.—The permanent annual appropriations for 1888, as reported by the Treasury Department—being for Interest on Public Debt, for Sinking Fund, Customs Collections, Drawbacks, Repayment to Importers, etc.—are $116,699,822 13. Adding this sum to the appropriations stated above, the total of charges upon the Treasury for the current fiscal year is $365,430,333 41; and deducting $50,612,596 46 as the estimated receipts of the Post Office Department, the net charges are $314,817,736 95.

The revenues for 1887 were $371,403,277 66.

In the list of appropriations above, all of the District of Columbia appropriations are included, instead of one-half of them as formerly. This is to make the statement conform to the practice of the Treasury Department.

The list of appropriations for 1885 includes all the Navy appropriations for that year, though one-half of them were made in the next year, the regular bill having fallen between the two houses, in the first session of the XLVIIIth Congress. It also includes the amount of unexpended balances then appropriated for current use—[EDITOR.

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

CALIFORNIA — Three Constitutional amendments were defeated in April. The first gave the Supreme Court Commission power to determine causes and made the Chief Justice elective by the other Supreme Judges instead of the people. The second increased the salaries of Supreme Court Judges and certain Superior Court Judges in districts, notably in San Francisco. The third empowered cities of over 10,000 to make their own city charters which were to be submitted for ratification to the people.

The Supreme Court has decided that each municipality has power to control the sale of liquor within it.

CONNECTICUT—The early-closing law, as applied to liquor saloons, allows the municipal authorities of any town, city or borough to fix the time not later than 12 o'clock midnight; otherwise, the law fixes the time at 11 o'clock, and not to be opened before 5 a. m.: no liquor can be sold to a minor, even to carry away; a druggist can make only one sale on a prescription, to be drunk on the premises; and in less quantities than five gallons cannot be sold without license.

On Labor matters, are laws requiring 80 per cent. weekly payment bill, restricting minors under sixteen and women to ten hours in manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishments, exempting wages from foreign attachment, and providing for inspection of factories.

DAKOTA TERRITORY—The Legislature passed a stringent "local option" law. November 8, the majority against division was 3,938. The majority in Northern Dakota was 10,000 for division; Southern Dakota, 13,938 against.

DELAWARE—The House passed—(yeas 15, nays 6)—a bill grading liquor licenses from $400 for Wilmington to $200 for village and country taverns, and limiting druggists to the sale of liquor on physicians' prescriptions only, and to one sale on each prescription. The Senate defeated the bill on the last day of the session. November 1 there was a vote on calling a Constitutional Convention. There were 14,431 yeas, 398 nays. 15,640, a majority of the highest vote since 1880, were required. Scientific temperance instruction is to be compulsory in all public schools.

ILLINOIS—A Prohibitory Amendment including a clause that the State should pay all damages for property destroyed or depreciated by carrying out the amendment, was defeated—63 to 78. The vote on inserting the clause touching damages was adopted—91 to 50, after a substitute for the bill that hereafter no liquor-license shall be granted for a less sum than $1,000 was defeated—40 to 99.

INDIANA—Local option and "High-License" bills were passed by the House and rejected by the Senate. The Senate passed a resolution—43 to 4—for the election of United States Senators by popular vote; the House tabled it without a division.

IOWA—The Supreme Court, two justices dissenting, has affirmed the decision of the lower court that the sale of intoxicating liquors for export, for general purposes, was illegal, and closing the International distillery as a nuisance.

KANSAS—A bill conferring woman suffrage in municipal matters has become a law. The vote in the House was: Yeas, 91: nays, 22. Affirmative, all Republicans except three Democrats; negative, all Democrats except five Republicans.

KENTUCKY—The question of a Constitutional Convention, carried in 1887, must be again, under the Constitution, submitted and carried in 1889, to perfect the call.

LOUISIANA—The vote in November in the VIth Congressional District to fill the vacancy was: John Voist, Rep., 2,550; Samuel M. Robertson, 6,706.

MAINE—Female suffrage failed in the House for want of a two-thirds vote.

MASSACHUSETTS—A Constitutional prohibitory amendment was defeated in the House—142 to 77—not two-thirds. Of the 142 yeas 126 were Republican, 13 were Democrats, 1 Independent Republican, 1 Independent Democrat and 1 Independent. Of the 77 nays, 58 were Democrats, 17 Republicans and 2 Independent Democrats. A High License act was passed. The vote on license in fifteen cities was: For, 92,013; against, 107,384. On March 11 a Woman Suffrage bill for city or town elections or meetings was refused third reading in the House—61 to 97; pairs, 25. Of seventeen cities which voted in December, 1887, only eight refused to license the saloon.

MICHIGAN—The law providing that instruction in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to narcotics and their effects upon the human system, took effect September 9, and applies to all schools in the State, whether incorporated under special charter or the general law. A "Local Option" law has passed; and in towns where prohibition is not adopted saloons must be closed on Sundays and at 11 o'clock every secular night. A High License act imposes a tax of $500 on each wholesale and $300 on each retail liquor dealer. An act gives the people of each county the right to vote at a special election once in three years on the question of permitting sale of liquor within its limits. A State constabulary has been created to enforce this law. Woman suffrage at municipal elections was defeated in the House.

MINNESOTA—A "High License" act imposes a charge on each saloon in cities of 10,000 inhabitants and over, $1,000; and in places of less than 10,000 inhabitants, $500. Townships are also permitted to exclude saloons.

MISSOURI—The House passed a Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment—76 to 53—but it failed in the Senate. A "local option" act passed, providing for a vote on the petition of one-tenth of the voters of any city or county having 2,500 voters or more. A second election shall not be held in less than four years. Over thirty counties have voted against license—seventeen in favor. There are 115 counties in the State. The Supreme Court has affirmed the constitutionality of the law.

NEVADA—An act disfranchising Mormons has been passed.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE—Municipal suffrage for women and municipal office-holding for women were favorably reported by the Judiciary Committee of the House.

NEW-JERSEY—The House passed—31 to 26—a resolution favoring an amendment to the Constitution of the United States for an election of Senators by popular vote, but the Senate indefinitely postponed it, 14 to 4. A proposed Constitutional amendment to increase the salary of members of the Legislature from $500 to $1,000, was negatived in the House—19 to 30. The first Monday in September was made a Labor holiday. Five additional deputy inspectors of factories were authorized, and freeholders were given power to order new ballot boxes of the Ohio system.

NEW-YORK—Woman's Municipal Suffrage bill passed the Senate but was defeated in the House—48 to 68 (mixed vote politically). The Crosby "High License" bill (limited to Brooklyn and New-York), passed the Assembly—70 to 56 (one Democrat for the bill, four Republicans against it). The Senate passed it—18 to 14 (two Republicans voting with the Democrats in the negative). It was vetoed by Governor Hill, April 12. The Vedder Liquor Tax Bill, applicable to the State, passed the Senate April 27—18 to 12 (two Republicans with the Democrats in the negative. In the Assembly there was a similar vote, politically, Governor Hill vetoed it May 30. The Curtis bill forbidding the sale of liquor in quantities of five gallons or upward in the cities, towns and villages which do not grant retail licenses to sell liquor passed both houses and was signed by the Governor, who vetoed the bill forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors in any building or upon any premises belonging to the State of New-York. the bill forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors, ale or beer within one-half mile of the Willard Insane Asylum, and the Youngman general registration bill. The Sunday liquor bill was defeated in the Legislature. The Constitutional Convention bill was vetoed in May. A statute regulates the manner and form for holding primary elections in cities. The first Monday in September was made a legal holiday to be known as Labor Day, and half of each Saturday is also made a holiday. A law gives honorably discharged soldiers and sailors preference in appointments to State and Municipal offices. A Constitutional Amendment was passed to relieve the Court of Appeals by detailing Judges of the Supreme Court—this to be submitted to the next Legislature. The powers of the Board of Arbitration were extended and its term of office extended. Ten hours were made a day's labor on street railroads. The employment in factories of children under thirteen is prohibited, eight deputy factory inspectorships are established and additional powers are given the factory inspectors.

OHIO.—A modified Scott law, taxing liquor-dealers $100 and $200, passed the House, February 24—64 to 33—one Republican in the negative.

The "black" law and the acts providing separate schools for colored children were repealed. A township "local option" bill was defeated in the House, 47 to 52. The Senate defeated the Temperance Instruction bill.

PENNSYLVANIA—A Woman Suffrage bill passed Senate- 27 to 16—but failed in the House—79 to 89. A constitutional amendment of like purport failed in the Senate—25 to 19 (two-thirds being required). A prohibitory constitutional amendment and one to abolish the payment of a poll-tax as a prerequisite for voting passed both houses and will go to the next Legislature.

RHODE ISLAND—A law rigidly enforcing the Prohibitory Amendment was passed by the Legislature, which adjourned in May. In the Senate the vote was 20 to 8, three Republicans voting with the Democrats in the negative. It has not been changed. A constitutional amendment abolishing the registry tax and the property qualification for general Suffrage, passed both houses of the Legislature chosen in 1886. The time for submitting this Amendment to the people has not yet been settled by the present Legislature.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—In December, 1886, the Senate passed a bill "relating to agricultural contracts and prescribing a punishment for interfering with such contracts." The vote on second reading was yeas 18, nays 14. On third reading its passage was urged as necessary because of the threat of the Knights of Labor to organize the agricultural labor of the South. A motion to recommit it was tabled—21 to 11—and the bill then passed without a division. In the House the Committee on Judiciary reported adversely on it, December 20, and it went over till the next session. The bill is as follows:

"SECTION 2,084. It shall be deemed a conspiracy and shall be a misdemeanor for any persons, united, organized, associated or banded together, to interfere by threats, force, or in any other way, with any contract between any employer or employe, whether such contract be verbal or in writing, or to permit any person for them or in their name, or on behalf of such union, association, organization or band, to interfere with any employer or employe, whether the contract between them be verbal or in writing, for wages or for any other compensation, to prevent the execution of such contract; and each and every one convicted of this offence shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than six months, or fined no less than one hundred dollars, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the Court. Each one of such contracts interfered with as above prescribed shall constitute a separate and distinct offence hereof."

TEXAS—A Constitutional Prohibitory amendment submitted by the Legislature was defeated—yeas 129,270, nays 220,627—total vote 350,900. Five other amendments relating to the pay of the Legislature, the University fund, taxation in unorganized counties and registration of voters in cities of over 10,000 population were also defeated. 1887, April 4—Hon. William H. Martin was chosen Representative in Congress, IId District, to fill the Reagan vacancy, receiving 6,146 votes, scattering 90.

UTAH TERRITORY—A convention has adopted a constitution which will be submitted to Congress.

VIRGINIA—The Senate rejected—14 to 19—Constitutional Amendment to repudiate all State bonds not funded in the new 3s at the time of ratification by the people. Both houses reaffirmed the determination of the State to stand by the "Riddleberger act," and called on the people to pay taxes in money, not coupons. December 14, 1887, the House passed—90 to 1—a resolution favoring the abolishing of the Internal Revenue taxes or failing in that repealing taxes on tobacco and fruit brandy.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY—The Supreme Court has annulled as unconstitutional the Woman Suffrage Act of 1885.

WEST VIRGINIA—A Prohibitory Constitutional Amendment passed the House—55 to 10—and the Senate—yeas 20, nays 6. Amendment passed that in suits at common law, where the value in controversy exceeds twenty dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, the right of trial by jury, if required by either party, shall be preserved, and in such suit before a justice a jury may consist of six persons. Another that a Legislative session may continue longer than sixty days if two-thirds of the members elected to each house concur. They will be submitted to the people at the November election in 1888.

WISCONSIN—Female Suffrage on school questions was enacted.

THE GOVERNMENT OF NEW-YORK.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND LEGISLATORS.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF THE VARIOUS MEMBERS.

The Executive Department of the Government of New-York is Democratic. All the State offices mentioned below are held by Democrats. The Legislative Department is Republican. The Senate (of 1888-'89) stands Republicans 21, Democrats 11: the Assembly (of 1888) stands Republicans 72, Democrats 56. The term of the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor will expire this year. The other State officers hold until 1890.

DAVID B. HILL.

Governor. Dem.

David Bennett Hill is of New-England ancestry and was born in Havana, Schuyler County, N. Y., August 29, 1844. His father was a boat-builder. After acquiring the rudiments of education in his native town, he studied law at Elmira, which city he chose for his future home. He was admitted to the bar in 1864, in 1865 was appointed City Attorney of Elmira and in 1870 purchased an interest in "The Elmira Gazette." In 1871 he began his public career, taking his seat in the Assembly as the representative of Chemung County. He was re-elected to the Assembly of 1872. In 1875 he declined an appointment tendered him by Governor Tilden as member of the commission to provide a uniform charter for the cities of the State, and did not return to public service until 1881, when he was chosen an Alderman of Elmira. His election to the Mayoralty of that city followed a year later. The Democratic State Convention of 1882, which nominated Grover Cleveland for Governor, placed David B. Hill on the ticket for Lieutenant-Governor. He was elected, and after serving two years as Lieutenant-Governor became Governor January, 1885, by the resignation of Mr. Cleveland, who had been chosen President in 1884. In 1885 he was nominated and elected Governor, his plurality over Ira Davenport (Rep.) being 11,134. Governor Hill has always taken an active interest in politics. He was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention of 1876 that nominated Mr. Tilden for the Presidency; for many years he was a familiar figure at the State Conventions of his party; he has been a member of the State Committee for several terms, and in 1877 and 1881 he was the presiding officer of the Democratic State Convention.

EDWARD F. JONES,

Lieutenant-Governor, Dem.

By birth General Jones is an Oneida County man. He was born in Utica in 1828. While still a child his parents removed from this State to Massachusetts. The outbreak of the war found him engaged in mercantile business and in command of the 6th Regiment of Massachusetts State troops. He entered active service at the head of this regiment, and on its being mustered out recruited the 26th Massachusetts. As Colonel of the 26th he served three years, mostly in the Department of the Gulf. He was breveted Brigadier-General on the recommendation of General Butler. At the close of the war General Jones removed to Binghamton, Broome County, and began the manufacture of scales, a business in which he is still engaged. He is interested in agriculture, and for many years has been a member of the State Grange. In 1872 he supported Mr. Greeley for the Presidency, and since has been identified with the Democracy. In 1874 and again in 1876 he was the Democratic candidate for Congress in the XXVIIIth District, but in both canvasses was unsuccessful, Thomas C. Platt defeating him the first time and Jeremiah W. Dwight the second time. He was placed on the Democratic ticket for Lieutenant-Governor in 1885 to fill the vacancy occasioned by the declination of Roswell P. Flower, and was elected over General Joseph B. Carr (Rep.) by a plurality of 3,156.

FREDERICK COOK,
Secretary of State, Dem.

Frederick Cook, who is now serving his second term as Secretary of State, was born at Wildbad, Germany, in 1833. He came to this country when a lad of fifteen. While learning the butcher's trade at Batavia, he was offered and accepted a position as brakeman on the Buffalo and Rochester Railroad. He remained with the road for a score of years, ending his service as passenger conductor. Subsequently he became interested in the Pullman Car Company and other business enterprises. For many years he has been vice-president of the Bartholomay Brewing Company, of Rochester, which city is his home. He is president of the Rochester German Insurance Company and the Bank of Rochester, and is prominently identified with several other important local interests. In 1872 he was appointed by Governor Hoffman Judge Advocate with rank of Colonel of the Seventh Division of the National Guard, State of New-York; and in 1875 was appointed by Governor Tilden Assistant Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff of the same division. In politics he has always been a Democrat, and was chosen a delegate to the National Democrat Conventions of 1876 and 1880. He was elected Secretary of State in 1885 by a plurality of 14,608 over Colonel Anson S. Wood (Rep.) and re-elected last November by a plurality of 17,077 over Colonel F. D. Grant (Rep.)

EDWARD WEMPLE,
Controller, Dem.

Edward Wemple was born at Fultonville, Montgomery County, October 23, 1843. He numbers soldiers of the Revolution and of the war of 1812 among his ancestors. He graduated from Union College in the class of 1866 and subsequently studied law. Having decided to abandon the legal profession he joined his father in carrying on an iron foundry. He had held a number of prominent public positions before he was nominated for the Controllership. After serving a term as President of the village of Fultonville and for three years as a Supervisor of Montgomery County he was elected and re-elected a member of Assembly from Montgomery serving in 1877-78. His election to the XLVIIIth Congress followed. He ran for the XLIXth Congress, but was defeated. In 1885 he was his party's nominee for the State Senate from the XVIIIIth District and won by the narrow plurality of 21 votes. He was elected to his present office of Controller by a plurality of 15,374 over Jesse S. L'Amoreaux (Rep.)

CHARLES F. TABOR,
Attorney-General, Dem.

Charles F. Tabor is the second citizen of Buffalo that has been elected Attorney-General of this State, the first being George P. Barker, who held the office from 1842 to 1845. Mr. Tabor was born in St. Joseph County, Michigan, in 1841. He received a common school and academical education. His father, Silas Tabor, was a prominent Democrat of Erie County in his day and served as Superintendent of the Poor in 1857. One of his grandfathers was killed by the Indians at Buffalo in the war of 1812. In his fifteenth year he entered Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and prepared himself for college. But without pursuing a collegiate course he began the study of law in Buffalo and was admitted to the Bar in 1882. Since then he has been actively engaged in the practice of his profession. He has held a number of public offices. He was an Excise Commissioner of Lancaster in 1868-70 and was attorney for the Board of Supervisors of Erie County for three years. In 1875 he was elected a member of the Assembly from Erie County, representing the Lancaster District. He also was a member of the Assembly of 1877. In 1886 Attorney-General O'Brien appointed him his first assistant. He was elected Attorney-General by a plurality of 14,361 over James A. Dennison (Rep.)

LAWRENCE J. FITZGERALD,

State Treasurer, Dem.

Lawrence J. Fitzgerald, who is now forty-three years of age, began his business career at the early age of fourteen. His first work was done in a carriage manufactory. He learned the trade and has remained in it. In 1879 he organized the Cortland Wagon Company and was elected its president, a position which he still holds. He has resided in Cortland the greater part of his life and has become thoroughly identified with its fortunes. In addition to his wagon business, he has large investments in the village. He is a stockholder in both of its National Banks and the vice-president of one of them. His real estate holdings are large and he owns and manages two of the best farms in the county. The only public office he had ever held before being elected Treasurer was the Presidency of Cortland village. He was first nominated for his present position in 1885. He ran far ahead of his ticket in his own county and defeated Charles F. Ulrich (Rep.) by a plurality of 11,530. He was re-elected in 1887 by a plurality of 11,026 over James H. Carmichael (Rep.)

JOHN BOGART,

State Engineer and Surveyor, Dem.

John Bogart was born at Albany in 1836. The Bogarts, a Holland-Dutch family, have been represented in that city since 1643. He is a graduate of the Albany Academy and of Rutgers College. Soon after leaving college he became connected with the engineering corps of the New-York Central Railroad and assisted in the construction of that line between Syracuse and Rochester. Next he served as assistant engineer upon the Erie Canal enlargement and later going to New-York City was one of the first engineers connected with the construction of Central Park. Since then he has designed and aided in the construction of parks in Brooklyn, Chicago, New-Orleans, Albany and in other cities. From 1872 to 1877 he was Chief Engineer of the Department of Public Parks in New-York City, and he has been Chief Engineer of Prospect Park, Brooklyn. During the whole period of the war he was connected with the engineer service of the army. He was assigned to duty on the works at Fortress Monroe and had charge of the construction of the granite fort on the Rip Raps in Hampton Roads. For the last ten years Mr. Bogart has occupied the position of secretary and chief executive officer of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and of late has been engaged in superintending the construction of the bridge across the Harlem River Valley for New-York City. In 1886-87 he was Deputy State Engineer and Surveyor under Elnathan Sweet. He was elected to his present position by a plurality of 13,061 over O. H. P. Cornell (Rep.)

THE SENATE.

FRANK B. ARNOLD,

Rep., XXIIId District, Madison, Otsego and Herkimer.

Frank B. Arnold was born in Clare County, Ireland, March 29, 1839. At an early age he came to this country with his parents who settled in Otsego County, where he has since resided. He was educated at the Gilbertsville Academy in that county and at Hamilton College. He is now engaged in practising law at Unadilla. Mr. Arnold represented that town in the Board of Supervisors from 1879 to 1885, and the IId District of Otsego in the Assembly of 1885, '86 and '87. This is his first term in the Senate.

JACOB A. CANTOR,

Dem., Xth District, part of New-York.

Jacob A. Cantor was born in 1854 and has always resided in the City of New-York. He received a common school education, and before he was fairly in his teens began to study law. In 1870 he became associated with the legal firm of Webster & Craig. Two years later —without relinquishing his law studies—he engaged in newspaper work, and until 1877 reported for "The New-York World." Graduating from the Columbia College Law School and returning to his profession, he formed a partnership with William D. Hennen, author of "The Louisiana Digest." Later he was associated with Charles E. Coddington and at present is senior member of the law firm of Cantor & Feldon. He began his legislative career in 1885 as a member of Assembly for the XXIIId New-York District and continued to represent that district in that capacity in 1886-87. Mr. Cantor at one time was a trustee of the New-York Press Club, and he still retains his membership in that body. He is an earnest working Democrat and a familiar figure at the conventions of his party. Although this is his first term in the Senate he was the Democratic candidate for President pro tem.

HENRY J. COGGESHALL.

Rep., XXIId District, Oneida.

Henry J. Coggeshall was born at Waterville, Oneida County, April 28, 1845. His education was principally gained at the Waterville Seminary, from which he graduated in 1862. Since 1866, when he was admitted to the Bar, he has been engaged in the practice of the law. From 1869 until 1872 he was Assistant District-Attorney of Oneida; he represented the IId District of that county in the Assembly of 1873, and from 1880 until 1883 was Oneida's County Clerk. He has been one of the trustees of Waterville, president of its Fire Department and a member of its Board of Education. He has been a member of the Senate uninterruptedly since 1884.

MICHAEL F. COLLINS.

Dem., XVIth District, Rensselaer and Washington.

Michael Collins was born in Troy, Rensselaer County, September 27, 1854. He received his education at the Christian Brothers Academy and the public schools of his native city. He began his business life as a compositor, but since 1879 has been the Editor and proprietor of "The Troy Observer," a Democratic Sunday newspaper. For a few years previous to 1879 he was connected with "The Troy Standard." Mr. Collins is president of the local board of Civil Service examiners. He represented the 1st Rensselaer District in the Assembly of 1886 and 1887. This is his first term in the Senate. His principal competitor last fall was Captain James H. Manville (Rep), who was an Assemblyman for Washington County in 1886-87.

GILBERT A. DEANE.

Rep., XVth District, Dutchess, Columbia and Putnam.

Gilbert A. Deane was born in Connecticut June 21, 1851, and was educated in Massachusetts. He has spent the most of his life in this State. For a number of years he was engaged in the iron business, being connected in an official capacity with the Copake Iron Works, in Columbia County. His present occupation is farming. Mr. Deane is well known in Masonic circles and has been a trustee of the Hall and Asylum Fund of the Grand Lodge of that fraternity. He represented Columbia County in the Assembly of 1884 and this is his first term in the Senate.

GEORGE Z. ERWIN.

Rep., XXth District, St. Lawrence, Franklin and Lewis.

George Z. Erwin was born at Madrid, St. Lawrence County, January 15, 1840. After pursuing a course of study at the St. Lawrence Academy of Potsdam, he entered Middlebury (Vt.) College. He graduated from Middlebury in the class of 1865. Mr. Erwin is a lawyer, and from 1869 to 1878 was a member of the firm of Tappan & Erwin. The elevation of Charles O. Tappan to the bench of the Supreme Court caused a dissolution of this partnership, and the firm of Dart & Erwin succeeded. Mr. Erwin's legislative career began in 1882, when he was elected to represent the 3d St. Lawrence District in the Assembly. He was re-elected every succeeding year until his promotion to the Senate, thus serving six consecutive years in the lower house. In 1885 he was chosen Speaker, and in 1886-87 held the chairmanship of Ways and Means. This is his first term in the Senate.

J. SLOAT FASSETT.

Rep., XXVIIth District, Chemung, Allegany and Steuben.

J. Sloat Fassett was born at Elmira, Chemung County, November 13, 1853. He received a liberal education, pursuing his studies first at the schools of Elmira, then at the Rochester University, from which institution he graduated in 1875, and lastly at the University of Heidelberg. Choosing the law for his profession, he was admitted to practice at Elmira and served a year as District-Attorney of Chemung County, a position to which he was appointed in 1879 by Governor Robinson to fill a vacancy. Mr. Fassett is a trustee of his alma mater Rochester University and of Cook Academy; he is also secretary of the board of trustees of Elmira Female College. Several years ago he became the proprietor of "The Elmira Advertiser," and still owns that property. He is now serving his third consecutive term in the Senate, having represented this district in 1884-85 and 1886-87.

JOHN FOLEY.

Dem., XVIIIth District, Saratoga, Fulton, Hamilton, Montgomery and Schenectady.

John Foley was born at Saratoga Springs, where he has always resided, in 1848. The common schools of the place and Professor Robb's Academy furnished him an education. He is a lawyer, and in 1883 was elected District-Attorney of Saratoga County, leading his ticket by 1,600. He has been a Justice of the Peace and president of the local Board of Education. In his canvass for the Senate last fall he again ran ahead of his ticket, this time over 4,000. Mr. Foley is the present member from his district of the Democratic State Committee.

SIMEON SMITH HAWKINS.

Rep., 1st District, Queens and Suffolk.

Simeon Smith Hawkins is of English descent and was born at Stony Brook, Suffolk County, March 30, 1827. His father was a mariner, and after attending the district school at Stony Brook he himself chose a sea-faring life. The age of twenty found him captain of a vessel. He commanded the bark Hannibal, a transport, on the Southern coast during the late war, and has seen much other marine service. He has resided at Jamesport ever since he was twenty-five years of age, is treasurer of the Suffolk County Agricultural Society and a trustee of the Riverhead Savings Bank. He has been Supervisor and County Superintendent of the Poor and represented Suffolk in the Assembly in 1884-'85. Mr. Hawkins has been a Republican since 1856, was a delegate to the National Convention of 1880, and is chairman of the County Committee.

FRANCIS HENDRICKS.

Rep., XXVth District, Onondaga and Cortland.

Francis Hendricks was born at Kingston, Ulster County, November 23, 1834, and after receiving a substantial common school education completed his studies at the Albany Academy. He began his career as a business man at Rochester, where he resided from 1850 until 1861, when he removed to Syracuse. He has been closely identified with the progress of "the Saline City." In 1877 he was appointed a Fire Commissioner, and subsequently was elected president of the Board, serving in that capacity for two years. He was chosen Mayor in 1880 and re-elected. His legislative experience dates from 1884. In the Assembly of that year and of 1885 he represented the IId Onondaga District. He is now serving his second term in the Senate, having been a member in 1886-'87.

EUGENE SEMMES IVES.

Dem., XIth District, part of New-York.

Eugene S. Ives was born in Washington, D. C., November 11, 1854, and is one of the youngest members of the Senate. His father was a West Point graduate; his mother was a cousin of Raphael Semmes, the commander of the "Alabama" during the war. The Senator received a liberal education, attending school at Georgetown, Md., and in Austria and Belgium, and graduating from the Columbia College Law School. He is engaged in the practice of law in New-York. Before being elected to the Senate he had represented the XIXth metropolitan District for two years, 1885-'87, in the Assembly.

ROWLAND CASE KELLOGG.

Rep., XIXth District, Clinton, Essex and Warren.

Rowland Case Kellogg was born at Elizabethtown, Essex County, December 31, 1843. His father, Orlando Kellogg, represented the XVIth New-York District in Congress for several terms. Rowland received his education in the schools of his native place and at Fairfax Seminary, in Vermont. At the breaking out of the late war he enlisted in Company F, of the 118th Regiment, New-York Volunteers. Rising to the rank of first lieutenant, he commanded Company D of that regiment in several engagements. During the last year of the war he was commissioned captain and assigned to staff duty. He left the service in 1865 with the brevet rank of major, and returning to Essex County applied himself to the study of law. Since his admission to the bar he has been engaged in the practice of his profession in Elizabethtown. In 1876 he was elected District-Attorney of his county, and was continued in that office nine years. He has served Elizabethtown as Supervisor and has been president of the Essex Board. He is now serving his second term in the Senate. He was a member in 1886-'87.

GEORGE F. LANGBEIN.

Dem., VIIth District, part of New-York.

George F. Langbein was born at Hirschhorn, Germany, June 29, 1843. He arrived in New-York when he was four years old, and has resided in that city ever since. After receiving a common school education he studied law, and in 1864 was admitted to the bar. Since then he has been engaged in the practice of his profession. At present he is the senior member of the firm of Langbein Bros. & Langbein. Early in the war Mr. Langbein was commissioned second lieutenant of the 5th Regiment, Corcoran Legion, and was stationed at Camp Scott, Staten Island, in command of a company of enlisted men. But the Legion not being completed the regiment was disbanded. In 1863 he was among those who made a bold stand under General Jardine against the draft rioters. He is a working member of his party, has been president of the Xth Assembly District Democratic Club, and is now a member of the Democratic County Committee and of the Executive Committee of the County Democracy. In 1879 he was appointed by the Supreme Court one of the examiners of candidates for admission to the bar, and last year he represented the Xth New-York City District in the Assembly. This is his first term in the Senate.

JOHN LAUGHLIN.

Rep., XXXIst District, Erie.

John Laughlin was born March 14, 1856. Newstead, Erie County, was his birthplace, and in that county and in Niagara his life has been spent. He was brought up on a farm and received a common school education, graduating at the Lockport High School. He then turned his attention to the law, pursuing his studies at Lockport in the office of ex-Congressman Richard Crowley. In 1880 Mr. Crowley removed to Buffalo. Mr. Laughlin accompanied him and was admitted to the bar in that year. Shortly afterward the two formed a partnership which continued until Mr. Crowley removed to New-York. Mr. Laughlin then associated himself with ex-County Clerk Ewell and Daniel McIntosh, the firm name being Laughlin, Ewell & McIntosh. Last spring Mr. Laughlin defended Hattie Penseyres, who was tried at Buffalo for the murder of her husband, and saved her from the gallows, the conviction being for murder in the second degree. The case attracted great attention in the western part of the State. Mr. Laughlin resides in Buffalo, and is now holding a public office for the first time. He was opposed in his canvass for the Senatorship by Spencer Clinton, a grandson of De Witt Clinton.

WILLIAM LEWIS.

Rep., XXIVth District, Delaware, Chenango and Broome.

William Lewis was born in Scotland, October 31, 1827, but has lived in this country since he was four years old. His parents settled in Delaware County on a farm and gave him a common school education. He has devoted his life principally to mercantile pursuits. In 1870-'71 he built a section of the New-York and Oswego Midland Railroad. Mr. Lewis is an experienced legislator, having represented Delaware County in the Assembly in 1872-'73 and in 1881. Before holding these positions he was an Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue from 1863 to 1869, and a Delaware County Supervior from 1875 to 1880. This is his first term in the Senate.

JOHN J. LINSON.

Dem., XIVth District, Ulster, Schoharie and Greene.

John J. Linson was born in Mougaup Valley, Sullivan County, November 29, 1850. His father was an officer in the 6th New-York Heavy Artillery during the late war, and he himself was the first commander of Tappan Camp No. 1, Sons of Veterans. He was educated at the Monticello Academy and the State Normal School at Albany. After a short newspaper experience as local editor of "The Sullivan County Republican," he taught school for a time and then turned his attention to the law. He studied with General A. C. Niven, and was admitted to practice in 1872. He held the office of Justice of the Peace for three years. From 1876 to 1887 he was a partner in the law business of Augustus Schoonmaker, now of the Interstate Commerce Commission. In 1883 he was elected Corporation Counsel of the City of Kingston, a position which he held until 1887. Mr. Linson formerly resided at Monticello, but of late has made his home at Kingston. He was elected to the Senate over Henry C. Connelly (Rep.), who represented the district in the last Senate.

HENRY R. LOW.

Rep., XIIIth District, Orange and Sullivan.

Henry R. Low was born at Fallsburg, Sullivan County, September 26, 1826. He comes of good Revolutionary stock, his grandfather having been a soldier in Washington's army. After pursuing his studies in Ulster County and at the State Normal School at Albany he spent some time in teaching, and was one of the founders of the Monticello Academy. Leaving teaching for the law he became first a student and afterward a partner of General A. C. Niven. In 1856 he was elected County Judge and Surrogate of Sullivan County. This position he filled until 1862 in the meantime having been re-elected, when he resigned in order to accept the Senatorship for the Orange-Sullivan District, to which he had been chosen at the preceding fall election. He ran for the next Senate (1864-'65), but the certificate of election was awarded to his competitor. Mr. Low made a contest, and in January, 1865, the seat was awarded to him. He was re-elected to the Senate of 1866-'67. At the close of his third term in the Senate he resumed the practice of the law. In 1883 the Republicans of his district again placed him in nomination for the Senate. He was elected, and was re-elected to the Senate of 1886-'87. Consequently, he is now serving his sixth term in that body. The Senate organized for 1888-89 by electing him president pro tem. Until 1861 he was a Democrat, but has since been a Republican, and during the war was chairman of the War Committee of Sullivan County.

DONALD McNAUGHTON.

Dem., XXIXth District, Monroe, Orleans.

Donald McNaughton was born at Mumford, Monroe County, in 1830 and still has his home there. He comes of a Scotch family. His father was one of the pioneers of Western New-York. After receiving a common school education he applied himself to the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1865. For the last ten years or more he has been engaged in the practice of his profession at Rochester. The only other public office that Mr. McNaughton has held is Supervisor; he represented his town in the Monroe County Board for eight successive terms and during a portion of that time was president of the board. He has been identified with a number of important enterprises, notably with the construction of the Rochester and State Line Railroad. For several years he was one of the directors and the secretary and treasurer of that company. His interest in the home of his ancestors is attested by the fact that he has long been president of the Rochester Scotch Society. Mr. McNaughton is an earnest Democrat, and a familiar figure in the conventions of his party. This is his first term in the Senate.

MICHAEL C. MURPHY.

Dem., Vth District, Richmond and part of New-York.

Michael C. Murphy was born in Kilmallock, Limerick County, Ireland, March 7, 1839. He arrived in this country during his early boyhood, and was educated in one of the common schools of the City of New-York. After leaving his books he learned the trade of a compositor. On the breaking out of the war he promptly responded, becoming an officer in the Fire Zouave Regiment. In 1865 he was made brevet Brigadier-General. Returning from the war he engaged actively in politics, and for four consecutive years beginning with 1867 he was elected to the Assembly from one of the metropolitan districts. He also was a member of the Assembly in 1881-'82-'83. In 1883 he was promoted to the Senate where he has remained ever since, the present being his third consecutive term in that body.

EUGENE F. O'CONNOR.

Rep., IIId District, part of Kings.

Eugene F. O'Connor was born in Brooklyn, in 1844. He was educated at a public school and St. Francis Xavier College, and received the degree of A. M. from St. Francis College. He served during the war in Company K, of the 176th Regiment of New-York Volunteers, which accompanied Banks's expedition to Louisiana. In 1863 his company, with others, had an engagement with the enemy at La Fourche Crossing. Mr. O'Connor and two others were captured. Two days later he made his escape and soon after joined his commander at New-Orleans. When his term of service expired he re-enlisted, and was commissioned second lieutenant of Company K. He went with Banks's Red River expedition, and took part in the fight at Alexandria and Marksville. Subsequently he served as aide-de-camp to General Macaulley, and later to General Molineux, and fought in the battles of Berryville, Va., and Winchester, commanding several companies in the latter fight. He was discharged from the service on account of wounds received in an engagement at Cedar Creek, and commissioned first lieutenant and captain and brevetted "for gallant and meritorious conduct." At the close of the war he entered the civil engineering department of the Union Pacific Railroad. In 1881 he entered the University Law School and was subsequently admitted to the bar. He is a member of John A. Dix Post, Grand Army of the Republic, president of the Columbian Club in Brooklyn, and director of several corporations of New-York City. He never before held a public office.

JAMES F. PIERCE.

Dem., IId District, part of Kings.

James F. Pierce was born at Madrid, St. Lawrence County, April 8, 1830. He studied law first at Potsdam, and afterward at Troy and was admitted to the bar in 1851. After a sojourn in Florida for three years for the benefit of his health he returned to St. Lawrence County, and began the practice of the law at Canton. In 1861 he was elected County Clerk of St. Lawrence County. Four years later he removed to New-York and there resumed his law business. Taking up his residence in Brooklyn in 1866, he began his legislative career in 1868-'69 as Senator for the IId District. He was re-elected to the Senate of 1870-'71, and served a third term in that body in 1878-'79. His district is overwhelmingly Democratic, and Mr. Pierce was elected to the last Senate and to the present one practically without opposition.

JOHN RAINES.

Rep., XXVIIIth District, Ontario, Wayne, Schuyler and Yates.

John Raines was born at Canandaigua, Ontario County, May 6, 1840. His father, another John Raines, came to this country from Hull in the East Riding of Yorkshire, followed farming for a living for several years, but at length abandoned it for the ministry and became well known as a Methodist divine. The Senator is a brother of ex-State Treasurer Thomas Raines and ex-Senator George Raines. He received a common school education and afterward studied law, graduating from the Albany Law School in the class of 1861. Soon afterward he opened a law office at Geneva, Ontario

County, but speedily abandoned it to enter the army. Raising a company of volunteers, he was commissioned captain of Company G, of the 85th New-York Regiment, and served in this regiment in the Army of the Potomac and in North Carolina. In 1863 he returned to the practice of the law at Geneva, and a few years later removed to Canandaigua where he has since resided. He represented Ontario in the Assembly in 1881, '82 and '85, and was a member of the last Senate.

EDWARD F. REILLY.

Dem., VIth District, part of New-York.

Edward F. Reilly was born and has always resided in New-York City. He is the youngest member of the Senate, being only a little over thirty years of age. After receiving an education in the public schools and from the Christian Brothers he learned the trade of the book-binder, and followed it for five years. Since 1877, when not holding other public positions, he has held a clerkship in the office of the Sheriff of the County of New-York. In 1882 he made a canvass for the Assembly, but was defeated by Timothy J. Campbell. He also made an unsuccessful canvass the year following, but in 1884 ran for the third time and was successful. His election to the Senate followed. He is now serving his second consecutive term in that body.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTSON.

Rep., XIIth District, Westchester and Rockland.

William H. Robertson was born at Bedford, Westchester County, October 10, 1823. After pursuing his preliminary studies at Union Academy, Bedford, he read law and was admitted to the bar in 1847. His public career began with the town superintendency of the common schools of Bedford. Then he served four years as Supervisor, then twelve as County Judge of Westchester. His experience as a law-maker is a long one. He represented Westchester in the Assembly in 1849-'50, the VIIth District in the Senate of 1854-'55, and the Xth District in the XLth Congress. He was returned to the Senate of 1872-'73, 1874-'75, 1876-'77, 1878-'79 and 1880-'81. In March, 1881, Judge Robertson was appointed by President Garfield Collector of the Port of New-York, a position which he held until June, 1885. During the war he was chairman of the Military Committee appointed by Governor Morgan to raise and organize State troops in the VIIIth Senatorial District. He was also appointed a Commissioner to superintend the draft for troops in Westchester. For six years he was Brigade Inspector of the 7th Brigade of the National Guard.

HENRY RUSSELL.

Rep., XVIIth District, Albany.

Henry Russell was born at Broome, Schoharie County, December 7, 1835. He attended the district schools of Broome, but before he was well in his teens began to assist his father who was a merchant. In 1856 he joined his brother, Calvin, in purchasing his father's business, and the firm of C. & H. Russell was formed. This firm was not dissolved until 1874. In 1865 Henry Russell removed to Albany, which has since been his home, and in connection with his brother, Calvin, and others, established a business distinct from that which was carried on at Broome. In 1874, Calvin having retired, Henry Russell became the sole proprietor of the business, which has since steadily increased. Mr. Russell is identified with a number of local business organizations. He is president of the Commercial Union Telegraph Company, and of the Marshall and Wendell Piano-Forte Manufacturing Company, a director of the Merchants' National Bank, and in 1878 was president of the Albany Board of Trade. He has never before held public office, and was elected to the Senate by a plurality of 8 over Norton Chase, who had been an Assemblyman in 1886. In 1885 the Democratic candidate for the Senate was elected by a plurality of 1,588.

GEORGE B. SLOAN.

Rep., XXIst District, Oswego and Jefferson.

George B. Sloan was born in Oswego, June 20, 1832. His father was a native of Massachusetts, coming to this State to reside in 1825. After receiving a common school education the age of fourteen found the son a clerk in a dry-goods store. Two years later he became connected with an Oswego milling and produce house. He remained in this employment eight years, and in 1854 formed a partnership with H. C. Wright in the grain business. This firm was dissolved two years later, and Mr. Sloan then associated himself in business with Cheney Ames. He continued with Mr. Ames until 1864, when with Theodore Irwin he established the house of Irwin & Sloan. He is president of the Second National Bank of Oswego and identified with other prominent local business organizations. He is also a trustee of the Idiot Asylum at Syracuse, and a member of the Board of the State Normal School at Oswego. For four years he represented the 1st Oswego District in the Assembly, and in 1877 was Speaker. He was a member of the last Senate.

CHARLES A. STADLER.

Dem., IXth District, part of New-York.

Charles A. Stadler was born in Germany, July 15, 1848, but has resided in this country since he was three years old, his parents having emigrated in 1851. He received his education in public and private schools of the metropolis. He is engaged in business as a maister. The only other public office he has ever held is that of School Inspector. He is a member of the New-York Produce Exchange, president of the New-York Ice Exchange, and of the Sebastian Manufacturing Company. This is Mr. Stadler's first term in the Senate

WILLIAM L. SWEET.

Rep., XXVIth District, Cayuga, Seneca, Tompkins and Tioga.

William L. Sweet was born at Waterloo, Seneca County, October 25, 1850. The Sweet family were among the earliest settlers of Seneca. The Waterloo Union School, the Friends' Academy at Union Springs and the Cazenovia Seminary furnished him an education. He is a miller and produce dealer, and continues to reside in his native place. In 1872 he began his business career as a member of the firm of Cook & Sweet. In 1885 he purchased the Waterloo Mills, and organized the firm of Sweet, Mongin & Co. For a number of years Mr. Sweet has been a member of the New-York Produce Exchange. He has been President of the village of Waterloo and of its Board of Education, and represented Seneca in the Assembly of 1887.

CORNELIUS VAN COTT.

Rep., VIIIth District, part of New-York.

Cornelius Van Cott was born in 1838, and has always lived in the Fifteenth Ward of the City of New-York. After receiving a common school education he learned the trade of a compositor in the old American Tract Society's printing establishment. Tired of type-setting, he became an apprentice of Dusenbury & Van Dusen, carriage-makers, and followed that trade for a time. During Mr. Lincoln's Administration he was appointed an Inspector of Customs at the port of New-York, a position which he resigned in order to embark in the insurance business. Of late years he has been vice-president and one of the directors of the Ætna Fire Insurance Company, and has also been connected with the Hanover Insurance Company. For a number of years Mr. Van Cott was an active fireman, and in 1873 Mayor Havemeyer appointed him a Fire Commissioner. He was reappointed by Mayor Cooper, and during his second term was twice elected President of the Board. At present Mr. Van Cott is engaged in the insurance business. For several years he has been a trustee of the West Side Savings Bank, president of the Lincoln (Rep.) Club and a member of the Republican State Committee.

COMMODORE PERRY VEDDER.

Rep., XXXIId District, Cattaraugus and Chautauqua.

Commodore P. Vedder was born at Ellicottville, where he now resides, February 23, 1838. He spent five years as a sailor on the great lakes before reaching manhood. He was educated at the common schools and at the academy in Springville, Erie County. In 1862, after having taught school for a few months, he enlisted in the 154th Regiment, New-York Volunteers. He remained with this regiment until the close of the war, participating in a number of battles, including those of Chancellorsville, Lookout Mountain and the siege of Savannah, and being with Sherman in his famous march from Atlanta to the sea. He rose to the rank of brevet major. Since the war the Senator has been engaged in the practice of the law. In 1867 he was appointed Register in Bankruptcy. He also held the office of Assessor of Internal Revenue from 1869 to 1871. His long service as a legislator began in 1872 as Assemblyman for the 1st Cattaraugus District. He continued thus to represent that district until 1876 when he took his seat as Senator. He retired at the end of a single term, and from 1880 until 1882 he held the office of State Assessor, and was returned to the Senate of 1884-'85 and of 1886-'87.

EDWARD CYRUS WALKER.

Rep., XXXth District, Wyoming, Genesee, Livingston and Niagara.

Edward C. Walker was born at Byron, Genesee County, June 14, 1837. He received a liberal education, graduating at Syracuse University, class of 1861, and subsequently attending the Albany Law School. He removed to Batavia when he was fifteen years old and has continued to reside there. For several years after his admission to the bar he was associated in the practice of his profession with ex-Senator George Bowen. In 1869 and 1870 he represented Genesee County in the Assembly and he was a member of the Senate of 1886-87. Mr. Walker has been a trustee of Syracuse University, of the New-York State Institute for the Blind, the Auburn Theological Seminary and other institutions. He was re-elected last fall by a plurality of nearly 1,000 greater than that which he received two years ago.

JACOB WORTH.

Rep., IVth District, part of Brooklyn and the towns of New-Lots and Flatlands.

Jacob Worth was born in New-York City May 1, 1838. Receiving but a scanty education, he went to work in a ropewalk when he was but eight years old. Here he remained until he was fourteen and then found employment for a short time as teamster and boatman. Next he served an apprenticeship in the United States Navy and made the voyage around the world. Early in the war he enlisted in the 139th Regiment New-York Volunteers. He was commissioned Captain in 1863 in the 84th New-York Regiment and remained in it until it was mustered out. During his term of service in the Army he took part in the Peninsula campaign, the Seven Days' battles and in other noted engagements. Mr. Worth is now serving his second term in the Senate, having been a member of that body in 1886-87. Previously, beginning in 1864, he had represented one of the Brooklyn districts for nine years in the Assembly. In 1879 he was appointed one of the Commissioners of City Works of Brooklyn, and he has been one of that city's Fire Commissioners. He was a Democrat until the war broke out; since then he has been a Republican.

THE ASSEMBLY.

Rep., IId Steuben District.

Milo M. Acker was born at Hartsville, Steuben County, October 3, 1854. His father was a German, his mother a New-Englander. Until he reached the age of twenty-one he worked at home during the summers and in the Pennsylvania logging camps in the winter. Having decided to enter the legal profession he went to Andover, Mass., and pursued a thorough course of study. In 1881 he entered the law office of Judge Hakes, of Hornellsville, and in 1883 was admitted to the bar. In 1886 he served as Police Justice of Hornellsville, having previously in 1879-80 held the office of Supervisor of Hartsville. He is now serving his first term in the Legislature.

JOHN C. ADAMS.

Rep., Ist Orange District.

John C. Adams was born at Tivoli, Dutchess County. He has lived in New-York and Rondout, but his present residence is Newburg, in which city the greater portion of his life has been spent. Mr. Adams has held a number of public offices. Governor Fenton appointed him a harbor master at the port of New-York; for eight years he was postmaster of Newburg, and he has also served that city as Supervisor, Alderman and President of the Common Council. He is interested in a number of local enterprises, including the gas company of which he is president. This is his first term in the Legislature.

DANFORTH E. AINSWORTH.

Rep., IId Oswego District.

Danforth E. Ainsworth, who is now serving his third consecutive term in the Assembly, was born at Clarton, Jefferson County, in 1848. He was educated at the Pulaski, Oswego County, Academy, and at the Falley Seminary, at Fulton in the same county. After leaving school he applied himself to the law and was admitted to the bar in 1873. His present residence is at Sandy Creek. He has been president of that village and is one of the directors of the Sandy Creek Manufacturing Company.

WILLIAM DANIEL ALDRICH.

Dem., Warren District.

William D. Aldrich was born at Thurman, Warren County, in 1855. He received his education at Warrensburg Academy and Dartmouth College. The Election Returns

Cover every State and Territory of the Union, including as well the vote on President as on Representatives in Congress in each, and also to both compare these votes with those of 1884. The partisan complexion of every Legislature in the Union is given, as are the votes on the election of all State and Territorial officers chosen, and on constitutional amendments submitted to popular vote. In NEW-JERSEY and NEW-YORK, the vote on Assemblymen is, as usual, given by districts; and in CONNECTICUT, NEW-JERSEY and NEW-YORK the popular vote on President is given as well by wards and towns as by cities and counties. To the general tables, which give the results in various forms, is added an instructive analysis of the Presidential elections of 1876, 1880, 1884 and 1888, showing the percentage of votes polled at each election by each of the parties in each geographical division of the country. The "Political Miscellany" for 1888 records the important political facts developed in each State during the

FOR 1889.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1889 there will be five eclipses, three of the Sun and two of the Moon.

I.—A total eclipse of the Sun, January 1, visible in the United States. The line of totality strikes the Pacific Coast a little north of San Francisco, and passes in a northeasterly direction to a point northwest of Lake Superior. In other portions of the country west of New-York the eclipse will only be partial.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS

PASSED AT THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

ARMAMENT FOR FORTIFICATIONS.

Chapter 1,028.—Authorizes the Board of Ordnance and Fortification to expend in the aggregate $6,000,000 (of which not more than $2,000,000 shall be spent in any one year) for the purchase of cast-iron breech-loading mortars of twelve inches calibre, of about 32,000 pounds weight, and the purchase of single-charge breech-loading shell guns of ten or twelve inches calibre. Not less than fifty of each gun to be bought, if satisfactory on test. $1,500,000 were also appropriated for "the purchase of rough-finished, oil-tempered and annealed steel for high-power coast defence guns of eight, ten and twelve inch calibre." $250,000 were also appropriated for "the purchase of the material for, and the manufacture of, twelve-inch breech-loading rifled mortars of cast-iron, hooped with steel, of about thirty-two thousand pounds weight, similar to and equal in range, power and accuracy of fire to the twelve-inch breech-loading mortar, cast-iron, steel-hooped, now at the Ordnance proving ground, Sandy Hook, N. J.—(Approved September 22, 1888.

CHINESE LABORERS.

Chap. 1064.—That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any Chinese laborer who shall at any time heretofore have been, or who may now or hereafter be, a resident within the United States, and who shall have departed, or shall depart, therefrom, and shall not have returned before the passage of this act, to return to, or remain in, the United States.

That no certificates of identity provided for in the fourth and fifth sections of the act to which this is a supplement shall hereafter be issued; and every certificate heretofore issued in pursuance thereof is hereby declared void and of no effect, and the Chinese laborer claiming admission by virtue thereof shall not be permitted to enter the United States.

That all the duties prescribed, liabilities, penalties and forfeitures imposed, and the powers conferred by the second, tenth, eleventh and twelfth sections of the act to which this is a supplement are hereby extended and made applicable to the provisions of this act.

That all such part or parts of the act to which this is a supplement as are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.—(Approved October 1, 1888.

(Note.—An act approved September 13, 1888, contains numerous provisions, all to take effect "from and after the date of the exchange of ratifications of the pending treaty between the United States and the Emperor of China, signed March 12, 1888." As this treaty has not been ratified, but, as amended by the United States Senate, has been rejected by China, the provisions referred to are not printed.)

A CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN STATES.

Chap. 307.—That the President is requested and authorized to invite the Republics of Mexico, Central and South America, Hayti, San Domingo, and the Empire of Brazil to join the United States, in a conference to be held at Washington, in the United States, at such time as he may deem proper, in 1889, for the purpose of discussing and recommending some plan of arbitration for the settlement of disagreements and disputes that may hereafter arise between them, and for considering questions relating to the improvement of business intercourse and means of direct communication between said countries, and to encourage such reciprocal commercial relations as will be beneficial to all and secure more extensive markets for the products of each of said countries. In forwarding the invitations the President shall set forth that the conference is called to consider:

First—Measures that shall tend to preserve the peace and promote the prosperity of the several American States.

Second—Measures toward the formation of an American customs union, under which the trade of the American Nations with each other shall, so far as possible and profitable, be promoted.

Third—The establishment of regular and frequent communication between the ports of the several American States and the ports of each other.

Fourth—The establishment of a uniform system of customs regulations in each of the independent American States to govern the mode of importation and exportation of merchandise and port dues and charges, a uniform method of determining the classification and valuation of such merchandise in the ports of each country, and a uniform system of invoices and the subject of the sanitation of ships and quarantine.

Fifth—The adoption of a uniform system of weights and measures, and laws to protect patent rights, copyrights, and trade-marks of citizens of either country in the other, and for the extradition of criminals.

Sixth—The adoption of a common silver coin, to be issued by each Government, the same to be legal-tender in all commercial transactions between the citizens of all of the American States.

Seventh—An agreement upon and recommendation of a definite plan of arbitration of all questions, disputes, and differences that may now or hereafter exist between them, to the end that all difficulties and disputes between such Nations may be peaceably settled and wars prevented.

Eighth—And to consider such other subjects relating to the welfare of the several States represented as may be presented by any of said States which are hereby invited to participate in said conference.

The United States shall have ten delegates, the other States as many as each may elect. Each State shall have but one vote.—(Approved May 24, 1888.

CUSTOMS.

Chap. 55.—That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to remit to any and all firms or persons who shall have, prior to the passage of this act, in good faith, and in compliance with the decisions and regulations of the Treasury Department, specially imported into the United States animals for breeding purposes, whether for the importer's own use or for sale, all duties, if any shall have accrued, upon such importations.—(Approved April 4, 1888.

INDIANS.

Chap. 200.—Gives the full text of the act to divide a portion of the reservation of the Sioux Nation of Indians in Dakota into separate reservations and to secure the reliquishment of the Indian title to the remainder.—(Approved April 30, 1888.

Chap. 343.—That any U. S. marshal is authorized and required, when necessary to execute any process connected with any criminal proceeding issued out of the circuit or district court of the U. S. for the district of which he is marshal, or by any commissioner of either of said courts, to enter the Indian Territory, and to execute the same therein in the same manner that he is now required by law to execute like processes in his own district.—(Approved June 4, 1888.

Chap. 382.—That any Indian hereafter committing against the person of any Indian agent or policeman appointed under the laws of the U. S., or against any Indian U. S. deputy marshal, posse comitatus, or guard, while lawfully engaged in the execution of any U. S. process, or lawfully engaged in any other duty imposed upon such agent, policeman, deputy marshal, posse comitatus, or guard by the laws of the U. S. any of the following crimes, namely, murder, manslaughter, or assault with intent to murder, assault, or assault and battery, or who shall in any manner obstruct by threats or violence any person who is engaged in the service of the U. S. in the discharge of any of his duties as agent, policeman, or other officer aforesaid, within the Indian Territory, or who shall hereafter commit either of the crimes aforesaid, in said Indian Territory, against any person who, at the time of the commission of said crime, or at any time previous thereto, belonged to either of the classes of officials hereinbefore named, shall be subject to the laws of the U. S. relating to such crimes, and shall be tried by the district court of the U. S. exercising criminal jurisdiction where such offence was committed, and shall be subject to the same penalties as are all other persons charged with the commission of said crimes, respectively; and the said courts are hereby given jurisdiction in all such cases.—(Approved June 9, 1888.

Chap. 519.—Authorizes the public sale by the Secretary of the Interior, on due notice, of lots three and four, the south half of the northeast quarter and the southeast quarter of section number thirty-three, lots number five and six, the south half of the northwest quarter and the southwest quarter of section number thirty-four, all in township number twenty-seven north, of range number six east, sixth principal meridian, being a part of the Winnebago reservation, Nebraska.—(Approved July 4, 1888.

Chap. 818.—That no white man, not otherwise a member of any tribe of Indians, who may hereafter marry an Indian woman, member of any Indian tribe in the United States, or any of its Territories, except the five civilized tribes in the Indian Territory, shall by such marriage hereafter acquire any right to any tribal property, privilege, or interest whatever to which any member of such tribe is entitled.

That every Indian woman, member of any such tribe of Indians, who may hereafter be married to any citizen of the United States, is hereby declared to become by such marriage a citizen of the United States, with all the rights, privileges and immunities of any such citizen, being a married woman: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall impair or in any way affect the right or title of such married woman to any tribal property or any interest therein.

That whenever the marriage of any white man with any Indian woman, a member of any such tribe of Indians, is required or offered to be proved in any judicial proceeding, evidence of the admission of such fact by the party against whom the proceeding is had, or evidence of general repute, or of cohabitation as married persons, or any other circumstantial or presumptive evidence from which the fact may be inferred, shall be competent.—(Approved August 9, 1888.

Chap. 503.—Establishes a superintendency of Indian schools. The incumbent shall visit the schools where Indians are taught, in whole or in part by appropriations from the United States Treasury, and report defects, changes needed, etc. He shall, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, employ and discharge superintendents, teachers and any other person connected with schools wholly supported by the Government, and with like approval make such rules and regulations for the conduct of such schools as in his judgment their good may require.—(Approved June 29, 1888.

LABOR ARBITRATION.

Chap. 1,003.—That whenever differences or controversies arise between railroad or other transportation companies engaged in the transportation of property or passengers between two or more States, between a Territory and State, within the Territories, or the District of Columbia, and the employes of said railroad companies, which differences or controversies may hinder, impede, obstruct, interrupt or affect such transportation of property or passengers, if, upon the written proposition of either party to the controversy to submit their differences to arbitration the other party shall accept the proposition, then and in such event the railroad company is hereby authorized to select and appoint one person, and such employe or employes, as the case may be, to select and appoint another person, and the two persons thus selected and appointed to select a third person, all three of whom shall be citizens of the United States and wholly impartial and disinterested in respect to such differences or controversies; and the three persons thus selected and appointed shall be, and they are hereby, created and constituted a board of arbitration, with the duties, powers and privileges hereinafter set forth.

That it shall be the duty of said board of arbitration, immediately upon their selection, to organize at the nearest practicable point to the place or the origin of the difficulty or controversy, and to hear and determine the matters of difference which may be submitted to them in writing by all the parties, giving them full opportunity to be heard on oath, in person and by witnesses, and also granting them the right to be represented by counsel; and after concluding its investigation said board shall publicly announce its decision, which, with the findings of fact upon which it is based, shall be reduced to writing and signed by the arbitrators concurring therein, and, together with the testimony taken in the case, shall be filed with the Commissioner of Labor of the United States, who shall make such decision public as soon as the same shall have been received by him.

It shall be the right of any employes engaged in the controversy to appoint by designation in writing, one or more persons to act for them in the selection of an arbitrator to represent them upon the board of arbitration.

The President may select two commissioners, one of whom at least shall be a resident of the State or Territory in which the controversy arises, who, together with the Commissioner of Labor, shall constitute a temporary commission for the purpose of examining the causes of the controversy, the conditions accompanying, and the best means for adjusting it; the result of which examination shall be immediately reported to the President and Congress, and on the rendering of such report the services of the two commissioners shall cease. The services of the commission, to be ordered at the time by the President and constituted as herein provided, may be tendered by the President for the purpose of settling a controversy such as contemplated, either upon his own motion, or upon the application of one of the parties to the controversy, or upon the application of the executive of a State.

That upon the direction of the President, as hereinbefore provided, the commission shall visit the locality of the pending dispute, and shall make careful inquiry into the cause thereof, hear all persons interested therein who may come before it, advise the respective parties what, if anything, ought to be done or submitted to by either or both to adjust such dispute, and make a written decision thereof. This decision shall at once be made public, shall be recorded upon proper books of record, to be kept in the office of the Commissioner of Labor, who shall cause a copy thereof to be filed with the Secretary of the State or Territory, or States or Territories, in which the controversy exists.

All fees, expenses, and compensation of this commission shall be paid by the United States. The pay of each member of the Tribunal of Arbitration shall be ten dollars a day for the time actually employed.—(Approved October 1, 1888.

CHAP. 389.—Establishes a Department of Labor, under the charge of a Commissioner of Labor, at a salary of $5,000 a year. His duty shall be to acquire and diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with labor, in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and especially upon its relation to capital, the hours of labor, the earnings of laboring men and women, and the means of promoting their material, social, intellectual and moral prosperity. The Commissioner is specially charged to ascertain, at as early a date as possible, and whenever industrial changes shall make it essential, the cost of producing articles at the time dutiable in the United States, in leading countries where such articles are produced, by fully-specified units of production, and under a classification showing the different elements of cost, or approximate cost, of such articles of production, including the wages paid in such industries per day, week, month, or year, or by the piece; and hours employed per day; and the profits of the manufacturers and producers of such articles; and the comparative cost of living, and the kind of living. "It shall be the duty of the Commissioner also to ascertain and report as to the effect of the customs laws, and the effect thereon of the state of the currency, in the United States, on the agricultural industry, especially as to its effect on mortgage indebtedness of farmers;" and what articles are controlled by trusts, or other combinations of capital, business operations, or labor, and what effect said trusts, or other combinations of capital, business operations, or labor have on productions and prices. He shall establish a system of reports by which, at intervals of not less than two years, he can report the general condition, so far as production is concerned, of the leading industries of the country. The Commissioner of Labor is also specially charged to investigate the causes of, and facts relating to, all controversies and disputes between employers and employes as they may occur, and which may tend to interfere with the welfare of the people of the different States, and report thereon to Congress. The Commissioner of Labor shall also obtain such information upon the various subjects committed to him as he may deem desirable from different foreign nations, and what, if any, convict-made goods are imported into this country, and if so, from whence. —(Approved June 13, 1888.

LAND LAWS.

Chap. 340.—That section 5,388 of the Revised Statutes be amended so as to read as follows: "Every person who unlawfully cuts, or aids, or is employed in unlawfully cutting, or wantonly destroys or procures to be wantonly destroyed, any timber standing upon the land of the United States which, in pursuance of law, may be reserved or purchased for military or other purposes, or upon any Indian reservation, or lands belonging to or occupied by any tribe of Indians under authority of the United States, shall pay a fine of not more than $500 or be imprisoned not more than twelve months, or both, in the discretion of the court."—(Approved June 4, 1888.

NAVY, INCREASE OF.

Chap. 991.—The President is hereby authorized to have constructed, by contract, two steel cruisers of about 2,000 tons displacement each, at a cost of not more than $1,100,000 each; one steel cruiser of about 5,300 tons displacement, to cost not more than $1,800,000; one armored cruiser of about 7,500 tons displacement, to cost not more than $3,500,000; and three gunboats, or cruisers, neither of which shall exceed 2,000 tons in displacement, nor $700,000 in cost, these figures excluding in each case any premium that may be paid for increased speed and the cost of armament; said three gunboats, or cruisers, to be built either wholly of steel or with steel frames. The first two cruisers to have a maximum speed of at least nineteen knots per hour, the third a maximum speed of at least twenty knots per hour. The vessels are to be built under the provisions as to materials, etc., of the Act of August 3, 1886. If the Secretary of the Navy shall be unable to contract at reasonable prices for the building of any of said vessels, then he may build such vessel or vessels in any such navy-yards as he may designate. One steel practice vessel of 800 tons for the use of the Naval Academy is authorized, at a cost of $200,000.—(Approved September 7, 1888.

PASSPORTS.

Chap. 34.—That from and after the passage of this act, a fee of one dollar shall be collected for each citizen's passport issued from the Department of State.—(Approved March 23, 1888.

POST OFFICE.

Chap. 2.—That mailable matter of the second-class shall contain no writing, print, or sign thereon or therein in addition to the original print, except as herein provided, to wit: the name and address of the person to whom the matter shall be sent, index figures of subscription book either printed or written, the printed title of the publication and the place of its publication, the printed or written name and address, without addition of advertisement of the publisher or sender, or both, and written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to such matter will end, the correction of any typographical error, a mark, except by written or printed words, to designate a work or passage to which it is desired to call attention; the words "sample copy" when the matter is sent as such, the words "marked copy" when the matter contains a marked item or article, and publishers or news agents may inclose in their publications, bills, receipts, and orders for subscriptions thereto, but the same shall be in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer, and the subscription due thereon.

Upon matter of the third class, or upon the wrapper or envelope inclosing the same, or the tag or label attached thereto, the sender may write his own name, occupation, and residence or business address, preceded by the word "from," and may make marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to any word or passage in the text, and may correct any typographical errors. There may be placed upon the blank leaves or cover of any book or printed matter of the third class a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of a personal correspondence. Upon the wrapper or envelope of third-class matter, or the tag or label attached thereto, may be printed any matter mailable as third-class, but there must be left on the address side a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps.

With a package of fourth-class matter, prepaid at the proper rate for that class, the sender may inclose any mailable third-class matter, and may write upon the wrapper or cover thereof, or tag or label accompanying the same, his name, occupation, residence or business address, preceded by the word "from," and any marks, numbers, names, or letters for purpose of description, or may print thereon the same, and any printed matter not in the nature of a personal correspondence, but there must be left on the address side or face of the package a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps. In all cases directions for transmit, delivery, forwarding, or return shall be deemed part of the address.—(Approved January 20, 1888.

Chap. 303.—That hereafter eight hours shall constitute a day's work for letter-carriers in cities or postal districts connected therewith, for which they shall receive the same pay as is now paid as for a day's work of a greater number of hours. If any letter-carrier is employed a greater number of hours per day than eight he shall be paid extra for the same in proportion to the salary now fixed by law.—(Approved May 24, 1888.

Chap. 702.—That the postage on seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, ferns and plants shall be charged at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, subject in all respects to the existing law.—(Approved July 24, 1888.

PRESIDENTIAL COUNT ACT, SUPPLEMENT TO.

Chap. 1,216.—That the certificates and lists of votes for President and Vice-President, mentioned in chapter one of title three of the Revised Statutes, and in the act to which this is a supplement, shall be forwarded, in the manner therein provided, to the President of the Senate forthwith after the second Monday in January, on which the electors shall give their votes.

Sec. 2.—That section one hundred and forty-one of the Revised Statutes is hereby so amended as to read as follows:

"Sec. 141.—Whenever a certificate of votes from any State has not been received at the seat of Government on the fourth Monday of the month of January in which their meeting shall have been held, the Secretary of State shall send a special messenger to the district judge in whose custody one certificate of the votes from that State has been lodged, and such judge shall forthwith transmit that list to the seat of Government."—(Approved October 19, 1888.

RAILROADS ON AND THROUGH RESERVATIONS.

The Choctaw Coal and Railway Company is authorized to construct and operate a railway through the Indian Territory. The Denver and Rio Grande Railway Company is granted a right of way through the Fort Cranford Military Reservation. The Duluth, Rainy Lake River and Southwestern Railway Company through certain Indian lands in Minnesota. The Kansas Valley Railroad Company through the Fort Riley Military Reservation in Kansas. The Kansas City and Pacific Railroad Company through the Indian Territory. The Fort Smith and El Paso Railway Company through the Indian Territory. The Washington and Idaho Railroad Company through the Coeur d'Alene Indian Reservation. The Billings, Clark's Fork and Cooke City Railroad Company through the Crow Indian Reservation. The Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western Railway Company through the Lac de Flambeau Indian Reservation. The Fork Harbor and Beach Railroad Company through the military reservation at Fort McClary, in Kittery, Maine. The Paris, Choctaw and Little Rock Railway Company through the Indian Territory. The Newport and King's Valley Railroad Company through the Siletz Indian Reservation. The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company through the Nez Percé Indian Reservation. The Puyallup Valley Railroad Company through the Puyallup Indian Reservation, Washington Territory. The Utah and Northern Railway Company through a portion of the Fort Hall Reservation, Idaho. The Birmingham, Mobile and Navy Cove Harbor Railway Company through the military reservation at Fort Morgan, Alabama. The Leavenworth Rapid Transit Railway Company through a portion of the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS' STATE OR TERRITORIAL HOMES.

Chap. 914.—That all States or Territories which have established, or which shall hereafter establish, State homes for disabled soldiers and sailors of the United States who served in the war of the Rebellion, or in any previous war, who are disabled by age, disease, or otherwise, and by reason of such disability are incapable of earning a living, provided such disability was not incurred in service against the United States, shall be paid for every such disabled soldier or sailor who may be admitted and cared for in such home at the rate of one hundred dollars per annum.—(Approved August 27, 1888.

PENSIONS.

Chap. 913.—That all persons on the pension rolls, or who may hereafter be thereon, drawing pensions on account of loss of hearing, shall be entitled to receive, in lieu of the amount now paid in case of such disability, the sum of thirty dollars, in cases of total deafness, and such proportion thereof in cases of partial deafness as the Secretary of the Interior may deem equitable; the amount paid to be determined by the degree of disability existing in each case.—(Approved August 27, 1888.

TELEGRAPH LINES ON LAND-GRANT ROADS.

Chap. 772.—That all railroad and telegraph companies to which the United States has granted any subsidy in lands or bonds or loan of credit for the construction of either railroad or telegraph lines, which are required to construct, maintain or operate telegraph lines, and all companies engaged in operating said railroad or telegraph lines shall forthwith and henceforward, by and through their own respective corporate officers and employes, maintain and operate, for railroad, Governmental, commercial and all other purposes, telegraph lines, and exercise by themselves alone all the telegraph franchises conferred upon them and obligations assumed by them under the acts making the grants as aforesaid.

That whenever any telegraph company which shall have accepted the provisions of title sixty-five of the Revised Statutes shall extend its line to any station or office of a telegraph line belonging to any one of said railroad or telegraph companies, said telegraph company so extending its line shall have the right to connect with the telegraph line of said railroad or telegraph company to which it is extended at the place where their lines may meet, for the prompt and convenient interchange of telegraph business between said companies and such railroad and telegraph companies shall so operate their respective telegraph lines as to afford equal facilities to all, without discrimination in favor of or against any person, company or corporation whatever, and shall receive, deliver and exchange business with connecting telegraph lines on equal terms, and affording equal facilities, and without discrimination for or against any one of such connecting lines; and such exchange of business shall be on terms just and equitable.

That if any such railroad or telegraph company operating such railroad or telegraph line shall refuse or fail, in whole or in part, to maintain and operate a telegraph line as provided in this act, and acts to which this is supplementary, for the use of the Government or the public, for commercial or other purposes, without discrimination, or shall refuse or fail to make or continue such arrangements for the interchange of business with any connecting telegraph company, then any person, company, corporation or connecting telegraph company may apply for relief to the Interstate Commerce Commission, whose duty it shall thereupon be, under such rules and regulations as said Commission may prescribe, to ascertain the facts, and determine and order what arrangement is proper to be made in the particular case, and the railroad or telegraph company concerned shall abide by and perform such order; and it shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission, when such determination and order are made, to notify the parties concerned, and, if necessary, enforce the same by writ of mandamus in the courts of the United States, in the name of the United States, at the relation of either of said Interstate Commerce Commissioners: Provided, That the said Commissioners may institute any inquiry, upon their own motion, in the same manner and to the same effect as though complaint had been made. Penalties and remedies are provided.—(Approved August 7, 1888.

TERRITORIES AND DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Chap. 30.—That an act entitled "An act to restrict the ownership of real estate in the Territories to American citizens and so forth," approved March 3, 1887, be so amended that the same shall not apply to or operate in the District of Columbia so far as relates to the ownership of legations, or the ownership of residences by representatives of foreign governments, or attaches thereof.—(Approved March 9, 1888.

In UTAH, an additional associate justice is authorized; in DAKOTA, two additional.

THE NATIONAL PLATFORMS OF 1888.

THE REPUBLICAN—Chicago, June 21.

The Republicans of the United States, assembled by their delegates in National Convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first great leader, the immortal champion of liberty and the rights of the people—Abraham Lincoln, and to cover also with leaves of imperishable remembrance and gratitude the heroic names of our later leaders who have been more recently called away from our councils—Grant, Garfield, Arthur, Logan, Conkling. May their memories be faithfully cherished!

We also recall with our greetings and with prayer for his recovery the name of one of our living heroes, whose memory will be treasured in the history both of Republicans and of the Republic—the name of that noble soldier and favorite child of victory, Philip H. Sheridan. In the spirit of those great leaders, and of our own devotion to human liberty, and with that hostility to all forms of despotism and oppression which is the fundamental idea of the Republican party, we send fraternal congratulations to our fellow-Americans of Brazil upon their great act of emancipation, which completed the abolition of slavery throughout the two American continents.

We earnestly hope that we may soon congratulate our fellow-citizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of Home Rule for Ireland.

We reaffirm our unswerving devotion to the National Constitution and to the indissoluble union of the States; to the autonomy reserved to the States under the Constitution; to the personal rights and liberties of citizens in all the States and Territories in the Union; and especially to the supreme and sovereign right of every lawful citizen, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, to cast one free ballot in public elections, and to have that ballot duly counted. We hold the free and honest popular ballot and the just and equal representation of all the people to be the foundation of our Republican Government, and demand effective legislation to secure the integrity and purity of elections, which are the fountains of all public authority. We charge that the present Administration and the Democratic majority in Congress owe their existence to the suppression of the ballot by a criminal nullification of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of Protection; we protest against its destruction, as proposed by the President and his party. They serve the interests of Europe; we will support the interests of America. We accept the issue, and confidently appeal to the people for their judgment. The protective system must be maintained. Its abandonment has always been followed by general disaster to all interests, except those of the usurer and the sheriff. We denounce the Mills bill as destructive to the general business, the labor and the farming interests of the country, and we heartily indorse the consistent and patriotic action of the Republican Representatives in Congress in opposing its passage.

We condemn the proposition of the Democratic party to place wool on the free list, and we insist that the duties thereon shall be adjusted and maintained so as to furnish full and adequate protection to that industry throughout the United States.

The Republican party would effect all needed reduction of the National revenue by repealing the taxes upon tobacco, which are an annoyance and burden to agriculture, and the tax upon spirits used in the arts and for mechanical purposes, and by such revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check imports of such articles as are produced by our people, the production of which gives employment to our labor, and releases from import duties those articles of foreign production (except luxuries) the like of which cannot be produced at home. If there shall remain a larger revenue than is requisite for the wants of the Government, we favor the entire repeal of the internal revenue taxes, rather than the surrender of any part of our protective system, at the joint behest of the whiskey ring and the agents of foreign manufacturers.

We declare our hostility to the introduction into this country of foreign contract labor, and of Chinese labor, alien to our civilization and Constitution; and we demand the rigid enforcement of the existing laws against it, and favor such immediate legislation as will exclude such labor from our shores.

We declare our opposition to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens; and we recommend to Congress, and the State Legislatures, in their respective jurisdictions, such legislation as will prevent the execution of all schemes to oppress the people by undue charges on their supplies, or by unjust rates for the transportation of their products to market. We approve the legislation by Congress to prevent alike unjust burden and unfair discriminations between the States.

We reaffirm the policy of appropriating the public lands of the United States to be homesteads for American citizens and settlers—not aliens—which the Republican party established in 1862, against the persistent opposition of the Democrats in Congress, and which has brought our great Western domain into such magnificent development. The restoration of unearned railroad land-grants to the public domain, for the use of actual settlers, which was begun under the Administration of President Arthur, should be continued. We deny that the Democratic party has ever restored one acre to the people, but declare that by the joint action of Republicans and Democrats in Congress about 28,000,000 acres of unearned lands, originally granted for the construction of railroads, have been restored to the public serted by the Republican party in the original grants. We charge the Democratic Administration with failure to execute the laws securing to settlers titles to their homesteads, and with using appropriations made for that purpose to harass innocent settlers with spies and prosecutions, under the false pretence of exposing frauds and vindicating the law.

The government by Congress of the Territories is based upon necessity, only to the end that they may become States in the Union; therefore, whenever the conditions of population, material resources, public intelligence and morality are such as to insure a stable local government therein, the people of such Territories should be permitted, as a right inherent in them, to form for themselves Constitutions and State Governments, and be admitted into the Union. Pending the preparation for Statehood, all officers thereof should be selected from the bona fide residents and citizens of the Territory wherein they are to serve. South Dakota should of right immediately be admitted as a State in the Union, under the Constitution framed and adopted by her people, and we heartily indorse the action of the Republican Senate in twice passing bills for her admission. The refusal of the Democratic House of Representatives, for partisan purposes, to favorably consider these bills is a wilful violation of the sacred American principle of local self-government, and merits the condemnation of all just men. The pending bills in the Senate to enable the people of Washington, North Dakota and Montana Territories to form Constitutions and establish State Governments should be passed without unnecessary delay. The Republican party pledges itself to do all in its power to facilitate the admission of the Territories of New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho and Arizona to the enjoyment of self-government as States, such of them as are now qualified, as soon as possible, and the others as soon as they may become so.

The political power of the Mormon Church in the Territories, as exercised in the past, is a menace to free institutions too dangerous to be longer suffered. Therefore, we pledge the Republican party to appropriate legislation asserting the sovereignty of the Nation in all Territories where the same is questioned, and in furtherance of that end, to place upon the statute books legislation stringent enough to divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power, and thus stamp out the attendant wickedness of polygamy.

The Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money, and condemns the policy of the Democratic Administration in its efforts to demonetize silver.

We demand the reduction of letter postage to one cent per ounce.

In a Republic like ours, where the citizen is the sovereign and the official the servant, where no power is exercised except by the will of the people, it is important that the sovereign—the people—should possess intelligence. The free school is the promoter of that intelligence which is to preserve us as a free Nation; therefore, the State or Nation, or both combined, should support free institutions of learning sufficient to afford every child growing in the land the opportunity of a good common school education.

The first concern of all good government is the virtue and sobriety of the people, and the purity of the home. The Republican party cordially sympathizes with all wise and well-directed efforts for the promotion of temperance and morality.

We earnestly recommend that prompt action be taken by Congress in the enactment of such legislation as will best secure the rehabilitation of our American merchant marine, and we protest against the passage by Congress of a free ship bill, as calculated to work injustice to labor, by lessening the wages of those engaged in preparing materials, as well as those directly employed in our shipyards. We demand appropriations for the early rebuilding of our Navy, for the construction of post fortifications and modern ordnance and other approved modern means of defence for the protection of our defenceless harbors and cities, for the payment of just pensions to our soldiers, for necessary works of National importance in the improvement of harbors and the channels of the internal, coastwise and foreign commerce, for the encouragement of the shipping interests of the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific States, as well as for the payment of the maturing public debt. This policy will give employment to our labor, activity to our various industries, increase the security of our country, promote trade, open new and direct markets for our produce, and cheapen the cost of transportation. We affirm this to be far better for our country than the Democratic policy of loaning the Government's money without interest to "pet banks."

The conduct of foreign affairs by the present Administration has been distinguished by its inefficiency and its cowardice. Having withdrawn from the Senate all pending treaties effected by Republican Administrations for the removal of foreign burdens and restrictions upon our commerce and for its extension in better markets, it has neither effected nor proposed any others in their stead. Professing adherence to the Monroe Doctrine, it has seen, with idle complacency, the extension of foreign influence in Central America and of foreign trade everywhere among our neighbors. It has refused to charter, sanction or encourage any American organization for constructing the Nicaragua Canal, a work of vital importance to the maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine, and of our National influence in Central and South America, and necessary for the development of trade with our Pacific territory, with South America, and with the islands and further coasts of the Pacific Ocean.

We arraign the present Democratic Administration for its weak and unpatriotic treatment of the fisheries question and its pusillanimous surrender of the essential privileges to which our fishing vessels are entitled in Canadian ports, under the Treaty of 1818, the reciprocal maritime legislation of 1830, and the comity of nations, and which Canadian fishing vessels receive in the ports of the United States. We condemn the policy of the present Administration and the Democratic majority in Congress toward our fisheries as unfriendly and conspicuously unpatriotic, and as tending to destroy a valuable National industry and an indispensable source of defence against a foreign enemy.

The name of American applies alike to all citizens of the Republic, and imposes upon all alike the same obligation of obedience to the laws. At the same time, that citizenship is and must be the panoply and safeguard of him who wears it, and protect him, whether high or low, rich or poor, in all his civil rights. It should and must afford him protection at home, and follow and protect him abroad, in whatever land he may be on a lawful errand.

The men who abandoned the Republican party in 1884 and continued to adhere to the Democratic party have deserted, not only the cause of honest government, of sound finance, of freedom and purity of the ballot, but especially have deserted the cause of reform in the Civil Service. We will not fail to keep our pledges because they have broken theirs, or because their candidate has broken his. We therefore repeat our declaration of 1884—to wit "The reform of the Civil Service, auspiciously begun under the Republican Administration, should be completed by the further extension of the reform system already established by law to all the grades of service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of the reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be repealed, to the end that the dangers to free institutions which lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectively avoided."

The gratitude of the Nation to the defenders of the Union cannot be measured by laws. The legislation of Congress should conform to the pledges made by a loyal people and be so enlarged and extended as to provide against the possibility that any man who honorably wore the Federal uniform shall become an inmate of an almshouse, or dependent upon private charity. In the presence of an overflowing Treasury it would be a public scandal to do less for those whose valorous service preserved the Government. We denounce the hostile spirit shown by President Cleveland in his numerous vetoes of measures for pension relief, and the action of the Democratic House of Representatives in refusing even a consideration of general pension legislation.

In support of the principles herewith enunciated, we invite the co-operation of patriotic men of all parties, and especially of all workingmen, whose prosperity is seriously threatened by the free-trade policy of the present Administration.

THE DEMOCRATIC—St. Louis, June 7.

The Democratic party of the United States, in National Convention assembled, renews the pledge of its fidelity to Democratic faith and reaffirms the platform adopted by its representatives in the Convention of 1884, and indorses the views expressed by President Cleveland in his last annual message to Congress as the correct interpretation of that platform upon the question of tariff reduction; and also indorses the efforts of our Democratic Representatives in Congress to secure a reduction of excessive taxation.

Chief among its principles of party faith are the maintenance of an indissoluble Union of free and indestructible States, now about to enter upon its second century of unexampled progress and renown; devotion to a plan of government regulated by a written Constitution, strictly specifying every granted power and expressly reserving to the States or people the entire ungranted residue of power; the encouragement of a jealous popular vigilance directed to all who have been chosen for brief terms to enact and execute the laws, and are charged with the duty of preserving peace, ensuring equality and establishing justice.

The Democratic party welcome an exacting scrutiny of the administration of the Executive power which four years ago was committed to its trust in the election of Grover Cleveland, President of the United States; and it challenges the most searching inquiry concerning its fidelity and devotion to the pledges which then invited the suffrages of the people.

During a most critical period of our financial affairs, resulting from overtaxation, the anomalous condition of our currency, and a public debt unmatured, it has by the adoption of a wise and conservative course, not only averted disaster, but greatly promoted the prosperity of the people.

It has reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the Republican party touching the public domain, and has reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, and restored to the people, nearly one hundred millions of acres of valuable land to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens.

While carefully guarding the interest of the taxpayers and conforming strictly to the principles of justice and equity, it has paid out more for pensions and bounties to the soldiers and sailors of the Republic than was ever paid before during an equal period.

By intelligent management and a judicious and economical expenditure of the public money it has set on foot the reconstruction of the American Navy upon a system which forbids the recurrence of scandal and insures successful results.

It has adopted and consistently pursued a firm and prudent foreign policy, preserving peace with all nations while scrupulously maintaining all the rights and interests of our Government and people at home and abroad.

The exclusion from our shores of Chinese laborers has been effectually secured under the provisions of a treaty, the operation of which has been postponed by the action of a Republican majority in the Senate.

Honest reform in the Civil Service has been inaugurated and maintained by President Cleveland, and he has brought the public service to the highest standard of efficiency, not only by rule and precept, but by the example of his own untiring and unselfish administration of public affairs.

In every branch and department of the Government under Democratic control, the rights and welfare of all the people have been guarded and defended; every public interest has been protected, and the equality of all our citizens before the law, without regard to race or section, has been steadfastly maintained.

Upon its record thus exhibited and upon the pledge of a continuance to the people of the benefits of good government, the National Democracy invokes a renewal of popular trust by the re-election of a Chief Magistrate who has been faithful, able and prudent.

They invoke an addition to that trust by the transfer also to the Democracy of the entire legislative power.

The Republican party controlling the Senate and resisting in both Houses of Congress a reformation of unjust and unequal tax laws, which have outlasted the necessities of war and are now undermining the abundance of a long peace, deny to the people equality before the law and the fairness and the justice which are their right.

Thus the cry of American labor for a better share in the rewards of industry is stifled with false pretences; enterprise is fettered and bound down to home markets; capital is discouraged with doubt, and unequal, unjust laws can neither be properly amended nor repealed.

The Democratic party will continue, with all the power confided to it, the struggle to reform these laws in accordance with the pledges of its last platform indorsed at the ballot-box by the suffrages of the people.

Of all the industrious freemen of our land, an immense majority, including every tiller of the soil, gain no advantage from excessive tax laws; but the price of nearly everything they buy is increased by the favoritism of an unequal system of tax legislation.

All unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation.

It is repugnant to the creed of Democracy, that by such taxation the cost of the necessaries of life should be unjustifiably increased to all our people.

Judged by Democratic principles, the interests of the people are betrayed, when, by unnecessary taxation, trusts and combinations are permitted and fostered, which, while unduly enriching the few that combine, rob the body of our citizens by depriving them of the benefits of natural competition. Every Democratic rule of governmental action is violated when through unnecessary taxation a vast sum of money, far beyond the needs of an economical administration, is drawn from the people and the channels of trade, and accumulated as a demoralizing surplus in the National Treasury.

The money now lying idle in the Federal Treasury resulting from superfluous taxation amounts to more than $125,000,000, and the surplus collected is reaching the sum of more than $60,000,000 annually.

Debauched by this immense temptation the remedy of the Republican party is to meet and exhaust by extravagant appropriations and expenditures, whether constitutional or not, the accumulations of extravagant taxation.

The Democratic remedy is to enforce frugality in public expense and abolish needless taxation.

Our established domestic industries and enterprises should not, and need not, be endangered by a reduction and correction of the burdens of taxation. On the contrary, a fair and careful revision of our tax laws, with due allowance for the difference between the wages of American and foreign labor, must promote and encourage every branch of such industries and enterprises by giving them assurance of an extended market and steady and continuous operation.

In the interest of American labor, which should in no event be neglected, the revision of our tax laws contemplated by the Democratic party would promote the advantage of such labor by cheapening the cost of the necessaries of life in the home of every working man, and at the same time securing to him steady and remunerative employment.

Upon this great issue of tariff reform, so closely concerning every phase of our national life, and upon every question involved in the problem of good government, the Democratic party submits its principles and professions to the intelligent suffrages of the American people.

The following additional resolutions were adopted in Convention:

Resolved, That this Convention hereby indorses and recommends the early passage of the bill for the reduction of the revenue now pending in the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That a just and liberal policy should be pursued in reference to the Territories; that the right of self-government is inherent in the people and guaranteed under the Constitution; that the Territories of Washington, Dakota, Montana and New-Mexico are, by virtue of population and development, entitled to admission into the Union as States, and we unqualifiedly condemn the course of the Republican party in refusing Statehood and self-government to their people.

Resolved, That we express our cordial sympathy with the struggling people of all nations in their efforts to secure for themselves the inestimable blessing of self-government and civil and religious liberty, and we especially declare our sympathy with the efforts of those noble patriots who, led by Gladstone and Parnell, have conducted their grand and peaceful contest for Home Rule in Ireland.

THE UNION LABOR—Cincinnati, May 16.

[ALSON J. STREETER, Illinois, President; CHARLES E. CUNNINGHAM, Arkansas, Vice-President.]

The platform embodies the following among other points:

Opposition to land monopoly in every form. Forfeiture of unearned land grants. Limitation of land ownership. Homestead exemption to a limited extent from execution or taxation. Owning by the people of the means of communication and transportation. The circulating medium to be issued directly to the people and loaned upon land security at a low rate of interest. Postal savings banks. Free coinage of silver. Application of all money in the United States Treasury to the payment of the bonded debt. No further issue of interest-bearing bonds, either by the National Government, or by States, Territories or municipalities. Arbitration to take the place of strikes and other injurious methods of settling labor disputes. Service pension to every honorably discharged soldier and sailor of the United States. Graduated income tax. United States Senators elective by direct vote of the people. Absolute exclusion of Chinese. The right to vote inherent in citizenship irrespective of sex and properly within the province of State legislation.

THE PROHIBITION—Indianapolis, May 31.

[CLINTON B. FISK, N. J., President; JOHN A. BROOKS, Missouri, Vice-President.]

The platform contains these among other points:

Manufacture, importation, exportation, transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages to be made public crimes. Must be secured through amendments of National and State constitutions. Any form of license, taxation or regulation of the liquor traffic contrary to good government. Immediate abolition of the internal revenue system. Revenue should be raised by import duties and equitable assessment on property and legitimate business. Burdens of taxation should be removed from foods, clothing and other comforts and necessaries of life and imposed on such other articles of import as will give protection to the manufacturing employer and the producing laborers against the competition of the world. Civil service appointments based on moral, intellectual and physical qualifications. Right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color, sex or nationality, but should rest on such educational basis as the people of the various States may deem wise. Abolition of polygamy. Uniform laws governing marriage and divorce. Preservation and defence of the Sabbath. Arbitration as the method of settling National differences.

* Withdrawn.

The explanation of the fact that the Legislature of 1888 chose two U. S. Senators is that under the Constitution of the State of Louisiana the term of the Legislature is for four years, though its sessions are biennial. The late session was the first session of the Legislature last chosen prior to the expiration of the terms of the two Senators, and under the act of Congress it was competent for it to choose the two.

MISSISSIPPI.

1888, January 17—Hon. Edward C. Walthall was re-elected for six years from March 3, 1889. The vote was: Senate—Walthall 32. House—Walthall 104. The Republican Assemblymen, except two who were excused from voting, cast their votes for Mr. Walthall.

RHODE ISLAND.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

1888, December 12.—Hon. Matthew C. Butler was re-elected for six years from March 3, 1889. The vote was: Senate—Butler 23. House—Thomas E. Miller 3, Butler 121.

THE LIst CONGRESS.

THE SENATE.

The Republicans have a majority in the Legislature of Delaware, having last year lost the Legislature of Virginia. These two changes will leave the Senate stand as in the Lth Congress: Republicans 39, Democrats 37. This calculation assumes that the Democrats will hold the Legislature of West Virginia, which is close, but said to be Democratic by one vote.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—[Unofficial.]

Republicans (in Roman), 166; Democrats (in italics), 159. Total, 325; majority, 163. Representatives in the preceding House are marked with a *—204 in all. Representatives in a former House are marked with a †—15 in all. There are 106 new Representatives.

A Constitutional Amendment that no bill which does not apply to the whole State (except bills creating and regulating municipal corporations, and bills fixing the time of holding the courts and prescribing rules of procedure therein) shall be introduced into either house of the Legislature after the twentieth legislative day of the session, nor shall any such bill be considered or passed by either house after the thirty-fifth legislative day, nor shall any bill which applies to the whole State be amended by either house after the twentieth legislative day, so as to confine its operation to a part of the State, received at the August election, 49,451 votes to 19,822 against it, but failed because it did not receive a majority of all the voters who voted at the election at which it was submitted.

STATE OFFICERS CHOSEN, October, 1888.

Governor—J. B. Gordon (Dem) 121,999
Sec. of State—N. C. Barnett (Dem) 122,384
Compt. Gen.—W. A. Wright (Dem) 122,336
Treas'r—Rob. U. Hardeman (Dem) 123,034
Atty-Gen.—Clin'd Anderson (Dem) 120,503

A proposed Constitutional Amendment, to increase the number of Judges of the Supreme Court to five from three, was defeated—yeas, 37,638; nays, 46,720. Nearly half the electors who voted at that election failed to cast a ballot on this question.

A Constitutional Amendment adding to Act 4 this clause as Sec. 35: "Sec. 35. Any combination of persons, either as individuals or as members or officers of any corporation to monopolize the markets for food products in this State, or to interfere with or restrict the freedom of such markets, is hereby declared to be a criminal conspiracy, and shall be punished in such manner as the Legislature shall provide," was adopted—yeas, 104,932; nays, 13,064.

A Constitutional Amendment to add to Sec. 12 of Art. 1 these words: "Provided, however, that all property so exempted shall be liable to seizure and sale for any debts incurred to any person for work done or materials furnished in the construction, repair or improvement of the same. And, provided further, that such liability to seizure and sale shall also extend to all real property, for any debt incurred to any laborer or servant for labor or service performed." was adopted—yeas, 153,908; nays, 48,649.

A Constitutional Amendment changing the limit of legislative sessions from sixty days to ninety legislative days, new bills not to be introduced in the last twenty days, except on the written request of the Governor, except the attention of the Legislature shall be called to some matter of general interest by a special message of the Governor, was adopted—yeas, 150,003; nays, 52,946.

In April, 1888, what is known as the Bourn Amendment to the Constitution was voted on. It enfranchises every male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one, who has his residence and home in this State for two years, and in the town or city in which he may offer to vote six months next preceding the time of voting. It abolishes the property qualification for the voting for general officers. The vote was: Approve, 20,068; reject, 12,193; majority over the three-fifths of the total vote necessary for its adoption, 711.

* Unofficial. Streeter, U. L., 434; Fisk, Pro., 595. All the Constitutional Amendments were defeated. One was for Prohibition; another limited legislative sessions to sixty days except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; a third permitted a jury of six persons before a justice in common law suits involving $20 and more.

The Secretary of State has failed to furnish any figures on Representatives in Congress or any other office; but Governor Wilson has, before putting this page to press, issued certificates of election to the Democratic candidates in the 1st and IId Districts, and has issued no certificates for the other Districts, alleging that he could not legally do so. On the face of the returns as made by the local boards, the Republican candidates have a majority in the IIId and IVth Districts.

Fourteen Constitutional Amendments were approved, one rejected, and a revision of the Constitution was negatived—1,614 to 2,740.

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

ARKANSAS—The vote cast on License, September, 1888, was: For, 94,344; Against, 68,085. On calling a Constitutional Convention, the yeas were 41,952, nays, 98,680.

ILLINOIS—Under the new High License Act, the number of saloons has fallen from 13,000 to less than 9,000.

IOWA—The House of Representatives, by 66 to 25, adopted a Constitutional Amendment conferring upon women the right of suffrage in all State elections.

MASSACHUSETTS—A joint resolution for the submission to popular vote of a Prohibitory Amendment passed both houses (the Senate 23 to 8, the House 160 to 70), and will come before the Legislature in 1889. The minimum liquor license fee has been fixed at $1,000, and ale and beer license at $250. Laws also passed to restrict saloons to one for every 1,000 population; to forbid license for any dwelling house or place having interior communication with the dwelling or family of a tenement; to prohibit the sale of liquor on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, Decoration Day, and all election days; and to declare that all beverages containing 1 per cent of alcohol are intoxicating within the meaning of Massachusetts law. A bill granting license suffrage to women passed the House, 118 to 85, but was defeated in the Senate, 13 to 14. The House subsequently defeated the general Woman Suffrage bill, 86 to 107. The House defeated the resolution for the biennial election of State officers. At the school election in Boston in December, about 17,000 women voted. The "Australian" system of voting has been adopted. "License" carried in nineteen of the twenty-five cities of the State in December, 1888, as against fifteen in 1887. The total "license" vote rose from 77,001 to 89,655; the "anti-license" vote fell from 65,278 to 58,443.

MARYLAND—A Prohibitory Amendment passed the Senate, with but six negative votes, but was reported unfavorably by the House Committee, and no action was taken on the report.

MISSISSIPPI — A Constitutional Amendment limiting the Governor's term to four years, without the right of succession, passed the Legislature. The Governor vetoed, in January, a call for a Constitutional Convention.

MICHIGAN—The recent "Local Option" law was, in May, declared, by the Supreme Court, unconstitutional, on the ground that it embraces more than one object, which its title does not indicate.

* Vote of highest Elector on each ticket. Blank, 1,137; defective, 666; scattering, 811. The "United Labor" vote was cast for two Electors-at-Large, their district electors being the Republican district electors. For this cause the Republican candidates for Electors-at-Large received, by about 1,500, less votes than the Republican district electors.

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

MISSOURI—Under the Local Option and High License act the saloons have fallen from 3,601 to 2,880.

NEW-JERSEY—A County Option and High License bill passed both houses, was vetoed by Governor Green, and repassed: House, 34 to 24; Senate, 13 to 8. The Court of Errors and Appeals, by 8 to 7, maintained the constitutionality of the Local Option clauses and unanimously the High License clauses of the act. The act provides that the question of license shall be submitted to the voters in each county upon the petition of one-tenth of the voters, and that, after a special election, if license shall win, the fees shall be fixed at about twice the present figures in cities, towns and townships. The new Election law requires the closing of the polls at sunset, and personal registration in Newark and Jersey City.

NEW-YORK—A High License bill passed the Assembly, 66 to 61, the Senate, 17 to 15; was vetoed by Governor Hill.

A County "Local Option" bill was lost in the Assembly, 61 to 53. A bill to submit to popular vote a Constitutional Amendment that no person shall manufacture for sale, or sell, or keep for sale as a beverage, any intoxicating liquors, whether fermented or distilled, and that the Legislature shall enact laws for the enforcement of this prohibition by appropriate legislation and penalties, passed the Assembly April 12, 1888—yeas, 68; nays, 51; affirmative all Republicans but one, negative all Democrats but one. It passed the Senate—yeas, 18 (Republican); nays, 10 (Democrats). This amendment must pass the Senate to be chosen in 1889, and the Assembly to be then chosen, before being submitted to popular vote. The sale of intoxicating liquors at county fairs is prohibited. A bill "to secure more fully the independence of electors and the secrecy of the ballot" was vetoed by Governor Hill. In the Assembly, March 22, a bill to permit liquor-saloons to be open Sunday afternoons received 37 votes, with 77 against it.

OHIO—The Dow Liquor law was amended, increasing the yearly tax on saloons to $250. Heretofore the tax has been $100 for beer and wine, and $200 for the sale of all liquors.

PENNSYLVANIA—Under the High License Act, applications for license have fallen from 14,553 in 1887, to 11,590 in 1888. Of the latter, only 7,724 were granted, yielding a revenue of $1,835,963. In nine counties no licenses were granted.

VERMONT—November 15, the Woman Suffrage bill was defeated in the House—

The Election Returns

Include detailed results in every State which voted in 1889. Those for the new States are particularly interesting. In all cases the vote given is by counties on the chief officer voted for, and by aggregates on the others. The complexion of each branch of each Legislature is also given, in comparison with the result of the last preceding election. In addition to this record will be found the votes, by counties, in the various States to which the Prohibitory Amendment was submitted.

In NEW-JERSEY and NEW-YORK the votes are given with exceptional thoroughness of detail—covering the Senatorial and Assembly elections and the votes on an important State office as well by wards and towns as by counties, in comparison with the like votes taken at the last previous corresponding period. The local votes in the cities of Brooklyn and New-York are stated in full.

The "POLITICAL MISCELLANY" is a record of the important political action taken during 1889 in each of the States of the Union.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1890 there will be three Eclipses, two of the Sun and one of the Moon, and a Lunar Appulse.

I.—A Lunar Appulse, June 3. The nearest approach to the Earth's shadow occurs at 1 h. 45 min. a. m., New-York standard time; but owing to the uncertainty as to the effect of atmospheric conditions, it is doubtful whether the Moon will enter the shadow of the Earth or not.

II.—An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, June 17, invisible here, the path of the annular phase passing over Northern Africa and Southeastern Asia.

III.—A Partial Eclipse of the Moon, November 26, invisible here.

IV.—A Central Eclipse of the Sun, invisible in this country. The peculiarity of this Eclipse is that it will be annular at the beginning and end, and total in the central part of its path. The line of greatest obscuration starts north of the Mauritius, and passes through the Indian and Southern Oceans to the south of Australia and New-Zealand.

MORNING STARS.

Venus, until February 18, and after December 3.
Mars, until February 9.
Jupiter, from January 10 to May 1.
Saturn, from August 30 to December 8.

EVENING STARS.

Venus, from February 18 to December 3.
Mars, after February 9.
Jupiter, until January 10 and after May 1.
Saturn, until August 30 and after December 8.

PLANETS BRIGHTEST.

Mercury, January 10, May 3, August 1, and December 25, setting after the sun; also, February 26, June 26, and October 18, rising before the Sun.
Venus, October 29.
Mars, May 27.
Jupiter, July 30.
Saturn, February 18.
Uranus, April 14.

PLANETARY CONJUNCTIONS.

January 10, Jupiter and Sun.
January 19, Venus and Jupiter.
January 29, Mercury and Sun (inf.)
February 18, Venus and Sun (sup.)
April 9, Mercury and Sun (sup.)
April 25, Venus and Mercury.
May 3, Mercury and Neptune.
May 5, Venus and Neptune.
May 10, Venus and Mercury.
May 25, Neptune and Sun.
May 30, Mercury and Sun (inf.)
June 10, Mercury and Neptune.
July 17, Venus and Saturn.
July 22, Mercury and Sun (sup.)
August 9, Mercury and Saturn.
August 30, Saturn and Sun.
September 2, Venus and Uranus.
September 29, Mercury and Sun (inf.)
October 20, Uranus and Sun.
October 31, Mercury and Uranus.
November 13, Mars and Jupiter.
November 16, Mercury and Sun (sup.)
November 29, Venus and Mercury.
December 3, Venus and Sun (inf.)

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

[December 3, 1888—March 3, 1889.]

AGRICULTURE, SECRETARY OF.

Chapter 122.—Makes the Department of Agriculture an Executive Department, under the supervision and control of a Secretary of Agriculture, appointed by the President, by and with the consent of the Senate.—(Approved February 9, 1889.

ALASKA, SALMON FISHERIES OF.

Chap. 415.—Enacts that the erection of dams, barricades or other obstructions in any of the rivers of Alaska, with the purpose or result of preventing or impeding the ascent of salmon or other anadromous species to their spawning grounds, is declared to be unlawful, and the Secretary of the Treasury is directed to establish such regulations and surveillance as may be necessary to insure that this prohibition is strictly enforced and otherwise to protect the salmon fisheries of Alaska; and every person who shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than $250 for each day of the continuance of such obstruction.

That section 1,956 of the Revised Statutes is hereby declared to include and apply to all the dominion of the United States in the waters of Behring Sea; and it shall be the duty of the President, at a timely season in each year, to issue his proclamation and cause the same to be published for one month in at least one newspaper, if any such there be published, at each United States port of entry on the Pacific Coast, warning all persons against entering said waters for the purpose of violating the provisions of said section; and he shall also cause one or more vessels of the United States diligently to cruise said waters and arrest all persons, and seize all vessels found to be, or to have been, engaged in any violation of the laws of the United States therein.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

BRIDGES

were authorized at Kalamazoo, Mich.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Omaha, Neb.; Sedalia, Mo.; Fort Worth, Tex.; New-Berne, N. C. Additional appropriations were authorized for the buildings at San Francisco, Detroit and Winona.

CENSUS.

Chap. 319.—Provides for taking the eleventh and subsequent censuses. A superintendent is provided, salary $6,000 a year, with chief, disbursing and sundry other clerks. Not more than 175 supervisors of census shall be appointed on or before March 1, 1890. Each supervisor shall propose to the superintendent the proper subdivisons of his district and designate suitable enumerators, one for each subdivision, a resident therein, who shall be selected solely with reference to fitness, and without reference to his political party affiliations, preference to be given in all cases to properly qualified persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the United States, resident in their respective districts. Said supervisor shall supervise the taking of the census, scrutinize the returns of the enumerators, and attend to sundry duties specifically described. Each supervisor shall, on completion of his duties, receive $125, and $1 or $1 40 for each thousand or majority fraction of a thousand of the population enumerated, according to the degree of density of population—no supervisor, however, to receive less than $500 for services and expenses, except that an allowance for clerk-hire may be made in the discretion of the superintendent of the census.

Each numerator shall be paid an allowance of two cents for each living inhabitant, two cents for each death reported, fifteen cents for each farm, and twenty cents for each establishment of productive industry enumerated and returned, and five cents for each surviving soldier, sailor or marine, or widow of such soldier, sailor or maine returned. Where the superintendent regards these allowances insufficient, he is authorized to fix other rates according to the difficulty of enumeration, having refer-nce to the nature of the region, the ensity or sparseness of settlement, or ther considerations pertinent thereto, nder certain limitation prescribed. The ubdivision of each enumerator shall not xceed 4,000 inhabitants.

The schedules of inquiries shall be he same as at the preceding census, with uch changes of the subject-matter, enuerations and modifications as may be pproved by the Secretary of the Interior, ut the names, organizations and length f service of those who had served in he Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the nited States in the war of the Rebelion, and who are survivors at the time f said inquiry, and the widows of oldiers, sailors or marines shall be aken on a special schedule, and the opulation schedule shall include an inquiry as to the number of negroes, ulattoes, quadroons and octoroons.

Experts and special agents may be employed to ascertain the statistics of the manufacturing, railroad, fishing, mining, attle and other industries of the country, nd of telegraph, express, transportation nd insurance companies, at an expense ot exceeding $6 per day for each expert nd necessary travelling expenses.

The enumerations shall begin June 1, 890, and be taken as of that date. The eturns of the enumerators shall be forarded to the supervisors on or before uly 1, 1890. In cities of over 10,000 nder the last census, the enumeration hall be taken within two weeks from une 1.—(Approved March 1, 1889.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY, DEALERS IN.

Chap. 393.—Amends Section 5,480 of evised Statutes so as to read as follows: If any person having devised or intending to devise any scheme or artifice to defraud, or to sell, dispose of, loan, exchange, alter, give away, or distribute, supply, or furnish, or procure for unlawful use any counterfeit or spurious coin, bank notes, paper money, or any obligation or security of the United States or of any State, Territory, municipality, company, corporation, or person, or anything represented to be or intimated or held out to be such counterfeit or spurious articles, or any scheme or artifice to obtain money by or through correspondence, by what is commonly called the 'sawdust swindle,' or 'counterfeit money fraud,' or by dealing or pretending to deal in what is commonly called 'green articles' 'green coin,' 'bills,' 'paper goods,' 'spurious Treasury notes,' 'United States goods,' 'green cigars,' or any other names or terms intended to be understood as relating to such counterfeit or spurious articles, to be effected by either opening or intending to open correspondence or communication with any person, whether resident within or outside the United States, by means of the postoffice establishment of the United States, or by inciting such other person or any person to open communication with the person so devising or intending, shall, in and for executing such scheme or artifice or attempting so to do, place or cause to be placed, any letter, packet, writing, circular, pamphlet, or advertisement in any postoffice, branch postoffice, or street or hotel letter-box of the United States, to be sent or delivered by the said postoffice establishment, or shall take or receive any such therefrom, such person so misusing the postoffice establishment shall, upon conviction, be punishable by a fine of not more than $500 and by imprisonment for not more than eighteen months, or by both such punishments, at the discretion of the court. The indictment, information, or complaint may severally charge offences to the number of three when committed within the same six calendar months; but the court thereupon shall give a single sentence, and shall proportion the punishment especially to the degree in which the abuse of the postoffice establishment enters as an instrument into such fraudulent scheme and device." Other sections declare non-mailable all matter the deposit of which in the mails is by this act made punishable, and empower the Postmaster-General to require identification of persons addressed before delivering the matter to them, etc. —(Approved March 2, 1889.

CUSTOMS LEGISLATION.

Columbus, Ohio, and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., were granted the privileges of inland transportation in bond, and a surveyor at a salary of $900 a year and usual fees authorized at the former.

INDIANS.

Chap. 24.—Is an act for the relief and civilization of the Chippewa Indians in Minnesota.—(Approved January 14, 1889.

Chap. 203.—Is an act to ratify the agreement of the Shoshones, Bannocks and Sheepeaters of the Fort Hall and Lemhi Reservation, Idaho.—(Approved February 23, 1889.

Chap. 317.—Is an act to ratify an agreement with the Muscogee (or Creek) Nation of Indians, in the Indian Territory.—(Approved March 1, 1889.

Chap. 321.—Is an act to provide for settlement of titles to lands claimed by or under the Black Bob band of Shawnee Indians, in Kansas, or a deed thereto.—(Approved March 1, 1889.

Chap. 172.—Authorizes the President from year to year, in his discretion, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to authorize the Indians residing on reservations or allotments, the fee to which remains in the United States, to fell, cut, remove, sell or otherwise dispose of the dead timber, standing or fallen, on such reservation or allotment, for the sole benefit of such Indian or Indians. But whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that such timber has been killed, burned, girdled or otherwise injured for the purpose of securing its sale under this act, then in that case such authority shall not be granted.—(Approved February 16, 1889.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

Chap. 382.—Provides amendments to Sections 6, 10, 12, 14, 16, 17, 18, 21 and 22 of the original act of February 4, 1887, and contains this new section:

That the circuit and district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction upon the relation of any person or persons, firm, or corporation, alleging such violation by a common carrier, of any of the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement and all acts amendatory thereof, as prevents the relator from having interstate traffic moved by said common carrier at the same rates as are charged, or upon terms or conditions as favorable as those given by said common carrier, for like traffic under similar conditions to any other shipper, to issue a writ or writs of mandamus against said common carrier, commanding such common carrier to move and transport the traffic, or to furnish cars or other facilities for transportation for the party applying for the writ: Provided, That if any question of fact as to the proper compensation to the common carrier for the service to be enforced by the writ is raised by the pleadings, the writ of peremptory mandamus may issue, notwithstanding such question of fact is undetermined, upon such terms as to security, payment of money into the court, or otherwise, as the court may think proper, pending the determination of the question of fact: Provided, That the remedy hereby given by writ of mandamus shall be cumulative, and shall not be held to exclude or interfere with other remedies provided by this act or the act to which it is a supplement.

To Section 6 additions are made requiring any common carrier subject to the act receiving freight in the United States to be carried through a foreign country to any place in the United States, to print and keep open for public inspection, at every depot or office where such freight is received for shipment, schedules showing the through rates charged. Freight shipped in violation of this provision shall be subject to customs duties, as if a foreign production. Reductions in published rates by any common carrier shall be made only after three days' previous public notice, to be given in the same manner as a notice of advance of rates. These new provisions are added:

"Every common carrier subject to the provisions of this act shall file with the Commission copies of its schedules of rates, fares, and charges which have been established and published in compliance with the requirements of this section, and shall promptly notify said Commission of all changes made in the same. Every such common carrier shall also file with said Commission copies of all contracts, agreements, or arrangements with other common carriers in relation to any traffic affected by the provisions of this act to which it may be a party. And in cases where passengers and freight pass over continuous lines or routes operated by more than one common carrier, and the several common carriers operating such lines or routes establish joint tariffs of rates or fares or charges for such continuous lines or routes, copies of such joint tariffs shall also, in like manner, be filed with said Commission. Such joint rates, fares, and charges on such continuous lines so filed as aforesaid shall be made public by such common carriers when directed by said Commission, in so far as may, in the judgment of the Commission, be deemed practicable; and said Commission shall from time to time prescribe the measure of publicity which shall be given to such rates, fares and charges, or to such part of them as it may deem it practicable for such common carrier to publish, and the places in which they shall be published.

"No advance shall be made in joint rates, fares and charges, shown upon joint tariffs, except after ten days' notice to the Commission, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force, and the time when the increased rates, fares or charges will go into effect. No reduction shall be made in joint rates, fares and charges, except after three days' notice, above provided in the case of an advance to be given to the Commission as is of joint rates. The Commission may make public such proposed advances, or such reductions, in such manner as may, in its judgment, be deemed practicable, and may prescribe from time to time the measure of publicity which common carriers shall give to advances or reductions in joint tariffs.

"It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, party to any joint tariff, to charge, demand, collect or receive from any person or persons a greater or less compensation for the transportation of persons or property, or for any services in connection therewith, between any points as to which a joint rate, fare or charge is named thereon than is specified in the schedule filed with the Commission in force at the time.

"The Commission may determine and prescribe the form in which the schedules required by this section to be kept open to public inspection shall be prepared and arranged, and may change the form from time to time as shall be found expedient."

Sundry other minor changes are made.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

NAVAL.

Chap. 396.—Enacts that after March 4, 1889, the minimum age of admission of cadets to the academy shall be fifteen years and the maximum age twenty years.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

Chap. 331.—Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to furnish as a bounty to the enlistment of boys as apprentices in the Navy, an outfit of clothing not to exceed in value $45.—(Approved March 1, 1889.

Chap. 119.—Provides that any enlisted man or appointed petty officer of the Navy may deposit his savings, in sums not less than five dollars, with the paymaster upon whose books his account is borne; and he shall be furnished with a deposit-book, in which the said paymaster shall note, over his signature, the amount, date and place of such deposit. The money so deposited shall be accounted for in the same manner as other public funds, shall not be permitted to be paid until final payment on discharge, or to the heirs or representatives of a deceased sailor, and shall be exempt from liability for such sailor's debts: Provided, That the Government shall be liable for the amount deposited to the person so depositing the same.

That for any sums not less than five dollars so deposited for the period of six months or longer, the sailor, on his final discharge, shall be paid interest at the rate of 4 per centum per annum.—(Approved February 9, 1889.

NAVAL ESTABLISHMENT.

Chap. 871.—Appropriates $1,000,000 for the construction of one armored steel cruising monitor of not less than 3,000 tons displacement, of the type recommended by the Naval Board of 1889, to be approved by the Secretary of the Navy; $450,000 for the construction by the Pneumatic Dynamite Gun Company of one additional cruiser of the Vesuvius type, of not less dimensions than that vessel; $700,000 for the construction by contract of two steel cruisers or gunboats of the most approved type of 800 to 1,200 tons displacement. One ram for harbor defence of the general type of 1871 of highest practicable speed is also authorized, all said vessels to be of domestic manufacture.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

PENSIONS.

Chap. 890.—Enacts that the charge of desertion now standing on the rolls and records in the office of the Adjutant-General against any soldier who served in the late war in the volunteer service shall be removed in all cases where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, from such rolls and records, or from other satisfactory testimony, that such soldier served faithfully until the expiration of his term of enlistment, or until the 1st day of May, 1865, having previously served six months or more, and, by reason of his absence from his command at the time the same was mustered out, failed to be mustered out and to receive an honorable discharge, or that such soldier absented himself from his command, or from hospital while suffering from wounds, injuries, or disease received or contracted in the line of duty and was prevented from completing his term of enlistment by reason of such wounds, injuries, or disease.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to remove the charge of desertion from the record of any regular or volunteer soldier in the late war upon proper application therefor, and satisfactory proof in the following cases:

First. That such soldier, after such charge of desertion was made, and within a reasonable time thereafter, voluntarily returned to his command and served faithfully to the end of his term of service, or until discharged.

Second. That such soldier absented himself from his command or from hospital while suffering from wounds, injuries, or disease, received or contracted in the line of duty, and upon recovery voluntarily returned to his command and served faithfully thereafter, or died from such wounds, injuries, or disease while so absent, and before the date of muster out of his command, or expiration of his term of service, or was prevented from so returning by reason of such wounds, injuries, or diseases before such muster out, or expiration of service.

Third. That such soldier was a minor, and was enlisted without the consent of his parent or guardian, and was released or discharged from such service by the order or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction on habeas corpus or other proper judicial proceedings; and in any such case, no pay, allowance, bounty, or pension shall be allowed or granted.

Sec. 3. That the charge of desert on now standing on the rolls and records in the office of the Adjutant-General against any regular or volunteer soldier who served in the late War of the Rebellion by reason of his having enlisted in any regiment, troop, or company, or in the United States Navy or Marine Corps, without having first received a discharge from the regiment, troop or company in which he had previously served, shall be removed in all cases wherein it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, from such rolls and records, or from other satisfactory testimony, that such re-enlistment was not made for the purpose of securing bounty or other gratuity that he would not have been entitled to had he remained under his original term of enlistment; that the absence from the service did not exceed four months, and that such soldier served faithfully under his re-enlistment.

Sec. 4. That whenever it shall appear from the official records in the office of the Adjutant-General that any regular or volunteer soldier of the late war was formally restored to duty from desertion by the commander competent to order his trial for the offence, or, having deserted and being charged with desertion, was, on return to the service, suffered, without such formal restoration, to resume his place in the ranks of his command, serving faithfully thereafter until the expiration of his term, such soldier shall not be deemed to rest under any disability, because of such desertion, in the prosecution of any claim for pension on account of disease contracted, or wounds or injuries received in the line of his duty as a soldier.

Sec. 5. That when the charge of desertion shall be removed under the provisions of this act from the record of any soldier, such soldier, or, in case of his death, the heirs or legal representatives of such soldier, shall receive the pay and bounty due to such soldier: Provided, however, That this act shall not be so construed as to give to any such soldier, or, in case of his death, to the heirs or legal representatives of any such soldier, any pay, bounty or allowance for any time during which such soldier was absent from his command without proper authority, nor shall it be so construed as to give any pay, bounty, or allowance to any soldier, his heirs or legal representatives, who served in the army for a period less than six months.

Sec. 6. That the Secretary of War be and he hereby is authorized and directed to amend the military record of any soldier who enlisted for the war with Mexico, upon proper application, where the rolls and records of the Adjutant-General's office show the charge of desertion against him, when such rolls and records show the facts set out in the following cases:

First. That said soldier served faithfully the full term of his enlistment, or having served faithfully for six months or more, and until the 4th day of July, 1848, left his command without having received a discharge.

Second. That such soldier, after said charge of desertion, was entered on the rolls, voluntarily returned to his command within a reasonable time and served faithfully until discharged,

Sec. 7. That the provisions of this act shall not be so construed as to relieve any soldier from the charge of desertion who left his command from disaffection or disloyalty to the Government, or to evade the dangers and hardships of the service, or whilst in the presence of the enemy (not being sick or wounded), or while in arrest or under charges for breach of military duty, or in case of a soldier of the Mexican War, who did not actually reach the seat of war.

Sec. 8. That when such charge of desertion is removed under the provisions of this act, the soldier shall be restored to a status of honorable service, his military record shall be corrected as the facts may require, and an honorable discharge shall be issued in those cases where the soldier has received none; and he shall be restored to all his rights as to pension, pay or allowances as if the charge of desertion had never been made; and in case of the death of said soldier, his widow or other legal heir shall be entitled to the same rights as in case of other deceased honorably discharged soldiers: Provided, That this act shall not be construed to give to any soldier, or his legal representatives or heir, any pay or allowance for any period of time he was absent without leave, and not in the performance of military duty.

Sec. 9. That all applications for relief under this act shall be made to and filed with the Secretary of War within the period of three years from and after July 1, 1889, and all applications not so made and filed within said term of three years shall be forever barred, and shall not be received or considered.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

Chap. 132.—Provides that from and after the passage of this act all persons who, in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty, have lost both hands, shall be entitled to a pension of $100 a month.—(Approved February 12, 1889.

POSTOFFICE.

Chap. 50.—Provides that the omission by the sender to place the lawful postage upon a letter bearing special delivery stamp and otherwise entitled to immediate delivery, shall not hinder or delay the transmission and delivery thereof as provided herein, but such lawful postage shall be collected upon its delivery, in the manner now provided by law for the collection of deficient postage resulting from the overweight of letters.—(Approved January 16, 1889.

Chap. 100.—Authorizes the Postmaster-General to conclude arrangements with the post departments of foreign governments with which postal connections have been or may be concluded, to increase the maximum amount of international money orders from fifty to one hundred dollars.—(Approved January 30, 1889.

PUBLIC LANDS.

Chap. 381.—Enacts that from and after the passage of this act no public lands of the United States, except those in the State of Missouri, shall be subject to private entry.

That any person who has not heretofore perfected title to a tract of land of which he has made entry under the homestead law, may make a homestead entry of not exceeding one-quarter section of public land subject to such entry, such previous filing or entry to the contrary notwithstanding; but this right shall not apply to persons who perfect title to lands under the pre-emption or homestead laws already initiated: Provided, That all pre-emption settlers upon the public lands whose claims have been initiated prior to the passage of this act may change such entries to homestead entries and proceed to perfect their titles to their respective claims under the homestead law notwithstanding they may have heretofore had the benefit of such law, but such settlers who perfect title to such claims under the homestead law shall not thereafter be entitled to enter other lands under the pre-emption or homestead laws of the United States.

There are other minor provisions of little general interest.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

Chap. 377.—Makes it the duty of the Attorney-General of the United States with six months to cause suits to be brought in the United States Circuit Court for Oregon against parties having an interest in the lands granted to Oregon by the acts of July 2, 1864, July 5, 1866, and February 25, 1867, granting lands, and in the construction of certain military roads, to determine the questions of the seasonable and proper completion of said roads in accordance with the terms of the granting acts, either in whole or in part, the legal effect of the several certificates of the Governors of the State of Oregon of the completion of said roads, and the right of resumption of such granted lands by the United States, and to obtain judgments, which the court is hereby authorized to render, declaring forfeited to the United States all of such lands as are coterminous with the part or parts of either of said wagon-roads which were not constructed in accordance with requirements of the granting acts, and setting aside patents which have issued for any such lands, saving and preserving the rights of all bona fide purchasers of either of said grants or of any portion of said grants for a valuable consideration, if any such there be.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

Chap. 414.—Forfeits to the United States all lands granted in the act of June 3, 1856, to Michigan, which are opposite to and coterminous with the completed portion of any railroad, to aid in the construction of which said lands were granted or applied, and all such lands are hereby declared to be a part of the public domain: Provided, That this act shall not be construed as forfeiting the right of way or depot grounds of any railroad company heretofore granted.

That all persons who may have settled upon and are now in possession of any of the lands hereby forfeited, and who may desire to enter the same under the homestead law, shall be allowed, when making final proof, for the time they have already resided upon and cultivated the same.—(Approved March 2, 1889.

RIGHTS OF WAY GRANTED TO RAILROAD COMPANIES.

The Moorhead, Leech Lake and Northern, through the White Earth Indian Reservation in Minnesota, from Moorhead to Duluth. The Pensacola and Memphis, through the Naval Reservation, near Pensacola, Florida. The Big Horn Southern, through a part of the Crow Indian Reservation in Montana, beginning in Yellowstone County, to or near the mouth of Owl Creek. The Yankton and Missouri Valley, through the Yankton Indian Reservation, in Dakota. The Big Horn Southern, across the Fort Custer Military Reservation, Montana. The St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba, through the White Earth Indian Reservation, Minnesota. The Fort Smith, Paris and Dardanelle, from Fort Smith through the Indian Territory to or near Baxter Springs, Kansas. The Forest City and Watertown, through the Sioux Indian Reservation, Dakota. The Omaha, Dodge City and Southern, through the Fort Hays Military Reservation. The Duluth and Winnipeg, through the Leech Lake and White Earth Indian Reservation, Minnesota.

TERRITORIES BECOME STATES.

Chap. 180.—Provides the method by which that part of the area of the United States now constituting the Territories of Dakota, Montana and Washington may become the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana and Washington. Dakota shall be divided on the line of the seventh standard parallel produced due west to the western boundary of the Territory—the territory north of that line to be North Dakota, the territory south of it South Dakota.

The Governor, Chief-Justice and Secretary of each territory are to apportion the territory into proper districts for the election of delegates to conventions—each district to have three delegates and each elector to vote for not more than two. The elections for delegates—seventy-five in number—to be held the second Monday in May, 1889. In South Dakota, at said election, they shall vote "for" and "against" the Sioux Falls Constitution. If a majority vote "for" it, the convention shall re-submit to the people of South Dakota the constitution passed at Sioux Falls and adopted November 8, 1885, with the articles then separately submitted, and with such changes only as relate to the name and boundary of the proposed State, to the reapportionment of the judicial and legislative districts, and such amendments as may be necessary in order to comply with the provisions of this act. If a majority of the votes cast on ratification or rejection of the Constitution shall be for the constitution irrespective of the articles separately submitted, the State of South Dakota shall be admitted as a State in the Union under said constitution, as hereinafter provided. If at the election for delegates to a convention, the majority should be "against" the Sioux Falls constitution, the convention, which shall meet July 4, 1889, shall proceed to form a constitution the same as if that question had not been submitted.

The election on the adoption of all the constitutions shall be held on the first Tuesday in October. The returns shall be made to the Secretary of each Territory, who, with the Governor and Chief Justice, or any two, shall canvass the same, and, if a majority of the legal votes cast be for the constitution, the Governor shall certify the result to the President of the United States. And if the constitutions and governments of the said proposed States are republican in form, and if all the provisions of this act have been complied with in the formation thereof, it shall be the duty of the President to issue his proclamation announcing the result of the election in each, and thereupon the proposed States which have adopted constitutions and formed State governments, as herein provided, shall be deemed admitted by Congress into the Union under and by virtue of this act, on an equal footing with the original States from and after the date of said proclamation.

South Dakota is declared entitled to two Representatives, each of the others to one, and Representatives to the LIst Congress may be elected on the day of the election for the ratification of the constitution. The constitutional conventions may, by ordinance, provide for the election of officers for full State governments, including members of the Legislatures and Representatives in the LIst Congress; but said State governments shall remain in abeyance until the States shall be admitted into the Union, respectively, as provided in this act. In case the constitution of any of said proposed States shall be ratified by the people, but not otherwise, the Legislature thereof may assemble, organize, and elect two Senators of the United States; and the Governor and Secretary of State of such proposed State shall certify the election of the Senators and Representatives in the manner required by law; and when such State is admitted into the Union, the Senators and Representatives shall be entitled to be admitted to seats in Congress, and to all the rights and privileges of Senators and Representatives of other States in the Congress of the United States; and the officers of the State governments formed in pursuance of said constitutions, as provided by the constitutional conventions, shall proceed to exercise all the functions of such State officers; and all laws in force made by said Territories, at the time of their admission into the Union, shall be in force in said States, except as modified or changed by this act or by the constitutions of the States, respectively.

The act also provides that the constitutions shall be republican in form, and make no distinction in civil or political rights on account of race or color, except as to Indians not taxed, and not be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence. And said conventions shall provide, by ordinances irrevocable without the consent of the United States and the people of said States.

First. That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured, and that no inhabitant of said States shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship.

Second. That the people inhabiting said proposed States do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries thereof, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the Congress of the United States; that the lands belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the said States shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands belonging to residents thereof; that no taxes shall be imposed by the States on lands or property therein belonging to or which may hereafter be purchased by the United States or reserved for its use. But nothing herein, or in the ordinances herein provided for, shall preclude the said States from taxing as other lands are taxed any lands owned or held by any Indian who has severed his tribal relations, and has obtained from the United States or from any person a title thereto by patent or other grant, save and except such lands as have been or may be granted to any Indian or Indians under any act of Congress containing a provision exempting the lands thus granted from taxation; but said ordinances shall provide that all such lands shall be exempt from taxation by said States so long and to such extent as such act of Congress may prescribe.

Third. That the debts and liabilities of said Territories shall be assumed and paid by said States, respectively.

Fourth. That provision shall be made for the establishment and maintenance of systems of public schools, which shall be open to all the children of said States, and free from sectarian control.

Approved February 22, 1889.

IOWA REPUBLICAN, AUG. 15.

The Republican Party of Iowa favor a liberal construction of the pension laws and such further legislation as will secure to the old soldier his just dues from a Government he has faithfully served and which he has enriched by his sacrifice.

That we demand of Congress the protection of American industry when it does not foster trusts or trade conspiracies, and we demand the same protection for farm products that is given to the products of the labor of other classes.

That we reaffirm the principle and policy of State railway regulation. We favor maintaining equality among all localities and individuals, and we oppose the granting of favor to one class of citizens denied the others, and should experience demonstrate the necessity, we favor such changes in the law as should be made in the interests of right and justice to all. We urge upon Congress the absolute prevention of rebates and discriminations on railways that foster monopolies and prevent competition.

That it is the duty of the State and Federal Governments to enact and execute laws to punish trade conspiracies, trusts and combines designed to limit the production of the necessaries of life, unnaturally disturb, raise prices and interfere with the natural course of trade, and which injuriously divert trade and traffic from the cities and towns of Iowa to commercial centres outside of our borders.

That we reaffirm the past utterances of the Republican party of Iowa upon prohibition, which has become the settled policy of the State and upon which there should be no backward step. We stand for the complete enforcement of the law.

That we deplore the loss of life on our railways and the dangers attending so many of our citizens engaged in railway employment, and we urge upon the Legislature to take such practical steps as will secure all possible protection to this class of our people.

That we favor the establishment of courts of arbitration for the settlement of differences between corporations and organized labor.

IOWA DEMOCRATIC.

We renew our opposition to the unconstitutional and unjust policy of high tariff taxation, which robs the many to enrich the few, makes the producer the slave of the manufacturer, lays its heaviest burdens on the farmer, the mechanic and the day laborer, gives no returns through any channel to those whom they daily rob, and fosters all trusts which are the legitimate results of our present tariff system, and we denounce the fallacy of the Republican State platform of Iowa that a high tariff is or can be any protection to the farmer.

We favor the Australian system of voting, to the end that we may have an honest ballot uncontrolled by bribery or employers.

We recognize the doctrine of State and National regulation of railroads and other corporations, and approve the same as an efficient means of protecting the people against unjust discrimination and oppressive rates.

In the interest of true temperance we demand the passage of a carefully guarded license tax law which shall provide for the issuance of licenses in towns, townships and municipal corporations of the State by vote of the people of such corporations, and which shall provide that for each license an annual tax of $500 be paid into the county treasury, and such further tax as the town, township or municipal corporation shall prescribe, the proceeds thereof to go to the use of such municipalities.

We also arraign the Republican party for changing the pharmacy laws of the State, by which a great hardship and gross indignity has been imposed on honorable pharmacists and upon all the people requiring liquor for the actual necessities of medicine.

While we demand that all honorably discharged Union soldiers who were injured in the line of duty, or who are unable by reason of age or other infirmities to support themselves and their families, shall receive liberal pensions and the special care of the Government, we denounce as an insult to every brave soldier and as making the pension roll a roll of dishonor, the decision of the present National Administration that "the dishonorable discharge of a soldier from the service of the United States is no bar to a pension."

IOWA UNION LABOR, SEPT. 5.

The platform favors the election of United States Senators by the people; paying the National debt face value; loaning money to farmers by the Government at low rate of interest; Government operation of railroad and telegraph; income tax; Australian ballot system, and the reclamation of unearned land-grant claims.

MARYLAND REPUBLICAN, OCT. 1.

While we acknowledge gladly that the great bulk of our Democratic fellow-citizens desire, as we do, just registration laws and fair elections, we deny that their party leaders share this desire, or purpose voluntarily to relinquish the unworthy practices to which they have so often owed their retention of power, and in proof of this denial we point to their refusal to permit the admirable bill prepared by Mr. James Alfred Pearce, of Kent County, to become a law at the last session of the General Assembly, and by their discreditable attempt (happily frustrated by public opinion) to substitute for it a statute which, under the pretence of reform, would have perpetuated and aggravated the worst evils of the previously existing system.

And we promise to make every effort to obtain from the next General Assembly the enactment of Mr. Pearce's law, with the addition of such features of the so-called Australian ballot system as may be found suited to our institutions and adapted to protect the purity of the elective franchise.

We recognize with pleasure the progress made by the colored race under the enjoyment of civil and political liberty and we favor guaranteeing, by appropriate legislation if necessary, the employment of colored teachers in all colored schools, when by so doing equal advantages in the way of education can be afforded, and we advocate a more ample provision for the education of the colored race; and we denounce the practice of the Democratic party in its systematic and persistent attempts to deprive the colored citizens of the right of franchise; its effort by groundless arrests and other modes of intimidation to deter them from the exercise of their rights as a violation of the spirit of the Constitution and an indication of a settled purpose to rob them of the most cherished privilege of freemen, and we reassert it as the determination of the Republican party to maintain these rights in the fullest extent, and to give this class of our citizens the amplest protection of the laws.

We recognize intemperance as the fruitful source of pauperism and crime, of political corruption and social degradation, and we pledge ourselves to the adoption of those measures which have been found by the experience of other communities most efficient in eradicating the evils, and in restricting and regulating the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and compelling it to bear its full share of the pecuniary burdens which it imposes upon the community; but such legislation must in no wise abridge the privilege already granted, or which may be granted in the future, to counties or smaller communities throughout the State to prohibit by popular vote such traffic within their limits.

We reaffirm the declarations made by the Republican party of our State in its convention of 1887 with regard to selections for and the tenure for civil offices.

MARYLAND DEMOCRATIC, SEPT. 27.

They unite with their Democratic brethren in our sister States in pointed condemnation of the vast combinations of capital in many of the most important and necessary branches of industry and business, which, under the misleading name of "trusts," have inflicted such serious injury upon the people, and which, unless arrested in their powerful organizations, will create great and alarming distress by limiting the supply and ruinously enhancing the price of many articles of prime necessity, at the mere pleasure of the managers of these illegal combinations. Vigorous measures should be taken to check this great and growing evil. . . .

By a judicious adjustment of licenses to sell liquor, with the superadded restrictive features which experience elsewhere has proved to be salutary and effectual, such legislation should be made to subserve the double purpose of reducing the rate of taxation on property, to the great relief of the people, and at the same time of largely removing from our midst the degrading and destructive vice of intemperance.

Recalling with just pride the reforms in the laws relating to the registration of voters and to the elective franchise which Democratic Legislatures have enacted, the faith of the party is now distinctly pledged to a further and more careful review of this fundamental and most vital subject, so that at the coming session of the General Assembly, following the good example set by many of our sister States, stringent provisions may be adopted for the purpose of preserving more thoroughly the purity of the ballot-box by preventing bribery, fraudulent colonization of voters, repeating, and all other offences against the elective franchise; and also, that such amendments of our existing registration law may be made as will materially reduce the cost, while not impairing the efficiency of its execution. In this connection they favor the passage of a thorough primary election law, so drawn as to secure absolute fairness at all primary elections, and containing adequate and effectual provisions against violence, fraud and all corrupt practices by which the will of the majority may be falsified, thwarted or ignored.

They declare their sincere and determined purpose to recognize and enforce all the civil and political rights of the colored people of this State, but while thus earnestly resolved to see to it that in their persons and property they shall be fully and thoroughly protected, and that the present liberal provisions for the education of their children shall be maintained, they insist that the schools for the white and colored children shall be kept separate and distinct, and they will vigorously resist any and all attempts to change the existing law so as to introduce mixed schools for both white and colored children. . . .

MASSACHUSETTS REPUBLICAN, SEPT. 25.

We congratulate the country upon the restoration of the Government to the hands of the party which has been tried and never found wanting. We are gratified by the prudent management of the Treasury, by which the National debt is extinguished at reasonable prices, and the money market protected against speculative combinations. We rejoice in the restoration of dignity and vigor to the conduct of our foreign affairs and cordially approve of the thoroughly American policy indicated by our negotiations with Germany, where firmness has taken the place of bluster and brought forth honorable peace instead of timorous and confused concession.

We wish to commend the policy of the President in regard to Civil Service reform, as shown by his adherence to the law, by his extending its provisions to a large branch of the public service and by the character of the Commission which he has selected to carry out the law, both in letter and spirit. We assure him that in every effort to extend the law regulating the Civil Service and to root out the evil of patronage from our politics, he and his Commissioners will receive the hearty support of the Republicans of Massachusetts and of her Representatives and Senators.

To our Senators and Representatives in Congress we would say that the Republicans of Massachusetts look to them to defend a sound currency and resist an increase of the present silver coinage; to use every exertion to bring about a reduction of the surplus revenue; to support a thorough and equitable revision of the tariff so as to adapt the protection which it affords to changed business conditions affecting New-England industries in common with those of the rest of the country; to maintain the American system of protection to American industry and labor with which the party marched to victory at the last election, and which is identified with every period of our National prosperity; to strive without ceasing to secure a National election law which shall give protection to the National ballot and to the citizen in casting it; to continue the just and liberal policy of the Government toward the soldiers and sailors who defended it; to give aid to our steamship lines and begin the building up of our merchant marine, and to vote for and support ample appropriations for the American Navy, so that we may secure at once a powerful fleet able to defend the American coast and the American flag and to be a guarantee of peace with all the world.

We believe also that our fellow-citizens of all colors and races can dwell together in true Republican harmony and honor, if the same policy of equality, justice and universal education under which they have dwelt together in Massachusetts be extended to the entire country. We hope every reasonable aid may be given to education by the powers of the Nation and the States, and trust those powers may be exercised to their fullest extent.

In State affairs, the question deservedly most interesting to the people of this Commonwealth is that of temperance. The recent action of the people upon the proposed Prohibitory Amendment to the Constitution, which was submitted to them as promised by the Republican party, remits the question of suppressing the sale of intoxicating liquors to the Legislature, which is fresh from the people and familiar with their will. But we declare our hostility to the corrupting moral and political tyranny of the liquor saloon, that every law against it shall be maintained and enforced, that no backward step shall be taken, and that further legislation shall be had whenever it can secure further suppression of this terrible evil.

We pledge ourselves to maintain and defend the public schools of the Commonwealth and to preserve the public school funds, whether State or municipal, for the sole benefit of the public schools, and to raise the standard of public education to the highest point.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATIC, OCTOBER 2.

The resolutions declare the party's continued and hearty support of the cause of Tariff Reform and express the firm conviction of its success in the near future; reaffirm the demand for free raw materials and lower duties upon the necessaries of life, believing that free wool is essential to the prosperity of the woollen industry, upon which that of the woolgrower is dependent, while it will afford relief to all consumers of woollen goods, and call the particular attention of the farmers of the State (who have borne the heavy burden of high tariff taxation without any of the prosperity promised them) to the relief they will receive through the reduction of customs taxes upon articles which they use or consume.

They demand that all materials for shipbuilding, whether of metal or wood, be relieved from the heavy taxation now imposed upon most of them and made free of duty, to the end that American shipbuilders may be placed in a better position to construct ships capable of competing upon the ocean with those of foreign countries.

They condemn the Republican Administration for its laxity in Civil Service reform, and for its reckless management of the Pension Bureau; favor just and liberal pension laws; oppose National election laws; reiterate the demand for local self-government in Massachusetts; indorse the Local Option law; express sympathy with the demands of labor; indorse the demand for the publication of campaign expenses and for the Secret Ballot law; pledge the maintenance of the public school system; call for the abolition of the Metropolitan Police Commission; favor a continuance of the progressive naval policy of Secretary Whitney; express the belief that the New-England railroads should be restrained by law from giving unfair advantages to Pennsylvania and other States in traffic arrangements, and call the attention of the farmers to the relief a reduction of customs taxes on articles which they shall use or consume will give them.

MASSACHUSETTS PROHIBITION, SEPTEMBER 4.

The resolutions take the usual stand in favor of constitutional and statutory prohibition, and arraign both the Republican and Democratic parties for lack of interest in the suppression of the rum traffic. They also favor suffrage resting on the relations of the citizen to the State and not on color, race or sex. The tariff plank calls for a revision of tariff taxes, for the enlargement of industries, and for placing them upon a more permanent, natural and equal basis.

NEW-JERSEY REPUBLICAN, SEPTEMBER 17.

We favor the enactment of statutes reforming the election laws of the State to prevent fraud and false registration, and for the purpose of establishing the Australian or other like system of voting, whereby the voter shall be enabled to act independently and intelligently in the exercise of his citizenship. Such legislation will tend to perpetuate popular government.

Compulsory education is upon the statute books of our State by the enactment of a Republican Legislature, and we demand the enforcement of the law in all cases by the proper officers, and promise such additional legislation as may be necessary to provide facilities for the accommodation in the public schools of all children between the ages of eight and fourteen, not found in any other school.

The Child-Labor law of the State is of Republican enactment, and we demand its enforcement in order to prevent children being put to trade in early youth, and being broken down in body and untutored in mind before they have sufficient physical development to stand the strain of manual labor.

The request of the wageworker for reasonable hours of labor, and the designation of a definite portion of each week for recreation, demands and should receive legislative consideration.

With the National Republican Convention of 1888, we declare that the Republican party of the Nation stands for purity, for temperance and the preservation of the home. The Republican party of New-Jersey stands committed by its platforms and legislative enactments to the most thorough measures that will be sustained by the people, and pledges itself to such legislation as will most speedily and thoroughly eradicate the evil of intemperance. We resent the intrusion of the liquor power, as an organized force, into the politics of the State. The attitude of the two parties on this question is so clearly marked that no intelligent voter can be deceived by any omission of either to make a declaration on this subject. We heartily commend and unqualifiedly indorse the action of the Republican minority in the Legislature of 1889 upon all questions of morality and State and party policy.

NEW-JERSEY DEMOCRATIC, SEPT. 10.

That the increasing number of combinations to control the necessaries of life is a fruitful source of alarm to the people. The so-called "trusts," which are combinations to control prices without regard to the natural rules of supply and demand, are opposed to the letter and spirit of our laws. They cannot be justified upon any fair plea of commercial enterprise. For the benefit of a few these combinations inflict cruel burdens upon the many, causing penury and misery among those who are dependent upon the product of their daily toil. The tendency of our advancing civilization is to increase the general average of human happiness, and the corrective hand of the law must be used to abate conspiracies which are stumbling blocks in the way of the general progress of the people.

We demand a strict enforcement of the laws regulating the employment of children. It is the duty of the State to see that every child receives a fair education, and is protected from employment in pursuits calculated to injure the mental or physical value of future citizenship.

We pledge our party to the advancement of the public educational interests of the State. The common-school system must be fostered and extended so that no excuse can exist for ignorance.

We recognize the value of agriculture and our other industrial interests as the basis of National and State prosperity, and pledge to them a policy of liberal encouragement in fixing charges for transportation in or through this State. Common carriers should not be allowed to discriminate against the citizens of New-Jersey.

We recognize the dignity of labor and the necessity of proper legislation to protect its interests, and shall unswervingly oppose every attempt to lessen the fruits of toil or to place honest workmen in competition with paupers or convicts.

We demand reform in the matter of municipal expenditures throughout the State. By reason of the constantly increasing cost of municipal government the growth of many of our cities and towns has been greatly retarded. We therefore insist upon the enactment of laws limiting taxation for municipal uses.

We favor such revision of the election laws of the State as will guarantee to every voter the greatest possible secrecy in the casting of his ballot, and secure the punishment of any who attempt the corruption or intimidation of voters.

NEW-JERSEY PROHIBITION, JULY 19.

The resolutions also declare unalterable opposition to the liquor traffic, favor separate party organization and action, denounce bribery at elections, favor the Australian system of voting, condemn all trusts, demand the preservation of the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath, recommend the passage of a law requiring the public school teachers of New-Jersey to give lessons in physiology and hygiene relative to the effects of strong drink on the human system, congratulate the Women's Christian Temperance Union for its good work, and place the responsibility of the continuance of the liquor traffic upon good temperance people who remain in the old parties. The ninth resolution is as follows:

"That we are opposed to any of our citizens being disfranchised by the usurpation of authority by officials of this State. The same principles of right that allow women to vote at school meetings should be extended to all other questions."

NEW-YORK REPUBLICAN, SEPT. 25.

The Republicans of New-York rejoice in the restoration of Republican supremacy in the Nation, and take pride in the part this State had in that result. We congratulate President Harrison upon the success of his Administration and declare our perfect confidence in its integrity, efficiency, and patriotism. We reaffirm the National Republican platform of 1888 and emphasize our approval of these doctrines: Protection to American industries and to American labor; the extension of American trade and fostering of American shipping interests; liberal and equitable pension laws and a discriminating preference of Union veterans in appointments to public offices; a National election law to secure the honest choice of Representatives in Congress; the restoration of the efficiency of the postal service; the rehabilitation of the Navy; the purification and elevation of the Civil Service; the encouragement of popular education and promotion thereby of National patriotism.

We commend the action of the successive Republican Legislatures in enacting wise and beneficent public measures, including the law taxing collateral inheritances, which has already relieved the burdens of taxation by over $2,000,000; the law taxing incorporation, which produces $200,000 annually; the law making employes first preferred creditors in assignments; the law providing for the proper discipline and employment of convicts, and the law protecting the products of the farm and dairy.

We arraign Governor Hill as a public enemy for defeating by his vetoes the following measures of legislation: The enumeration bill, twice passed in obedience to the requirement of the Constitution; the Constitutional Convention bill, passed in pursuance of an overwhelming vote of the people; the Anti-Bribery bill, to prevent the corruption of voters and the intimidation of employes at elections; all measures for excise revision and reform, notwithstanding their approval by prominent men of all political parties; the Ballot Reform bill, twice passed, to secure a pure and untrammelled ballot; the Liquor Tax bill, twice passed, which would have lightened the burdens of taxation on homes and farms to the extent of $3,000,000 annually—all of which measures were passed by Republican Legislatures in response to the demand of an enlightened and patriotic public sentiment. We denounce these vetoes as being subversive of the rights of the people's representatives, and as being autocratic and revolutionary. The repeated efforts by Republican Legislatures to secure ballot reform and thoroughly practicable temperance legislation are proofs of the right purpose and good faith of the Republican party. No step backward will be taken, and we pledge our determination to persevere until salutary and adequate provisions of law on these vital subjects are embodied in the statutes of the State.

We urge the continuance of efforts to render impossible improper combinations and conspiracies known as "trusts," which have for their object the restriction of trade and the enhancement in cost of the necessaries of life. The maintenance of the canal system in its highest efficiency and usefulness is demanded as necessary to the regulation of freight rates and the continued commercial supremacy of this State.

Resolved, That this convention recognizes the importance of the great historical event which it is proposed to commemorate by the World's Fair of 1892. Appreciating the stimulating effect of such a celebration upon the industrial and commercial interests of the country and the National welfare, we hereby cordially indorse the enterprise, and declare that it should be conducted on a scale and in a manner commensurate with the greatness of the Nation and the patriotism of the people. The selection of the chief city of the Empire State, the commercial metropolis of this continent, as the place for this fair, is hereby cordially approved. We urge that such action be promptly taken by Congress and the Legislature of this State as shall be needed to make this great event a success.

NEW-YORK DEMOCRATIC, OCT. 1.

The Democratic party of the State of New-York, in convention assembled, renews the pledges of its fidelity to Democratic faith, and reaffirms the doctrines of the National platform of 1888, adopted at St. Louis. We have not advocated and do not advocate free trade, but we steadfastly advocate the principles of tariff reform, believing that adherence to the right alone carries in itself the certainty of triumph. We heartily indorse the honest and fearless administration of the National Government by Grover Cleveland.

We charge that the Republican party at the last Federal election obtained power in the Nation by corruption and false pretences, by intimidation and coercion of voters, by promises unperformed and pledges unredeemed, and by shameless trafficking of Cabinet and other offices in its gift to the highest bidders, and, though its candidates by these unscrupulous means received more than half the votes of the electoral college, its doctrines and principles were repudiated by a majority of the voters of the country.

We arraign the chief Executive of the United States for a disgraceful violation of the pledge contained in his letter of acceptance, to wit: "In appointments to every grade and department fitness and not party service should be the essential and discriminating test, and fidelity and efficiency the only sure tenure of office." In that he, not in exceptional instances, but with sweeping hand, removed hundreds of honest and capable officers before the expiration of the terms for which they were appointed.

Maintaining, as heretofore, that improper combinations of capital which limit production, fix the price of commodities regardless of the cost of production, reduce the wages of labor and crush out the smaller independent dealers, and thus strangle legitimate competition, are conspiracies, we demand legislation to prevent such combinations. We point to the fact that while the last two Republican Legislatures have defeated all additional legislation desirable for their complete suppression, the legal department of the State, under Democratic administration, has instituted and carried to a successful issue litigation having the destruction of such conspiracies as its aim.

We arraign the late Republican Legislature for imposing the heaviest State taxes in both rate and amounts from 1875. We condemn, as reckless, improvident and unnecessary, the increase in taxes from $9,000,000 to $12,500,000, at a time when the people are poor and the burdens of taxation are especially oppressive. We commend the vetoes of a Democratic Governor, which have saved to the taxpayers of the State $2,000,000, and we pledge that the Democracy, if intrusted with control of the legislative branch of government, will give to the people lower taxes and economical expenditures. We believe that unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation.

We do not favor the unrestricted sale of intoxicating liquors on the one hand, nor prohibition on the other. We believe that the liquor traffic should be restrained and regulated by just and equitable excise laws, rigidly enforced, which laws, in their operation, should be substantially uniform throughout the State.

We believe all excise revenues, whether called license fees or taxes, should belong to the local treasuries of the localities under whose authority licenses are issued, to be applied in reducing the burden of local taxation.

We are opposed to all sumptuary legislation that needlessly interferes with the personal liberty or reasonable customs of the people; we favor the largest liberty for the individual citizen consistent with the public welfare.

We oppose the passage of the prohibition amendment upon which the next Legislature is required to act, and we denounce the hypocrisy of the Republican party of this State, and of the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Pennsylvania, in submitting, or proposing to submit, prohibition amendments, only to defeat them at the polls.

We arraign the Republican party for its dishonest treatment of the temperance question. We point to the fact that an excise commission, in its majority largely Republican, was, upon the recommendation of a Democratic Governor, in 1888, appointed by the Legislature itself, to revise the excise laws, and thereby secure a just and proper solution of the temperance question; that this commission, consisting of seven members, five of whom were Republicans, reported a measure known as the "Excise Commission bill," that this measure was supported by the Democratic members of the Legislature, but was repudiated by the Republican legislators, who, in its stead, passed a bill extreme in its character, illiberal in its provisions and unjust in its discriminations, drafted for the sole purpose of securing executive disapproval, in order that the temperance question should continue to be an issue in political contests. Such dishonesty and hypocrisy we denounce as a breach of faith with the people.

The Republican party, loudly proclaiming itself as favoring higher license fees, designedly ignores the fact that the excise boards in the cities, towns and villages of five-sixths of the counties of the State are under Republican control, and that, with the sanction and approval of the Republican leaders, such boards impose scarcely one-third of the amount of fees permitted under existing laws. We believe that in this matter reform should begin at home, and we denounce their utterances, so inconsistent with their acts, as additional proofs of the dishonesty with which the Republican party treats this question.

The Democratic party renews its declaration in favor of electoral reform. We demand such changes in our election laws as will more effectually promote the secrecy of the ballot, stop corruption at the polls and prevent the intimidation and coercion of electors. The Republican majority refused to enact a just and reasonable measure at the last session of the Legislature, but instead thereof passed a bill containing provisions which were unconstitutional, grossly defective, clearly impracticable and otherwise objectionable, and which properly met with executive disapproval. Its insincerity was manifested in its subsequent refusal to enact any different measure for securing ballot reform. We earnestly insist upon a free, pure and untrammelled ballot, and to the accomplishment of that end will favor any reasonable and practicable measure which is free from constitutional and other radical defects and has for its true and honest purpose the secrecy of the ballot and the eradication of the evils of corruption, bribery and intimidation at elections.

We arraign the Republican party for treason of the Constitution. The last Legislature, following the lawless example of the four previous Legislatures, refused to provide for an enumeration of the people as a basis of an apportionment of the Senate and Assembly districts of the State, and has thus perpetuated the control of the minority of the State in the law-making branch of the Government, in defiance of the will of the majority, and in shameless contravention of constitutional requirements. It has also refused to enact a proper measure for creating a constitutional convention, as required by the vote of the majority of the people of the State. We charge that the Republican party has not desired either an enumeration or a constitutional convention. Its professions in favor of either are false and insincere. The only act relating to enumeration which it ever passed was one in 1885, which coupled with an enumeration an elaborate, complicated and unnecessary census, which would have cost the taxpayers of the State over four hundred thousand dollars, and which invited and warranted Executive disapproval. The only act which it ever passed for a constitutional convention was one in 1887, which unwarrantedly appointed the holding of the convention for a year, and provided an unjust and improper basis of representation, which objectionable features rendered it impossible of approval. Successive Republican Legislatures have subsequently refused to pass any measure providing for a simple enumeration of the inhabitants, or to provide for a constitutional convention upon a basis of representation founded upon the latest apportionment.

We oppose needless special legislation. We believe in home rule for cities. We demand a rigid enforcement of the laws enacted by the Legislature for the benefit of the workingmen of the State. We favor a revision of the tax laws, whereby personal and corporate property shall be made to bear its full and just burdens. We sympathize with all efforts having in view the advancement of the interests and the improvement of the condition of laboring men, and will continue to give our hearty support to the legislation which seeks to accomplish these ends. We favor a continuance of the policy which seeks to improve the canal system of the State and maintain its efficiency. And we condemn the last Legislature for its refusal to pass any measure to secure to the people of the city of New-York the benefits of rapid transit.

We heartily indorse the Democratic Administration of Governor David B. Hill. He has been a consistent exponent of Democratic principles, and we specially commend his able, bold and vigorous exercises of the veto power whereby the people and property of the State have been protected against the assaults of a partisan, reckless and improvident Legislature. We commend the able and wise administration of his various associates in the State departments, and submit that the splendid record of honesty and efficiency made by them justifies a continuance of the trust reposed in the Democratic party, of which they are faithful representatives.

NEW-YORK PROHIBITION. SEPT 5.

The Prohibition party of the State of New-York, in convention assembled, acknowledging God as the source of all power in government and heartily indorsing the National platform adopted at Indianapolis, does hereby declare:

1. That the prohibition of the liquor traffic, State and National, should be the dominating and dividing political issue until such prohibition shall have become the recognized and settled policy of the Government.

2. That to vote for the candidate of a license party is practically to vote for license.

3. That we heartily approve the declaration that the liquor traffic can never be legalized without sin, and that license, high or low, is vicious in principle and powerless as a remedy.

4. That we demand the rigid enforcement of the prohibition provisions of the excise laws.

5. That local option has proven unsatisfactory, being too local and too optional, yet in the future, as in the past, we will, where the question is presented, vote for no license, but we refuse to accept local option as a substitute for the policy of prohibition.

6. We recognize the duty of the coming Legislature to submit to the electors of the State an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the liquor traffic, but, as the political machinery of both the old parties and almost the entire press of these parties in every recent contest have been combined for the defeat of prohibition, we protest against any such submission by any political party whose only purpose is prohibition defeat; and we further declare that if the amendment is submitted in this State, the Prohibition party will make every possible effort to secure its adoption.

7. That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color, sex or nationality.

8. That the law should be so amended as to require ten years' residence for naturalization.

9. That we are opposed to all trusts and monopolies in the necessaries of life.

10. That the American Sunday, in the interest of public order, should be jealously guarded.

11. That the purchase and sale of votes should be punished with disfranchisement.

12. That the principle of Civil Service reform should be honestly applied in appointment to office.

13. That we demand for the laboring man and woman adequate compensation for their work, and protection o all their rights; we urge upon their attention the fact that the liquor traffi consumes their hard-earned wages, re sulting in poverty and distress, and commend to their attention the statement of Master Workman Powderly t the effect that if he had a million tongues he could not adequately ex press his abhorrence of the traffic an the great injury it does to the workin people; that we are in favor of each ma paying taxes on what he owns, not o

what he owes; that the Government can afford to be, and ought to be, just and generous to the honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Republic, but that the doors of the United States Treasury ought not to be thrown open to gratify the desires or satisfy the greed of claim agents and unscrupulous politicians.

14. We most earnestly invite to equal privileges in our ranks all persons who agree with us on the single point of unyielding opposition to the liquor evil.

15. That the Prohibition party will accept no compromise for the settlement of this overshadowing moral and political issue of the age, the extermination of the liquor evil of our Nation, but will continue persistently to labor until we have secured its death by the ballot and planted our victorious forces behind the law for its enforcement.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN, AUG. 7.

We greatly rejoice in the National victory of 1888 for a two-fold reason; first, because it was fought and won under Pennsylvania leadership and upon a Pennsylvania platform, and, second, because the Executive and Legislative power in the Union has thereby been restored to the Republican party, which, within a period of less than thirty years, has rescued the country from the perils of rebellion, of treacherous reconstruction, of financial dishonor and of reckless industrial legislation. All of which were distinctly involved in the policy or acts of the Democratic party as now governed.

Protection is the cornerstone of our political faith. Its greatest blessing is that in protecting the American laborer and manufacturer, it strengthens and builds up all interests, resulting in the promotion of a great diversity of business enterprises, and a home market. It thereby nurtures not only the interests primarily and directly protected, but all interests, particularly agriculture, which finds in the certainty and higher prices of a home market its great advantage. Pennsylvania Democrats have until recently claimed the unique distinction of being Democratic Protectionists. At last, however, the controlling element in that party, not only in the Nation, but State, has unequivocally announced its antagonism to protection. It is our duty to take advantage of this opportunity and press home this living issue. We will thereby deal Democracy its death-blow in Pennsylvania.

If protection to American industry be the cornerstone of our political faith, then protection to those who fought in defence of the Union is its capstone. We reverence the memory of those intrepid martyrs who gave up their lives upon the field of battle, and of those other heroes, burdened with years and covered with scars, who have since gone to their rest. But tears will not suffice for the tens of thousands of brave soldiers who still survive. We advocate such amendments to the pension laws as will make adequate provision for all honorably discharged veterans of the late war whose advancing years, wounds or other infirmities disable them from total or partial self-support. . . .

The Republican party having in 1886 declared in favor of the submission of the question of the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors to a vote of the people, and having, in two successive Legislatures, through the method ordained by the Constitution, and in spite of Democratic opposition, provided the machinery for reaching a fair expression of the public sentiment, and the vote to secure which it was pledged having been taken, declares that it has fully and honorably fulfilled its compact in this regard.

In view of the result of said election, and having regard for the preservation of the purity of the homes of our Commonwealth, we heartily indorse the Brooks High License Law, and recommend such amendments thereto as will tend to its proper and progressive improvement, and also bring within its scope the control of wholesale licenses.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATIC, SEPT. 4.

That all powers not expressly granted to the General Government are withheld, and a sacred observance of the rule of construction contained in the tenth amendment of the Constitution itself is essential to the preservation of the principles of home rule, and of pure, honest and economical government, to the end that labor may not be robbed of the bread it has earned.

We applaud the action of President Cleveland and our Democratic representatives in Congress looking to tariff tax reform; and we reaffirm the declaration of principles made by the Democracy of the Union at St. Louis in 1888, especially that demanding a revision and reduction of tariff taxes for the relief at once of American labor, American industries and American taxpayers, by the repeal of such tariff taxes as now invite and protect monopoly, a greed that lessens production, lessens employment of labor, decreases wages and increases cost to consumers; and by the admission of raw material free of duty in all cases where it will enlarge our product, multiply our markets and increase demand for labor.

We regard trusts in whatever form organized as the result of the existing monopoly tariff, and we demand the repeal of such tariff taxes as enable them to control domestic production by unlawful combination, and to extort from the people exorbitant prices for their products.

We accept the decision of the people of Pennsylvania, rendered by the ballot on the prohibitory amendment, as a declaration in favor of a reasonable, just and effective regulation of the traffic in ardent spirits. We hold that the agreement of the Republican party, through its representatives in the Legislature, to the proposed prohibitory amendment to the Constitution, and its defeat at the polls, in spite of the Republican majority of 80,000 votes, are facts that establish beyond doubt the hypocrisy of the Republican leaders in their treatment of the question of prohibition. . . . .

We favor the Australian ballot system as adapted to meet the requirements of our Constitution and the special wants of our people, in order to secure the freedom and purity of elections menaced by combined power of monopoly and the corruption of Republican rings and bosses. . . . .

While we favor a liberal system of pensions to such veterans of the late war as have been honorably discharged, and who, from wounds or other physical infirmities, have been rendered unfit for manual or other labor, we deem it unjust to that large class of those faithful soldiers of the Union who take a just pride in the heroic achievements of their comrades in arms that there should be added to the pension roll the names of any who are not qualified therefor by reason of honorable and faithful service in the line of duty.

PENNSYLVANIA PROHIBITION, AUG. 28.

We are unalterably opposed to any law, by whatsoever name called, that in any way legalizes, authorizes or tolerates the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and maintain that the policy of the Government should be that of prohibition of its manufacture, importation and sale by National and State statutory and constitutional enactments, faithfully enforced, to which policy the Prohibition party is uncompromisingly committed.

We favor the "Australian system" of voting as a means to insure a fair expression of the will of the people at the ballot box. All citizens, without distinction of sex, race or nationality, should have the power of the ballot (upon such educational basis as the Legislature may deem wise) for their protection and the advancement of the best interests of the State.

The naturalization laws should be so amended as to increase the number of years' residence required before foreigners should be invested with the elective franchise.

Combinations or trusts that seek to advance the price of commodities of life, or in any way to interfere with the unrestricted manufacturing interests of the country, by forced "close-downs," "lockouts," etc., should be prohibited. . . .

OHIO REPUBLICAN.

We renew our adherence to all the principles so clearly and strongly enunciated by the Republican National Convention of 1888, and especially to the principles of protection in its two-fold meaning and operation; protection to every American citizen at home in all parts of our country; protection to every American citizen abroad, in every land, on every sea; protection to every American citizen in the exercise of all his political rights and privileges; protection to American industry and labor against the industry and labor of the world.

We heartily approve and indorse the Administration of Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, and pledge him our cordial support in the discharge of the duties devolving upon him as the Chief Magistrate of the Nation. And especially do we commend the just and liberal policy of the Pension Bureau in carrying out the pledges of the loyal people to the soldiers of the Union.

That we favor the passage by Congress at its next session of a proper and equitable service pension bill for all honorably discharged union soldiers and seamen of the late war.

We demand full and adequate protection for the wool-growing industry, which will, in due time, give to American woolgrowers the American market for all the wool required by American wants. We indorse the provisions on this subject of the bill passed by the Senate at the last session of Congress.

We heartily indorse the decisions of the Secretary of the Treasury whereby worsted cloths are made dutiable at the same rate as other woollen cloths, and wool-tops and wastes are made to pay the duties intended by the laws. This reversal of the action of a Democratic Secretary of the Treasury has given new life and prosperity to the wool-growing industry.

We congratulate the people of Ireland on the progress of their struggle for Home Rule, and in this connection we indorse the course of President Harrison in selecting for honorable places in the diplomatic service worthy and representative Irish-American citizens.

We indorse the wise laws passed by the Republican Legislature in regard to the liquor traffic, and pledge the party to keep abreast of public opinion upon that subject.

OHIO DEMOCRATIC, AUG. 28.

The Democracy of Ohio, in convention assembled, approve the declaration of principles made by the National Democracy in St. Louis in 1888, and especially that part of it demanding reduction of tariff taxes. We will continue the battle for tariff reform until the cause of the people is triumphant.

We regard trusts, in whatever form organized, as the legitimate result of our present tariff system; and we demand the repeal of all tariff taxes that enable them to extort from the people exorbitant prices for the products they control.

We again acknowledge the great debt of gratitude the Nation owes to the heroes of the late war, and we declare in favor of just, liberal and equitable pension laws.

We denounce the Republican Administration for its repeated violation of its pledges in behalf of Civil Service reform. . . .

We heartily favor Home Rule in Ireland, we demand it also for Ohio. While favoring all laws that sacredly protect the ballot-box and the honest voter, we demand the enactment of laws that will enable our cities to choose their own servants and control their own affairs.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICAN, AUG 22

It appeals to the people because it made suffrage free, and always respects and defends the popular will and the ballot-box, which the Democrat oligarchy despises and defrauds; because, as our Con stitution, laws and history attest, it is the original author, restorer and ever-ready champion of our free school system, now deprived of free books by the hereditary foes of popular education and elevation; . . . because it readjusted the State debt which the Democrats have disadjusted, after all their vain and false protestations to the contrary; and because it alone has shown an honest disposition and a competent capacity to manage this debt; because it is manifest that this party offers the only free, rightful and peaceful solution of the race and sectional differences which the Democrats persistently inflame, and because, in everything State and National, Republicanism truly represents the popular aspirations for American progress and prosperity. That we are in favor of the speedy restoration of silver to its full monetary functions by its full and unlimited coinage at the National mints, and as a step toward such action, we recommend the coinage of the maxim amount now provided for by law—$4,000,000 per month. . . .

That if it be entrusted with the necessary power by the people, it will settle the debt and the debt question wholly, finally and promptly, as it has full knowledge that it can do upon terms that will not add to the annual burdens of the people, and will yet leave the Commonwealth ample means for the current expenses of a frugal administration; for a general maintenance of our admirable system of free schools, and for munificent provision for our charitable institutions and the care of our disabled soldiers. The Republican party of Virginia points to its past records as surety for present promise and future fulfilment; more practical than sentimental it addresses the pockets as well as the patriotism of the people, and is sure it is right. It will move straight on to victory, construing the evasive yet abusive cries, catchwords, epithets of passion and prejudice, as Democratic confessions of wrong and of merited defeat. Peace and good will for all.

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATIC, AUG. 15.

We congratulate the people of Virginia that, through the wise legislation and administration of the Democratic party, the public schools have been preserved in efficient operation and their accommodations extended; that the resources necessary for the conduct of the Government in all its departments have been secured, and that the debt question has been put in train of final and acceptable settlement. We would reprobate as mischievous to all interests the reopening of an issue which has been the source of so much embarrassment and vexation to the Commonwealth; and with the continuance of the party administration which has dealt with it ably and wisely, we confidently look to its solution upon the lines of adjustment which the people have indorsed, and which the Democratic representatives have faithfully executed.

The Democratic party founded the public school system of this Commonwealth. The present efficiency of the system is the result of Democratic laws and Democratic effort. We will care for and support the public schools until every child shall be able to secure the benefits of education. To this end we favor liberal appropriations by the Federal Government apportioned among the States in the ratio of illiteracy of their population. . . .

The party renews its adherence to the principles and policies of the tariff and internal revenue so often enunciated in the platforms of the State and National conventions of the Democratic party, and sustained by the voice of the people at the polls; and especially does it insist upon the immediate abolition of the tax upon tobacco and fruit brandies.

The Democratic party of Virginia favors the complete remonetization and the free coinage of silver. . . .

We believe that the men who were disabled in the service of the United States during the late conflict between the States, and the widows of those who lost their lives in such service, are deserving of aid and protection, and we favor such liberal appropriation within the revenues of the State as will tend to this end.

PLATFORMS IN THE NEW STATES.

NORTH DAKOTA REPUBLICAN reaffirms the National platform of the last campaign, glorifies the Republican party as the party that has secured for the emigrant his homestead, and advocates the moral and material welfare of the Nation; recognizes agriculture as the portion of the State and declares against the encroachments of corporations on the rights of the farmers; is uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection; favors liberal pensions to veteran soldiers who have been honorably discharged; declares sympathy with all movements in favor of temperance; demands the careful guarding of the public school lands, and indorses submission of Prohibitory Amendment.

SOUTH DAKOTA REPUBLICAN favors pensions for honorably discharged soldiers; sympathizes with the Irish people, favors a free market and equal and just taxation.

SOUTH DAKOTA DEMOCRATIC indorses and upholds free trade; congratulates the people on Statehood; opposes Constitutional Prohibition; sympathizes with labor organizations and pledges assistance to them; favors minority representation, and arraigns Dakota Republicans for extravagance and mismanagement in Territorial affairs.

WASHINGTON REPUBLICAN congratulates the people on the admission of Washington in spite of the long opposition of the Democratic party, whose chief efforts have been to prevent it, for fear that the fraud and intimidation and reign of terror by which free expression will be prevented will be useless with the accession of the new State; heartily commends the Harrison free American vigorous foreign policy, with comparison to Cleveland's foreign policy of bullying weak powers and truckling to strong ones, as set forth in his free-trade message and order for the return of the flags. It says the platform of the Republicans adopted in Chicago in 1888 acknowledges the necessity of the revision of a protective tariff, but insists that it must be made by its friends instead of its enemies. Tariff for revenue only is rejected. The platform also denounces the Democrats for a second attempt to force American labor into competition with pauper Europe; it recognizes the right of labor to organize for self-protection; the debt to soldiers who saved the Union is too great to be repaid, but all legislation in recognition of or to alleviate the needs or the sufferings of soldiers or widows is approved. It commends liberal appropriations for river and coast defence by the Navy, and favors legislation restoring and promoting the merchant marine. It unequivocally pledges the representatives of the Republican party to work to open Columbia River; trusts and combinations which combine against labor are denounced; it indorses the Exclusion act, and recommends to favor further legislation for the protection of American labor and to preserve the country for its citizens. It asks that the Indian reservations be opened as rapidly as justice to the Indians will permit.

WASHINGTON DEMOCRATIC approves the Administration of President Cleveland, and stands by the St. Louis platform; arraigns the Republicans for extortion, duplicity and fraud; declares in favor of free schools and the appropriation of public lands for public purposes; denounces the Chinese Exclusion Act as administered by Republicans; favors the opening of the Columbia River from one end to another; favors the building of forts for the protection of Pacific Coast harbors; denounces the Republican State platform as deceptive and untrue, and pledges every effort for the success of the Democratic ticket.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT HARRISON.

MARCH 4, 1889.

There is no Constitutional or legal requirement that the President shall take the oath of office in the presence of the people; but there is so manifest an appropriateness in the public induction to office of the Chief Executive Officer of the Nation that from the beginning of the Government the people, to whose service the official oath consecrates the officer, have been called to witness the solemn ceremonial. The oath, taken in the presence of the people, becomes a mutual covenant; the officer covenants to serve the whole body of the people by a faithful execution of the laws, so that they may be the unfailing defence and security of those who observe them, and that neither wealth, station nor the power of combinations shall be able to evade their just penalties or to wrest them from a beneficent public purpose to serve the ends of cruelty or selfishness.

My promise is spoken; yours unspoken, but not the less real and solemn. The people of every State have here their representatives. Surely I do not misinterpret the spirit of the occasion when I assume that the whole body of the people covenant with me and with each other today to support and defend the Constitution and the union of the States, to yield willing obedience to all the laws and each to every other citizen his equal civil and political rights. Entering thus solemnly into covenant with each other, we may reverently invoke and confidently expect the favor and help of Almighty God—that He will give to me wisdom, strength and fidelity, and to our people a spirit of fraternity and a love of righteousness and peace.

This occasion derives peculiar interest from the fact that the Presidential term which begins this day is the twenty-sixth under our Constitution. The first inauguration of President Washington took place in New-York, where Congress was then sitting, on the 30th day of April, 1789, having been deferred by reason of delays attending the organization of the Congress and the canvass of the electoral vote. Our people have already worthily observed the centennials of the Declaration of Independence, of the battle of Yorktown, and of the adoption of the Constitution; and will shortly celebrate in New-York the institution of the second great department of our constitutional scheme of Government. When the centennial of the institution of the judicial department, by the organization of the Supreme Court, shall have been suitably observed, as I trust it will be, our Nation will have fully entered its second century.

I will not attempt to note the marvellous and, in great part, happy contrast between our country as it steps over the threshold into its second century of organized existence under the Constitution and that weak but wisely ordered young nation that looked undauntedly down the first century when all its years stretched out before it.

Our people will not fail at this time to recall the incidents which accompanied the institution of government under the Constitution, or to find inspiration and guidance in the teachings and example of Washington and his great associates, and hope and courage in the contrast which thirty-eight populous and prosperous States offer to the thirteen States, weak in everything except courage and the love of liberty, that then fringed our Atlantic seaboard.

The Territory of Dakota has now a population greater than that of any of the original States (except Virginia), and greater than the aggregate of five of the smaller States in 1790. The centre of population when our National Capital was cated was east of Baltimore, and it was gued by many well-informed persons hat it would move eastward rather han westward; yet in 1880 it was found o be near Cincinnati, and the new cenus about to be taken will show another tride to the westward. That which vas the body has come to be only the ich fringe of the Nation's robe. But ur growth has not been limited to erritory, population and aggregate vealth, marvellous as it has been in ach of those directions. The masses of our people are better fed, clothed and oused than their fathers were. The acilities for popular education have been astly enlarged and more generally iffused.

The virtues of courage and patriotism ave given recent proof of their conlinued presence and increasing power in he hearts and over the lives of our eople. The influences of religion have een multiplied and strengthened. The weet offices of charity have greatly inreased. The virtue of temperance is eld in higher estimation. We have not ttained an ideal condition. Not all of our people are happy and prosperous; ot all of them are virtuous and lawabiding. But, on the whole, the opportunities offered to the individual to ecure the comforts of life are better han are found elsewhere and largely etter than they were here 100 years go.

The surrender of a large measure of overeignty to the General Government, ffected by the adoption of the Constitution, was not accomplished until the sugestions of reason were strongly reinforced by the more imperative voice of xperience. The divergent interests of eace speedily demanded a "more perect union." The merchant, the shipmaster and the manufacturer discovered nd disclosed to our statesmen and to the eople that commercial emancipation must be added to the political freedom which had been so bravely won. The ommercial policy of the mother country ad not relaxed any of its hard and opressive features. To hold in check the evelopment of our commercial marine, to revent or retard the establishment and rowth of manufactures in the States, and o to secure the American market for heir shops, and the carrying trade for heir ships, was the policy of European tatesmen, and was pursued with the ost selfish vigor.

Petitions poured in upon Congress urging the imposition of discriminating duties that should encourage the production f needed things at home. The patriotism of the people, which no longer found field of exercise in war, was energetically directed to the duty of equipping he young Republic for the defence of its ndependence by making its people self-ependent. Societies for the promotion f home manufactures and for encouraging he use of domestics in the dress of the eople were organized in many of the tates. The revival at the end of the entury of the same patriotic interest in he preservation and development of doestic industries, and the defence of our orking people against injurious foreign competition, is an incident worthy of attention. It is not a departure, but a return that we have witnessed. The protective policy had then its opponents. The argument was made, as now, that its benefits inured to particular classes or sections.

If the question became in any sense or at any time sectional, it was only because slavery existed in some of the States. But for this there was no reason why the cotton-producing States should not have led or walked abreast with the New-England States in the production of cotton fabrics. There was this reason only why the States that divide with Pennsylvania the mineral treasures of the great southeastern and central mountain ranges should have been so tardy in bringing to the smelting furnaces and to the mill the coal and iron from their near opposing hills. Mill fires were lighted at the funeral pile of slavery. The Emancipation Proclamation was heard in the depths of the earth, as well as in the sky; men were made free, and material things became our better servants.

The sectional element has happily been eliminated from the tariff discussion. We have no longer States that are necessarily only planting States. None are excluded from achieving that diversification of pursuit among the people which brings wealth and contentment. The cotton plantation will not be less valuable when the product is spun in the county town by operatives whose necessities call for diversified crops and create a home demand for garden and agricultural products. Every new mine, furnace, and factory is an extension of the productive capacity of the State more real and valuable than added territory.

Shall the prejudices and paralysis of slavery continue to hang upon the skirts of progress? How long will those who rejoice that slavery no longer exists cherish or tolerate the incapacities it put upon their communities? I look hopefully to the continuance of our protective system and to the consequent development of manufacturing and mining enterprises in the States hitherto wholly given to agriculture, as a potent influence in the perfect unification of our people. The men who have invested their capital in these enterprises, the farmers who have felt the benefit of their neighborhood, and the men who work in shop or field will not fail to find and to defend a community of interest.

Is it not quite possible that the farmers and the promoters of the great mining and manufacturing enterprises which have recently been established in the South may yet find that the free ballot of the workingman, without distinction of race, is needed for their defence as well as for his own? I do not doubt that if those men in the South who now accept the tariff views of Clay and the Constitutional expositions of Webster would courageously avow and defend their real convictions, they would not find it difficult, by friendly instruction and co-operation, to make the black man their efficient and safe ally, not only in establishing correct principles in our National administration, but in preserving for their local communities the benefits of social order and economical and honest government. At least until the good offices of kindness and education have been fairly tried, the contrary conclusion cannot be plausibly urged.

I have altogether rejected the suggestion of a special Executive policy for any section of our country. It is the duty of the Executive to administer and enforce, in the methods and by the instrumentalities pointed out and provided by the Constitution, all the laws enacted by Congress. These laws are general, and their administration should be uniform and equal. As a citizen may not elect what laws he will obey, neither may the Executive elect which he will enforce. The duty to obey and to execute embraces the Constitution in its entirety, and the whole code of laws enacted under it. The evil example of permitting individuals, corporations, or communities to nullify the laws because they cross some selfish or local interest or prejudices is full of danger, not only to the Nation at large, but much more to those who use this pernicious expedient to escape their just obligations or to obtain an unjust advantage over others. They will presently themselves be compelled to appeal to the law for protection, and those who would use the law as a defence must not deny that use of it to others.

If our great corporations would more scrupulously observe their legal limitations and duties, they would have less cause to complain of the unlawful limitations of their rights or of violent interference with their operations. The community that by concert, open or secret, among its citizens denies to a portion of its members their plain rights under the law, has severed the only safe bond of social order and prosperity. The evil works, from a bad centre, both ways. It demoralizes those who practise it and destroys the faith of those who suffer by it in the efficiency of the law as a safe protector. The man in whose breast that faith has been darkened is naturally the subject of dangerous and uncanny suggestions. Those who use unlawful methods, if moved by no higher motive than the selfishness that prompted them, may well stop and inquire what is to be the end of this.

An unlawful expedient can not become a permanent condition of government. If the educated and influential classes in a community either practise or connive at the systematic violation of laws that seem to them to cross their convenience, what can they expect when the lesson that convenience or a supposed class interest is a sufficient cause for lawlessness has been well learned by the ignorant classes? A community where law is the rule of conduct, and where courts, not mobs, execute its penalties, is the only attractive field for business investments and honest labor.

Our naturalization laws should be so amended as to make the inquiry into the character and good disposition of persons applying for citizenship more careful and searching. Our existing laws have been in their administration an unimpressive and often an unintelligible form. We accept the man as a citizen without any knowledge of his fitness, and he assumes the duties of citizenship without any knowledge as to what they are. The privileges of American citizenship are so great and its duties so grave that we may well insist upon a good knowledge of every person applying for citizenship and a good knowledge by him of our institutions. We should not cease to be hospitable to immigration, but we should cease to be careless as to the character of it. There are men of all races, even the best, whose coming is necessarily a burden upon our public revenues or a threat to social order. These should be identified and excluded.

We have happily maintained a policy of avoiding all interference with European affairs. We have been only interested spectators of their contentions in diplomacy and war, ready to use our friendly offices to promote peace, but never obtruding our advice and never attempting unfairly to coin the distresses of other powers into commercial advantage to ourselves. We have a just right to expect that our European policy will be the American policy of European courts. It is so manifestly incompatible with those precautions for our peace and safety which all the great powers habitually observe and enforce in matters affecting them that a shorter water way between our eastern and western seaboards should be dominated by any European government that we may confidently expect that such a purpose will not be entertained by any friendly power.

We shall in the future, as in the past, use every endeavor to maintain and enlarge our friendly relations with all the great powers, but they will not expect us to look kindly upon any project that would leave us subject to the dangers of a hostile observation or environment. We have not sought to dominate or to absorb any of our weaker neighbors, but rather to aid and encourage them to establish free and stable governments, resting upon the consent of their own people. We have a clear right to expect, therefore, that no European government will seek to establish colonial dependencies upon the territory of these independent American States. That which a sense of justice restrains us from seeking they may be reasonably expected willingly to forego.

It must not be assumed, however, that our interests are so exclusively American that our entire inattention to any events that may transpire elsewhere can be taken for granted. Our citizens, domiciled for purposes of trade in all countries and in many of the islands of the sea, demand and will have our adequate care in their personal and commercial rights. The necessities of our Navy require convenient coaling stations and dock and harbor privileges. These and other trading privileges we will feel free to obtain only by means that do not in any degree partake of coercion, however feeble the government from which we ask such concessions. But having fairly obtained them by methods and for purposes entirely consistent with the most friendly disposition toward all other powers, our consent will be necessary to any modification or impairment of the concession.

We shall neither fail to respect the flag of any friendly nation or the just rights of its citizens, nor to exact the like treatment for our own. Calmness, justice and consideration should characterize our diplomacy. The offices of an intelligent diplomacy or of friendly arbitration in proper cases should be adequate to the peaceful adjustment of all international difficulties. By such methods we will make our contribution to the world's peace, which no nation values more highly, and avoid the opprobrium which must fall upon the nation that ruthlessly breaks it.

The duty devolved by law upon the President to nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint all public officers whose appointment is not otherwise provided for in the Constitution or by act of Congress, has become very burdensome and its wise and efficient discharge full of difficulty. The civil list is so large that a personal knowledge of any large number of the applicants is impossible. The President must rely upon the representations of others, and these are often made inconsiderately and without any just sense of responsibility. I have a right, I think, to insist that those who volunteer or are invited to give advice as to appointments shall exercise consideration and fidelity. A high sense of duty and an ambition to improve the service should characterize all public officers.

There are many ways in which the convenience and comfort of those who have business with our public offices may be promoted by a thoughtful and obliging officer, and I shall expect those whom I may appoint to justify their selection by a conspicuous efficiency in the discharge of their duties. Honorable party service will certainly not be esteemed by me a disqualification for public office, but it will in no case be allowed to serve as a shield of official negligence, incompetency, or delinquency. It is entirely creditable to seek public office by proper methods and with proper motives, and all applicants will be treated with consideration. But I shall need, and the heads of Departments will need, time for inquiry and deliberation. Persistent importunity will not, therefore, be the best support of an application for office. Heads of Departments, bureaus and all other public officers having any duty connected therewith will be expected to enforce the Civil Service law fully and without evasion. Beyond this obvious duty I hope to do something more to advance the reform of the Civil Service. The ideal, or even my own ideal, I shall probably not attain. Retrospect will be a safer basis of judgment than promises. We shall not, however, I am sure, be able to put our Civil Service upon a non-partisan basis until we have secured an incumbency that fair-minded men of the opposition will approve for impartiality and integrity. As the number of such in the civil list is increased removals from office will diminish.

While a Treasury surplus is not the greatest evil, it is a serious evil. Our revenue should be ample to meet the ordinary annual demands upon our Treasury, with a sufficient margin for those extraordinary but scarcely less imperative demands which arise now and then. Expenditure should always be made with economy and only upon public necessity. Waste, usness, profligacy, or favoritism in public expenditures is criminal. But there is nothing in the condition of our country or of our people to suggest that anything presently necessary to the public prosperity, security or honor should be unduly postponed.

It will be the duty of Congress wisely to forecast and estimate these extraordinary demands, and, having added them to our ordinary expenditures, to so adjust our revenue laws that no considerable annual surplus will remain. We will fortunately be able to apply to the redemption of the public debt any small and unforeseen excess of revenue. This is better than to reduce our income below our necessary expenditures, with the resulting choice between another change of our revenue laws and an increase of the public debt. It is quite possible, I am sure, to effect the necessary reduction in our revenues without breaking down our protective tariff or seriously injuring any domestic industry.

The construction of a sufficient number of modern war ships and of their necessary armament should progress as rapidly as is consistent with care and perfection in plans and workmanship. The spirit, courage and skill of our naval officers and seamen have many times in our history given to weak ships and inefficient guns a rating greatly beyond that of the naval list. That they will again do so upon occasion I do not doubt; but they ought not, by premeditation or neglect, to be left to the risks and exigencies of an unequal combat. We should encourage the establishment of American steamship lines. The exchanges of commerce demand stated, reliable and rapid means of communication, and until these are provided the development of our trade with the States lying south of us is impossible.

Our pension laws should give more adequate and discriminating relief to the Union soldiers and sailors, and to their widows and orphans. Such occasions as this should remind us that we owe everything to their valor and sacrifice.

It is a subject of congratulation that there is a near prospect of the admission into the Union of the Dakotas and Montana and Washington Territories. This act of justice has been unreasonably delayed in the case of some of them. The people who have settled these Territories are intelligent, enterprising and patriotic, and the accession of these new States will add strength to the nation. It is due to the settlers in the Territories who have availed themselves of the invitations of our land laws to make homes upon the public domain that their titles should be speedily adjusted and their honest entries confirmed by patent.

It is very gratifying to observe the general interest now being manifested in the reform of our election laws. Those who have been for years calling attention to the pressing necessity of throwing about the ballot-box and about the elector further safeguards in order that our elections might not only be free and pure, but might clearly appear to be so, will welcome the accession of any who did not so soon discover the need of reform. The National Congress has not as yet taken control of elections in that case over which the Constitution gives it jurisdiction, but has accepted and adopted the election laws of the several States, provided penalties for their violation and a method of supervision. Only the inefficiency of the State laws or an unfair or partisan administration of them could suggest a departure from this policy.

It was clearly, however, in the contemplation of the framers of the Constitution that such an exigency might arise, and provision was wisely made for it. The freedom of the ballot is a condition of our National life, and no power vested in Congress or in the Executive to secure or perpetuate it should remain unused upon occasion. The people of all the Congressional districts have an equal interest that the election of each shall truly express the views and wishes of a majority of the qualified electors residing within it. The results of such elections are not local, and the insistence of electors residing in other districts that they shall be pure and free does not savor at all of impertinence.

If, in any of the States, the public security is thought to be threatened by ignorance among the electors, the obvious remedy is education. The sympathy and help of our people will not be withheld from any community struggling with special embarrassments or difficulties connected with the suffrage if the remedies proposed proceed upon lawful lines and are promoted by just and honorable methods. How shall those who practise election fraud recover that respect for the sanctity of the ballot which is the first condition and obligation of good citizenship? The man who has come to regard the ballot-box as a juggler's hat has renounced his allegiance.

Let us exalt patriotism and moderate our party contentions. Let those who would die for the flag on the field of battle give a better proof of their patriotism and a higher glory to their country by promoting fraternity and justice. A party success that is achieved by unfair methods or by practices that partake of revolution is hurtful and evanescent, even from a party standpoint. We should hold our differing opinions in mutual respect, and having submitted them to the arbitrament of the ballot, should accept an adverse judgment with the same respect that we would have demanded of our opponents if the decision had been in our favor.

No other people have a government more worthy of their respect and love, or a land so magnificent in extent, so pleasant to look upon, and so full of generous suggestion to enterprise and labor. God has placed upon our head a diadem, and has laid at our feet power and wealth beyond definition or calculation. But we must not forget that we take these gifts upon the condition that justice and mercy shall hold the reins of power, and that the upward avenues of hope shall be free to all the people.

I do not mistrust the future. Dangers have been in frequent ambush along our path, but we have uncovered and vanquished them all. Passion has swept some of our communities, but only to give us a new demonstration that the great body of our people are stable, patriotic and law-abiding. No political party can long pursue advantage at the expense of public honor or by rude and indecent methods without protest and fatal disaffection in its own body. The peaceful agencies of commerce are more fully revealing the necessary unity of all our communities, and the increasing intercourse of our people is promoting mutual respect. We shall find unalloyed pleasure in the revelation which our next census will make of the swift development of the great resources of some of the States. Each State will bring its generous contribution to the great aggregate of the Nation's increase. And when the harvests from the fields, the cattle from the hills, and the ores of the earth shall have been weighed, counted and valued, we will turn from them all to crown with the highest honor the State that has most promoted education, virtue, justice and patriotism among its people.

POSTAGE RATES.

THE CLASSES OF MAIL MATTER.

Domestic mail matter is divided into four classes, as follows:

First Class—Letters, postal cards, and matter wholly or partly in writing, whether sealed or unsealed (except manuscript copy accompanying proof-sheets or corrected proof-sheets of the same), and all matter sealed or otherwise closed against inspection.

Rate of Postage—Two cents per ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards, one cent each. On "drop" letters, two cents per ounce or fraction thereof, when mailed at letter-carrier's office; and one cent per ounce or fraction thereof at other offices.

Second Class—Newspapers and publications issued at stated intervals as often as four times a year, bearig a date of issue and numbered consecutively, issued from a known office of publication, and formed of printed sheets, without board, cloth, leather or other substantial binding. Such publications must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, art, or some special industry. They must have a legitimate list of subscribers, and must not be designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates.

Rate of Postage—One cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

Third Class—Books, periodicals and matter wholly in print (not included in second class), proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets and manuscript copy accompaning the same.

Rate of Postage—One cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

Fourth Class—Merchandise, namely, all matter not embraced in the other three classes, and which is not in its form or nature liable to destroy, deface or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag, or harm the person of any one engaged in the postal service. and not above the weight provided by law.

Rate of Postage—One cent per ounce or fraction thereof, but on seeds, cuttings, roots, scions and plants, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

THE LIMIT OF WEIGHT.

A package must not exceed four pounds in weight, unless it be a single book.

PAYMENT OF POSTAGE.

On first-class matter the postage should be fully prepaid, but if two cents in stamps be affixed, the matter will be forwarded and remainder due collected of addressee before delivery.

On Second-Class Matter—The postage must be fully prepaid.

On Third-Class Matter—The postage must be fully prepaid.

On Fourth-Class Matter—The postage must be fully prepaid.

WHAT MAY BE WRITTEN OR PRINTED ON MAIL MATTER.

Second Class—Name and address of persons to whom the matter is to be sent; index-figures of subscription book printed or written; printed title of publication, printed or written name or address, without advertisement of publisher or sender; written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating date on which subscription ends; correction of typographical errors, a mark, except by written or printed words to designate a word or passage to which it is desired, to call attention; the words, "sample copy"; publishers' or news agents' bills, receipts, and orders for subscription, but the same shall convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price, and amount of subscription due. The number of copies enclosed may be indicated on wrapper or face of package.

Third Class—Sender's name and address, with the word "from"; marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to word or passage; correction of typographical errors; on the blank leaves or cover of any book may be placed a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not like a personal correspondence; upon the address side of wrapper, envelope, tag or label must be left space sufficient for legible address and necessary stamps.

Fourth Class—With matter of this kind may be enclosed any mailable third-class matter. On wrapper, cover, tag or label may be written name and address of sender with word "from"; marks, numbers, names or letters for purposes of description, or same may be printed; any printed matter not in nature of a personal correspondence. On address side must be left space sufficient for legible address and necessary stamps.

THE REGISTRY SYSTEM.

All mail matter, including drop letters, may be registered; but not matter addressed to fictitious names, initials, or box numbers, or bearing vague and indefinite addresses.

The registry fee is ten cents in addition to postage. It must be prepaid by stamps affixed.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS.

1889, Dec. 30—Hon. Wilbur F. Sanders was chosen one of the Senators. The vote was: Senate—Sanders 7, B. Platt Carpenter 1. House—Sanders 38.

1890, Jan. 2—Hon. Thomas C. Power was chosen second Senator, in joint convention. He had 35 votes, 3 scattering.

The Democratic members of the Senate did not participate in these elections, but absented themselves from the sessions. They met in joint convention with the Democratic House, and participated with them in ballots for Senators. W. A. Clarke and Martin Maginnis were the nominees of the Democratic caucus, and, January 7, they received 37 votes and were declared elected.

The Prohibitory Amendment proposed to prohibit the manufacture, sale, or keeping for sale, of intoxicating liquor, to be used as a beverage. The Suffrage Amendment proposed to reduce the required residence of electors in an election precinct from sixty days to thirty days, and to strike out the clause requiring the payment, within two years, of a State or County tax assessed at least two months before the election.

For unofficial vote by counties, see p. 92, ALMANAC FOR 1889.

The Legislature counted the vote and declared the result on all the State officers voted for in November, 1888, except Governor, for which office it refused, by a partisan vote, to count the vote and declare the result. Instead of that it appointed a joint committee of five (two Republican Senators and three Democratic Representatives) to go over the State and examine witnesses as to irregularities in the election. The returns sent from the commissioners of the counties to the Secretary of State, and by him delivered to the Speaker of the House of Delegates, give Goff (Rep.) 78,714 votes and Fleming (Dem.) 78,604, as is admitted in the Fleming notice of contest. Fleming charges errors at the election, which, if corrected, would make the result: Goff, 77,672; Fleming, 78,623. Goff, in his counter-notice, charges errors which, if corrected, would make the result stand: Goff, 78,743 (or 78,938 if the votes at Lewisburg and Coalburg be counted as claimed by Fleming), and Fleming 76,851. The committee is to report at a called session of the Legislature. The question arose prior to March 4, 1889, as to the occupancy of the office after the expiration of the term of E. Willis Wilson, elected in November, 1884. On that day, March 4, 1889, Nathan Goff, Republican candidate, took the oath of office, as elected by the lawful returns forwarded from the offices of the clerks of the counties, and claimed the office. President of the Senate Robert S. Carr also took the oath of office, claiming it by virtue of the operation of the Constitution, no one having been declared by the Legislature as elected. The Supreme Court held that as the Legislature had the exclusive right to declare a result, and as such a declaration was essential to the right to exercise the office, the Court could not interfere. Ten days later (March 14) the Court held that Carr had no ground upon which to take the office; and that the Governor last elected, though ineligible for re-election, could continue to discharge the duties of the office until a legal declaration shall have been made.

The two houses passed a resolution that it is inexpedient to consider the proposition made in relation to the so-called West Virginia certificates of debt. The proposition was from New-York holders of Virginia deferred certificates, amounting to $8,000,000, which they offered to sell to West Virginia for $2,500,000 of West Virginia bonds, in compromise of the supposed share of West Virginia in the debt of Virginia.

The returns of the election for Representatives in the LIst Congress, upon which the Governor signed certificates of election in the Ist, IIId and IVth Districts, could not be procured in time for last year's Almanac. They are here presented, as gathered from the notices of contest now pending in the House of Representatives, and are compared with the like vote in 1886:

	Rep. Atkinson.	Dem. Pendleton.	Scat.	Rep. Goff.	Dem. Brannon.	Pro. Jones.
I.	19,242	19,261	380	17,559	16,732	205
	† Scat., 53.

Mr. Atkinson claims that after correcting the returns as set forth, he has a plurality. Mr. Pendleton claims that the true returns should be: Atkinson, 18,618; Pendleton, 19,280.

	McGinnis.	Alderson.	Scat.	Brown.	Snyder.	Clayton.
III.	14,631	15,944	700	14,041	14,906	547

Mr. McGinnis claims the true figures to be: McGinnis, 18,099; Alderson, 16,066. The explanation of the difference of vote is that several thousand votes in Pocahontas and Kanawha Counties were thrown out by county commissioners and were not certified to the Governor.

	Jackson.	Weakley.	Hutchinson.	Smith.	Hoge.	Smith.
IV.	19,834	19,837	225	15,689	16,484	538
	*G. W. Hays, 60.			*Scat., 1.

Mr. Smith claims the vote to be: Smith, 19,837; Jackson, 19,825; scattering, 469.

POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

ARIZONA TERRITORY—There are 8,000 Mormons in it. Governor Wolfley states that the first legislative act approved by his predecessor repealed the act disfranchising those who practised, taught or encouraged polygamy. He urges Congress to annul the repealing act and re-establish the former law.

CONNECTICUT—The Legislature elected the Republican candidates for State offices, 159 to 95. The first Secret Ballot law passed by the Legislature was vetoed as cumbersome, burdensome, expensive and inharmonious with existing laws. The House overruled the veto; the Senate sustained it. Subsequently a compromise bill passed both houses unanimously, and was approved. The law provides for an official blank ballot, furnished by the State at cost to such persons as desire to buy it. This is duly marked "official ballot" on the back, and no other ballots can be put in the box. There is opportunity for writing names on the ballots. Booths are provided for every 150 voters, in which they can retire secure from observation and prepare their ballots, and three minutes are allowed each voter. Then the voter enters an envelope booth, where he gets an envelope from the State, and in this envelope he places his ballot, enters the room where the ballot-box is, and deposits it in the ballot-box, sealed, in the presence only of the officials who are in charge of the box. He is then required to pass out through another way.

An act passed that no person shall be disqualified from being assistant town clerk, registrar of births, marriages and deaths, or of assistant registrar of births, marriages and deaths, by reason of sex.

DELAWARE—The House passed a bill to call a Constitutional Convention—yeas 15 (13 Republicans and 2 Democrats), nays 4 (1 Republican and 1 Democrat absent). The Senate defeated the bill. A Local Option bill passed the House; failed in the Senate by a vote of 4 to 5. A High License act makes license $300 in Wilmington, Dover and Newcastle, and $200 elsewhere; wholesale licenses, $100, and druggists', $20, to sell only on physicians' prescription, one sale to a prescription. Amendments to Assessment and Collection laws passed the House; failed in the Senate. The Australian Ballot bill was defeated in the House, Republicans except one against it, Democrats except one for it.

GEORGIA—Widows of Confederate soldiers who died in battle or from wounds received in the service or from hardships incident thereto, and not since married, to be pensioned if married to the soldiers at the time of service.

IDAHO TERRITORY—The vote on adopting a State Constitution was: Yeas 12,397, nays 1,645. Population, 113,777.

ILLINOIS—Submission of a Prohibitory Amendment failed.

INDIANA—The Supreme Court a judged unconstitutional the bill to d prive Indianapolis and Evansville of t power to control their own affairs—"t right of local self-government being part of the Constitutional Law of In ana." An Australian Ballot bill w passed. The Supreme Court decided th a municipal corporation has the power compel liquor-sellers engaging in the bu ness within two miles of the corpora limits to pay a license fee. The cou holds that the business requires restrai because it is harmful to society, and th the fee is exacted for the purpose of r stricting the business. The Supren Court has sustained the High License la passed by the Legislature last winter ar decided that a license is not a contract.

MAINE—Woman Suffrage defeated the House, 40 to 90. The Maine Hous by a vote of 84 to 48, passed a bill pr viding for the license of drug stores sell liquor in quantities not exceeding quart, on a physician's prescription.

MASSACHUSETTS—Woman Suffra defeated in the House, 78 to 127—th twenty-first defeat in that Stat Woman Suffrage on license question postponed to the next General Court, 9 to 54. The submission of the Prohib tory Amendment passed the House—yes 161 (Republicans 160, Independent 1 nays 69 (Democrats 50, Republicans 13 not voting 8 (Republicans 6, Democrat 2). In the Senate not a Democrat vote in the affirmative.

MICHIGAN—A Local Option la passed, and a Secret Ballot act. Tick ets are to be printed by the State, of uni form size, color and texture. A railin and gate in front of each polling place with a gatekeeper who shall admit bu one voter at a time, are provided for i the law, and also the construction booths in which the voter may prepare hi ballot in secrecy. Woman Suffrage wa defeated in the House.

MINNESOTA—The House defeate the submission of a Prohibitory Amend ment. An Australian Ballot system wa established. A law passed providing tha whoever becomes intoxicated by volun tarily drinking intoxicating liquors shal be deemed guilty of the crime of drunken ness, and upon conviction thereof shal be punished as follows: For the first of fence, a fine of not less than $10 nor mor than $40, or by imprisonment for not les than ten or more than forty days; for th second offence, imprisonment for not les than thirty nor more than sixty days, o by a fine of not less than $20 nor mor than $50; for the third and all subsequen offences, by imprisonment for not les than sixty days nor more than ninety days.

NTANA—The Australian Ballot is part of the constitution of the ate.

BRASKA—The question of Li- or Prohibition is to be submitted ember, 1890.

W-HAMPSHIRE—The Legislature the Republican candidates for ffices (there being no election by ple), 168 to 115.

W-JERSEY—The Sunset Election s repealed; also the Local Option last year. In its place is a law e-enacts the high-license features winter's act, the city licenses be- 0 and the rural licenses $150 and Those who sell by the quart are l to take out licenses, which has n the case hitherto. If a person any of the laws against selling a complaint may be made by three and if a conviction is secured the court or board granting the it is to be forfeited, and a sec- viction makes the licenses ineligi- old a license forever. If one-fifth ters of any township apply to the have the license fee increased in nship, naming a sum they desire, t is to order an election on the to be fixed. Retail sales in gro- ries are forbidden, and there are nor provisions of similar purport. nty option provisions of last win- are repealed, and the elections sulted against license in five coun- declared void. The vote in the as 32 (Dem. 31, Rep. 1) to 27 Re- s; in the Senate 11 yeas (Dem- 10 nays (Republican). The Chief Beasley) held, objection to a li- nse in Hunterdon County having ntly been made on the ground nterdon County had last year at no license should be granted , that, "by the repeal of last t, the prohibition against grant- ses has been done away with, and r and duty to grant licenses as of een restored." The Chief Justice license at from $100 to $400. ional Registration Act for New- Jersey City was repealed. The assed a Ballot Reform bill; it the Senate. A Legislative Re- g act was passed by a party vote House.

YORK—Governor Hill vetoed the Commission's bill and the Ved- uor Tax bill; both passed slature, substantially by Repub- es. He also vetoed the Saxton eform bill, similarly passed. He ed the New-York City Police and nmission bills. He signed Sen- ett's Prison Labor bill.

H CAROLINA—A new election been passed, modelled on that of rolina. The separate ballot boxes labelled, and voters are required ch the poll one at a time and ir several ballots in the proper ickets found in the wrong boxes ounted.

—The Supreme Court sustained ship Local Option Law.

SYLVANIA—The Constitutional nt to abolish the poll tax passed e 37 to 8, the House 142 to 1. The Prohibitory Amendment resolution passed the Senate, 32 (of whom 2 were Democrats) to 2 (both Republicans), other Democrats not voting; the House, 132 (7 Democrats) to 54 (9 Republicans).

RHODE ISLAND—The Legislature chose the Republican candidates for State offices, there having been no election by the people, except for Attorney-General. The bill to resubmit the Prohibitory Amendment passed the House, 41 to 25, the Senate, 22 to 15. A Ballot Reform bill passed the House, 34 to 31, the Senate, 25 to 5, to take effect June 30, 1889. After the defeat of Prohibition, the Legislature passed a License law, of which these are the main features:

Town councils in the towns and license commissioners in the cities may at once issue licenses in their districts to expire on May 1 next, the fees to go three-fourths to the cities or towns and one-fourth to the State. The Mayors are to appoint three commissioners to serve until April 1. The Mayors chosen this fall are to appoint in March, 1890, commissioners to serve one, two and three years. The Mayors may remove the commissioners for cause if 15 per cent (in towns 20 per cent) of the number of voters at the election for general officers next previous shall petition therefor. A vote may be taken each spring on the question of granting licenses in cities and towns. Whichever way the vote goes, so it shall stand until overturned at some subsequent annual election. The wholesalers' fees are not less than $500 nor more than $1,000. The retail licenses for Providence are $400; for the other cities, $350; for towns between 6,000 and 18,000 inhabitants, $300; for smaller towns, from $200 to $300. Wholesalers may not sell to unlicensed dealers, nor go bail for violators of the law. The penalties for violations of the law range from $20 and costs and ten days in jail to $100 and costs and six months in jail. Screens must be removed on Sundays. There are no restrictions as to number or location of licensed places, except that a majority of the occupants and owners of the property within 200 feet of a proposed saloon may prevent the issue of a license to such saloon.

SOUTH CAROLINA—The late Legislature repealed the Civil Rights Act, passed fifteen years ago, prohibiting in railroads, hotels and theatres, discrimination between persons on account of race. A high-license bill, after passing both Houses, was reconsidered and defeated. A bill requiring railroads to furnish separate and equal accommodations for passengers of both races was defeated.

TENNESSEE—At the vote on the Phohbitory Amendment in 1887, East Tennessee gave a majority of 12,769 for it; the other parts of the State, 40,462 against.

A new registration act was passed, applicable to districts polling 500 votes or more, and an Australian ballot system act, applicable to all elections in cities of 10,000 or more. The "Hermitage" has been set aside as a home for indigent or disabled Confederate soldiers.

of the oldest and most honored associations in the United States passed out of existence in 1889—the American Jockey Club and the Maryland Jockey Club. The former, the pioneer of racing in the North, and the recognized turf authority in this country for twenty-four years, was driven to disorganization by disastrous competition with a young and lusty society endowed with limitless capital—the New-York Jockey Club, whose racing grounds at Westchester, opened on August 20, cost the builder, John A. Morris, of the Louisiana Lottery, nearly $2,000,000. When the American Jockey Club decided in December to end its useful and honorable career, and say farewell to Jerome Park, most of its members announced their intention of joining the New-York Jockey Club. Mr. Morris having invited all to enter free. The Maryland Jockey Club died of general debility, aggravated by the supineness of the Baltimoreans, who had long since ceased to regard Pimlico as indispensable to the eternal salvation of the Monumental City.

Another death was that of the Rockaway Steeplechase Association, and with it died for a time steeplechasing in America. The beautiful Cedarhurst course was laid out in streets and town lots before the association had ceased to breathe.

Besides the New-York Jockey Club, with its superb and costly equipment, its toboggan-slide, mainstretch and its magnificent distances, three other new and promising racing associations appealed for public patronage in 1889—the Linden Park Blood Horse Association, the New-Jersey Jockey Club and the Twin City Jockey Club. On August 17 the last race was run on the old Monmouth Park course, and before the opening of the season of 1890 a new course will have been completed to take its place. On this track, the first of its kind in America, the horses will run the reverse way, or from left to right, instead of from right to left. Another noteworthy change made by the Monmouth Park Association was in its secretary, Captain J. H. Coster resigning and H. G. Crickmore ("Krik"), for twenty years the turf authority on "The World," succeeding to the office.

The foremost racing associations of the East combined in October for the collection of forfeits, and Captain J. H. Coster was appointed forfeit clerk, with headquarters in New-York.

NOTEWORTHY OCCURRENCES.

The most exciting finish of the year was that between Kingston, Los Angeles, Badge and Exile in the Oriental Handicap, Brooklyn, September 17, the four passing the judges' stand short heads apart.

The race for the Lorillard Stakes, Monmouth Park, July 9, caused a quarrel between Philip Dwyer and J. B. Haggin, which resulted in the withdrawal of the latter's horses from the stakes of the Brooklyn Jockey Club. Mr. Dwyer charged Mr. Haggin with unsportsmanlike conduct in starting Kern in that race.

The Ives Pool law in New-York was a dead letter so far as it related to betting in the city. The pool-rooms did a thriving business during the greater part of the season.

A. J. Cassatt sold his stable in October and retired from the turf.

Walter Gratz retired from the turf in August.

The hunter Rosebery, jumping of boards covered with tanbark, cleared bars at a height of 6 feet 11¾ inches—Chicago, Ill.

Proctor Knott sold by auction at Sheepshead Bay in September to Scoggan Brothers for $17,500.

Come-to-Taw sold in October to Hough Brothers for $10,500.

Pontiac sold privately to J. O. Donner for $10,000 and retired to the stud.

Trotting.

Many sensational flights of speed occurred in the course of the season, but Maud S.'s record of 2:08¾, made in 1885, remained untouched. The nearest approach to it was the 2:10½ mile trotted on the Bay District track, San Francisco Cal., November 9, by Senator Leland Stanford's three-year-old filly Sunol, by Electioneer. A few weeks after this performance Robert Bonner, the owner of Maud S., purchased Sunol for $45,000. The second best performance of the season was by the three-year-old colt Axtell, by William L., dam Lou, who trotted a mile in 2:12 at Terre Haute, Ind., on October 11, accompanied by Father John, the runner. The price paid for Axtell by his present owners, the proprietors of the Warren Park Farm, Terre Haute, was $105,000, the largest sum by $25,000 ever paid for a horse in this country or elsewhere. The young stallion made the season at Warren Park, at the phenomenal fee of $1,000.

Maud S.—32½, 82, 31, 33¼—2:08¾.
Jay-Eye-See—33½, 32½, 33, 31—2:10.
Sunol—32, 33, 32¼, 33¼—2:10½.
Guy—32¼, 33¼, 32¾, 32½—2:10¾.
St. Julien—32¾, 32¼, 33¼, 33—2:11¼.
Axtell—33, 32¼, 32½, 34¼, 2:12.
Stamboul—33, 32¼, 34½, 32½—2:12¾.
Palo Alto—32¼, 32¾, 34, 33¼—2:12¾.

HAPPENINGS OF THE YEAR.

Bell Boy sold by auction for $51,000 to J. H. Clark and G. H. Hooper, Lexington, Ky., Feb. 21. These gentlemen afterward rejected an offer of $100,000 for him. (Burned to death on Jan. 11, 1890, at Versailles, Ky., with 35 other valuable horses.)

Stamboul sold by L. J. Rose to W. S. Hobart for $50,000, California, Feb.

Prince Wilkes sold by G. A. Singerly for $30,000 to go to Cuba, March.

Kirkwood died, New-York, April 1.

Kentucky Volunteer, valued at $20,000, died of paralysis, Paris, Ky., May 22.

Axtell trotted a mile in 2:15½, breaking three-year-old record; St. Paul, Minn., July 2.

Belle Hamlin trotted a mile against time in 2:12¾, lowering her record; Rochester, N. Y., August 27.

Alcryon won Charter Oak Guaranteed Stakes, $10,000, Nelson taking first heat—2:14¼, 2:16½, 2:17½, 2:19½; Hartford, Conn., August 28.

Balch Stallion Stakes, $10,000, won by Nelson, Alcryon 2d, Pilot Knox 3d, Junemont 4th—2:18½, 2:17¼, 2:18¾; Beacon Park, Boston, Mass., September 23.

Satellite trotted 5 miles, quarter-mile track, in 13.51¼; Warsaw, Ill., October 3.

Axtell trotted a mile in 2:12, in a trial against time, accompanied by Father John, the runner, establishing new stallion record; Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 11.

Match, $5,000 a side, $2,500 added, best two in three; Belle Hamlin beat Harry Wilkes—2:16¾, 2:19¼; Morrisanis, N. Y., Oct. 11.

Sunol trotted a mile against time in 2:10½, beating three-year-old record made by Axtell; Bay District track, San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 9.

YACHTING AND CANOEING.

The yachting season of 1889 was the most lively one for many years, and was marked by unprecedented additions to the American yacht fleet. The features were the creation of the "forty-footer" fleet, the organization of the New-York Yacht Racing Association, and an abortive attempt by the New-York Yacht Club and the Royal Yacht Squadron to arrange an international race. A chronological list of important yachting occurrences of the year, together with a record of the principal races, is here given.

Jan. 31.—The New-York Yacht Racing Association organizes at the Gilsey House. Delegates were present from the Albany, Columbia, Jersey City, Knickerbocker, Newark, Newark Bay, New-Rochelle, New-Jersey, Sing Sing, Tappan Zee, Williamsburg, Yonkers, Yonkers-Corinthian, Pavonia and Staten Island Yacht Clubs.

BASEBALL.

The year of 1889 was a red letter one in the history of baseball, and 1890 promises to be just as eventful. Whether recent developments will enhance the popularity of the sport, time alone can tell. In 1889 more games were played than ever before, and the general attendance at the games was larger. All the professional clubs made money, except those which were handicapped by extravagant management.

The year brought out many remarkable features pertaining to the game, the most striking being the tour around the world under the management of A. G. Spalding, the millionaire ex-ball player. Games were played in places where even the name of America is seldom heard, one match being played in Egypt before one of the great pyramids of Gizeh.

The year also saw the first rebellion in the history of the game, the players of the National League, under an organization called the Brotherhood, seceding from their old managers and forming an association of their own called the Players' League. This movement, at first confined to the players of the League, spread and afterward included many of the players of the American Association and the minor leagues. John M. Ward, Frederick Pfeffer, Edward Andrews, Edward Hanlon, and Daniel Brouthers were the players' leaders in the revolt. The club owners combined to block the movement and took the matter into the courts. The players signed a stringent oath to stick by each other, but desertions from their ranks were numerous, nevertheless.

The amateur clubs prospered during the year, and there were more regularly organized nines than in any previous year. Only three clubs battled for the intercollegiate pennant, and Yale, by defeating Harvard on June 25 by 8 to 4, won the trophy. On June 29 Williams College defeated Amherst by 8 to 5, and won the championship of the American College Association. The Staten Island cricket team won the American League championship of New-York with seven victories and three defeats, after a close fight with the Staten Island Athletic and Crescent Athletic teams.

The "Giants," of New-York, again won the League pennant, repeating their record of 1888. The Boston team was the only real competitor the "Giants" had and finished second, with Chicago third, Philadelphia fourth, Pittsburg fifth, Cleveland sixth, Indianapolis seventh, and Washington eighth. The last championship games were played on October 5, and the race between New-York and Boston was so close that the pennant question was in doubt until the last game had been played

On October 9 the National League of Great Britain was formed at a meeting held in London.

The American Association's championship season closed on October 15, the Brooklyn team winning the pennant. The St. Louis finished second, Athletic third, Cincinnati fourth, Baltimore fifth, Columbus sixth, Kansas City seventh and Louisville eighth.

The Atlantic Association held its annual meeting on October 16. The offices of president, secretary, and treasurer were combined and J. M. Braden was chosen to fill the new office—New-York City.

From October 18 to 29, inclusive, the New-York and Brooklyn clubs, winners respectively of the pennants of the National League and American Association, contended for the world's championship, the series being the best six in eleven games, played alternately in New-York City and Brooklyn. The New-Yorks won, being victorious in the second, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth games by the respective scores of 6 to 2, 11 to 3, 2 to 1, 11 to 7, 16 to 7, and 3 to 2. The Brooklyns won the first, third and fourth games by the respective scores of 12 to 10, 8 to 7, and 10 to 7. Eleven innings were played in one game and nine innings in each of five games. The three games won by the Brooklyns were limited by darkness, twice to eight innings and once to six innings.

The season of the Central Interstate League closed on September 27, with the Quincy team winners of the pennant.

The championship season of the International Association closed on September 28, with the Detroit team winner of the pennant, Syracuse second, Rochester third, Toledo fourth, Toronto fifth, London sixth, Buffalo seventh, and Hamilton eighth.

The Atlantic Association's first season closed on September 29, the Worcester team winning the championship; Newark being second, Hartford third, New-Haven fourth, and Lowell fifth. The Jersey City, Wilkesbarre and Easton teams disbanded before the season closed.

The Western Association's season closed on September 30, the Omaha team winning the pennant, with the St. Paul second, Minneapolis third, Sioux City fourth, Milwaukee fifth, Denver sixth, St. Joseph seventh and Des Moines eighth.

The Michigan State League closed its season on October 4, with the Jackson and Saginaw clubs claiming the championship, which was subsequently awarded to the former at the annual meeting.

The Harrisburg (Penn.) Club won the Middle States League championship, the season closing on September 10.

The Canton Club won the Tri-State League pennant, the season closing on September 15.

The Central Interstate League came to a disastrous end on September 16. The Davenport Club had such a lead in the race that the remaining clubs withdrew from the contest.

The Jackson Club won the trophy of the Michigan State League, being awarded the pennant at a meeting held on October 31.

On January 4 the Texas League was formed; on January 5, the Middle States League; on January 12, the Central Interstate League.

On January 21 the Southern League was reorganized.

Clubs of Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia met on January 29 and organized the Tri-State League. The Atlantic Association was organized on the same day at a meeting at Jersey City. Lowell, Worcester, Jersey City and Newark were represented. The New-Haven, Wilkesbarre, Hartford and Easton teams were afterward admitted.

The American College Association met at Boston on February 8, and the pennant for 1888 was awarded to the Williams College team.

The first great game of the year was played on February 10. Twelve innings were played at Marysville, Cal., between the local club and the Alta team, of Sacramento. No runs were scored until the twelfth inning, when the Atlas scored 3.

On March 5 the National League met at Washington, D. C., and the American Association met at Columbus, Ohio, on the same day. Each adopted its schedule. Two days later the New-York State League was organized.

On March 16, at Pittsburg, Umpire Decker brought suit against the National League, but lost his case.

On March 19 the International Association met at Rochester, the Atlantic Association at Jersey City, the Middle States League at Philadelphia, and the Southern League at Chattanooga.

The Chicago and All-America combination, under the direction of A. G. Spalding, arrived in New-York on April 6, having completed a trip to Australia and through Europe that was virtually commenced November 18, 1888, when they sailed from San Francisco in the steamship Alameda. On April 8 the teams were tendered a banquet at Delmonico's; on the 11th another banquet at Philadelphia, and still another at Chicago on April 19.

On April 20 the teams played in Chicago the fifty-third and last game of the series, commenced October 20, 1888, in the same city. The All-Americas were credited with twenty-eight victories, and the Chicagos with twenty-two victories, while three were drawn with the score a tie, in the games played in this country, Australia and Europe.

On May 2 Kuoull shut out the Philadelphia Giants without a safe hit in the game at Reading. On May 3, the Rochester team made the only run in an eleven-inning game at Rochester. Murphy made three home run hits in game at New-Haven.

On May 19, at the annual meeting of the Ballplayers' Brotherhood, John M. Ward was re-elected president and T. J. Keefe secretary and treasurer.

Fourteen innings were played by the Young America and Norristown teams, the former winning, on May 23, by 6 to 5, at Norristown, Penn.

The twelve games played morning and afternoon on Decoration Day (May 30), by the clubs of the American Association and National League, attracted an attendance of 83,578.

The Pittsburg club made the only and winning run in a game with the Indianapolis team at Pittsburg on June 3.

Forty-one safe hits, with a total of sixty-six bases, were made in the Wilkesbarre-Hartford game on June 6. The Wilkesbarre team scored sixteen runs in the ninth inning.

On June 13 the Louisville players struck at Baltimore and refused to play. On the following day the American Association held a special meeting in New-York City and ordered the Louisville club to fulfil its obligations to its players under penalty of expulsion.

In a game at Sunbright, Tenn., between amateur clubs, Davidson Hall, one of the players, was fatally stabbed by Walter R. Staples, who was umpiring.

The clubs of the American Association and National League each played two games on July 4, the total attendance at the sixteen championship games being estimated at 97,344.

On July 8 the new grounds of the New-York club, at One-hundred-and-fifty-fifth-st. and Eighth-ave., this city, were formally opened, the New-York team then defeating the Pittsburgs by a score of 7 to 5.

On July 20 the Staten Island Athletic and Cricket clubs played fifteen innings without a run being scored. Bates and Tyng were the pitchers.

The twelve games played in the morning and afternoon of Labor Day (September 2) by the National League and American Association clubs attracted an estimated attendance of 75,362.

On September 7 Captain Comiskey, claiming it was too dark to play, took the St. Louis team off the field in the ninth inning of the game with the Brooklyns at Washington Park, Brooklyn, the score being 4 to 2 in his favor. Umpire Goldsmith declared the game forfeited in favor of the Brooklyn club. On September 23 at a special meeting of the American Association, Umpire Goldsmith was dismissed and his decision in the St. Louis-Brooklyn game was reversed, the game being awarded to the St. Louis club by the score of the eighth inning, 4 to 2. Guy Hecker was appointed umpire in Goldsmith's place.

The National League held its annual meeting on November 13, 14 and 15. The membership was increased to ten clubs by the admission of the Brooklyn and Cincinnati clubs.

The annual meeting of the American Association was held on November 13, 14, 15 and 16. The Brooklyn, Cincinnati and Kansas City clubs withdrew, the last named to join the Western Association.

Ed. Crane is said to have thrown a ball 135yds. 1ft. ½in. on October 12, 1884, in Cincinnati, and 134yds. 5in. on October 19, 1884, in St. Louis. On January 5, 1889, he threw a cricket ball 128yds. 10½in. at Melbourne, Australia.

The largest number of innings played was 24, in the Harvard-Manchester match, at Boston, Mass., May 11, 1877.—The quickest played game, 47 minutes, was between the Dayton and Ironton clubs, at Dayton, on Sept. 19, 1884. The greatest distance at which a ball was thrown was 133yds. 7½in., by John Hatfield, at Brooklyn, on Oct. 15, 1872. The largest number of games played in one season was 188, by the Detroit club, between March 11 and Oct. 26, inclusive, 1887. The largest number of games credited to one player was 184, to S. L. Thompson, of the Detroit club, in 1887.

CRICKET.

The cricket season of 1889 was altogether the most prosperous ever known in the country. Although no team from England, Ireland or Australia visited these shores during the year, the home cricketers have had an exceptionally busy season. Several new clubs have been formed, and in Philadelphia there are now fifty cricket organizations. Efforts are being made to establish a Cricketers' Association, which shall be the ruling power in all matters appertaining to the game, and by which all disputes between contending clubs shall be settled.

The Staten Island Cricket Club did little work during the year, playing only 12 games, of which they won 7 and lost 3, while the remaining 2 were drawn. The average number of games played in and about New-York numbered 20, while that for clubs in other cities of the Union was 15. The Halifax and Club Record cups, which are competed for by the leading clubs of the country, were won by the Germantown Club, which defeated the Belmont, Merion, Young America and Philadelphia clubs. In the contest for the Halifax Cup the Germantown Club scored 1,147 runs for a loss of 71 wickets. In 1889 the points won and lost by each club were as follows:

	W'n.	L'st.		W'n.	L'st.
Germantown	50	9	Philadelphia	19	36
Belmont	43	27	Tioga	15	51
Merion	34	25
YoungAmer	25	38	Total	186	186

None of the clubs finished its series, and the Germantown Club retained the trophy.

During their visit to England, Ireland and Scotland the Gentlemen of Philadelphia played twelve matches. Out of these they won four and lost three, while the remainder were drawn. The record was as follows:

	Runs.	Wickets lost.	Avrge.
Gentlemen of Phila.	4,860	173	25.20
Opponents	4,614	190	24.28

The following list includes the principal games played in this country during the season.

THE NEW NAVY.

The new navy of the United States received its first start in 1881, when, under the direction of Secretary W. H. Hunt, the first Advisory Board was appointed to report upon the pressing need of appropriate vessels to replace the old wooden vessels, many of which were unfit for repair. The Advisory Board, consisting of fifteen naval officers, and with Rear-Admiral John Rodgers as president, met early in June, and in November it made a report recommending the building of thirty-eight unarmored steel cruising vessels. Of these, two were to be of 5,873 tons displacement, six of 4,560 tons, ten of 3,013 tons, and twenty of 793 tons. But it was not until March, 3, 1883, that Congress made an appropriation to build four vessels "as recommended by the Naval Advisory Board in its report, December 20, 1882." A contract was made with John Roach & Sons to build these four vessels—the Chicago, 4,500 tons; the Atlanta and Boston, 3,189 tons each, and the Dolphin, 1,485 tons. In the building of these vessels there was an impetus given to the iron and steel industries throughout the land which promises steady employment to hundreds of thousands of men. The gun trials, the speed, and all that pertains to the construction and behavior of these four modern ships proves the wisdom of maintaining the Navy in a state of usefulness and dignity. The Dolphin recently completed a most successful cruise around the world, and is now on duty in the West Indies. The Boston and Atlanta have had successful cruises, and, with the Chicago, are now in Europe, with the Squadron of Evolution. The next legislation providing for the construction of modern steel war vessels was on March 3, 1885, the last day of President Arthur's (Republican) Administration. Other appropriations have since been made, and when the vessels provided for have been finished, the Navy will have twenty-nine new steel unarmored and armored cruising vessels.
